NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia
Monday, January 13, 2020

The Senate was called to order at 12:04 p.m. by the President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Habib presiding. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present. The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard, composed of Trooper Eifert, Trooper Gallanger, Trooper Maguire, and Trooper Tobol presented the Colors. The National Anthem was performed both in song and sign by high school students in the American Sign Language Program at River Ridge High School in Lacey, led by Ms. Cathy Boos. Father Michael Holland of St. Leo’s Parish, Tacoma offered the prayer.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUEST

The President welcomed and introduced Ms. Claudia Castro, Washington State Poet Laureate, who was seated at the rostrum. With the permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Washington State Poet Laureate Claudia Castro to address the Senate.

Poet Laureate Ms. Claudia Castro: “Thank you Honorable Lieutenant Governor. Good morning members of the Senate. It is an honor to be here this morning as the Poet Laureate of Washington State to contribute with poetry to this important occasion, which underscores the working of our democracy”

Morning Star

*Along the way
you do things
you don’t want to do, things, you know
you should not do, things you don’t know how to stop doing.
No one can see beyond the wave’s crest.
Then you find yourself sitting there, wherever you are blemished and imperfect.
That is life. This carrying on of our dented selves alongside the spoonful of sugar
we also carry within.
A sweet grain for each good, right thing we too have done
along the way.*

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Now, the moment you’ve all been waiting for, the President’s welcome remarks. That’s what it says here on the script. I want to begin by wishing everyone a very Happy New Year. I hope that however you celebrated the holidays and the new year that every member of this chamber and those who work with us here in the Washington State Senate had the opportunity to enjoy time with loved ones and a time to celebrate all that was good in 2019 and look forward to 2020.

I want to just say a couple things real briefly. First of all, we can’t do this enough. We can’t say this enough. How much we, who are in elected office, rely on and appreciate the hard work of those who work here, not in elected office, but who are parts of our staffs whether as working for individual members or in the partisan or nonpartisan staffs working in as part of our security under the Sergeant at Arms. All those who make the Senate and indeed the entire Legislature function so well. We say it all the time and yet I’m continually convinced that the public does not fully recognize the degree to which we are all successful because of them and while I know that members did in many cases work straight through the interim, all of these folks work year-round and for them the distinction between session and interim is not nearly what it is for the members of the Senate. So, would you please join me in thanking all the work that the staff did during the interim months before we got back here?”

The senate rose and recognized the staff of the senate.

“I also want to say a word of welcome to all those who are visiting us as guests in the gallery, in the galleries this afternoon. You may be here to witness the swearing in of friend or loved one. Or you may just be here to observe your government in action but please know how welcome members of the public are here in the Washington State Senate. We’re so proud of our tradition of open government here and that these galleries are not only open and available but indeed welcoming to members of the public of all ages and we particularly love it when young people come to learn about how the Senate works. And so, please know that during these sixty days members of the public are warmly invited and of course we love it when members of the families of our senators have an opportunity to come and visit us because we know the kinds of sacrifices that families make in order to allow all of you here to do your jobs.

I want to say one more thing before we begin the ceremony of swearing in three members of the Senate. I want to recognize that there are two senators who left this chamber and but did so after we had adjourned sine die last year and so we are going to be swearing in and celebrating their replacements in just a moment but I do want to take a moment to recognize the work that they both put in. Senator Guy Palumbo of the 1st Legislative District and Senator Barbara Bailey of the 10th District both of whom I was very fortunate to get a chance to work with and get to know over the years. And I want to make a special note of Senator Barbara Bailey, just simply because of the years of service that she put into this institution to the House, to the Senate at the state of Washington. Her care for those who are marginalized. Near and dear to my heart is her care for those with disabilities which came through in so many different ways in legislation and budget items, but we wish both Senator Palumbo and Senator Bailey all the best and I know they’ll be opportunities to celebrate their legacies.

Finally, on a personal note, I want to say that please know, I say this to all the senators, you know I hope you know that if there’s something I do with which you disagree while we’re in the floor session here please feel free to come to me speak to me about it. If there’s anything that is making your time here your ability to represent your district challenging or causing any anxiety for you or obstacle to you in getting what you need done, I know I speak for the Secretary of the Senate Brad Hendrickson, the Sergeant at Arms Andy Staubitz, the other folks up here at the rostrum, when I say, please come to us directly we’re here to support you. I’m here to support you and so too are all the rest of these fine folks who work so hard. So, once again, congratulations on all of you for being here on the first day and for what I know will be a very productive session ahead.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the third order of business.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

Office of the Governor
Legislative Building
416 Sid Snyder Avenue, SW
Suite 200
Olympia, WA 98504

RE: Resignation from the Washington State Senate as of May 24th, 2019

Dear Governor Inslee,

I am writing to notify you that I am resigning as Senator for the 1st Legislative District effective May 24th, 2019 at 9 AM.

Therefore, pursuant to RCW 42.12.020, please accept my resignation from the Washington State Senate accordingly.

If you have any questions, or if I may provide any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Guy F. Palumbo

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

August 16, 2019

Governor Jay Inslee
Office of the Governor
PO Box 40002
Olympia, WA 98504-0002

Governor Inslee:

After much prayer and discussion with my family, I have made the decision to step down from my Senate seat effective September 30th, 2019. This decision was not taken lightly; however, I believe now is the best time to make this move. I have been giving this decision a lot of thought for the past 3-4 months. Spending quality time with my family and church has been difficult at best, and unworkable at other times. There are significant projects and ventures in which my husband and I want to be involved while we are still reasonably healthy and mobile.

I leave with a great sense of accomplishment of some significant issues which were passed into law, and which have made life for our citizens more efficient and meaningful. Specifically, making higher education more affordable in our public institutions, better support for our veterans and their dependents, improved health care for our aging population, and as Chair of the Select Committee for Pension Policy, ensuring long-term sustainability at a time when other pension systems around the country were in crisis. Our pension system now ranks among the most stable in the nation.

I plan to stay engaged with those programs affecting the well-being of our senior citizens to ensure they have improved access and resources for their care and dignity. It has been my honor to have served the state of Washington, and specifically the citizens of the 10th District. I will always be available for consultation and continued service when and where needed.

Respectfully,

Barbara Bailey
Washington State Senator
District 10

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Liias moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 8657

By Senator Liias

WHEREAS, The Senate adopted permanent rules for the 2019-2021 biennium under Senate Resolution 8601; and

WHEREAS, The notice requirements set forth in Senate Rule 35 have been satisfied;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Rules 41, 45, and 49 are amended as follows:

“Rule 41. The president shall appoint all conference, special, joint and standing committees and standing subcommittees on the part of the senate. The appointment of the conference, special, joint and standing committees and standing subcommittees shall be confirmed by the senate.

In the event the senate shall refuse to confirm any conference, special, joint or standing committee or standing subcommittee, such committee or standing subcommittee shall be elected by the senate.

The following standing committees shall constitute the standing committees of the senate:

Standing Committee	Total Membership
1. Agriculture, Water, Natural Resources & Parks	7
2. Early Learning & K-12 Education	11
3. Environment, Energy, & Technology	15
4. Financial Institutions, Economic Development & Trade	7
5. Health & Long-Term Care	11
6. Higher Education & Workforce Development	((7)) 5
7. Housing Stability & Affordability	7
8. Human Services, Reentry & Rehabilitation	7
9. Labor & Commerce	((7)) 9
10. Law & Justice	7
11. Local Government	5
12. Rules	16 (plus the Lieutenant Governor)
13. State Government, Tribal Relations & Elections	7
14. Transportation	15
15. Ways & Means	24

The following constitutes a standing subcommittee of the senate:

1. Behavioral Health Subcommittee to Health & Long-Term Care	5”
--	----

“Rule 45. 1. At least five days’ notice shall be given of all public hearings held by any committee other than the rules committee. Such notice shall contain the date, time and place of such hearing together with the title and number of each bill, or identification of the subject matter, to be considered at such hearing. By a majority vote of the committee members present at any committee meeting such notice may be dispensed with. The reason for such action shall be set forth in a written statement preserved in the records of the meeting.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

2. No committee may hold a public hearing during a regular or extraordinary session on a proposal identified as a draft unless the draft has been made available to the public at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing. This rule does not apply during the five days prior to any cutoff established by concurrent resolution nor does it apply to any measure exempted from the resolution.

3. During its consideration of or vote on any bill, resolution or memorial, the deliberations of any committee or subcommittee of the senate shall be open to the public. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct at any such deliberations, the chair shall order the sergeant at arms to suppress the same and may order the meeting closed to any person or persons creating such disturbance.

4. No committee shall amend a measure, adopt a substitute bill, or vote upon any measure or appointment absent a quorum. A committee may conduct a hearing absent a quorum. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum and committees shall be considered to have a quorum present unless the question is raised. Any question as to quorum not raised at the time of the committee action is deemed waived.

5. Bills reported to the senate from a standing committee must have a majority report, which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form; shall be adopted at a regularly or specially called meeting during a legislative session and shall be signed by a majority of the committee; and shall carry only one of the following recommendations:

- a. Do pass;
- b. Do pass as amended;
- c. That a substitute bill be substituted therefor, and the substitute bill do pass; or
- d. Without recommendation.

In addition to one of the above-listed recommendations, a report may also recommend that a bill be referred to another committee.

6. A majority report of a committee must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee. In the event a committee has a quorum pursuant to subsection 4 of this rule, subject to the limitation of subsection 12 of this rule, a majority of the members present may act on a measure, subject to obtaining the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee on the majority report.

7. Any measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment still within a committee's possession before it has been reported out to the full senate may be reconsidered to correct an error, change language, or otherwise accurately reflect the will of the committee in its majority and minority reports to the full senate. Any such reconsideration may be made at any time, by any member of the committee, provided that the committee has not yet reported the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out to the full senate. Any such reconsideration made after a vote has been taken or signatures obtained will require a new vote and signature sheet. Any measure which does not receive a majority vote of the members present may be reconsidered at that meeting and may again be considered upon motion of any committee member if one day's notice of said motion is provided to all committee members. For purposes of this rule, a committee is deemed to have reported a measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out when it has delivered its majority and minority reports to the senate workroom. After such delivery, the committee no longer has possession of the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment and no further committee action, including reconsideration, may be taken.

8. Any member of the committee not concurring in the majority report may sign a minority report containing a recommendation of "do not pass" or "without recommendation," which shall be signed by those members of the committee subscribing thereto, and submitted with the majority report. Unless the signatory of a minority report expressly indicates a "do not pass" recommendation, the member's vote shall be deemed to be "without recommendation." In every case where a majority report form is circulated for signature, a minority report form shall also be circulated.

9. When a committee reports a substitute for an original bill with the recommendation that the substitute bill do pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute bill the first time and have the same ordered printed.

A motion for the substitution of the substitute bill for the original bill shall not be in order until the committee on rules places the original bill on the second reading calendar.

10. No vote in any committee shall be taken by secret ballot nor shall any committee have a policy of secrecy as to any vote on action taken in such committee.

11. All reports of standing committees must be on the secretary's desk one hour prior to convening of the session in order to be read at said session. During any special session of the legislature or within three days of sine die, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote of those present.

12. When a standing committee is operated by cochair, the committee may not vote upon any measure or appointment without the consent of each cochair.

13. When a standing committee has a standing subcommittee established under Senate Rule 41, the chair of the committee may rerefer any measures referred to the committee to the standing subcommittee with the consent of the ranking member of the committee or, in the event of a dispute between the chair and ranking member, referral may occur with a majority vote of the committee."

"Rule 49. All bills reported by a committee to the senate shall then be referred to the committee on rules for second reading without action on the report unless otherwise ordered by the senate. (See also Senate Rules 63 and 64.) A bill may not be referred to the committee on rules for second reading unless a standing committee has held a public hearing on the bill."

Senators Liias and Short spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8657.

The motion by Senator Liias carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

Senator Liias moved adoption of the following resolution:

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

April 18, 2019

Lt. Governor Cyrus Habib
President of the Senate
Legislative Building
Olympia, WA 98504

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Senate Bill 5503 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 18th Day of April 2019.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5503

April 17, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Senate Bill No. 5503 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to state board of health rules regarding on-site sewage systems.”

I am vetoing Section 3 of this bill. This section is unnecessary and precludes local health jurisdiction staff from conditioning an on-site septic permit once an easement for the system has been granted. The granting of an easement should not eliminate the ability of an inspector to correct problems of a system that they are inspecting. The new section of this bill (Section 2) significantly increases protections for homeowners and provides assurance that on-site inspections will be done properly and fairly.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Senate Bill No. 5503.

With the exception of Section 3, Senate Bill No. 5503 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Jay Inslee
Governor

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Substitute Senate Bill 5710 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 18th Day of April 2019.

Secretary of StateMESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5710

April 17, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5710 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to the Cooper Jones active transportation safety council.”

I am vetoing Section 3, the emergency clause, because it is not necessary. The new council created by the bill has no plans to convene before August 2019. Vetoing Section 3 of the bill in no way diminishes the bill’s overall traffic safety goals.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5710.

With the exception of Section 3, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5710 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Senate Bill 5022 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 1st Day of May 2019.

Secretary of StateMESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5022

April 30, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 2, Senate Bill No. 5022 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to granting binding interest arbitration rights to certain higher education uniformed personnel.”

This bill establishes interest arbitration for uniformed personnel, which is defined as sworn police officers employed as a member of a police force established by state universities, regional universities, or the Evergreen State College. Section 2 amends current law and exempts such arbitration awards from submission to the Office of Financial Management to be certified as financially feasible. This could result in requiring the governor to include funds necessary to implement the award in his/her budget regardless of whether it was financially feasible.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Although I support granting interest arbitration to uniformed personnel, it is important to ensure that any award from interest arbitration must be submitted for certification of financial feasibility before being included in the governor’s budget proposal. This check and balance on arbitration awards protects the governor’s discretion in developing future budget proposals.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 5022.

With the exception of Section 2, Senate Bill No. 5022 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5274

May 8, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 6, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5274 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to dental coverage for Pacific islanders residing in Washington.”

I am vetoing section 6 because it is an unnecessary emergency clause. This veto will not disturb the substantive provisions of this bill, but will avoid confusion about the start date of the dental program. The dental program is funded to begin January 1, 2021, and outreach and engagement communications will begin 90 days from today under the normal enactment period of the bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 6 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5274.

With the exception of Section 6, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5274 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 5, Senate Bill No. 5360 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to plan membership default provisions in the public employees’ retirement system, the teachers’ retirement system, and the school employees’ retirement system.”

Section 5 of this bill declares an emergency and makes the bill effective immediately. However, the bill as it passed the legislature makes the provisions of the bill effective a year later than the date in the original bill. This change means that the emergency clause is no longer needed.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 5360.

With the exception of Section 5, Senate Bill No. 5360 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/
Jay Inslee
Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

May 13, 2019

Lt. Governor Cyrus Habib
President of the Senate
Legislative Building
Olympia, WA 98504

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Senate Bill 5054 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 13th Day of May 2019.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5054

May 9, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 4, 5, and 6, Senate Bill No. 5054 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to increasing the behavioral health workforce by establishing a reciprocity program to increase the portability of behavioral health licenses and certifications.”

Senate Bill 5054 will help out-of-state applicants to more easily and quickly become integrated into

Washington State’s behavioral health workforce. Sections 4, 5 and 6 direct the Department of Health to conduct a study to explore options for adoption of an interstate compact or compacts supporting license portability for certain professionals. I agree with the intended purpose of the bill; however, the final budget did not provide funding for the Department to perform this study and the cost of this work cannot be absorbed.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 4, 5, and 6 of Senate Bill No. 5054.

With the exception of Sections 4, 5, and 6, Senate Bill No. 5054 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
Jay Inslee
Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL
NO. 5287

May 21, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5287 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to ensuring accurate redistricting by counting individuals in state custody as residents of their last known place of residence.”

Section 3 is an unnecessary emergency clause. Under the bill, the Department of Children, Youth, and Families; Department of Corrections; and Department of Social and Health Services must perform a residence determination process between April 1 and July 1 of each year ending in zero. Without the emergency clause, this bill will take effect under the standard enactment period, which is well before the first deadline of April 1, 2020. This veto will not disturb the substantive provisions of this bill and will provide the impacted agencies with adequate time to determine the last known place of residence for those persons who are in state custody.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5287.

With the exception of Section 3, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5287 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Second Substitute Senate Bill 5672 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

May 21, 2019

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 28th Day of May 2019.

Kim Wyman
Secretary of State

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 15, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5418 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to local government procurement modernization and efficiency.”

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5418 will help improve procurement processes for local governments. Section 15 of the bill amends RCW 87.03.435 relating to irrigation districts. Section 2 of a different bill passed by the Legislature this year, Engrossed Senate Bill 5453, contains the same amendments as well as other changes. Therefore I am vetoing Section 15 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5418 to avoid these double amendments and any confusion at the Office of the Code Reviser.

I would also note that the Legislature did not provide funding for the Capital Projects Advisory Review Board to review the public works contracting processes for local governments, including the small works roster and limited public works processes as set forth in Section 16. I am directing my Office of Financial Management to work with the Department of Enterprise Services to identify resources so they can begin this important work. In addition, I will be asking the Legislature to include full funding of this study in the 2020 supplemental operating budget.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 15 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5418.

With the exception of Section 15, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5418 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL
NO. 5672

May 21, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 6, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5672 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to adult family home specialty services.”

Section 6 contains a null and void clause. The enacted budget references the bill number, but does not provide specific funding. Therefore, the bill might be void if this section is not vetoed. The Department of Social and Health Services agrees that this work is important, so it will begin this work without additional resources.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 6 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5672.

With the exception of Section 6, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5672 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
VETO ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5573

May 8, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5573 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to domestic violence and traumatic brain injury.”

Sections I and 2 of ESB 5573 are duplicative of sections in SHB 1532. Since SHB 1532 has already been signed into law, there is no need to duplicate those provisions by signing this bill as well. In addition, Section 2 of both ESB 5573 and SHB 1532 will become ineffective as this same section of law is amended in SHB 1225, which amends the statute to move the relevant language to a new statute in Chapter 10.99 RCW. For these reasons, I am vetoing ESB 5573.

The Criminal Justice Training Commission will incorporate the training required in Section I of the bill into the existing domestic violence training conducted at the Basic Law Enforcement Academy Training. Additionally, the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs will work with the sponsors of both ESB 5573 and SHB 1532 to draft a letter to their membership encouraging they provide the information suggested by the bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5573 in its entirety.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 7, 2020

To the Honorable Lt. Governor Cyrus Habib, President of the Senate, and the Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In compliance with the provisions of Article III, Section 11 of the Constitution of the state of Washington, the Governor hereby submits his report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon that he has granted since the adjournment of the 2019 Regular Session of the 66th Legislature, copies of which are attached.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF JAMES ALLEN WARD

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings: WHEREAS, in 2001, James Allen Ward pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 00-1-04773-0. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Ward entered several small businesses, and displayed a weapon or threatened to use a weapon in order to steal cash.

WHEREAS, these convictions followed other earlier serious felony convictions, resulting in Mr. Ward being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ward has served over 18 years in prison for this offense. But for his status as a persistent offender, he would have been released from prison several years ago.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ward's criminal history was largely a result of his addiction to cocaine. Through the entirety of his incarceration, Mr. Ward has maintained his sobriety, never failing a drug test.

WHEREAS, in March 2019, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Ward's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Ward has shown remorse for his past conduct, and he has a strong family support network, including his wife, prepared to assist him in any eventual transition to the community. Testimony also demonstrated that Mr. Ward is sincerely committed to maintaining his sobriety, and he has secured multiple offers of employment once he is released to the community.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Ward's petition.

WHEREAS, in 2019, Washington State passed into law SB 5288, which removes second degree robbery from the list of offenses that can qualify an individual as a persistent offender. But this new law only applies prospectively, not retroactively. Consequently, because at least one of Mr. Ward's strike offenses is a second degree robbery, were he convicted for his present offense today, he would not qualify as a persistent offender and thus not face a life sentence on the current offense.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Ward's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Ward's ongoing sobriety, his strong family and community support network, and his multiple offers for employment upon release.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE James Allen Ward's 2001 sentence for FIRST DEGREE

ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 00-1-04773-0, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than May 1, 2021. While in custody, N'fr. Ward must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Ward satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by May 1, 2021, DOC shall have the authority to release him after first completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Ward must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Ward shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
4. Obtain employment or enroll in productive educational, vocational, or other programming, as approved by DOC.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC approval before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.

8. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
9. Not possess burglary tools, other than tools used for legitimate work purposes, as determined by DOC.
10. Complete a DOC-approved mental health evaluation and follow any recommendations, as directed by DOC.
11. Complete a chemical dependency assessment and complete any treatment recommendations, as directed by DOC.
12. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including medications or marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
13. Do not possess chemicals which one could reasonably believe may be used to make illicit drugs, as determined by DOC.
14. Not visit or work in bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol or marijuana is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
15. Attend regular community addiction support programming, as directed by DOC.
16. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
17. Report to periodic polygraph testing as part of supervision compliance monitoring, as determined by DOC.
18. Not associate with or make contact with known criminal felons, gang members, drug dealers, or individuals on active community supervision or in prison unless approved by DOC.
19. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
20. Complete the Thinking for a Change program during the first 90 days on community supervision.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Ward shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Ward is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Ward to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants of detain Mr. Ward if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Ward violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Ward will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violation and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Ward has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Ward is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Ward submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Ward an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Ward has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. ward is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Ward will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Ward may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Ward may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Ward will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 17th day of December, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
PRENTERS BROUGHTON III

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2000, a jury found Prenters Broughton III guilty of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 00-1-00828-9. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Broughton entered a Tacoma art store and threatened to shoot the cashier with a firearm before stealing over $200 in cash.

WHEREAS, these convictions followed other earlier serious felony convictions, resulting in Mr. Broughton being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington’s persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Broughton has served over 19 years in prison for this offense. But for his status as a persistent offender, he would have been released from prison several years ago.

WHEREAS, Mr. Broughton’s criminal history was largely a result of his addiction to controlled substances. He has been sober for the last ten years, and he has not had a serious prison infraction in over a decade.

WHEREAS, in March 2019, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Broughton’s clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Broughton has shown remorse for his past conduct, and he enjoys a strong family support network. On release he plans to live with and support his mother, and he claims to have friends prepared to provide him employment opportunities. Testimony also demonstrated that Mr. Broughton is sincerely committed to maintaining his sobriety as an active participant in addiction support groups.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Broughton’s petition.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1995, a jury found Daniel Eugene Anderson guilty of two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-5565-4. The convictions followed events in which Mr. Anderson entered business establishments with a handgun and demanded money from cashiers that he then used to fund a heroin addiction.

WHEREAS, these convictions followed other earlier serious felony convictions, resulting in Mr. Anderson being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Anderson has served over 24 years in prison for these crimes. But for his status as a persistent offender, he would have been released from prison over a decade ago.

WHEREAS, in March 2019, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Anderson's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Anderson has shown remorse for his past conduct, and he has a strong support network prepared to assist him in any eventual transition to the community. Testimony also demonstrated that Mr. Anderson achieved sobriety 11 years ago, and he has shown a committed work ethic and dedication to self-improvement while in prison.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Anderson's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Anderson's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Anderson's strong family and community support network, and their ability to help him with shelter, employment, and emotional support. It also cited the support from the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Daniel Eugene Anderson's 1995 sentence for two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-5565-4, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than April 1, 2021. While in custody, Mr. Anderson must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Anderson satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by April 1, 2021, DOC shall have the authority to release him after first completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Anderson must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Anderson shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
4. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational, vocational, or other programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
8. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
9. Complete a chemical dependency assessment and complete any treatment recommendations, as directed by DOC.
10. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including medications or marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
11. Do not possess chemicals which one could reasonably believe may be used to make illicit drugs, as determined by DOC.
12. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol or marijuana is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
13. Attend regular community Narcotics Anonymous programming, as instructed by DOC.
14. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
15. Not associate with known criminal felons or gang members, unless approved by DOC.
16. Have no contact with known drug dealers, or individuals on active community supervision or in prison unless approved by DOC.

17. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
18. Complete the Bridges to Life program before transitioning to work release; he must also complete the Thinking for a Change program during the first 90 days on community supervision.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Anderson shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Anderson is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Anderson to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Anderson if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Anderson violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Anderson will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Anderson has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Anderson is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Anderson submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Anderson an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Anderson has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Anderson is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Anderson will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Anderson may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Anderson may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Anderson will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 25th day of October, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
RICHARD ROBERT KENT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, after a trial, Richard Robert Kent was found guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Whatcom County Superior Court Cause No. 96-1-960-4. The conviction followed events in 1996 when, while wearing a mask, Mr. Kent approached two tellers in a credit union, and demanded cash.

WHEREAS, this conviction followed two earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Kent being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kent served over 20 years on this conviction. Had he not been sentenced as a persistent offender, his maximum sentence would have been 10 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kent is now 65 years old and is experiencing significant health problems.

WHEREAS, in June 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Kent's clemency petition. There was no opposition to his petition from the Whatcom County Prosecuting Attorney's Office or any of his victims.

WHEREAS, in the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Kent's sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kent received a Conditional Commutation on December 5, 2017. That order conditioned Mr. Kent's release on his compliance with several conditions, including his abstaining from using or possessing any controlled substances without a valid prescription and approval by the Department of Corrections.

WHEREAS, in June 2019, while on community supervision, Mr. Kent tested positive for methamphetamines, a violation of the terms of his Conditional Commutation that could result in the revocation of his Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, despite violating the terms of his Conditional Commutation, Mr. Kent enjoys a strong support network that has pledged to continue to help him transition to the community. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under Article III Section 9 of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 9.94A.885 and RCW 9.95.260, hereby amend Richard Robert Kent's 2017 Conditional Commutation. Under these amended terms, following any statutorily required notifications, and as soon as program space is available for him, DOC shall release Mr. Kent to begin intensive outpatient services with Pioneer Human Services. And upon his release from custody, Mr. Kent shall also begin serving a 36month term of DOC community supervision. During this period under community supervision, Mr. Kent must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Kent shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program, as well as any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, or personal property.
4. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
8. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and proper insurance.
9. Complete a chemical dependency and substance abuse treatment assessment and follow DOC recommendations relating to substance abuse counseling.
10. Not possess or use alcohol or any controlled substances, including marijuana, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
11. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
12. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
13. Not possess stolen property or unauthorized tools not associated with approved work, as determined by DOC.
14. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Kent shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Kent is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Kent to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Kent if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Kent violates any of the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Kent will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Amended Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Kent has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Kent is in custody, to his place detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Kent submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Kent an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Kent has violated the terms of this Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Kent is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Kent will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Kent may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Kent may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Kent will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
TRAVIS MICHAEL BASSETT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999 and 2000, Travis Michael Bassett pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and FIRST DEGREE VEHICLE PROWLING in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause Nos. 99-1-2085-6 and 00-1-1170-0. The robbery conviction occurred after Mr. Bassett, then 17 years old, broke into a woman's home with another teenager, hit the victim and stole several thousands of dollars' worth of her possessions. The vehicle prowling conviction came after Mr. Bassett broke into a motor home and stole several items from inside.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bassett accepts responsibility for his behavior as a teenager, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying off over $37,000 in victim restitution and other legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bassett has committed no other felonies since these two convictions. After serving his sentence, Mr. Bassett joined the Washington Army National Guard. In this role he twice deployed to Iraq, and he has been promoted to serve in leadership positions within the National Guard.

WHEREAS, in March 2019, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Bassett's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Bassett testified that these convictions on his record preclude him from consideration for further promotion to certain professional leadership opportunities within the National Guard.

WHEREAS, at his hearing, Mr. Bassett also testified that in 2008 he married his wife, and together, they have purchased a home and started a family.

WHEREAS, the Spokane County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Bassett's petition for a pardon.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Anderson be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime, Mr. Bassett was just 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant Travis Michael Bassett this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON for his FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and FIRST DEGREE VEHICLE PROWLING convictions in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause Nos. 99-1-2085-6 and 00-1-1 170-0.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 14th day of October, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

SECOND AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
JOSEPH SCOTT WHARTON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Joseph Scott Wharton was convicted on April 22, 1997, after a bench trial, on five counts of Second Degree Robbery in King County Superior Court Cause Number 97-1-00657-7 and sentenced to a life in prison under Washington's persistent offender statute. Over the course of a month in 1996 and 1997, Mr. Wharton approached clerks in stores and banks and demanded money. He often held his hand in his pocket to suggest that he had a gun.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wharton received his first and second strikes after similar robberies in which he entered stores and confronted clerks, suggested he was carrying a firearm, and then ordering the clerk to provide him money.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wharton unequivocally accepted responsibility and expressed remorse for his past crimes and apologized for his actions to his victims, his family, and the state of Washington.

WHEREAS, at the time of his conviction, the standard range for Mr. Wharton's offense was 33 to 43 months. The maximum sentence for Second Degree Robbery in the state of Washington, without the three strikes law, is 84 months.

WHEREAS, in December 2012, Mr. Wharton's petition for clemency, in which he was seeking a commutation, was heard by the Clemency & Pardons Board.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Wharton had shown considerable rehabilitation while incarcerated. He participated in programming to improve his life skills, enhance his education, and remain free from substance abuse.

WHEREAS, King County Prosecutor Daniel Satterberg reviewed Mr. Wharton's clemency petition, and supported his petition. Also supporting Mr. Wharton's petition was the sentencing judge on his "third strike" offense, retired Judge Michael J. Fox, who was so unsettled by having to direct such a sentence in the case of a non-violent offender, that he encouraged Mr. Wharton seek a commutation.

WHEREAS, following his hearing, the Clemency Board unanimously recommended that the governor commute Mr. Wharton's sentence.

WHEREAS, on July 30, 2013, I commuted Mr. Wharton's sentence, contingent on a series of terms to which Mr. Wharton agreed, including refraining from drug and alcohol use, participating in a residential treatment program, and regularly reporting with his community corrections officer for urinalysis testing. In October 2013, however, Mr. Wharton left his residential substance treatment program without permission and was later found to have violated the terms of his community custody multiple times.

WHEREAS, following the findings that Mr. Wharton violated the terms of his July 30, 2013, Conditional Commutation, I revoked Mr. Wharton's Conditional Commutation on February 19, 2014.

WHEREAS, in the years following the revocation of Mr. Wharton's Conditional Commutation, he continued to show personal growth and maturity, and on July 6, 2017, I amended his Conditional Commutation to allow him another chance to transition to the community.

WHEREAS, after several months in the community following his re-release, Mr. Wharton again was found to have violated the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation, this time when he was found to have used illicit drugs.

WHEREAS, despite again violating the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation, Mr. Wharton still enjoys the support of King County Prosecutor Daniel Satterberg and his sentencing Judge Michael J. Fox, who would both like to see Mr. Wharton receive another chance to successfully transition to the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under Article III Section 9 of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 9.94A.885 and RCW 9.95.260, hereby amend Joseph Scott Wharton's 2017 Amended Conditional Commutation. Under these amended terms, following statutorily required notifications, and as soon as space is available for him, Mr. Wharton shall be released to Pioneer Center North for an inpatient substance abuse treatment program of at least 30 days. And upon his release from custody, Mr. Wharton shall also begin serving a 36-month term of DOC community supervision.

During this period of community supervision, Mr. Wharton shall:

1. Participate in a substance abuse and/or chemical dependency evaluation as directed by DOC and complete any recommendations that follow;

2. Participate in any residential drug or alcohol treatment programs, as directed by DOC;
3. Participate in chemical dependency and substance abuse support groups when not in residential treatment, as directed by DOC;
4. Not use, possess, or consume alcohol or other controlled substances, unless taken under medical supervision;
5. Submit to regular and random urinalysis and breathalyzer testing, as directed by DOC;
6. Report to and be available to regularly meet with a DOC officers as directed by DOC;
7. Be subject to regular home/employment visits, and be subject to home, automobile and personal property searches;
8. Not associate with drug users or dealers, and avoid taverns, bars, and other sites where alcohol or drugs are the primary commodity sold, as directed by DOC;
9. Not possess, receive, ship, or transport a firearm, ammunition, or explosives;
10. Comply with the terms of any applicable judgment and sentence orders;
11. Participate in DOC-approved education, training, employment and employment training, and/or community service programs;
12. Receive prior approval from DOC for any employment changes or changes in living arrangements or residence;
13. Allow DOC to conduct such home visits as DOC deems appropriate;
14. Not travel beyond the county of residence, unless approved in writing by DOC;
15. Have no direct contact with any victims or their families, unless approved by DOC;
16. Report to DOC any contact with law enforcement within 24 hours of the occurrence;
17. Enroll in and successfully complete the Thinking for a Change program, or similar program, as approved by DOC; and
18. Obey all laws and comply with all conditions, recommendations, orders, and instructions of community placement as directed orally or in writing by DOC.

PROVIDED that Mr. Wharton shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Wharton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Wharton to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Wharton if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Wharton violates any of the conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Second Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Second Amended Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Wharton has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr.

Wharton is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Wharton submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has in fact complied with all conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Wharton an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Second Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor’s final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Wharton has violated the conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Wharton is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Second Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that Mr. Wharton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Wharton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Wharton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 27th day of September, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
EUSTACE RUDOLPH JENNINGS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999, a jury found Eustace Rudolph Jennings guilty of four counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and two counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 98-1-03607-1. The convictions followed events in which Jennings entered a series of establishments, confronted employees—leaving them with the impression he was armed—and demanded money. He never physically harmed any victims.

WHEREAS, these conviction followed other convictions, resulting in Mr. Jennings being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington’s persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, over the term of his sentence, Mr. Jennings has been a model prisoner, with just one infraction on his prison record. He has been infraction-free for the last thirteen years.

WHEREAS, in December 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Jennings’ clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Jennings’ lengthy criminal record was linked to substance abuse. He achieved sobriety twenty years ago, having committed himself to Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous programs.

WHEREAS, Mr. Jennings faces deportation to his native Turks and Caicos. There, he has a support network of family, who has agreed to house and employ him, should he be released from custody here in Washington.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecutor does not object to Mr. Jennings’ petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Jennings’ sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited his outstanding prison record, his classification as a low-risk to reoffend, and his strong familial support network in Turks and Caicos.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Eustace Rudolph Jennings’ 1999 sentence for four counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and two counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 98-1-03607-1, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than February 1, 2020. If Mr. Jennings satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by February 1, 2020, DOC shall have the authority to release him to federal authorities on the active immigration detainer relating to his removal order to Turks and Caicos. If, before being deported, federal authorities release Mr. Jennings in Washington, he will then begin serving DOC community supervision for 36 months or until he is deported, whichever comes first. During this period in DOC custody and under DOC community supervision, Mr. Jennings must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Jennings shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational or vocational programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status within 24 hours of that change.
4. Obtain and complete any recommended treatments as determined by DOC after completion of any in-custody assessments.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.

6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Be subject to DOC curfews.
8. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
11. Not possess tools other than those approved by DOC.
12. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
13. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
14. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
15. Be subject to polygraph testing as determined by DOC.
16. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
17. Not associate with known criminal felons or gang members without DOC approval.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Jennings shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Jennings is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Jennings to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Jennings if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Jennings violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Jennings will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Jennings has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Jennings is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Jennings submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Jennings an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Jennings has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Jennings is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked immediately and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Jennings will be returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Jennings may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Jennings may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Jennings will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 8th day of August, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF TRACY HOGGATT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996, Tracy Lynn Hoggatt was found guilty of FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY and BAIL JUMPING in Cowlitz County Superior Court Cause Nos. 951-00539-7 and 96-1-00036-9. In 1995, Mr. Hoggatt, while armed, broke into a victim's home to steal their property when they were out of the house.

WHEREAS, this burglary conviction was Mr. Hoggatt's "Third Strike" offense under Washington's persistent offender statute, and he was sentenced to life without the possibility of parole.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoggatt accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. While in prison, he has taken steps to turn his life around and developed a strong sense of empathy. He has completed numerous personal development programs.

WHEREAS, in March 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hoggatt's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from friends, family, and supporters in the community.

WHEREAS, the Cowlitz County Prosecuting Attorney expressed no opposition to Mr. Hoggatt's petition. And the victims did not express any opposition to the petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Hoggatt's sentence. He received a Conditional Commutation in January 2017.

WHEREAS, in October 2018, following that Conditional Commutation and while on community supervision, Mr. Hoggatt violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation when he associated with known criminals, failed to reside at an approved residence, and possessed and consumed alcohol. And involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the

Now, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by Virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, AMEND the January 16, 2017, CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION of Tracy Lynn Hoggatt's sentence for his 1996 convictions for FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY and BAIL JUMPING in Cowlitz County Superior Court Cause Nos. 95-1-00539-7 and 96-1-00036-9, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Mr. Hoggatt will be released from custody to enter and complete a program with Mountain Ministries, or a similar program as deemed appropriate by DOC. He must complete any DOC-recommended programs aimed at preparing him for a successful reentry to the community, including chemical dependency treatment. Upon release from custody, Mr. Hoggatt shall serve 24 months of DOC community supervision. During this period of supervision, Mr. Hoggatt must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Hoggatt shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC or his CCO.
2. Complete a treatment assessment and follow recommendations resulting from that assessment.
3. Be available for regular contact with DOC and his assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home visits and or searches, to include searches of his person or automobiles. These visits must include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Mr. Hoggatt has exclusive or joint control or access.
4. Enroll in educational programming or obtain legal, verifiable CCO-approved employment.
5. Obtain permission from his CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
6. Not travel outside of his county of residence without prior written approval from his CCO.
7. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
8. Not possess stolen property.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver license and proper insurance.
10. Report to his CCO all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
11. Not consume, possess, or distribute alcohol or controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
12. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary item being served, unless he receives approval from his CCO.
13. Obtain an Alcoholics Anonymous/Narcotics Anonymous sponsor and attend regular meetings as recommended by his CCO.
14. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by his CCO.
15. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without first consulting his CCO.
16. Enroll in, and successfully complete any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Hoggatt shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision.

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Hoggatt is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Hoggatt to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Hoggatt if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hoggatt violates any of the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hoggatt will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Amended Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Hoggatt has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Hoggatt is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Hoggatt submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Hoggatt an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Hoggatt has violated the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hoggatt is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hoggatt will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Hoggatt may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Hoggatt may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Hoggatt will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

GARY MELBERT THOMAS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999 Gary Melbert Thomas was found guilty of five counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 98-1-06914-3. In 1998, an unarmed Mr. Thomas entered several Seattle-area banks, each time threatening the tellers and demanding cash.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Mr. Thomas as a “Three Strikes” persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. In addition to this conviction, Mr. Thomas has been convicted of multiple robberies and a burglary, dating back to the early 1970s.

WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas has served over 18 years on this matter.

WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. He has taken personal development courses in prison, and he has taught art classes to individuals as part of the University Behind Bars program.

WHEREAS, much of Mr. Thomas’ past criminal behavior resulted from his 30-year addictions to heroin and crack cocaine. Mr. Thomas is now over 70 years old and is suffering from stage-four liver disease as well as a chronic heart condition.

WHEREAS, in June 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Thomas’ clemency petition, and unanimously recommended that the Governor grant him a Conditional Commutation. He received that Conditional Commutation in January 2017.

WHEREAS, in May 2019, following that Conditional Commutation and while on community supervision, Mr. Thomas violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation when he tested positive for having consumed heroin.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney supported Mr. Thomas’ initial clemency petition, and it continues to support Mr. Thomas even after his violation. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, the circumstances of his actions that violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, AMEND the January 10, 2017, CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION of Mr. Thomas’ sentence for his 1999 convictions on five counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Mr. Thomas will be released from custody to enter and complete an in-patient treatment program with Pioneer Human Services at Pioneer Center North, or a similar program as deemed appropriate by DOC. He must complete any DOC-recommended programs aimed at preparing him for a successful reentry to the community. Upon release from custody, Mr. Thomas shall serve 24 months community supervision. During this period of supervision, Mr. Thomas must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Complete recommended treatment programming at Pioneer Center North, or a similar program as determined by DOC, and any after-care programs recommended by the facility or DOC.

3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits and or searches to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Mr. Thomas has exclusive or joint control or access.
4. Obtain legal employment or enroll in educational programming, upon approval of his residence treatment provider and/or completion of his treatment, as directed by DOC.
5. Obtain written permission from DOC before traveling outside his county of residence.
6. Obtain permission from DOC before changing residences, even for one night.
7. Not open a bank account or enter a bank without consulting DOC and having a verifiable legitimate reason.
8. Be subject to polygraph testing as required by DOC.
9. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition or dangerous weapons.
10. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrences.
11. Not consume, possess, or distribute controlled substances without a valid physician’s prescription.
12. Follow prescribed medical treatment as determined by a health care provider or DOC.
13. Not visit bars and taverns, unless he receives approval from DOC.
14. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by DOC.
15. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal history without first consulting DOC.
16. Enroll and successfully complete any other programming as recommended by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Thomas shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Thomas is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Thomas to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Thomas if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Thomas violates any of the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Thomas will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor’s intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Amended Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Thomas has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Thomas is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Thomas submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Thomas an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a

OF SOK KROUCH

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1997, a teenage Sok Krouch drove a carload of friends to an individual’s house. On arrival, his friends left his car and fired gunshots at the victim. Mr. Krouch, who was not carrying a weapon, remained in the car during the assault.

WHEREAS, a jury found Mr. Krouch guilty of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT, as an accomplice, in Cowlitz County Superior Court, Cause No. 97-1-00156-8. The trial court sentenced Mr. Krouch to 162 months in prison.

WHEREAS, Mr. Krouch has accepted full responsibility for his actions and served his full sentence. Since this incident, Mr. Krouch has purchased a home and started a family with his longtime partner and her daughter.

WHEREAS, Mr. Krouch has no other felony criminal convictions on his record since this event.

WHEREAS, since his release from state prison, Mr. Krouch has checked in with federal immigration authorities 23 times. Due to his conviction, Mr. Krouch now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Cambodia, a country from which he and his family fled as refugees when he was a young child.

WHEREAS, the victim was invited to provide input as to Mr. Krouch’s petition, but declined to offer an opinion.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Krouch receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited his strong familial and community networks, the possibility that a pardon may allow him to gain more substantial employment, and the fact that he has already served several years on this conviction.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed the pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime and the consequences that this deportation will have on Mr. Krouch and his family, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Sok Krouch this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT in Cowlitz County Superior Court, Cause No. 97-1-00156-8.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 18th day of June, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF VAN HAM

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1997, Van Ham touched the breasts of his then-girlfriend’s pre-teen daughter and her pre-teen friend. He pleaded guilty to one count of SECOND DEGREE CHILD MOLESTATION in King County Superior Cause No. 98-1-8709-5 SEA. The trial court sentenced Mr. Ham to 15 months in prison and required him to register as a sex offender for 15 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ham has accepted full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. Since this incident, Mr. Ham has steadily worked to support his family, which includes his long-time partner, and several children and grandchildren.

WHEREAS, this is the only criminal conviction on Mr. Ham’s criminal record.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. Ham’s conviction, he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Cambodia, a country from which he and his family fled as refugees when he was a young man.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office does not object to Mr. Ham’s petition. Both of Mr. Ham’s victims were invited to provide input as to Mr. Ham’s petition. One of the victims chose to submit written testimony, and she supports Mr. Ham’s petition for a pardon.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Ham receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited his lack of other criminal history, his family’s reliance on his support, his connection to his community, and the fact that he now faces deportation to a country that he does not know.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed the pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime and the consequences that this deportation will have on Mr. Ham and his family, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Van Ham this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for SECOND DEGREE CHILD MOLESTATION in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 98-1-8709-5 SEA.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
PERCY LEVY

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2003, Percy Levy pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, and one count of SECOND DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 02-1-02453-4. The convictions followed events in which Levy and accomplices entered a drug house armed, intending to secure more drugs. They engaged in a physical confrontation with the home's occupants and threatened additional violence. They fled the home with drugs and other valuables.

WHEREAS, following these actions, a court sentenced Mr. Levy to 296 months on the offenses. He is expected to be released from prison in April 2026. He has had no prison infractions since 2006.

WHEREAS, Mr. Levy's two accomplices received significantly lower prison sentences of three and six years.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Levy's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Levy's lengthy criminal record was linked to his drug addiction. He achieved sobriety over 15 years ago, and since then, he's demonstrated tremendous personal growth. While incarcerated, he has earned an associate's degree and become a published author.

WHEREAS, Mr. Levy has been accepted into a transition program that he will enter upon his release from custody. He will eventually live with his wife of over eight years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Levy's sentencing judge described his sentence as unduly harsh, and had he had the discretion, states that he would have ordered a lesser sentence. He supports Mr. Levy's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Levy's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited his turnaround since achieving sobriety. It also noted his intelligence, ability to cultivate strong relationships, and his strong network of friends and family that will support his transition back to the community on his release from prison.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Percy Levy's 2003 sentence for FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, and one count of SECOND DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 02-1-02453-4, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than September 1, 2020. While in custody, Mr. Levy must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Levy satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by September 1, 2020, DOC shall have the authority to release him after first completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will serving 48 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in under community supervision, Mr. Levy must comply with any conditions DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Levy shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved vocational programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in 24 hours of that change.
4. Engage in programming that teaches anger, stress, and aggression within first 18 months of community supervision.
5. Obtain and complete any recommended treatments as determined by completion of any in-custody assessments.
6. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved even if just for one night.
7. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
8. Be subject to DOC curfews.
9. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
10. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
11. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
12. Not possess tools other than those approved by DOC.
13. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
14. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
15. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
16. Be subject to polygraph testing as determined by DOC.
17. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
18. Not associate with known criminal felons or gang members without DOC approval.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Levy shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Levy is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Levy to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Levy if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Levy violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Levy will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Levy has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Levy is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Levy submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Levy an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Levy has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Levy is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Levy will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Levy may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Levy may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Levy will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 8th day of April, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1995, a jury found Frank Albert Angehrn, Jr. guilty of two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, one count of ATTEMPTED FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, and one count of ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-06563-3. The convictions followed events in which Mr. Angehrn, while addicted to methamphetamines, repeatedly entered business establishments and demanded money from cashiers, sometimes showing a weapon.

WHEREAS, these convictions followed other earlier robbery convictions involving weapons, resulting in Mr. Angehrn being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Angehrn has served over 23 years in prison for these crimes. But for his status as a persistent offender, the top end of the standard range for his convictions would have resulted in a sentence of less than 15 years.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Angehrn's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Angehrn has shown remorse for his past conduct. Mr. Angehrn achieved sobriety in 2004, and since then he has had no prison infections. He is currently classified as a low risk to reoffend.

WHEREAS, Mr. Angehrn has flourished in an intensive substance abuse program. He has found a sponsor at an outpatient treatment center to support him upon his release, and he had been accepted into a Pioneer Human Services program to help him with his community transition.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney does not object to Mr. Angehrn's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Angehrn's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited his 23 years in prison for crimes that typically carried a shorter sentence. The Board also noticed the difference in Mr. Angehrn's behavior once he achieved sobriety.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Frank Albert Angehrn Jr. 's 1995 sentence for two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, one count of ATTEMPTED FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, and one count of ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-06563-3, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than September 1, 2020. While in custody, Mr. Angehrn must successfully complete a DOC approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Angehrn satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by September 1, 2020, DOC shall have the authority to release him after first completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 48 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Angehrn must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Angehrn shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational or vocational programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
4. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
5. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
6. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
7. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
8. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
9. Not possess tools other than those approved by DOC for authorized purposes.
10. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including medications or marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
11. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol or marijuana is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
12. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
13. Not associate with known criminal felons or gang members, as directed by DOC.
14. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Angehrn shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Angehrn is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Angehrn to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants to detain Mr. Angehrn if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Angehrn violates any conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Angehrn will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Angehrn has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Angehrn is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Angehrn submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Angehrn an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Angehrn has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Angehrn is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Angehrn will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Angehrn may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person of to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Angehrn may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Angehrn will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 21st day of March, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF SILAS JESS ROBBINS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Silas Jess Robbins pleaded guilty to two counts of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT in Skagit County Superior Court Cause No. 03-1-00732-2. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Robbins, under the influence of drugs and alcohol, assaulted with a pocket knife two security guards at a casino.

WHEREAS, following these actions, a court sentenced Mr. Robbins to 240 months on the offenses. He is expected to be released from prison in September 2021.

WHEREAS, this is the only felony offense on Mr. Robbins' criminal record. Mr. Robbins has not received any prison infractions in ten years, and he maintains a low risk level classification.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Robbins' clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Robbins has shown remorse for his past conduct. When he is released from prison, he has a construction job awaiting him, as well as living accommodations and reliable transportation.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, the Skagit County Prosecuting Attorney does not object to Mr. Robbins' petition. One of Mr. Robbins' victims supports his petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Robbins' sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited the lack of other felonies on his criminal record and his history of good behavior while in custody. It also noted his strong network of friends and family that will support his transition back to the community on his release from prison.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Silas Jess Robbins' 2004 sentence for his two counts of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT in Skagit County Superior Court Cause No. 03-1-00732-2, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than April 1, 2020. While in custody, Mr. Robbins must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. He will then begin serving 48 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Robbins must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Robbins shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational or vocational programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status within 24 hours of that change.
4. Complete any recommended mental health evaluations, treatment, or programming, as determined by DOC.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Be subject to DOC curfews.
8. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
11. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.

12. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
13. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
14. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Robbins shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Robbins is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Robbins to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Robbins if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Robbins violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Robbins will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Robbins has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Robbins is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Robbins submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Robbins an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Robbins has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Robbins is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Robbins will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Robbins may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Robbins may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Robbins will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
LAURA MICHELLE BREM

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, over a month-long period in 1987 and 1988, Laura Michelle Brem, committed a series of crimes in order to feed her heroin addiction. She ultimately pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY (King County Superior Court No. 88-1-02334-1); FORGERY, SECOND DEGREE THEFT, and SECOND DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY (King County Superior Court No. 87-1-05109-5); FORGERY (King County Superior Court No. 87-1-04249-5); and three counts of SECOND DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY (Snohomish County Superior Court No. 88-100592-8).

WHEREAS, none of these convictions resulted in a victim experiencing physical harm. In 1992, Ms. Brem achieved sobriety, and she has had no criminal convictions in the years since.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Brem's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Ms. Brem is a committed volunteer in her community who works directly with at-risk youth to provide them mentorship and support. Ms. Brem explained that these convictions may encumber her pursuit of future work in her professional career as an electrical engineer.

WHEREAS, the King County and Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorneys do not oppose her petition for a pardon.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted 4-0 to recommend that Ms. Brem receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited her dedication to her community and her lack of a criminal record since her sobriety.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Laura Michelle Brem this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of her convictions for FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY (King County Superior Court No. 88-1-02334-1); FORGERY, SECOND DEGREE THEFT, and SECOND DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY (King County Superior Court No. 87-1-05109-5); FORGERY (King County Superior Court No. 87-1-04249-5); and three counts of SECOND DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY (Snohomish County Superior Court No. 88-1-00592-8).

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
EDWARD ALLEN STEWARD

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2006, a jury found Edward Allen Steward guilty of FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING and SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Clallam County Superior Court Cause No. 06-1-00395-0. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Steward, along with two other men, held a man at gunpoint and later held him in their car, forcing the man to make arrangements for Mr. Steward to collect on a drug debt.

WHEREAS, following these events, Mr. Steward's two co-defendants each took plea deals to serve 48 months in prison. Mr. Steward rejected the same plea deal, and at trial, his two co-defendants testified against him. A jury found him guilty and the court sentenced him to 48 months on the underlying crimes and an additional 19 years on mandatory enhancements.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Steward's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Steward has shown remorse for his past conduct. He has been accepted into the FareStart program; through this program, he will receive career services and housing opportunities to help his transition to the community.

WHEREAS, the Clallam County Prosecuting Attorney does not object to Mr. Steward's petition. Mr. Steward's sentencing judge stated that he believes that Mr. Steward's sentence was excessive, and had he had the discretion, he would have sentenced Mr. Steward to a term that more closely mirrored that of his co-defendants.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Steward's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited the disproportionality of his sentence when compared to that of his codefendants. The Board also cited the lack of opposition from the prosecutor and the sentencing judge's statement. The Board noted that Mr. Steward has been accepted into the FareStart program and that he has a strong transition plan.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Edward Allen Steward's 2006 sentence for his FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING and SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT convictions in Clallam Superior Court Cause No. 06-1-00395-0, conditioned on his written agreement comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than September 1, 2020. While in custody, Mr.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Steward must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Steward satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by September 1, 2020, DOC shall have the authority to release him after first completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Steward must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Steward shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational or vocational programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
4. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
5. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
6. Be subject to DOC curfews.
7. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
8. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
9. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
10. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
11. Identify and attend regular sobriety support group meetings as directed by DOC.
12. Not visit bars, taverns, night clubs, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
13. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
14. Not associate with known criminals or gang members, as directed by DOC.
15. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Steward shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Steward is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Steward to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Steward if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Steward violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Steward will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Steward has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Steward is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar day of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Steward submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Steward an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Steward has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Steward is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Steward will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Steward may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Steward may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Steward will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
ANATOLIY NIKOLAYEVIC NIKONENKO

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:
WHEREAS, in 2001, Anatoliy Nikolayevic Nikonenko engaged in an argument with his wife. The argument escalated and turned physical when he picked up a knife and caused her injury.

WHEREAS, Mr. Nikonenko pleaded guilty to SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 01-1-4237-0. The trial court sentenced Mr. Nikonenko to 60 months in prison.

WHEREAS, Mr. Nikonenko has accepted full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. Mr. Nikonenko remains married to the victim and continues to support his family.

WHEREAS, this criminal conviction is the only one on Mr. Nikonenko's record.

WHEREAS, in December 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed

Mr. Nikonenko's petition for a pardon. Since this criminal incident, he and his family have purchased a home in Tacoma, and he has maintained steady employment as a carpenter.

WHEREAS, Mr. Nikonenko fled Ukraine as an adult as a result of religious persecution. Due to Mr. Nikonenko's conviction, he now faces the possibility of deportation from the United States to a conflict-ridden region in Ukraine, where he would likely again face religious persecution.

WHEREAS, Mr. Nikonenko received support from his family and community before the Clemency and Pardons Board. The victim, his wife, supports his petition. The Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not object to Mr. Nikonenko's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Nikonenko receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited his lack of any other criminal history, strong ties to his family and community, and the detriment to his family and community in the event he were to be deported.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant Anatoliy Nikolayevic Nikonenko his FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 01-1-42374-0.

SECOND AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF LE'TAXIONE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1998 Le'Taxione (Ernest A. Carter) was found guilty of two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 97-1-04547-1. In 1997, Le'Taxione entered and then, pretending he had a weapon, held up a Tacoma Subway, before then holding up an AM/PM. Between these two robberies, Le'Taxione took roughly $200 from the cashiers.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Le'Taxione as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. In addition to this conviction, Le'Taxione was convicted of assaulting a police officer in California in 1983, and also attempted murder with a firearm in 1990 in Oregon.

WHEREAS, in December 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Le'Taxione's clemency petition. It voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Le'Taxione's sentence.

WHEREAS, on December 21, 2016, I commuted Le'Taxione's life sentence, conditioned on his completion of a work release program and compliance with a series of terms of supervision.

WHEREAS, while on work release in December 2017, Le'Taxione refused a urinalysis test and failed an alcohol breathe analysis test, blowing a .04. In March 2018, a different hearing officer found that through these actions, Le'Taxione twice violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, before these violations, Le'Taxione earned a strong reputation in his work release program. He has been characterized as a "great and dependable worker" and "pleasant and respectful." Accordingly, in April 2018, I issued Le'Taxione an Amended Conditional Commutation, allowing him another opportunity to eventually return to the community.

WHEREAS, in October 2018, the Department of Corrections alleged that Le'Taxione was failing to follow the recommendations of his chemical dependency program treatment counselors. In November 2018, a hearings officer found that Le'Taxione violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, the circumstances of his actions that violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation and Amended Conditional Commutation, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, AMEND the April 10, 2018 AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION of Le'Taxione's sentence for his 1998 conviction for two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his compliance with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan. While incarcerated, Le'Taxione must complete a DOC recommended chemical dependency assessment to inform possible substance abuse treatments. Upon completion of any treatment and programming identified by DOC, and following an approved release plan to the community and any statutorily mandated community notifications, Le'Taxione shall be released by DOC to serve 24 months of DOC community supervision. During this period under DOC custody and later on community supervision, Le'Taxione must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and DOC personnel. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Le'Taxione shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits and or searches, to also include searches of his person or automobiles, to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits must include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Le'Taxione has exclusive or joint control or access, and includes the securing of dangerous animals.
3. Obtain legal verifiable employment or enroll in educational programming, and report it to DOC.
4. Obtain written permission from DOC before traveling

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

- outside his county of residence.
- 5. Obtain permission from DOC before changing residences, even for one night.
- 6. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons. He may not possess body armor.
- 7. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
- 8. Not consume, possess, or distribute alcohol or controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
- 9. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary item being served, unless he receives approval from DOC.
- 10. Obtain a Narcotics Anonymous sponsor and attend regular meetings as recommended by DOC.
- 11. Obtain a chemical dependency evaluation and follow all treatment recommendations.
- 12. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by DOC.
- 13. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without first consulting and receiving permission from DOC.
- 14. Enroll in, and successfully complete any programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Le'Taxione shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Le'Taxione is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Le'Taxione to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Le'Taxione if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Le'Taxione violates any of the conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Second Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Le'Taxione will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Second Amended Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Le'Taxione has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Le'Taxione is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Le'Taxione submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Le'Taxione an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Second Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Le'Taxione has violated the conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Le'Taxione is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Second Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Le'Taxione will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Le'Taxione may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Le'Taxione may abscond if not detained. If detained, Le'Taxione will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 14th day of December, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF ROEUTH AN

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1994, Roeuth An, was driving a car with his friend seated in the passenger seat. They approached three men on a sidewalk, and Mr. An pulled the car over. His friend lowered the passenger window, started arguing with the men, and then fired multiple shots at the three pedestrians as Mr. An started to drive the car away.

WHEREAS, Mr. An pleaded guilty to three counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT, as an accomplice, in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 94-1-4920-0. The trial court sentenced Mr. An to 18 months in prison.

WHEREAS, Mr. An has accepted full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. Since this incident, Mr. An has steadily worked as an electrician to support his family, which includes his long-time partner, a teenage son, and a stepdaughter.

WHEREAS, in the years since Mr. An's 1995 criminal conviction, he has not had any other criminal convictions.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. An's conviction, he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Cambodia, a country from which he and his family fled as refugees when he was a young child.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not object to Mr. An's petition. That office attempted to contact the victims in this matter, so that they may opine about Mr. An's petition. No victims responded to the Prosecuting Attorney's Office communications.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board expedited reviewed of Mr. An's petition for a pardon. But even with the Board expediting its review, Mr. An faces an immediate deportation. Federal agents will not stay his deportation to await the outcome of the Board's hearing on his petition.

WHEREAS, given the exigency of the circumstances, the timing of Mr. An's expedited hearing before the Clemency Board will not allow the Board to issue a recommendation for my consideration before he is deported. So I am compelled to rely on the near-complete written record before me to review his petition and issue this order without the benefit of a public hearing and the Clemency Board's recommendation.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed the pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime and the consequences that this deportation will have on Mr. An and his family, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Ro euth An this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his convictions of three counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 94-1-4920-0.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 6th day of December, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
GEORGE PATTON CLARK

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2001, a jury found George Patton Clark guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 00-1-08739-6. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Clark entered an Auburn bank, approached a bank teller, and demanded money. Nobody was physically harmed during the robbery.

WHEREAS, this robbery conviction followed other earlier convictions, resulting in Mr. Clark being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Clark has served over 17 years in prison on this conviction, and he has paid all of his legal financial obligations. He is now 66 years old and suffers from several health conditions, such as degenerative joint disease, hypertension, and asthma.

WHEREAS, in June 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Clark's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Clark has a fiancé who is prepared to move to Washington to support him with housing and his reentry transition.

WHEREAS, neither the King County Prosecuting Attorney nor any victims oppose Mr. Clark's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Clark's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Clark's age and ongoing health concerns. It also found persuasive the testimony of Mr. Clark's fiancé.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE George Patton Clark's 2001 sentence for his SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY conviction in King County Superior Court Cause No. 00-108739-6, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than June 1, 2020. During his last six months in custody, Mr. Clark must successfully complete a DOC-approved work-release program. Following his in-custody transition, Mr. Clark shall begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Clark must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Clark shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, computers, social media accounts, and common areas to which he has access.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational or vocational programming while on community supervision, and report it to DOC along with changes in status within 24 hours of those changes.
4. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
5. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
6. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
7. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.
8. Enroll and complete a chemical dependency assessment and treatment program before release from prison.
9. Enroll and complete all required aftercare as recommended by after the chemical dependency assessment in the community upon release to community supervision.
10. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol, illegal drugs, or controlled substances, including marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
11. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
12. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
13. Not enter a bank or credit union or banking institution without a specific legitimate purpose and without first getting permission, from DOC.
14. Be subject to a designated curfew, as determined by DOC.
15. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Clark shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Clark is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Clark to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Clark if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Clark violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Clark will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Clark has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Clark is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Clark submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Clark an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Clark has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Clark is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Clark will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Clark may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Clark may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Clark will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
RICHARD WILLIAM REEVES

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1990, a jury found Richard William Reeves guilty of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT in King County Superior Court, Case No. 90-1-05223-7. Mr. Reeves, then 18 years old, was involved in an argument with a group of several men that escalated to the point that he pulled a handgun and fired it in the direction of some of the men. Nobody was injured.

WHEREAS, Mr. Reeves served his sentence, which included 82 months in custody.

WHEREAS, Mr. Reeves accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has had no criminal convictions since then.

WHEREAS, after Mr. Reeves served his sentence, he returned to school and completed his undergraduate education. He has since launched several successful businesses.

WHEREAS, Mr. Reeves is married with three children, and he has also served as a foster parent.

WHEREAS, at the time of this criminal behavior in 1990, Mr. Reeves was a teenager who had just turned 18 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the teenage brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading teenagers to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, in June 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Reeves' petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Reeves has matured since this criminal behavior, earning an undergraduate degree, building a career, raising a family, and serving his community, particularly youth.

WHEREAS, neither the King County Prosecuting Attorney, nor any of the victims of Mr. Reeves' criminal activity oppose his petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that Mr. Reeves receive a pardon, citing his contributions to his community, and his serving as a foster parent.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant Richard William Reeves this pardon for his FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT conviction, King County Superior Court, Case No. 90-1-05223-7.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 1st day of November, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

OF ELEANER FERN JOHNSON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:
WHEREAS, in 1986, Eleanor Fern Johnson pleaded guilty to THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT in King County Superior Court, Case No. 86-1-00303-3. The conviction followed events in 1985, in which Ms. Johnson disciplined her young son for misbehaving at school, whipping him with an extension cord.

WHEREAS, Ms. Johnson served her sentence, which included community service, community supervision, counseling.

WHEREAS, Ms. Johnson accepts full responsibility for her past conduct and expresses remorse. She has had no criminal convictions since then.

WHEREAS, Ms. Johnson has worked as a Licensed Nursing Assistant for over 30 years, and she is registered in three states. She continues to provide support for her family.

WHEREAS, in June 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Johnson's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Ms. Johnson desires this pardon because this conviction limits her professional opportunities as a Licensed Nursing Assistant, and as a result, curbs her ability to support her family.

WHEREAS, neither King County Prosecuting Attorney, nor the victim opposes her petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that Ms. Johnson receive a pardon, citing the ongoing burden this conviction places on her livelihood and her ability to support her family, as well as her lack of criminal offenses since this crime.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Eleanor Fern Johnson this pardon for her THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT conviction, King County Superior Court, Case No. 86-1-00303-3.

RONALD WALTER HAWS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1993, Ronald Walter Haws pleaded guilty to THIRD DEGREE CHILD MOLESTATION in Pierce County Superior court, Case No. 92-1-03921-6. The conviction followed earlier events, in which Mr. Haws inappropriately touched his teenage daughter's breasts several times.

WHEREAS, Mr. Haws served his sentence, which included nine months in custody. He completed a 36-month sex offender treatment program and 36 months of additional therapy. He also provided for his daughter's therapy and counseling.

WHEREAS, Mr. Haws accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has had no criminal convictions since then. He continues to be married to his wife of 40 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Haws is a veteran of the United States armed forces, and he is a regular blood donor, having donated more than 34 gallons of blood. He also serves as a deacon at his church.

WHEREAS, in June 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Haws' petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Haws seeks this pardon so that he may practice his ministry within the prison system.

WHEREAS, the victim testified in support of Mr. Haws' petition at the hearing, and the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose the petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that Mr. Haws receive a pardon, citing the support and persuasive testimony of Mr. Haws' victim-daughter. The Board also cited the age of the case, as well as Mr. Haws' own advanced age.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Ronald Water Haws this pardon for her THIRD DEGREE CHILD MOLESTATION conviction, Pierce County Superior Court, Case No. 92-1-03921-6.

JOHN DOUGLAS GREMS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1989, John Douglas Grems pleaded guilty to FOURTH DEGREE ASSAULT - DOMESTIC VIOLENCE in Clark County District Court, Case No. 118164 CLS. The conviction followed a 1988 incident in which, during an argument, Mr. Grems slapped his then-wife as she screamed at him and after she called him a pejorative name.

WHEREAS, Mr. Grems served his sentence, which included three days in jail, two years of probation, and six months of anger management.

WHEREAS, Mr. Grems accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has had no criminal convictions since then.

WHEREAS, in the years since this conviction, Mr. Grems has pursued higher education, earning associates degrees from Clark College. He has remarried and has a step son, and he is active in numerous community organizations.

WHEREAS, in June 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Grems' petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Grems seeks this pardon in part because he believes it will allow him to pursue more stable job opportunities.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Grems' petition, nor does the victim.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that Mr. Grems receive a pardon, citing his lack of criminal history since this offense and Mr. Grems' completion of an anger management treatment program following his conviction.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to John Douglas Grems this pardon for her FOURTH DEGREE ASSAULT – DOMESTIC VIOLENCE in Clark County District Court, Case No. 118164 CLS.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF IVANA LORICA

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, over ten months from 2000 to 2001, Ivana Zorica, created false customer accounts at her employer, Sears Roebuck. She used these false accounts to steal over $20,000 from the company.

WHEREAS, in 2003 she pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE THEFT in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1-00865-7. The trial court sentenced Ms. Zorica to 10 days of community service, 12 months supervision, and over $20,000 in restitution, fines, and fees.

WHEREAS, Ms. Zorica has accepted full responsibility for her actions and completed all of her sentence requirements, including repaying over $20,000. Ms. Zorica is now married and has a family. She has earned her master's degree in social work and now works as a clinical social worker.

WHEREAS, this criminal conviction is the only one on Ms. Zorica's record.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Zorica's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Ms. Zorica was raised in a setting in which she lacked strong positive influences. Since this criminal incident, she has worked to be a leader and contributor in her family, profession, and community.

WHEREAS, due to Ms. Zorica's conviction, she now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to the Czech Republic, a country from which she immigrated at the age of six with her family.

WHEREAS, Ms. Zorica received support from her family, colleagues, and others before the Clemency and Pardons Board, either in person or in writing. The Spokane County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not object to Ms. Zorica's petition, nor does the victim.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Ms. Zorica receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited her lack of any other criminal history, pursuit of education and a career in service to her community, and the detriment to her family and community in the event she were to be deported.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Ivana Zorica this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of her conviction for FIRST DEGREE THEFT in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1-00865-7.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
JOHN RAYMOND WILSON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996, a jury found John Raymond Wilson guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 96-1-00449-5. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Wilson entered a grocery store, confronted the cashier, and stole cash and other items.

WHEREAS, this robbery conviction followed other earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Wilson being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wilson has served 22 years in prison on this conviction. He is now 72 years old and suffers from more than one chronic medical condition requiring ongoing medical treatment.

WHEREAS, in March 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Wilson's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Wilson is a veteran and has the support of the Veterans Administration. He has completed Smart Recovery and is now participating in additional chemical dependency treatment.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wilson has identified supportive transitional housing options, including through Mercy Housing and New Hope Baptist Church.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Wilson's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Wilson's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited the fact that no victims were physically harmed during the commission of this crime, and that, but for his status as a persistent offender, he has already served a sentence twice the statutory maximum.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the forgoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE John Raymond Wilson's 1996 sentence for his SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY conviction in King County Superior Court Cause No. 96-1-00449-5, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than February 1, 2020. During his last six months in custody, Mr. Wilson must successfully complete a DOC-approved work-release program. Following his in-custody transition, Mr. Wilson shall begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Wilson must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Wilson shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, personal property, or social media accounts.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
4. Obtain and keep a mentor through the completion of the Urban League BEST mentoring program, as well as any other programming, as determined by DOC.
5. Connect with the U.S. Veterans Administration to secure services and programming and complete case planning as required by his case manager and/or DOC.
6. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
7. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
8. Be subject to DOC curfews as well as GPS or electric home monitoring to ensure compliance with curfews or geographic compliance orders.
9. Submit to polygraph monitoring as required by DOC to monitor compliance.
10. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
11. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
12. Attend and complete an anger management programming as determined by DOC.
13. Enroll and complete a chemical dependency assessment and treatment program before release from prison.
14. Enroll and complete all required aftercare as recommended by a chemical dependency professional in the community upon release to community supervision.
15. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.

16. Identify and attend regular sobriety support group meetings as directed by DOC.
17. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
18. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
19. Not associate with known criminals or gang members, as directed by DOC.
20. Avoid known drug-use areas, or known areas of prostitution as determined by DOC.
21. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Wilson shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Wilson is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Wilson to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Wilson if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Wilson violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wilson will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Wilson has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Wilson is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Wilson submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Wilson an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Wilson has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Wilson is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wilson will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Wilson may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Wilson may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Wilson will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after

LARRY RAYMOND STAPLETON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996, a jury found Larry Raymond Stapleton guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Spokane County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-2336-6. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Stapleton entered a convenience store, confronted the store clerk, and stole some goods and cash.

WHEREAS, this robbery conviction followed two other earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Stapleton being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Stapleton has served over 22 years in prison on this conviction.

WHEREAS, in March 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Stapleton's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Stapleton finally achieved sobriety during his incarceration. He is now 56 years old and suffers from chronic health issues stemming from a heart attack and stroke that he suffered earlier this year.

WHEREAS, Mr. Stapleton maintains strong familial ties, and he has arranged to initially transition from custody to live with his sister in Spokane, where he will stay until he completes his physical recovery. He will then enter into transitional housing through Revive and Reentry Services.

WHEREAS, the Spokane County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Stapleton's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Stapleton's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Stapleton's efforts to overcome his addictions, his familial ties, and the fact that no victims were physically harmed during the commission of this crime.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Larry Raymond Stapleton's 1996 sentence for his SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY conviction in Spokane County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-2336-6, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than February 1, 2020. During his last six months in custody, Mr. Stapleton must successfully complete a DOC-approved work-release program. Following his in-custody transition, Mr. Stapleton shall begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Stapleton must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Stapleton shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be take steps to be pre-screened for eventual placement in transitional housing.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, or personal property.
4. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.
5. Complete the Thinking for Change program while on community supervision.
6. Complete community work crew programming as determined necessary by DOC.
7. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
8. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a geographical area as directed by DOC.
9. Comply with any DOC-assigned curfews.
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
11. Upon completion of work release, be required to immediately enroll and complete an intensive outpatient chemical dependency community treatment program.
12. Not possess or use alcohol or any controlled substances, including marijuana, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
13. Attend regular sobriety support group meetings as directed by DOC.
14. Not-visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
15. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
16. Not associate with known criminals or gang members.
17. Avoid known drug-use areas, as determined by DOC.
18. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Stapleton shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Stapleton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Stapleton to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Stapleton if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Stapleton violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Stapleton will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor’s intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Stapleton has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Stapleton is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Stapleton submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Stapleton an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor’s final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Stapleton has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Stapleton is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Stapleton will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Stapleton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Stapleton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Stapleton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 18th day of July, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
KENNETH CRAIG CASON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in December 1995, Kenneth Craig Cason – then 17 years old – with his young cousin, broke into a pawn shop and stole three firearms. He pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY and three counts of FIREARM THEFT in Clark County Cause No. 96-1-00485-5.

WHEREAS, Mr. Cason served the full 41 months in prison on these convictions. He has no other felony criminal convictions on his record, and he has since married and raised three children.

WHEREAS, in March 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Cason’s petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Cason is a committed volunteer in his community and to local urban youth.

WHEREAS, Mr. Cason explains that these convictions encumber his pursuit of work in various career fields, specifically work with juveniles.

WHEREAS, Mr. Cason received support from his family and the community organizations for which he volunteers. The Clark County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office did not object to Mr. Cason’s petition, nor did any victims.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted 3-1 to recommend that Mr. Cason receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited his dedication to the youth in his community, his lack of recent criminal record, and the fact that no victim was physically harmed during the incident.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1995, Mr. Cason was just 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences for their actions.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Kenneth Craig Cason this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY and three counts of FIREARM THEFT in Clark County Cause No. 96-1-00485-5.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 9th day of July, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
STEPHEN GLENN EDMISON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1990, Stephen Glenn Edmison was found guilty of FOURTH DEGREE

ASSAULT-DOMESTIC VIOLENCE in Kitsap County Superior Court, Cause No. K-90-03705-S, after he violated a no-contact order to see his then-wife. He then proceeded to approach her and wrap his arms around her.

WHEREAS, Mr. Edmison has no other criminal convictions on his record.

WHEREAS, in March 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Edmison’s petition for a pardon. Testimony before the Board included that of his daughter, a witness to the assault in question, who testified in staunch support of her father.

WHEREAS, Mr. Edmison is a disabled Vietnam veteran, and a cancer survivor. He has since remarried.

WHEREAS, Mr. Edmison states that this conviction encumbers his desire to participate fully in military veteran ceremonies and funerals.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office does not object to Mr. Edmison’s petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Edmison receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited the persuasiveness of his daughter’s favorable testimony.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Stephen Glenn Edmison this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for FOURTH DEGREE ASSAULT – DOMESTIC VIOLENCE in Kitsap County Superior Court, Cause No. K-90-03705-S.

OF SOPHY FRANK HEM

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in May 1997, Sophy Frank Hem, then 16 years old, was living in a community among known violent gang members. One day, during a confrontation with a gang member who brandished a firearm; Mr. Hem brandished his own firearm and fired a shot.

WHEREAS, he pleaded guilty to SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT, FIRST DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION, and DRIVE-BY SHOOTING in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 97-1-2299-3. The trial court sentenced Mr. Hem to 34 months in prison.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hem has accepted full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. Following this incident, Mr. Hem married and started a family, which he has worked full time to support. He is also heavily involved in his community.

WHEREAS, in June 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hem’s petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Hem provides financial and emotional support to his family, which includes a wife and two children, one of whom experiences health issues relating to his premature birth.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. Hem’s conviction, he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Cambodia, a country from which he immigrated as a baby with his family.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hem received support from his wife, family, and others before the Clemency and Pardons Board either in person or in writing. The Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office does not object to Mr. Hem’s petition, nor does the victim.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Hem receive a full pardon. In making this favorable recommendation, the Board cited his family’s reliance on his support, his connection to his community, and the fact that he now faces deportation to a country that he does not know.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1997, Mr. Hem was just 16 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Stephen Glenn Edmison this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for FOURTH DEGREE ASSAULT – DOMESTIC VIOLENCE and in Kitsap County Superior Court, Cause No. K-90-03705-S.

AMENDED FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
MAURICE RATTRAY III

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1975, Maurice Rattray III, pleaded guilty to ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY in King County Superior Court No. 72077. This conviction followed after Mr. Rattray, then a 19-year old college student, unsuccessfully break into another’s home.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray pleaded guilty to the offense and was given a deferred sentence which he was later dismissed and vacated, pursuant to his sentence, in 1978.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray accepts full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. This is the only criminal conviction on Mr. Rattray’s record.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Rattray’s petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Rattray went on to complete his civil engineering degree at the University of Washington and later an MBA.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray has spent his career working on public sector transit projects. He currently lives in California and testified that he would like to pursue employment opportunities at Sound Transit, but this felony may preclude him from passing background check.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray also testified that he would like to recreate and travel internationally with his family, including his two children, but this felony poses challenges.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Rattray a full pardon. In supporting Mr. Rattray’s petition, the Board cited his otherwise spotless record, the fact that his conviction was dismissed and vacated under the terms of his sentence, and his contributions to his community and profession.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding the matter, circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Maurice Rattray III this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY King County Cause No. 72077.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF DWIGHT ANTHONY GRIFFIN

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, after a trial, a jury found Dwight Anthony Griffin guilty of ATTEMPTED FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1660-1. The conviction followed events in 1994 when Mr. Griffin accosted a woman walking to the bank to deposit cash. He attempted to wrestle her bag from her, but she resisted and he was unsuccessful.

WHEREAS, this robbery conviction followed earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Griffin being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Griffin has served over 23 years in prison on this conviction.

WHEREAS, in December 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Griffin's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Griffin finally achieved sobriety in 2009. He is now 65 years old and suffers from chronic health issues and is permanently partially disabled.

WHEREAS, Mr. Griffin remains married to his wife of over 30 years, and upon release, Mr. Griffin plans to return to live with her in Lynnwood. His adult sons are also still in his life.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Griffin's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Griffin's long sentence, strong family ties, the fact that he never used weapons, and his sobriety. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Dwight Anthony Griffin's sentence for his 1994 conviction for ATTEMPTED FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-660-1,

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF TINA LEE WEAVER

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999 Tina Lee Weaver pleaded guilty to ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE MURDER, SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT, and SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 99-1-696-0. The conviction followed even in 1999 when Ms. Weaver removed her neighbor's daughter from her home, took her to a motel, bound her to a chair, and then called the woman's mother and threatened to kill her daughter.

WHEREAS, these convictions resulted in Ms. Weaver being sentenced to over 24 years in prison. Currently, her scheduled earned release date is in February 2021.

WHEREAS, this is the only criminal conviction on Ms. Weaver's record, and she has had no prison infractions since 2003.

WHEREAS, in December 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Weaver's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Ms. Weaver has strong support in the community. She has shown honest remorse for her crime and has been a model prisoner, demonstrating a commitment to rehabilitation.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Ms. Weaver's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited her remorse, good behavior in custody, commitment to rehabilitation, upcoming release date, and community support. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Tina Lee Weaver's sentence for her 1999 convictions for ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE MURDER, SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT, and SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 99-1-696-0, conditioned on her written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than September 1, 2019. CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
ROBBIE WILLIAM BURTON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, after a trial, a jury found Robbie William Burton guilty of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and TAKING A MOTOR VEHICLE WITHOUT THE OWNER'S PERMISSION in Yakima County Superior Court Cause No. 95-1-1102-6. The conviction followed events in 1995 when Mr. Burton and an accomplice stole a car and then used it to conduct a bank robbery.

WHEREAS, this robbery conviction followed earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Burton being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Burton is now 64 years old and has served over 22 years in prison on this conviction.

WHEREAS, in September 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Burton's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Burton's past criminal behavior was fueled by substance addiction, and he has since achieved sobriety in prison through addiction support groups.

WHEREAS, upon release, Mr. Burton plans to return to Yakima to live with family, and he has secured employment at the auto dealership where he worked before this conviction and sentence.

WHEREAS, the victim supports Mr. Burton's petition. Mr. Burton also has the support of former Secretary of the Washington State Department of Corrections Dan Pacholke.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Burton's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Burton's age, the fact that he has secured employment and never physically hurt anyone in the commission of the crime, and the victim's support. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Robbie William Burton's sentence for his 1995 conviction for FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and TAKING A MOTOR VEHICLE WITHOUT THE OWNER'S PERMISSION

2020 REGULAR SESSION

in Yakima County Superior Court Cause No. 95-1-1102-6, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than September 1, 2019. During his last six months in custody, Mr. Burton must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his in-custody transition, Mr. Burton shall begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Burton must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

Mr. Burton shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Obtain a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment plans or recommendations as ordered by DOC.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of his person, automobiles, or personal property.
4. Submit to DOC monitoring of his social media accounts.
5. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.
6. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
7. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a geographical area as directed by DOC.
8. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and proper registration and insurance.
10. Not enter a bank without a legitimate reason or having a valid account.
11. Complete a chemical dependency and/or substance abuse treatment assessment and follow DOC recommendations relating to substance abuse counseling and/or treatment.
12. Not possess or use alcohol or any controlled substances, including marijuana, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
13. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
14. Not frequent known drug areas, as decided by DOC.
15. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
16. Regularly participate in a substance abuse support group as approved by DOC.
17. Not associate with known criminals and/or known gang members.
18. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Burton shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Burton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Burton to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Burton if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event that Mr. Burton violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Burton will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Burton has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Burton is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Burton submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Burton an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Burton has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Burton is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Burton will immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Burton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Burton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Burton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 4th day of May, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF LE'TAXIONE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:
WHEREAS, in 1998 Le'Taxione (Ernest A. Carter) was found guilty of two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 97-1-04547-1. In 1997,

Le'Taxione entered and then, pretending he had a weapon, held up a Tacoma Subway, before then holding p and AM/PM. Between these two robberies, Le'Taxione took roughly $200 from the cashiers.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Le'Taxione as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. In addition to this conviction, Le'Taxione was convicted of assaulting a police officer in California in 1983, and also attempted murder with a firearm in 1990 in Oregon.

WHEREAS, in December 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Le'Taxione's clemency petition. It voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Le'Taxione's sentence.

WHEREAS, on December 21, 2016, I commuted Le'Taxione's life sentence, conditioned on his completion of a work release program and compliance with a series of terms of supervision.

WHEREAS, while on work release in December 2017, Le'Taxione refused a urinalysis test and failed an alcohol breath analysis test, blowing a .04. At a January 2018 hearing, a hearing officer found that Le'Taxione violated the terms of his work release by failing the breath analysis test. In March 2018, a different hearing officer found that through these actions, Le'Taxione twice violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, before these violations, Le'Taxione earned a strong reputation in his work release program. He has been characterized as a "great and dependable worker" and "pleasant and respectful." And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, AMEND the December 21, 2016 CONDITIONAL

COMMUTATION of Le'Taxione's sentence for his 1998 conviction for two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Le'Taxione will be released from prison no later than October 15, 2018. During this period, Le'Taxione must complete DOC-recommended substance abuse evaluation to inform possible substance abuse treatments. And at some point during these six months in custody, Le'Taxione must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his release from custody, Le'Taxione shall serve 24 months of DOC community supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Le'Taxione must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Le'Taxione shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC or his CCO.
2. Be available for contact with DOC and his assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits and or searches, to also include searches of his person or automobiles, to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits must include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Le'Taxione has exclusive or joint control or access, and includes the securing of dangerous animals.
3. Obtain legal verifiable employment or enroll in educational programming, and report it to his CCO.

4. Obtain written permission from his CCO before traveling outside his county of residence.
5. Obtain permission from his CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
6. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons. He may not possess body armor.
7. Report to his CCO all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
8. Not consume, possess, or distribute alcohol or controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
9. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary item being served, unless he receives approval from his CCO.
10. Obtain a Narcotics Anonymous sponsor and attend regular meetings as recommended by his CCO.
11. Obtain a chemical dependency evaluation and follow all treatment recommendations.
12. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by his CCO.
13. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without first consulting his CCO.
14. Enroll in, and successfully complete any programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Le'Taxione shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Le'Taxione is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Le'Taxione to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with conditions and may issue warrants or detain Le'Taxione if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Le'Taxione violates any of the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon, Le'Taxione will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Le'Taxione has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Le'Taxione is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Le'Taxione submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Le'Taxione an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Amended Conditional Commutation granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Le'Taxione has violated the terms of this Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Le'Taxione is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Le'Taxione will immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Le'Taxione may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Le'Taxione may abscond if not detained. If detained, Le'Taxione will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL
OF
MAURICE RATTRAY III

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1975, Maurice Rattray III, pleaded guilty to ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court No. 72077. This conviction followed after Mr. Rattray, then a 19-year old college student, unsuccessfully attempted to break into another's home.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray pleaded guilty to the offense and was given a deferred sentence, which he was later dismissed and vacated, pursuant to his sentence, in 1978.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray accepts full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. This is the only criminal conviction on Mr. Rattray's record.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Rattray's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Rattray went on to complete his civil engineering degree at the University of Washington and later an MBA.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray has spent his career working on public sector transit projects. He currently lives in California and testified that he would like to pursue employment opportunities at Sound Transit, but this felony may preclude him from passing a background check.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray also testified that he would like to recreate and travel internationally with his family, including his two children, but this felony poses challenges.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Rattray a full pardon. In supporting Mr. Rattray's petition, the Board cited his otherwise spotless record, the fact that his conviction was dismissed and vacated under the terms of his sentence, and his contributions to his community and profession.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing,

I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Maurice Rattray III this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, King County Cause No. 72077.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 15th day of March, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF HITACHI KELVIN ANTONIO

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2003, Hitachi Kelvin Antonio pleaded guilty to POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA WITH INTENT TO DELIVER in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1-5298-3. The court sentenced Mr. Antonio to four months in jail and $710 in restitution, costs, and fees.

WHEREAS, Mr. Antonio accepts responsibility for his conduct. He served his sentence and paid the court-ordered restitution, costs, and fees.

WHEREAS, in 1996 Mr. Antonio immigrated to the United States from the Philippines as a teenager. He obtained permanent resident alien status in 1998. He later applied to become a United States citizen, but he was denied; and this 2003 conviction has ultimately let to removal proceedings against him.

WHEREAS, Mr. Antonio has not had any criminal convictions since 2005, when he was convicted of reckless driving.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Antonio's petition.

WHEREAS, in September 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Antonio's petition for a pardon, which described how Mr. Antonio has been steadily employed for over a decade, and he is married and raising two young children. Mr. Antonio believes that a pardon will end his pending removal proceedings and allow him to continue to live and work in the United States.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Antonio be granted a full pardon, reasoning that he has taken responsibility for his past conduct and has lived crime-free for many years; he maintains strong connections to his community; and, his removal would be extremely challenging, not only to him, but also his family.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Hitachi Kelvin Antonio this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA

WITH INTENT TO DELIVER, Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 03-1-5298-3.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 1st day of February, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
RICHARD ROBERT KENT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, after a trial, Richard Robert Kent was found guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Whatcom County Superior Court Cause No. 96-1-960-4. The conviction followed events in 1996 when, while wearing a mask, Mr. Kent approached two tellers in a credit union, and demanded cash.

WHEREAS, this conviction followed two earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Kent being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington 's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kent has served over 20 years on this conviction. Had he not been sentenced as a persistent offender, his maximum sentence would have been ten years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kent is now 63 years old and is experiencing significant health problems while living in prison.

WHEREAS, in June 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Kent's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Kent has already been accepted to FareStart, a job-training program providing housing, a months-long job training program, and other transition assistance.

WHEREAS, neither the Whatcom County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, nor any of the victims oppose Mr. Kent's petition. Similarly, Mr. Kent's sentencing judge does not oppose his petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Kent's sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Richard Robert Kent's sentence for his 1997 conviction for SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Whatcom County Superior Court cause No. 96I -960-4, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than May 1, 2019. During his last six months in custody, Mr. Kent must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his in-custody transition, Mr. Kent shall be released to the FareStart program and begin serving 24 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Kent must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Kent shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program, as well as any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, or personal property.
4. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
8. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and proper insurance.
9. Complete a chemical dependency and substance abuse treatment assessment and follow DOC recommendations relating to substance abuse counseling.
10. Not possess or use alcohol or any controlled substances, including marijuana, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
11. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
12. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
13. Not possess stolen property or unauthorized tools not associated with approved work, as determined by DOC.
14. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Kent shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Kent is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Kent to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Kent if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Kent violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Kent will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Kent has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Kent is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Kent submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Kent an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Kent has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Kent is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Kent will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Kent may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Kent may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Kent will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 5th day of December, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
LEE KENT HAMILTON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Lee Kent Hamilton pleaded guilty to SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY and SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Pierce County Superior Court cause No. 95-1-4105-3, after he approached a bank teller in 1995, stated that he was armed, and demanded money.

WHEREAS, these convictions followed two earlier robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Hamilton being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hamilton has served over 22 years on this conviction. Had he not been sentenced as a persistent offender, his standard range sentence would have been between five and seven years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hamilton has had no prison infractions since 2001.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hamilton accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. His criminal history was largely a product of substance addiction and his need to support his habits. While in prison, Mr. Hamilton has achieved and maintained sobriety.

WHEREAS, while in prison Mr. Hamilton intervened in an inmate attack on a corrections officer and is credited with saving the life of that corrections officer.

WHEREAS, in March 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hamilton's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Hamilton has developed skills as a metal fabricator, machinist, and welder; and upon his eventual release, Mr. Hamilton will have the support of his family in Florida who has agreed to provide him shelter and help him transition to the community.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not oppose Mr. Hamilton's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Hamilton's sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Lee Kent Hamilton's sentence for his 1995 conviction for SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY and SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 95-1-4105-3, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than May 1, 2019. During his last six months in custody, Mr. Hamilton must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his release from custody, Mr. Hamilton shall serve 24 months of community supervision under DOC supervision or under the terms of an interstate compact placement to the State of Florida. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Hamilton must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC or the State of Florida and its community corrections officers (hereafter in this section, "DOC"). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Hamilton shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program, as well as any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.
3. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, or personal property.
4. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
8. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and proper insurance.

9. Complete a chemical dependency and substance abuse treatment assessment and follow DOC recommendations.
10. Not possess or use alcohol or any controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
11. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
12. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
13. Report to DOC all law enforcement contact within 24 hours of occurrence.
14. Not enter a bank without having an authorized account and prior approval from DOC.
15. Obtain DOC permission to open a bank account.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Hamilton shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Hamilton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Kent to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Kent if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hamilton violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hamilton will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Hamilton has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Hamilton is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Hamilton submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Hamilton an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Hamilton has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hamilton is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hamilton will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Hamilton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Hamilton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Hamilton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF EDWARD ALLEN RANEY

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, decades ago, Edward Allen Raney pleaded guilty to GRAND LARCENY in Thurston County Superior Court No. C-4574 and VIOLATION OF THE UNIFORM CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE ACT, Lewis County Superior Court No. CR82-6498. His 1973 larceny conviction arose after he had in his possession a stolen motorbike, and the 1982 drug offense was the result of his possession of marijuana for personal use.

WHEREAS, Mr. Raney accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgments and sentences, including the payment of roughly $500 in court-ordered restitution and costs.

WHEREAS, Mr. Raney discontinued his use of drugs and alcohol. He has no other criminal convictions since his 1982 offense.

WHEREAS, in June 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Raney's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Raney explained that he is a career miner, and he would like to transition to blasting work, which requires him to obtain federal explosives and blasting permits. He testified that with these convictions on his record, the federal government will not issue him these permits.

WHEREAS, the prosecuting attorneys for Thurston County and Lewis County do not object to Mr. Raney's petition, nor do any victims object.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Raney be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Edward Allen Raney this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for GRAND LARCENY conviction in Thurston County Superior Court No. C-4574, and his VIOLATION OF THE UNIFORM CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE ACT, Lewis County Superior Court No. CR82-6498.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 16th day of October, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

OF
JOSE ARCIGA

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1984, Jose Arciga pleaded guilty to POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA WITH INTENT TO DELIVER in Yakima County Superior Court, Cause No. 84-1-173-4 The court sentenced Mr. Arciga to two years of probation and $590 in restitution and costs.

WHEREAS, Mr. Arciga accepts responsibility for his conduct. He served his sentence and paid the court-ordered restitution and costs.

WHEREAS, in 1968 Mr. Arciga immigrated to the United States from Mexico as a teenager. He later applied to become a United States citizen, but this 1984 felony conviction prevented him from being granted citizenship. After his application seeking citizenship was denied in 2007, he was deported to Mexico.

WHEREAS, Mr. Arciga has not had any criminal convictions since 1984.

WHEREAS, the Yakima County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Arciga’s petition.

WHEREAS, in March 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Arciga’s petition for a pardon, which described how, in being deported 10 years ago, Mr. Arciga left eight children and nine grandchildren, all born in and living in the United States. Mr. Arciga’s family believes that a pardon will improve Mr. Arciga’s chances of being able to return to the United States to reunite with his family.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Arciga be granted a full pardon, reasoning that Mr. Arciga is now 64 years old, lacks a violent history, has not had a criminal conviction in over 33 years, and should have an opportunity to reunite with his family.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Jose Arciga this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA WITH INTENT TO DELIVER, in Yakima County Superior Court Cause No. 84-1-173-4.

MICHAEL LAWRENCE BRAY

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2000, a juvenile court found Michael Lawrence Bray guilty on three counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY and one count of SECOND DEGREE MALICIOUS MISCHIEF, Mason County Superior Court Case No. 99-8-282-8. Over a six-month period in 1998 and 1999, Mr. Bray, then a teenager, entered buildings and took property.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bray served his sentence, which included 12 months of community supervision and 80 hours of community service. He also paid $991.04 in court-ordered restitution and costs.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bray currently works for the Department of Corrections, and he would like to join the Department’s specialty response team at the Clallam Bay Corrections Center. But these convictions bar him from carrying a firearm, a requisite for that role.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bray accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has had no criminal convictions in ten years, and he is now married with three children.

WHEREAS, at the time of this criminal behavior in 1998 and 1999, Mr. Bray was just a teenager of 15 and 16 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, in March 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Bray’s petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Bray has matured since this criminal behavior, earning an associate’s degree, raising a family, and beginning a career with the Department of Corrections.

WHEREAS, neither the Mason County Prosecuting Attorney, nor any of the victims of Mr. Bray’s criminal activity oppose his petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted to recommend that Mr. Bray receive a pardon, citing his age at the time of these offenses and the burden it places on his prospects for career advancement.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Michael Lawrence Bray this pardon for his convictions on three counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY and his conviction for SECOND DEGREE MALICIOUS MISCHIEF, Mason County Superior Court No. 99-8-282-8.

DEMETRIO RAMIREZ-ALTAMIRANO

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Demetrio Ramirez-Altamirano pleaded guilty to DELIVERY OF A OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE and POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE in 1993, Benton County Superior Court Case No. 93-1-89-1. Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano, then 18 years old, delivered cocaine to a confidential informant.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano immigrated to the United States from Mexico at age 12. He served a 26-month sentence on this conviction, and he was deported to Mexico, leaving behind a family in the United States.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano returned to the United States in 1995 to care for his disabled son. In 2016, the federal government prosecuted Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano for unlawful reentry; he served a short sentence on this federal offense, and he now awaits another deportation.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He is now married with six children, all of whom live in Washington, as do his five brothers and mother.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano has the support of his family, friends, landlord, medical staff, and others.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano has not had any state criminal convictions in over 24 years.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1993, Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano was just 18 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, in September 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano is a stable figure for his family and in his community. If he were to receive a pardon on this 1993 state conviction, it may help to avoid another deportation, and stay in the United States to provide support for his family.

WHEREAS, the Benton County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not oppose Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted to recommend that Mr. Ramirez-Altamirano be pardoned, citing the prosecutor's non-opposition to the petition, and the nature of this single, nonviolent criminal act when he was just 18 years old.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Demetrio Ramirez-Altamirano this pardon for his 1993 DELIVERY OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE and POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE convictions, Benton County Superior Court No. 93-1-89-1.

REVOCATION
AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
JOHN RAY STEWART

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, John Ray Stewart was convicted on November 20, 1998, of First Degree Attempted Robbery and First Degree Burglary under King County Superior Court Cause No. 97-1-05832-1 and sentenced to serve Life Without the Possibility of Parole as required by Washington’s Persistent Offender Accountability Act, the so-called “Three Strikes” law.

WHEREAS, the crimes leading to these final strike convictions occurred on July 29, 1997. Mr. Stewart burglarized a home, fought with the homeowner’s two sons who chased him, and then tried to steal a vehicle belonging to one of the sons.

WHEREAS, Mr. Stewart committed his first strike on May 7, 1990, when he and a codefendant began beating hitchhikers after the hitchhikers refused their demand for money started calling for help. As a result, Mr. Stewart was convicted of Second Degree Assault. committed his second strike offense on September 9, 1991, when he and a co-defendant to a residential property to steal marijuana and the co-defendant shot and killed a man. Consequently, Mr. Stewart was convicted of First Degree Manslaughter.

WHEREAS, in 2003, while in prison at the Washington State Penitentiary, Mr. Stewart inmate Steven F. Sherer, who had murdered his wife. Mr. Sherer stated to Mr. Stewart and another inmate that he wanted to kill the King County Deputy Prosecutor who prosecuted Mr. Sherer’s case. He also stated he wanted to burn down a key witness’ house. Mr. Stewart reported the threats and assisted the police investigation that identified steps Mr. Sherer taken to hire a person being released from prison to carry out his plan, and testified Mr. Sherer at trial. Mr. Stewart never asked for or received any financial reimbursement for his assistance, and Mr. Stewart’s motivation was to balance the wrong he had committed in his own life by helping to thwart a scheme to murder a deputy prosecutor.

WHEREAS, on January 14, 2013, Governor Gregoire granted Mr. Stewart a Conditional Commutation on the remainder of his sentence, contingent on, among other things, his successful completion of a work release program and then an 18-month term of community supervision. Before completing his work release program, on August 1, 2015, Mr. Stewart received a major infraction for fighting. Consequently, he was terminated from his work release program. At the time, Mr. Stewart conceded that he violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, following this violation of his 2013 Conditional Commutation, I amended Mr. Stewart’s Conditional Commutation order on November 13, 2015, to give him another chance. Under this Amended Conditional Commutation Mr. Stewart was to remain incarcerated until no later than January 1, 2017, and I gave him another opportunity to complete a work release program before serving an 18-month term of community supervision.

WHEREAS, on October 1 7, 2016, after experiencing more difficulties in a work release setting, Mr. Stewart was again released from his work-release program before completing it. Again, he conceded that he failed to satisfy the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, Mr. Stewart has twice been unable to successfully complete a work release program. In addition to not satisfying the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation, it does not appear that Mr. Stewart is prepared to make a successful transition to the community at this time.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under RCW 10.01.120, revoke Mr. Stewart’s Amended Conditional Commutation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 27th day of September, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

RE: Clemency Petition — Devon P. Adams

Dear Mr. Ellis:

The Clemency and Pardons Board considered the clemency request of your client, Devon Adams, at its December 2016, meeting. Following a hearing, the Board recommended 3-1 that Governor Inslee grant Mr. Adams’ petition.

The Governor has reviewed Mr. Adams’ petition, and while he commends your client for the steps he has taken in prison to become a better person, he does not believe that clemency is appropriate at this time. I therefore regret to inform you that Mr. Adams’ request for a commutation has been denied.

I appreciate your client’s understandable disappointment with this decision. But ultimately, Mr. Adams did not demonstrate extraordinary circumstances, particularly given the seriousness of the activity that led to his conviction and sentence. The Governor will consider a renewed request, should Mr. Adams re-petition the Board when he is again eligible in three years.

Sincerely,
/s/
Taylor K. Wonhoff

REVOCATION
OF
CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF

WILLEEN RAYE BALLARD (AMENDED)

Assistant Secretary of State

REVOCATION OF CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF WILLEEN RAYE BALLARD

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Willeen Raye Ballard was convicted of THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT, FIRST DEGREE THEFT, and FIRST DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 02-1-08642-6, and sentenced to 25 years in prison, after she and an associate confronted an elderly woman in a car, forcibly removed the woman from the car, and then drove off in the car.

WHEREAS, Ms. Ballard has faced tremendous adversity in her life; she was a victim of domestic sexual abuse at a young age and was forced to the streets where she was subjected to violence and victimized in the sex trade. She accepted full responsibility for her conduct in this incident, and she expressed remorse. She paid off nearly $20,000 in legal financial obligations. And, since 2011, she received no serious infractions. Ms. Ballard also seized opportunities to improve herself while in prison. She completed various college courses, seminars, and other self-improvement programs.

WHEREAS, in December 2014, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Ballard’s clemency petition, which included several letters of support from her family and other community members. The victim’s family expressed no opposition to Ms. Ballard’s petition, and the King County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office testified in full support of her petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor CONDITIONALLY COMMUTE Ms. Ballard’s sentence based upon a transition plan directed by the Department of Corrections (DOC).

WHEREAS, I granted Ms. Ballard a Conditional Commutation on December 1 1, 2015, which required her to comply with a number of conditions, including successfully completing a 12-month term of community supervision. Ms. Ballard indicated in writing that she understood these conditions of the commutation and would comply with them. She was released from custody to community supervision on October 1, 2016.

WHEREAS, in January 2017, I learned that a DOC hearing officer had found that Ms. Ballard had violated at least five terms of her community supervision within the first two months of her release from custody on October 1, 2016. Specifically, she violated the terms of her Conditional Commutation when she failed to report to DOC as directed; failed to make herself available for urinalysis testing as directed; failed to notify DOC of changes in her employment as directed; failed to notify DOC of changes in her address or living arrangements as directed; and failed to receive prior approval before leaving Washington.

WHEREAS, with these numerous community supervision violations in her first two months on release, Ms. Ballard has failed to comply with the terms of her Conditional Commutation. Ms. Ballard does not contest that she violated the terms of her Conditional Commutation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under RCW 10.01.120, revoke Ms. Ballard’s Conditional Commutation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 5th day of April, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

ISSUED 7/30/13; REVOKED 2/19/14

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
JOSEPH SCOTT WHARTON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Joseph Scott Wharton was convicted on April 22, 1997, after a bench trial, on five counts of Robbery in the Second Degree in King County Superior Court Cause Number 97-100657-7 and sentenced to serve Life without the Possibility of Parole under Washington’s persistent offender law, otherwise known as the “Three Strikes” law. Over the course of a month in 1996 and 1997, Mr. Wharton approached clerks in stores and banks and demanded money. He often held his hand in his pocket to suggest that he had a gun.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wharton received his first and second strikes after similar robberies in which he entered stores and confronted clerks, suggested he was carrying a firearm, and then ordering the clerk to provide him money.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wharton unequivocally accepted responsibility and expressed remorse for his past crimes and apologized for his actions to his victims, his family, and the state of Washington.

WHEREAS, at the time of his conviction, the standard range for Mr. Wharton’s offense was 33 to 43 months. The maximum sentence for Second Degree Robbery in the state of Washington, without the three strikes law, is 84 months.

WHEREAS, in December 2012, Mr. Wharton’s petition for clemency, in which he was seeking a commutation, was heard by the Clemency & Pardons Board.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Wharton had shown considerable rehabilitation while incarcerated. He participated in programming to improve his life skills, enhance his education, and remain free from substance abuse.

WHEREAS, King County Prosecutor Daniel Satterberg reviewed Mr. Wharton’s clemency petition, and supported his petition. Also supporting Mr. Wharton’s petition was the sentencing judge on his “third strike” offense, retired Judge Michael J. Fox, who was so unsettled by having to direct such a sentence in the case of a non-violent offender, that he encouraged Mr. Wharton to seek a commutation.

WHEREAS, following his hearing, the Clemency Board unanimously recommended that the governor commute Mr. Wharton’s sentence.

WHEREAS, on July 30, 2013, Governor commuted Mr. Wharton’s sentence, contingent on a series of terms to which Mr. Wharton agreed, including refraining from drug and alcohol use, participating in a residential treatment program, and regularly reporting with his community corrections officer for urinalysis testing. In October 2013, however, Mr. Wharton left his residential substance treatment program without permission and was later found to have violated the terms of his community custody multiple times.

WHEREAS, following the findings that Mr. Wharton violated the terms of his July 30, 2013, Conditional Commutation, Governor Inslee revoked Mr. Wharton’s Conditional Commutation on February 19, 2014.

WHEREAS, in the years since the revocation of Mr. Wharton’s Conditional Commutation, he has continued to show personal growth and maturity, and he has learned from the mistakes that led to the revocation of his July 30, 2013, Conditional Commutation. Mr. Wharton has been accepted into a Salvation Army Rehabilitation Center residential treatment program that he believes will provide him the support he needs to successfully transition to the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under Article III Section 9 of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 9.94A.885 and RCW 9.95.260, hereby amend Joseph Scott Wharton’s original Conditional Commutation. Under these amended terms, Mr. Wharton will go through a transition through lower levels of custody as determined by the Department of Corrections (DOC), to end July 1, 2018. At that time, Mr. Wharton shall begin serving a 36-month term of DOC community supervision. Also upon his release from DOC custody, Mr. Wharton will transition to the Salvation Army Rehabilitation Center residential treatment program for a period of six months to a year, as determined by the treatment facility.

During his period of custody, and on community supervision, Mr. Wharton shall:

1. Participate in a substance abuse and/or chemical dependency evaluation as directed by DOC and complete any recommendations from such evaluation;
2. Participate in a residential drug and alcohol treatment program, as directed by DOC;
3. Participate in chemical dependency and substance abuse support groups when not in residential treatment, as directed by DOC;
4. Not use, possess, or consume alcohol or other controlled substances, unless taken under medical supervision;
5. Submit to regular and random urinalysis and breathalyzer testing, as directed by DOC;
6. Report to and be available to regularly meet with a community corrections officer as directed by DOC;
7. Be subject to regular home/employment visits, and be subject to home, automobile and personal property searches;
8. Not associate with drug users or dealers, and avoid taverns, bars, and other sites where alcohol or drugs are the primary commodity sold;
9. Not possess, receive, ship, or transport a firearm, ammunition, or explosives;
10. Pay legal financial obligations and other fees as directed by DOC;
11. Participate in DOC-approved education, training, employment and employment training, and/or community service programs;
12. Receive prior approval from DOC for any employment changes or changes in living arrangements or residence;
13. Allow DOC to conduct such home visits as DOC deems appropriate;
14. Not travel beyond the county of residence, unless approved in writing by DOC;
15. Have no direct contact with any victims or their families, unless requested by the victim and approved by DOC;
16. Report to DOC any contact with law enforcement within 24 hours of the occurrence;

17. Enroll in and successfully complete the Thinking for a Change program, or similar program, as approved by DOC; and
18. Obey all laws and comply with all conditions, recommendations, orders, and instructions of community placement as directed orally or in writing by DOC.

PROVIDED that Mr. Wharton shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Wharton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Wharton to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Wharton if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Wharton violates any of the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Amended Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Wharton has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Wharton is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Wharton submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has in fact complied with all conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer provide Mr. Wharton an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination of whether Mr. Wharton has violated the conditions of the Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Wharton is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Wharton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Wharton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Wharton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 6th day of July, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
LONNIE ELDEN PITTS

To All Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1998, Lonnie Elden Pitts pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Thurston County Superior Court No. 97-1-2038-1. This conviction arose after he entered a bank armed with a pellet gun and ordered a bank teller to fill his duffel bag with money.

WHEREAS, Mr. Pitts accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgement and sentence.

WHEREAS, while substance abuse contributed to the conduct that resulted in this conviction, Mr. Pitts has been sober for over 10 years. He has no other criminal convictions on his record.

WHEREAS, in September 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Pitts' petition for a pardon. At the hearing, Mr. Pitts explained that he is a supervisor at his company, where he provides opportunities for former felons to reenter the workforce and build new careers.

WHEREAS, Mr. Pitts' petition included numerous letters of support from friends, family, coworkers, and work subordinates.

WHEREAS, no victims objected to Mr. Pitts' petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted to recommend that Mr. Pitts be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Lonnie Elden Pitts this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon for his FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY conviction in Thurston County Superior Court No. 97-1-2038-1.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 29th day of June, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF ELIZABETH MARIE SHEPHERD

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1994, Elizabeth Marie Shepherd pleaded guilty to SECOND DEGREE MANSLAUGHTER in King County Superior Court No. 94-1-498-7. This conviction followed an incident in which a man ordered Ms. Shepherd to play Russian Roulette with him, an incident which resulted in Ms. Shepherd shooting and killing the man with his own firearm.

WHEREAS, Ms. Shepherd accepts full responsibility for her past conduct and expresses remorse. She has satisfied all the conditions of her judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, Ms. Shepherd's criminal record was largely the product of substance abuse problems she faced in her past. She has been sober for 15 years, and she has not had any criminal convictions since 2001.

WHEREAS, in March 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Shepherd's petition for a pardon. At her hearing, testimony explained that Ms. Shepherd has earned a master's degree in public health education and works in the public health field. But this felony precludes her from becoming a certified nursing assistant.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Ms. Shepherd's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that Ms. Shepherd be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Elizabeth Marie Shepherd this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon for her SECOND DEGREE MANSLAUGHTER conviction in King County Superior Court No. 94-1-498-7.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 29th day of June, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

PARDON
OF
ADAM MICHAEL QUINN

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Adam Michael Quinn pleaded guilty to SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in 2001, King County Superior Court Case No. 01-1-104232-3. Mr. Quinn, then 18 years old, robbed his former employer, a movie theater, while armed with a pellet gun.

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinn is autistic. At the time of this offense, Mr. Quinn had not yet been diagnosed, and was not being treated for this condition. He and his doctors have since found a treatment plan that works for him, and he has earned his high school diploma.

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinn accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying all of his legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinn has the support of his family, doctor, and his Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) caseworker.

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinn has not had any criminal convictions in 15 years.

WHEREAS, in September 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Quinn's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Quinn has shown strong rehabilitation since this crime. His DSHS caseworker testified that, because of this felony conviction, Mr. Quinn faces barriers to employment and his ultimate independence.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office testified in support of Mr. Quinn's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Quinn be pardoned, citing his then-undiagnosed autism as a mitigating factor. The Board recommended that this pardon be conditioned on Mr. Quinn being barred from owning or possessing a firearm or dangerous weapon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Adam Michael Quinn this pardon for his 2001 SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY conviction in King County Superior Court No. 01-1-104232-3, conditioned on Mr. Quinn being barred from owning or possessing a firearm or deadly weapon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 29th day of June, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
JAMES ALBERT LUKSAN

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1992, James Albert Luksan pleaded guilty to two counts of SECOND DEGREE ARSON in King County Superior Court No. 92-1-04488-5. These convictions arose after a then-17-year old Mr. Luksan exploded pipe bombs as a prank on New Year's Eve 1991, causing property damage.

WHEREAS, Mr. Luksan accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Luksan has not been convicted of a crime in 25 years. He has a family and is raising two children. He pursued higher education opportunities and became an engineer and professional pilot, enjoying steady employment throughout his adult life.

WHEREAS, in December 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Luksan's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Luksan explained that he would like to move to Japan with his family, but he cannot make the move because of this felony. He also cannot volunteer at his daughter’s school, and he is limited in his opportunities for career advancement because, as a pilot, he is limited to domestic airlines because of his inability to travel internationally.

WHEREAS, no victims objected to Mr. Luksan’s petition, nor did the King County Prosecuting Attorney.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1991, Mr. Luksan was just 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Luksan be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to James Albert Luksan this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon for his two SECOND DEGREE ARSON convictions in King County Superior Court No. 92-1-04488-5.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
RICHARD ANTHONY MICHAEL POWELL

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1987, Richard Anthony Michael Powell was found guilty of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court No. 87-1-3093-4. This conviction arose after a then-16-year old Mr. Powell used a water gun to rob a Jack In The Box restaurant. Then, while in prison on the Robbery, he left a work camp site and was later convicted of FIRST DEGREE ESCAPE, Thurston County Superior Court No. 88-1-754-7.

WHEREAS, Mr. Powell accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied the conditions of his judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Powell has not been convicted of a crime in almost 30 years. He is now married with four boys, and he has built strong community ties. He earned his GED in prison and later pursued higher education opportunities, choosing to work in the health care profession.

WHEREAS, in December 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Powell’s petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Powell described how he grew up under challenging circumstances. Today, he has a strong network of family, friends, coworkers, and community supporters. Mr. Powell has the support of the Sheriff of Twin Falls County, Idaho, where he is an appointed deputy. Because of these convictions, Mr. Powell cannot be licensed to practice psychology in Nevada.

WHEREAS, no victims objected to Mr. Powell’s petition, nor did the King Prosecuting Attorney, who deferred to the Board’s recommendation.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crimes, Mr. Powell was just 16 and 18 years respectively. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Powell be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF MICHAEL HOOVER

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Michael James Hoover pleaded guilty to three counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 06-4-468-4. In 2006, Mr. Hoover visited a series of stores and espresso stands, and while suggesting he was carrying a weapon, demanded money.

WHEREAS, these convictions came after similar robberies in 1999 and 2004, resulting in Mr. Hoover being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington’s persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoover has served over 10 years on this conviction. He has had no serious prison infractions in 10 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoover accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. While in prison, he has identified with his Native American ancestry and has been an outspoken voice for Native American rights.

WHEREAS, in March 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hoover’s clemency petition, which included several letters of support, as well as and certificates of achievement earned during his incarceration.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Hoover experienced significant childhood trauma, which contributed to his past anti-social criminal behavior. While incarcerated, he has taken great strides to learn to cope with the trauma of his past and grow from it.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, had Mr. Hoover not been sentenced as a persistent offender, he would have been sentenced to 129 to 171 months. He has already served over 138 months on this sentence. Snohomish County Prosecutor Mark Roe testified that he would not oppose commuting Mr. Hoover's sentence from life in prison without the possibility of parole to a sentence of 231 months. A commutation would allow Mr. Hoover to enroll in certain DOC programming in which he is not currently eligible to participate due to his life sentence programming that will help him to prepare for eventual transition to the community.

WHEREAS, upon his eventual release, Mr. Hoover will have the support of friends, family, and the tribal community. He has standing offers for housing and employment and other support.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Hoover's sentence from life in prison without the possibility of parole to 231 months. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Michael James Hoover's sentence months for his 2006 conviction on three counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 06-4-468-4, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Mr. Hoover will be released from prison after serving a 231 -month sentence. During his last nine months in custody, Mr. Hoover must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his release from custody, Mr. Hoover shall serve 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. Hoover must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Hoover shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, or personal property.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.
4. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences, or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
5. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval.
6. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
7. Not carry a knife of any kind on his person unless necessary for work purposes or as otherwise approved by DOC.
8. Obtain a substance abuse evaluation and follow all treatment recommendations as directed by DOC.
9. Not possess or use any controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.

10. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol or marijuana is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
11. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
12. Participate in weekly substance abuse support programming as determined by DOC.
13. Not associate with known criminals, gangs, or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without DOC approval.
14. Not possess stolen property or unauthorized tools not associated with approved work, to be determined by DOC.
15. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
16. Complete anger management programming, as directed by DOC.
17. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program, as well as Cognitive Behavioral Intervention programming, and/or any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Hoover shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Hoover is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Hoover to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Hoover if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hoover violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hoover will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Hoover has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Hoover is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Hoover submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Hoover an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Hoover has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hoover is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the same sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hoover will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Hoover may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Hoover may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Hoover will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 29th day of June, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

The prayer was offered by Imam Adam Jamal, Muslim Association of Puget Sound, Redmond.

Imam Jamal: “Thank you for giving me, my family who I brought with me here today, the Muslim Association of Puget Sound and the Muslim community the honor of giving this invocation on this special day.

The Quran says in chapter 49, verse 13 that humanity was created from a single pair of male and female, and made in different nations and tribes so that we may learn from one another. This is a recognition of our shared humanity and the value of our diversity. May we continue to celebrate our diversity, stay true to the principals of religious and personal freedom, and preserve these principals for our children and for generations to come. I begin with the name of God, the most merciful, the most compassionate, who we call upon by many great names.

Dear God, we thank You. Praise You. And sanctify Your name for all that we have. For all of our blessings. The roofs over our heads, food in our bellies, and water to quench our thirst. Dear God, we pray for peace and not war, righteousness and not irreverence, justice and not tyranny, love and not hatred. We pray for compassion and not cruelty. We pray for faithfulness and not hopelessness. We pray for trust and not mistrust. We pray for good deeds that match what we teach, and we seek Your protection from speech that undermines our common humanity. We seek Your guidance in our pursuit of justice and compassion. We seek Your help to be good stewards of our great state of Washington, the state which You have entrusted us with. The earth which You have blessed us with. Let us be kind and gentle to every living being and protect those who are our most vulnerable in our society. Let us serve them in the most beneficial of ways. Help us, dear God, to be the change that we wish to see. Grant us the serenity to accept the things we can not change, the courage to change the things we can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Dear God, show us the truth as the truth and help us to act on it and defend it. Show us falsehood as false and help us to avoid it and protect ourselves against it. Protect our state’s leaders as they begin this new year. Guide them to do what’s good and beneficial for our state and all the people in it. And give them the courage, the conviction and creativity to overcome the challenges ahead with the best ideas, words, and actions. Amen.”

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

---

Governor Inslee: “Good afternoon. Thank you, Imam Adam Jamal for your moving invocation and your families, we appreciate that. Thank you, Bock Home School Choir for the lovely rendition of the national anthem, what beautiful, beautiful voices. They were unable to perform, they came down to the Capitol in December but were unable to perform, so we are so happy to have them back here now to inspire us.

I want to extend a warm welcome to former Governor and Ambassador Gary Locke and thank him for his distinguished service at the state and federal levels. Thank you, Gary.

I would like to welcome Sweden’s Ambassador to the United States who is visiting Washington to promote economic development and trade. We are happy to hear her, to see her here today from a country that has reduced its carbon emissions by 27%, while increasing its GDP by 90%, Karin Olofsdotter. Thank you Madam Ambassador.

And, I am certainly honored to be the first Washington governor to be able to say ‘Madam’ Speaker, Laurie Jinkins. Laurie. Mr. President, Madam Chief Justice, distinguished Justices of the Court, members of the Legislature, tribal leaders, state and local government officials, members of the Consular Corps, and most importantly, my fellow Washingtonians:

You know one of the best things about being governor is shining the light on how great Washington is, and I love this part of my job. I’m inspired by many Washington stories. I’m inspired by a Fife High School senior who is here today. She’s the first female quarterback in our state’s history to throw a touchdown pass for a football team. Welcome to Brynna Nixon. Brynna, thank you for being here.

I’m inspired by the development of Washington state’s newest apple, the Cosmic Crisp, which is on your desks. Several people from Washington State University are here, including the person who heads WSU’s apple breeding program, Kate Evans, and Agriculture School Dean André Wright. Congratulations to Washington State University for what they’ve done.

There are so many great things going on in our universities. I’m inspired by the University of Washington team who developed an app to monitor a person’s breathing rate and detect an opioid overdose. Both the Cougars and the Huskies show how broad the innovative culture is in our state and it is something we should celebrate.

It is inspiring to see, in perhaps her second public appearance, Justice Raquel Montoya-Lewis, the first Native American to join our State Supreme Court. Thank you for stepping up to the plate.

Washington has felt deep losses this past year. Courageous first responders have given their lives for us, as they do all too often. We’ve lost: Okanogan County Fire District 3’s Assistant Fire Chief Christian Johnson; Kittitas County Sheriff’s Deputy Ryan Thompson; Cowlitz County Sheriff’s Deputy Justin DeRosier; Lynden Interim Police Chief Michael Knapp; Pierce County Deputy Cooper Dyson; East Olympia Volunteer Fire Captain John Ostergard; and, a member of our military family on duty, Sergeant First Class Dustin Ard.

On behalf of all Washingtonians, I want to express our respect and condolences for these families.

Last year we also lost Bill Ruckelshaus, a true statesman in both Washingtons who’s left us an unmatched environmental legacy.

And we know we are missing today a face in the House chambers. We lost Jim Richards, the communications director for the House majority. We know Jim, and his life was dedicated to public service and helping others.

Those who put service above self should inspire us, including the new legislators in your ranks: Senator Ron Muzzall; Representative Davina Duerr; Representative Alex Ramel; Representative Jesse Johnson. And congratulations to Derek Stanford for moving to the Senate and to Senator Liz Lovelett for their election. Congratulations, I welcome you to this great effort. I want to thank them for stepping up to improve the lives of all Washingtonians because fundamentally that’s why we are all here.

One of our deepest Washington values is summoning the courage to explore and embrace big ideas, ideas that actually change our lives. The people who power our state’s successes have shared a common element: a stalwart and unbending commitment to be better, to get the job done and never resign to those timid souls who think the status quo is good enough. Our embrace of new ideas speaks to who we are as a people.

And, as we start a new decade, we can reflect on how we’ve reached that. We were willing to imagine where we could go if we accepted challenges that at first felt impossible. We can do this because we recognize we belong to one community. We forge profound forces for good when we unite, not divide, around our best ideas. Last year, I stood here and challenged us to rise up and write one of the worthiest chapters of our time, one that future generations will thank us for. And I'm incredibly proud and grateful for your leadership. Your accomplishments speak to a remarkably productive and positive session before us this year.

Look at what we've done. Together, we have created a Washington where we can rely on paid family and medical leave so you can be there to care for a spouse during their weekly cancer treatments. This program started a couple of weeks ago and is already going very well. Thousands of people have already applied to help in their personal lives.

We've created a Washington where your 18-year-old daughter can graduate from high school as a registered apprentice in aerospace, with full-time employment already lined up.

We've created a Washington where we passed the best 100 percent clean energy and energy efficiency measures in the United States.

Washington, ours is a state where people, where people will be able to afford the long-term care they need as they age.

And a Washington where more students qualify for free tuition than ever before because we passed the single best college financial aid program in the nation.

Now this isn't just me talking. The world has noticed what we have done here. Because of all the things we have done together as a people, U.S. News & World Report recently named Washington the best state in the country.

And Washington state indeed embodies the best in America. We have been honored to be both the best place to do business and the best place to be an employee. That combination is a rare and powerful testament to our state. And now we have the best overtime protections for workers in this state in the United States and I am happy to say that.

So, I think these things say a lot about how we face challenges in our state and I'd like to tell you a story about how we all achieved one of our greatest successes and how that charts a course as we look to tackle another big challenge. That success story is about Washington's nation-leading, innovative, inclusive and life-changing Career Connect Learning initiative.

We have known for a long time that we have some high school students who don't see themselves attending college. We have college students unsure about what their post-degree future looks like. We have midcareer workers who need new skills and training to keep the jobs of today and be ready for the jobs of tomorrow. So, we've built multiple paths to meaningful careers. From skilled jobs right out of high school, apprenticeships for traditional trades, two-year certifications and re-training for mid-career workers and brand-new programs for cutting edge jobs. We recognize every student for what they want to be in any workplace. Now this work has involved businesses, labor, community colleges, universities, K-12, philanthropy and local and state governments.

Ironworkers Local 86 is one of the many apprenticeship programs that expanded and have attracted more students and more diverse students through our Career Connect program.

One of these students is Robert Arce, who moved to Washington to make a better life for himself and his fiancée. He was homeless for a time. And he never used a drill or a hammer. With Local 86 Robert received boots, tools, hands-on knowledge and experience that set him up for success. This experience he said has been everything to him and his family. Today, he's two years into a four-year apprenticeship in Tukwila and looks forward to a better future for himself and his growing family. Thank you, Robert, for being here and sharing your story. I appreciate that. Congratulations.

Another story comes out of Spokane. Olivia Perkins joined the Production and Manufacturing Academy to learn how to weld. She wanted to create and sell her own metalwork. Greater Spokane Incorporated paired with the Academy to make this career-connected opportunity a reality. She took an hour-and-a-half bus ride each way and then walked a mile and a half each way just to attend class. Because of her efforts, she received a full scholarship to Spokane Community College and will become a professional welder because of her Academy experience. Congratulations Olivia, who is here today, and we wish you the best.

It is really exciting because we are growing registered apprenticeships in entirely new sectors, too, like healthcare. SEIU 1199, in partnership with Kaiser Permanente, built a multi-employer, multi-union healthcare apprenticeship. And it is innovation like this that paves the way for other sectors. Through Career-Connect and mid-career re-training thousands of people are already being helped. And it will be more affordable for students thanks to our expanded Washington college grant.

Our goal is nothing short of meaningful career training for anyone who wants it. We want to be able to welcome all people to the prosperity of Washington. And you can see how important partnerships have been to this success. This is what it's going to take to meet our next big challenge: combating homelessness.

Homelessness reaches all ages, all races, all backgrounds. And we know there is no one cause. This doesn't impact just people experiencing a mental health challenge or chemical dependency problems. Thousands of people know that Washington is the best place to live and work in the country. So, they came here. That's a good thing. And while we're pleased with our economic growth, we also have people who have faced economic problems that put affording a place of their own out of reach, in part because we have not built enough housing for the people who are coming to this state. It's not just people living in tents, or under freeways, in wet cardboard boxes. We have families living in cars. Veterans who need help staying in their apartment. Single parents facing financial struggles. High school students sleeping on other people's couches when they can find one. Too many people are one financial crisis away from being homeless each year, we know. In the past decade, we've done more to address homelessness and housing affordability. We've doubled our state's investment in homelessness response since the recession and I thank you for your leadership on that regard. We've combated several causes of homelessness, like opioid addiction and mental illness. We've laid a strong foundation. But I've seen this growing crisis firsthand. I've seen it all over this state. I've seen how it affects Centralia, Bellingham, Spokane, Tacoma and Bremerton. I believe we have an obligation to help solve this problem. Our compassion will not allow us to look the other way. To be successful, our response level must match the scope of this crisis. Homelessness is a statewide problem and it demands a statewide response this year. Responding to homelessness can't simply mean moving people down the road, to someone else's city or to the next bridge. It's about giving them the tools and resources they need to get back on their feet. It's about prevention, it's about rent assistance and it's about supportive housing for our most vulnerable individuals.

I've met so many people who, once they've been given the opportunities to improve their lives, have done it and have established a whole new life. I think of Jayson Chambers, who I met a few months ago. Jayson is a former resident of Tacoma's Stability Site, where one big tent shelters smaller, individual tents in the Dome District in Tacoma. This temporary sheltering approach serves as a transitional step from experiencing homelessness to getting into a more permanent housing solution.

Jayson was one of the first folks there when that facility opened. He told me something pretty profound: he simply said that that Stability Site saved his life. Because the resources there helped him work through a chemical dependency problem and get an apartment in Puyallup. And he is using this success now to help others in the same situation. When I met him that day, he was checking in on other residents at the site and is using his experience to help others. I want to thank Jayson for his leadership and for being here today.

Now I know our patience and compassion for this topic can become strained. But we cannot grow cynical or discouraged. The immediate need for many on the streets is a safe place to lay their head while they work to improve their lives. Our goal over the next two years is to find safe, warm shelter for half the Washingtonians now living under freeways and bridges and sleeping bags and cardboard boxes. This should not come at the expense of building more affordable housing. Some of you may have a different goal on this. And some may want to find it a different way. And I look forward to working with you on those ideas. But I can't imagine that there is anyone here today who doesn't believe we need to act, and act now, to help the most vulnerable in Washington. And I will gauge our success not on where the money comes from, but how many people we can move to safe housing. We know we need to create navigation centers, temporary shelters and necessary support services to successfully move thousands of people out of dangerous, unhealthy campsites. We can house homeless youth through programs like the Anchor Community Initiative, envisioned by homeless youth advocate Jim Theofelis. I thank Trudi for her work on this with Jim and everything you do for the state of Washington, thank you very much. And while we implement this new sheltering plan, we will insist on tracking progress with strong accountability and transparency measures to know we're actually delivering results. We're going to make sure this works. My plan will require financial participation from cities and counties but gives them flexibility to create local solutions to boost shelter capacity the way they plan it. I know this is a big challenge. But we do not shy away from those. Let's bring Washingtonians in from the cold this year.

There's another big step, necessary step, we can take this year: and that's establishing a clean fuel standard for the state of Washington. We know the science, and our love for our state, require us to do more to fight climate change. We've done much. You can rightfully be proud for passing some of the best clean energy laws in the United States. But for those who doubt that we need to do more, look at Australia today. That is all of our futures, not just Australia's. We want to thank the Speaker's brother for the work fighting fires in Australia right now. A few days ago, I was reading the morning paper and I was really struck by a photograph of a small boy who was receiving Australia's highest honor on behalf of his father who died battling those devastating fires. And just the look on that young boy's face, as he got that medal, it just caught me right here. It was a picture from a long ways away, but it just caught me. Something spoke to the grandfather in me about this boy who represents why we're here today and sometimes you find a moment that harkens back to what we need to do. That moment did it for me. Picture that boy represents everything we are fighting for here. We don't want such a devastating personal loss to become more common as the ravages of climate change rise each year. The science has shown we have to act more quickly and with greater commitment. That's why we need to fight for all our children's future. This will take many tools and hard efforts. Because, unless we act, here's the truth I need to share with my fellow leader in the state of Washington: Even with the tremendous work that we've done together, we will still fall 30 percent short of our 2035 statutory requirement that we put in law if we don't continue our clean transportation efforts. Because while we've made progress, we still haven't addressed the nearly half of our emissions that come from the transportation sector. This is a huge hole in our mutual efforts. Now, there is an extremely effective tool available to us to reduce transportation emissions, and that's the clean fuel standard. We need what the rest of the West Coast has already built: a clean fuel standard that calls upon the oil and gas industry to give Washington consumers cleaner fuels. Let me just say this: Washingtonians deserve cleaner fuels and I want to make sure they get them. That standard, all up and down the West Coast, has been in place for years now. It has had little impact on fuel costs and significant impact on carbon emissions. Now, there's good news here. We already have a lot of the cleanest transportation fuels you can find. We have some of the cleanest electricity in the country today from our renewable energy, including hydropower and wind power. It's fueling our electric transportation.

We are also creating clean biofuels. Here's a story, Klickitat County PUD has implemented an advanced, one of the first, cryogenic nitrogen removal systems in the world, that allows them to scrub methane from the landfill over in Roosevelt. Methane that otherwise pollutes the planet they put into a pipeline and ship it to California where it replaces dirty and dangerous diesel in trucks. This Eastern Washington enterprise that has created jobs in a small town using the best of Washington's innovative thinking. That's from one small PUD. Think about what the impact could be across our entire state. But, right now, the clean fuel generated in Roosevelt doesn't stay in Washington. It goes to California instead of to our drivers because California has a clean fuel standard.

We need to tackle this challenge with the same gusto and belief in inevitable success that has powered our previous triumphs. It can be done. Let's do right by those who have the honor to call themselves Washingtonians in the coming decades. Because, we know this: Washington state is not a state of climate denial. It is a state of climate science acceptance. And for those who say that we should not take action, I say that climate inaction is just as deadly as climate denial. This is the year for climate action. It is time to pass a Washington law, for Washington jobs, for Washington drivers and Washington children, and let's bring this success home.

These aren't our only tasks this year. We also need to make sure more children get early learning opportunities; that we address diversity and equity, especially in the workplace; that we pass common-sense gun safety measures; that we continue to make investments in K-12, including special education; that we protect our kids from tobacco and vaping, and help foster care children earlier and more frequently and provide them with more beds.

And we need to accelerate our efforts to recover salmon and save the Southern Resident orcas. We stand together, in these endeavors, we stand together with tribal governments who inspire us with their stewardship.

The good news is we can do these things. We can because we are the state that embraces the biggest ideas and tries the newest things.

Our ambitions can sound daunting. But we know the path to get there. Look what we have done in the state of Washington. We've made something that is indisputable. We've made something that's inspiring. We've created a spark that ignites our innovation, our collaboration, our communities, our partnerships and the big ideas we fit into this state. We experience the best of Washington when we come together.

And one of our own soccer players knows this well. She stands for strength, spirit and the best of who we are — of course I'm talking about Megan Rapinoe. It really spoke to me when she said the following in her speech after the World Cup victory at the parade. She said, 'This is my charge to everyone here. Every single person who agrees and doesn't agree. It's our responsibility to make this world a better place.'

I couldn't say it any better. So, let's get to work. Thank you."

The President thanked the Governor for his remarks.

The President called upon the committee of honor consisting of Senators Bob Hasegawa and Maureen Walsh and Representatives Sherry Appleton and Larry Hoff to escort His Excellency, Governor Inslee from the Rostrum and the Governor retired from the House Chamber.

The President called upon the committee of honor consisting of Senators Annette Cleveland and Brad Hawkins and Representatives Mia Gregerson and Gina Mosbrucker to escort the statewide elected officials from the front of the Chamber and the statewide elected officials retired from the House Chamber.

The President called upon the committee of honor consisting of Senators Sharon Brown and Lisa Wellman and Representatives Robert Sutherland and Javier Valdez to escort the Supreme Court Justices from the front of the Chamber and the Supreme Court Justices retired from the House Chamber.

The President thanked the Speaker for her hospitality and congratulated her once more for her historic election.

On motion of Representative Sullivan, the Joint Session was dissolved. The Speaker (Representative Jenkins presiding), assumed the chair.

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and the Sergeant at Arms of the House escorted President of the Senate Habib, Senator Keiser, Senator Becker and Rebecca Saldaña from the Rostrum and members of the Washington State Senate from seats within the Chamber and the Senate retired from the House Chamber.

SENATE RESOLUTION 8658

By Senator Rolfes

WHEREAS, Military spouses and caregivers embody the courage, sense of duty, and love of country that inspire every American; and

WHEREAS, Military spouses make tremendous sacrifices, including enduring long separations, assuming household responsibilities, and caring for children while their loved ones are away; and

WHEREAS, Military spouses and caregivers act with patience, selflessness, and compassion while serving as the frontline of this country's conscience to ensure the appropriate care of soldiers returning from duty; and

WHEREAS, Many military spouses and primary caregivers of veterans care for those with serious conditions, including traumatic brain injuries and posttraumatic stress disorder; and

WHEREAS, Many military spouses and caregivers are also volunteers in their communities who serve the needs of other military families; and

WHEREAS, Our communities are stronger when military spouses and families are afforded adequate employment, child care, and educational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, The nation benefits from the sacrifices of military families and is inspired by their courage, strength, and leadership; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the year, we honor the commitment military spouses and caregivers have made to their loved ones, our country, and our freedom;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington state Senate recognize military spouses and caregivers for their service, sacrifice, and dedication to their families and their country.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends to facilitate patient access to appropriate therapies for newly diagnosed health conditions while recognizing the necessity for health carriers to employ reasonable utilization management techniques.

Sec. 2. RCW 48.43.016 and 2019 c 308 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A health carrier or its contracted entity that imposes different prior authorization standards and criteria for a covered service among tiers of contracting providers of the same licensed profession in the same health plan shall inform an enrollee which tier an individual provider or group of providers is in by posting the information on its web site in a manner accessible to both enrollees and providers.

(2)(a) A health carrier or its contracted entity may not require utilization management or review of any kind including, but not limited to, prior, concurrent, or postservice authorization for an initial evaluation and management visit and up to six ~~(consecutive)~~ treatment visits with a contracting provider in a new episode of care ~~((of chiropractic))~~ for each of the following: Chiropractic, physical therapy, occupational therapy, acupuncture and Eastern medicine, massage therapy, or speech and hearing therapies ~~((that meet the standards of medical necessity and))~~. Visits for which prior authorization is prohibited under this section are subject to quantitative treatment limits of the health plan. Notwithstanding RCW 48.43.515(5) this section may not be interpreted to limit the ability of a health plan to require a referral or prescription for the therapies listed in this section.

(b) For visits for which prior authorization is prohibited under this section, a health carrier or its contracted entity may not:

(i) Deny or limit coverage on the basis of medical necessity or appropriateness; or

(ii) Retroactively deny care or refuse payment for the visits.

(3) A health carrier shall post on its web site and provide upon the request of a covered person or contracting provider any prior authorization standards, criteria, or information the carrier uses for medical necessity decisions.

(4) A health care provider with whom a health carrier consults regarding a decision to deny, limit, or terminate a person's covered health care services must hold a license, certification, or registration, in good standing and must be in the same or related health field as the health care provider being reviewed or of a specialty whose practice entails the same or similar covered health care service.

(5) A health carrier may not require a provider to provide a discount from usual and customary rates for health care services not covered under a health plan, policy, or other agreement, to which the provider is a party.

(6) Nothing in this section prevents a health carrier from denying coverage based on insurance fraud.

(7) For purposes of this section:

(a) "New episode of care" means treatment for a new ~~((or recurrent))~~ condition or diagnosis for which the enrollee has not been treated by ~~((the))~~ a provider of the same licensed profession within the previous ninety days and is not currently undergoing any active treatment.

(b) "Contracting provider" does not include providers employed within an integrated delivery system operated by a carrier licensed under chapter 48.44 or 48.46 RCW."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "standards;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 48.43.016; and creating a new section."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated with the exception of Senate Bill No. 6479 which had been designated to the Committee on Early Learning & K-12 Education and was referred to the Committee on Ways & Means.

MOTION

At 10:09 a.m., on motion of Senator Liias, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President.

Senator Billig announced a meeting of the Democratic Caucus immediately.

----

The Senate was called to order at 10:47 a.m. by President Habib.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wagoner: "Thank you Mr. President. We all know that the state had a lot of snow in the past week and it has affected different communities in different ways. In my district on State Route 2, up in the mountains, up around towns like Skykomish and Grotto and Baring, they really got a sucker punch by Mother Nature. So, State Route 2 has feet of snow on it. It was closed and impassable for days. Scores of trees were down across roads and driveways. There was no power. People didn't have any way in or any way out. They haven't had access to clean drinking water, to medical care, to food, to fuel for their generators, to heat for their homes. I want to recognize their predicament today, which is ongoing by the way, it is not over yet. And commend the community itself for the work they did and also to give credit to where credit is due for emergency providers. I want to say it has been a traumatic experience for that community. And emotions run high. I haven't been on the ground out there in my district because I have been here with all of you and I don't know every personal experience and what they have been going through. So, I can't really speak for them. But, I do know this, a lot of brave and dedicated emergency management providers and organizations like our Washington State Patrol, like the King County and Snohomish County Sheriff's Departments, Fire Departments, county officials, city officials have worked very hard within the limits of their resources to help people. But, the real heroes, the true heroes of this catastrophe, were the community members themselves. And it is a sad truth, well, maybe it is not sad, but it is just true. The real first responders were the community members themselves, and neighbors helping neighbors, friends helping friends. They plowed roads; they shoveled; they pushed cars out. They took care of themselves first, as you would, and their families first but they didn't stop at their own front door. They went out in the community and they organized convoys. They hiked into neighbors who were living far from the road and checked on them -- shared resources, food and groceries, and, presumably, hope as well, in frigid homes. So, I want to say again, the real heroes of this catastrophe are the residents themselves. And, as a state, we didn't get this one hundred percent right. And we can do better and I know that all of you will help me after this is all over, because it is not over yet, to follow up and see where we can do better for those communities and help them in different ways so that they have fuel supplies, maybe, up there in the future. And I wanted to give Senator Hobbs my thanks. When I was worrying about this and making phone calls to the community, it was nice to have somebody in our caucus who was willing to take off his senator shoes and put on his National Guard boots and do a little liaising with our adjutant general and educate me on what was possible and how things worked. Ultimately, the National Guard was not called in but I really appreciate the fact that he was willing to help me with that matter. Thank you, Mr. President."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mullet, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5740 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

MOTION

Senator Mullet moved that the following striking amendment by Senator Mullet be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act may be known and cited as the secure choice retirement savings program act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds: That large numbers of households in this state have no or inadequate retirement savings and many of those households do not have access to any savings plan at work; that this lack of retirement savings and coverage is more prevalent among low-income households; and that it is well-established that most workers will save for retirement if they are offered a workplace savings program using an opt-out approach. Washington state is deeply concerned about the retirement prospects of its citizens and the strain that large numbers of ill-prepared retirees may impose on taxpayer-financed elderly assistance programs for housing, food, medical care, and other necessities. Accordingly, this act will facilitate voluntary retirement savings by workers in this state by establishing an IRA savings program with automatic enrollment ("auto-IRA") and requiring employers in this state that do not offer a retirement plan to make the program available to their employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 13 of this act unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Administrative fee" means the amount deducted from the investment fund of a covered employee and used to pay the costs associated with administering the program.

(2) "Administrative fund" means the secure choice retirement savings administrative fund established under section 7 of this act.

(3) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the employment security department.

(4) "Compensation" means compensation within the meaning of section 219(f)(1) of the internal revenue code that is received by a covered employee from a covered employer or a professional employer organization, as such term is defined in RCW 50.04.298.

(5) "Contribution rate" means the percentage of a covered employee's compensation that is withheld from his or her compensation and paid to the IRA established for the covered employee under the program.

(6) "Covered employee" means any individual who is eighteen years of age or older, who is in the employment of a covered employer, and who has compensation that is allocable to the state. For purposes of the investment, fee, withdrawal, transfer, rollover, or other distribution of an IRA, the term covered employee also includes the beneficiary of a deceased covered employee and an "alternate payee" under state domestic relations law. For purposes of sections 2 through 13 of this act, a covered employee, as defined in this subsection, who is performing services for a client employer that has entered into a professional employer agreement with a professional employer organization, as such terms are defined in RCW 50.04.298, must be treated as in the employment of the client employer and not by the professional employer organization.

(7) "Covered employer" means an employer that either:

(a) Satisfies the following requirements:

(i) Has been in business for at least five years;

(ii) Has not sponsored, maintained, or contributed to a retirement plan under sections 401(a), 401(k), 403(a), 403(b), 408(k), or 408(p) of the internal revenue code, including such a plan sponsored or maintained by a professional employer organization with which the employer has a professional employer agreement, as such terms are defined in RCW 50.04.298, at any time during the preceding two calendar years and does not currently sponsor, maintain, or contribute to a retirement plan; and

(iii) Has more than five individuals in employment. For purposes of this subsection (7)(a)(iii), the size of the employer for a calendar year shall be determined by averaging the number of employees reported by the employer pursuant to RCW 50A.20.030 over the four completed quarters immediately preceding July 1st in the immediately previous year; or

(b) Elects to be a covered employer if and as permitted in accordance with rules and procedures established by the commissioner.

(8) "Employer" means a person or entity engaged in a business, profession, trade, or other enterprise in the state, whether for profit or not for profit; provided that a federal or state entity, agency, or instrumentality, or any political subdivision thereof, is not an employer.

(9) "Employment" has the same meaning as in RCW 50A.05.010.

(10) "Internal revenue code" means the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended.

(11) "Investment adviser" means:

(a) An investment adviser registered under the federal investment advisers act of 1940; or

(b) A bank or other institution exempt from registration under the federal investment advisers act of 1940.

(12) "Investment fund" means each investment portfolio established by the commissioner within the trust for investment purposes.

(13) "IRA" means either an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established under section 408 or 408A of the internal revenue code.

(14) "Program" means the secure choice retirement savings program established under sections 2 through 13 of this act.

(15) "Trust" means the IRA retirement trust or annuity contract established under section 8 of this act.

(16) "Trustee" means the trustee of the trust, including an insurance company issuing an annuity contract, selected by the commissioner under section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The commissioner has the following powers and duties:

(a) To design, establish, and operate the program in accordance with the requirements set forth in sections 2 through 13 of this act;

(b) To collect administrative fees to defray the costs of administering the program;

(c) To enter into contracts necessary or desirable for the establishment and administration of the program;

(d) To hire, retain, and terminate other state or nonstate entities as the commissioner deems necessary or desirable for all or part of the services necessary for the management of the program including, but not limited to, consultants, investment advisers, trustees, custodians, insurance companies, recordkeepers, administrators, actuaries, counsel, auditors, and other professionals; provided that each service provider must be authorized to do business in this state;

(e) To determine the type or types of IRAs to be offered; the default contribution rate, provided that the default contribution rate is no less than three percent and no more than ten percent of a covered employee's compensation; and the automatic escalation rate provided that the contribution rate is no more than ten percent;

(f) To employ a program director and such other individuals as the commissioner determines to be necessary or desirable to administer the program and the administrative fund;

(g) To develop and implement an outreach plan to gain input and disseminate information regarding the program and retirement and financial education in general, to employees, employers, and other constituents in the state;

(h) To prescribe the records covered employers must maintain, and to inspect and make copies of such records at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary;

(i) To develop and implement a marketing strategy for the program that includes outreach to communities of color and encourages small business engagement;

(j) To determine the number of days by which an eligible employer must make the program available to a covered employee upon first becoming an eligible employer or covered employee;

(k) To adopt rules and procedures for the establishment and operation of the program and to take such other actions necessary or desirable to establish and operate the program in accordance with sections 2 through 13 of this act.

(2) The commissioner shall use the following principles in the design and operation of the program:

(a) Operate with reasonable costs but sufficient to ensure that the program is sustainable;

(b) Structure the program so that covered employees are automatically enrolled and covered employer participation is required;

(c) Ensure that the program does not conflict with or be preempted by federal law, including the employee retirement income security act of 1974;

(d) Provide customer service processes to any and all pertinent persons and disseminate program information to covered employers and covered employees;

(e) Monitor the investment adviser's financial management policies, processes, and performance.

(3) Other state agencies must provide appropriate and reasonable assistance to the commissioner as needed, including gathering data and information, in order for the commissioner to carry out the purpose of sections 2 through 13 of this act. The commissioner may reimburse the other state agencies from the administrative fund established in section 7 of this act for reasonable expenses incurred in providing appropriate and reasonable assistance.

(4) The commissioner shall not impose any obligations on the state, nor may it pledge the credit of the state.

(5) The commissioner, in consultation with the legislature, has the discretion to establish an advisory board of individuals with experience in investments or retirement plan oversight and management.

(6) The commissioner, in consultation with the state investment board and the department of financial institutions, has discretion to establish and maintain the program by: Contracting with another state to use that state's auto-IRA program, partnering with one or more states to create a joint auto-IRA program that includes the program, or forming a consortium with one or more other states in which certain aspects of each state's program are combined for administrative convenience and efficiency, provided that in any such case, the auto-IRA program used, the joint program, or the consortium otherwise satisfies the requirements of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The commissioner, the trustee, and each investment adviser or other person which has discretionary control of the assets of the trust shall be a fiduciary with respect to the trust and IRAs established and maintained under the program.

(2) Each covered employer is required to provide covered employees with such information as the commissioner directs. No employer acting as such is a fiduciary with respect to the trust or an IRA or has fiduciary responsibilities under sections 2 through 13 of this act.

(3) Each fiduciary shall discharge its duties with respect to the program solely in the interests of covered employees and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of like character and aims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secure choice retirement savings program must be designed, established, and operated in accordance with the following:

(1) Each covered employer is required to offer to each covered employee an opportunity to contribute to an IRA established under the program for the benefit of the covered employee through withholding from his or her compensation. No employer is permitted to contribute to the program or to endorse or otherwise promote the program.

(2) Unless the covered employee chooses otherwise, he or she shall be automatically enrolled in the program and contributions shall be withheld from such covered employee's compensation at a rate set by the commissioner unless the covered employee elects not to contribute or to contribute at a different rate.

(3) The contribution rate of each covered employee shall be increased at such rate and at such intervals as from time to time established by the commissioner, unless the covered employee elects not to have such automatic increases apply.

(4) The contribution rate of each covered employee shall be applied whenever a covered employer compensates a covered employee. A covered employer may not withhold contributions in lump sums from a covered employee.

(5) An individual who no longer meets the definition of a covered employee solely because the number of individuals in the employment of the individual's employer is reduced from more than five to five or less must be permitted to continue to contribute to the IRA established for the individual's benefit without the participation of the individual's employer.

(6) The IRAs are intended to qualify for favorable federal income tax treatment under section 408 or 408A of the internal revenue code.

(7) The commissioner may establish intervals after which a covered employee must reaffirm elections, including opt-out elections, with regard to participation or escalation.

(8) Each covered employer shall deposit covered employees' withheld contributions under the program with the trustee in such manner as is determined by the commissioner, provided that the employer shall deliver the amounts withheld to the trustee in good order within ten business days after the date such amounts otherwise would have been paid to the covered employee.

(9) The commissioner shall determine the rules and procedures for withdrawals, distributions, transfers, and rollovers of IRAs and for the designation of IRA beneficiaries.

(10) The commissioner shall report annually to the governor and the legislature outlining the commissioner's activities and the program's operations.

(11) The commissioner shall cause to be furnished to each covered employer and may provide directly to covered employees:

(a) Information regarding the program;

(b) Required disclosures to be furnished to covered employees. Such disclosures must include:

(i) A description of the benefits and risks associated with making contributions under the program;

(ii) Instructions about how to obtain additional information about the program;

(iii) A description of the tax consequences of an IRA, which may consist of or include the disclosure statement required to be distributed by the trustee under the internal revenue code and the treasury regulations thereunder;

(iv) A statement that covered employees seeking financial advice should contact their own financial advisers and that covered employers are not in a position to provide financial advice and that covered employers are not liable for decisions covered employees make under sections 2 through 13 of this act;

(v) A statement that the program is not an employer-sponsored retirement plan;

(vi) A statement that neither the program nor the covered employee's IRA established under the program is guaranteed by the state;

(vii) A statement that neither a covered employer nor the state will monitor or has an obligation to monitor the covered employee's eligibility under the internal revenue code to make contributions to an IRA or to monitor whether the covered employee's contributions to the IRA established for the covered employee under the program exceed the maximum permissible IRA contribution; that it is the covered employee's responsibility to monitor such matters; and that the state, the program, and the covered employer have no liability with respect to any failure of the covered employee to be eligible to make IRA contributions or any contribution in excess of the maximum IRA contribution;

(c) Information, forms, and instructions to be furnished to covered employees at such times as the commissioner determines that provide the covered employee with the procedures for:

(i) Making contributions to the covered employee's IRA established under the program, including a description of the automatic enrollment rate, the automatic escalation rate and frequency, and the right to elect to make no contribution or to change the contribution rate under the program;

(ii) Making an investment election with respect to the covered employee's IRA established under the program, including a description of the default investment fund;

(iii) Making transfers, rollovers, withdrawals, and other distributions from the covered employee's IRA.

(12) Each covered employer shall deliver or facilitate the delivery of the items set forth in subsection (11)(b) and (c) of this section to each covered employee at such time and in such manner as determined by the commissioner.

(13) The program must be designed and operated in a manner that will cause it not to be an employee benefit plan within the meaning of section 3(3) of the employee retirement income security act of 1974. If any provision of this act is found to be in conflict with federal law or regulations, including the employee retirement income security act of 1974, the conflicting provision of this act is declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and that finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act.

(14) Nothing in sections 2 through 13 of this act prohibits a covered employer from contracting with a third party, such as a payroll service provider or a professional employer organization, to assist such employer with the tasks required of a covered employer under sections 2 through 13 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The secure choice retirement savings administrative fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer as a nonappropriated account separate and apart from the trust. The commissioner shall use moneys in the administrative fund to pay for administrative expenses it incurs in the performance of its duties under sections 2 through 13 of this act. The administrative fund may receive any grants or other moneys designated for the administrative fund from the state, or any unit of federal or local government, or any other person. Any interest earnings that are attributable to moneys in the administrative fund must be deposited into the administrative fund. Only the commissioner may authorize expenditures from the fund. The fund is subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but an appropriation is not required for expenditures.

(2) The fund is authorized to maintain a cash deficit in the fund for a period of no more than eight fiscal years after the implementation of the secure choice retirement savings program to defray its initial program administration costs. By January 1, 2021, the commissioner shall establish a program administration spending plan and an administrative fee schedule to discharge any projected cash deficit to the fund. The legislature may make appropriations into the fund for the purpose of reducing program administration costs.

(3) Administrative fees may be used to contract with another state to use that state's program or to create a joint program or consortium with one or more states offering an existing program. No other state funds may be used to contract or partner with one or more other states.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is hereby created as an instrumentality of the state a trust to be known as the secure choice retirement savings trust.

(1) The commissioner shall appoint an institution qualified to act as trustee of IRA trusts or insurance company issuing annuity contracts under section 408 of the internal revenue code and licensed to do business in the state to act as trustee.

(2) The assets of IRAs established for covered employees must be allocated to the trust and combined for investment purposes. Trust assets must be managed and administered for the exclusive purposes of providing benefits to covered employees and defraying reasonable expenses of administering and maintaining, and managing investments, of the IRAs and the trust, including the expenses of the commissioner under this act.

(3) The commissioner shall establish within the trust one or more investment funds, each pursuing an investment strategy and policy established by the commissioner. The underlying investments of each investment fund shall be diversified, to the extent the commissioner determines to be appropriate, so as to minimize the risk of large losses under the circumstances. The commissioner may, at any time and from time to time, add, replace, or remove any investment fund.

(4) The commissioner may allow covered employees to allocate assets of their IRAs among such investment funds and in such case, the commissioner also may designate an investment fund as a default investment for the IRAs of covered employees who do not make an investment choice.

(5) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner, in consultation with such third-party professional investment advisers, managers, or consultants as it may retain, shall select the underlying investments of each investment fund. Such underlying investments may include, without limitation, shares of mutual funds and exchange-traded funds, publicly traded equity, and fixed-income securities, and other investments available for investment by the trust. No investment fund may invest in any bond, debt instrument, or other security issued by this state.

(6) The commissioner may, in its discretion, retain an investment adviser to select and manage the investments of an investment fund on a discretionary basis, subject to the commissioner's ongoing review and oversight.

(7) The trustee is subject to directions of the commissioner under subsection (5) of this section or an investment adviser under subsection (6) of this section and otherwise has no responsibility for the selection, retention, or disposition of trust investments or assets.

(8) The assets of the trust must at all times be preserved, invested, and expended solely for the purposes of the trust and no property rights therein shall exist in favor of the state or any covered employer. Trust assets may not be transferred or used by the state for any purposes other than the purposes of the trust or funding the expenses of operating the program, including the expenses of the commissioner. Amounts deposited with the trustee are not property of the state and may not be commingled with state funds and the state has no claim to or against, or interest in, the trust assets.

(9) The assets of the trust shall at all times be held separate and apart from the assets of the state. None of the state, the program, the commissioner, nor any employer may guaranty any investment, rate of return, or interest on amounts held in the trust, an investment fund, or any IRA. None of the state, the program, the commissioner, or any employer is liable for any losses incurred by trust investments or otherwise by any covered employee or other person as a result of participating in the program except for any liability that arises out of such person's breach of fiduciary duty under section 5 of this act. The state, the program, the commissioner, or any employer is not liable for the payment of benefits earned by participating employees.

(10) Any security issued, managed, or invested by the commissioner within the secure choice retirement savings trust on behalf of an individual participating in the program is exempt from RCW 21.20.140.

(11) The trust is authorized to engage in trust business under Title 30B RCW and is exempt from the requirement to obtain a certificate of authority from the department of financial institutions under Title 30B RCW.

(12) If the commissioner determines to exercise his or her discretion under section 4(6) of this act to establish the program by using another state's auto-IRA program, establishing a joint program, or a consortium with one or more other states, then the trust may be established by adopting the trust established under such other state's program or as a master trust or similar arrangement with such other states, provided that such trust, master trust, or similar arrangement otherwise satisfies the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) If the commissioner determines to exercise his or her discretion under section 4(6) of this act:

(a) Only the secure choice retirement savings administrative fund may be used to contract with another state to use that state's program or to create a joint program or consortium with one or more states offering an existing program.

(b) The rate of the administrative fee for covered employees may not exceed the rate charged to employees of another state participating in the same program.

(2) If the commissioner determines to not exercise his or her authority under section 4(5) of this act, the rate of the administrative fee for covered employees may not exceed one and five-hundredths percent.

FIFTH DAY, JANUARY 17, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The commissioner may establish a pilot program for covered employers to auto enroll employees into an IRA by January 1, 2021. The commissioner may also provide for a staggered rollout of the program so that covered employers are initially required to offer the program to covered employees in stages based on employee headcount or such other criteria as may be established by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner shall make the secure choice retirement savings program available to all covered employees no earlier than January 1, 2022, and no later than January 1, 2023.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Any information or records concerning an individual or employer obtained by the commissioner pursuant to the administration of this act shall be private and confidential, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) If information provided to the commissioner by another governmental agency is held private and confidential by state or federal law, the commissioner may not release such information, unless otherwise provided by this section.

(3) Information provided to the commissioner by another governmental entity conditioned upon privacy and confidentiality under a provision of law is to be held private and confidential according to the agreement between the commissioner and the other governmental agency unless otherwise provided by this section.

(4) If the commissioner determines to exercise his or her discretion under section 4(5) of this act to establish the program by using another state's auto-IRA program, establishing a joint program, or a consortium with one or more other states, then the laws of the state that is most protective of individual and employer confidentiality shall govern.

(5) The commissioner may disclose information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter to any private person or organization, including the trustee, and by extension, the agents of any private person or organization, when the disclosure is necessary to permit private contracting parties to assist in the operation, management, and implementation of the program. The private person or organization shall use the information or records solely for the purpose for which the information was disclosed and are bound by the same rules of privacy and confidentiality as the commissioner.

(6) An individual shall have access to all records and information concerning that individual held by the commissioner unless the information is exempt from disclosure under RCW 42.56.410.

(7) An employer shall have access to its own records relating to any audit conducted or penalty assessed by the commissioner under this chapter.

(8) No decision by the commissioner or the appeals tribunal shall be deemed private and confidential under this section unless the decision is based on information obtained in a closed hearing.

(9) Information or records deemed private and confidential under this section shall be available to parties to judicial or formal administrative proceedings only upon a written finding by the presiding officer that the need for the information or records in the proceeding outweighs any reasons for the privacy and confidentiality of the information or records.

(10) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the disclosure of information or records deemed private and confidential under this section if all details identifying an individual or employer are deleted so long as the information or records cannot be foreseeably combined with other publicly available information to reveal the identity of an individual or employer.

(11)(a) All private persons, governmental agencies, and organizations authorized to receive information from the commissioner under this chapter have an affirmative obligation to take all reasonable actions necessary to prevent the disclosure of confidential information.

(b) The disclosure of any records or information by a private person, governmental agency, or organization that obtained the records or information from the commissioner under this section is prohibited unless expressly permitted by this section.

(c) If misuse or an unauthorized disclosure of confidential records or information occurs, all parties who are aware of the violation must inform the commissioner immediately and must take all reasonably available actions to rectify the disclosure to the commissioner's standards.

(d) The misuse or unauthorized release of records or information deemed private and confidential under this chapter by any private person, governmental agency, or organization to which access is permitted by this section shall subject the person, governmental agency, or organization to a civil penalty of up to twenty thousand dollars in the first year of the program and annually adjusted by the commissioner based on changes in the United States consumer price index for all urban consumers. Other applicable sanctions under state and federal law also apply.

(e) Suit to enforce this section shall be brought by the attorney general and the amount of any penalties collected shall be paid into the secure choice retirement savings administrative fund established in section 7 of this act. The attorney general may recover reasonable attorneys' fees for any action brought to enforce this section.

(12) This section does not contain a rule of evidence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) A covered employer who fails, without reasonable cause, as defined by the commissioner in rule, to facilitate the enrollment of eligible employees in the program, shall pay a penalty for each employee for each year or portion of a year the employer failed to facilitate the enrollment of the employee. The penalty shall start at two hundred fifty dollars for each employee for which the employer has failed to facilitate the enrollment of the employee for the first year of the program and shall be annually adjusted by the commissioner based on changes in the United States consumer price index for all urban consumers.

(2) The commissioner shall have the same rights to collect penalties charged pursuant to this chapter as those contained in chapter 50A.45 RCW, so long as the employer is offered the same rights to appeal any order and notice of assessment as those contained in chapter 50A.50 RCW. The remedies provided in chapter 50A.50 RCW for determining the justness or correctness of the penalties charged shall be exclusive and no court shall entertain any action to enjoin an assessment or require a refund or adjustment except in accordance with the provisions of chapter 50A.50 RCW.

(3) Penalties charged pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the secure choice retirement savings administrative fund established in section 7 of this act.

(4) The commissioner shall not assess penalties to covered employers until July 1, 2025.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The commissioner must develop an implementation plan that details how the employment security department will design, establish, operate, and market the program under sections 2 through 10 of this act.

(2) By December 1, 2020, and in compliance with RCW 43.01.036, the commissioner must submit a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature describing the implementation plan.

(3) Beginning on December 1st of the first year after fully implementing the program, the commissioner must report annually on administrative fees. The report shall include:

(a) A financial update on the status of the secure choice retirement savings administrative fund;

(b) The administrative fee cost basis assigned to each state participating in the program;

(c) The uses of administrative fees; and

(d) A plan to reduce the administrative fee cost basis for covered employees as the assets under management in the secure choice retirement savings trust increase over time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. RCW 43.330.730 (Finding—2015 c 296) is decodified.

Sec. 17. RCW 43.330.732 and 2015 c 296 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this subchapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Approved plans" means retirement plans offered by private sector financial services firms that meet the requirements of this chapter to participate in the marketplace.

(2) "Balanced fund" means a mutual fund that has an investment mandate to balance its portfolio holdings. The fund generally includes a mix of stocks and bonds in varying proportions according to the fund's investment outlook.

(3) "Eligible employer" means a self-employed individual, sole proprietor, or an employer with ~~((fewer than))~~ at least one ~~((hundred))~~ qualified employee(s) at the time of enrollment.

(4) "Enrollee" means any employee who is voluntarily enrolled in an approved plan offered by an eligible employer through the Washington small business retirement marketplace.

(5) ~~((("myRA" means the myRA retirement program administered by the United States department of the treasury that is available to all employers and employees with no fees or no minimum contribution requirements. A myRA is a Roth IRA option and investments in these accounts are backed by the United States department of the treasury.~~

~~((6))~~ "Participating employer" means any eligible employer with employees enrolled in an approved plan offered through the Washington small business retirement marketplace who chooses to participate in the marketplace and offers approved plans to employees for voluntary enrollment.

~~((7))~~ (6) "Private sector financial services firms" or "financial services firms" mean persons or entities licensed or holding a certificate of authority and in good standing by either the department of financial institutions or the office of the insurance commissioner and meeting all federal laws and regulations to offer retirement plans.

~~((8))~~ (7) "Qualified employee" means those workers who are defined by the federal internal revenue service to be eligible to participate in a specific qualified plan.

~~((9))~~ (8) "Target date or other similar fund" means a hybrid mutual fund that automatically resets the asset mix of stocks, bonds, and cash equivalents in its portfolio according to a selected time frame that is appropriate for a particular investor. A target date is structured to address a projected retirement date.

~~((10))~~ (9) "Washington small business retirement marketplace" or "marketplace" means the retirement savings program created to connect eligible employers and their employees with approved plans to increase retirement savings.

Sec. 18. RCW 43.330.735 and 2017 c 69 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington small business retirement marketplace is created.

(2) Prior to connecting any eligible employer with an approved plan in the marketplace, the director shall design a plan for the operation of the marketplace.

(3) The director shall consult with the Washington state department of retirement systems, the Washington state investment board, and the department of financial institutions in designing and managing the marketplace.

(4) The director shall approve for participation in the marketplace all private sector financial services firms that meet the requirements of RCW 43.330.732~~((7))~~ (6).

(5) A range of investment options must be provided to meet the needs of investors with various levels of risk tolerance and various ages. The director must approve a diverse array of private retirement plan options that are available to employers on a voluntary basis, including but not limited to life insurance plans that are designed for retirement purposes, and plans for eligible employer participation such as: (a) A SIMPLE IRA-type plan that provides for employer contributions to participating enrollee accounts; and (b) a payroll deduction individual retirement account type plan or workplace-based individual retirement accounts open to all workers in which the employer does not contribute to the employees' account.

(6)(a) Prior to approving a plan to be offered on the marketplace, the department must receive verification from the department of financial institutions or the office of the insurance commissioner:

(i) That the private sector financial services firm offering the plan meets the requirements of RCW 43.330.732~~((7))~~ (6); and

(ii) That the plan meets the requirements of this section excluding subsection (9) of this section which is subject to federal laws and regulations.

(b) If the plan includes either life insurance or annuity products, or both, the office of the insurance commissioner may request that the department of financial institutions conduct the plan review as provided in (a)(ii) of this subsection prior to submitting its verification to the department.

(c) The director may remove approved plans that no longer meet the requirements of this chapter.

(7) The financial services firms participating in the marketplace must offer a minimum of two product options: (a) A target date or other similar fund, with asset allocations and maturities designed to coincide with the expected date of retirement and (b) a balanced fund. ~~((The marketplace must offer myRA.))~~

(8) In order for the marketplace to operate, there must be at least two approved plans on the marketplace; however, nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit the number of private sector financial services firms with approved plans from participating in the marketplace.

(9) Approved plans must meet federal law or regulation for internal revenue service approved retirement plans.

(10) The approved plans must include the option for enrollees to roll pretax contributions into a different individual retirement account or another eligible retirement plan after ceasing participation in a plan approved by the Washington small business retirement marketplace.

(11) Financial services firms selected by the department to offer approved plans on the marketplace may not charge the participating employer an administrative fee and may not charge enrollees more than one hundred basis points in total annual fees and must provide information about their product's historical investment performance. Financial services firms may charge enrollees a de minimis fee for new and/or low balance accounts in amounts negotiated and agreed upon by the department and financial services firms. The director shall limit plans to those with total fees the director considers reasonable based on all the facts and circumstances.

(12) Participation in the Washington small business retirement marketplace is voluntary for both eligible employers and qualified employees.

(13) Enrollment in any approved plan offered in the marketplace is not an entitlement.

BRAD HENDRICKSON, Secretary of the Senate

EIGHTH DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia
Monday, January 20, 2020

The Senate was called to order at 12:08 p.m. by the President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Habib presiding. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard consisting of Pages Mr. Alexander Scott and Miss Sofia Vigil, presented the Colors. Page Miss Lilly Wyborne led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

"Lift Every Voice and Sing," known as the Black National Anthem was performed by Ms. Michelle Lang, Mr. Isaiah Banks, and Miss Sydney Coleman representing Seattle's Teen Summer Musical program sponsored by the City of Seattle's Department of Parks and Recreation.

The prayer was offered by Reverend Ms. Troy Lynn Carr of Grace United Methodist Church, Seattle.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced former Senator Rosa Franklin, who was seated at the rostrum.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow former Senator Rosa Franklin to address the Senate.

REMARKS BY FORMER SENATOR FRANKLIN

Former Senator Franklin: "Well, thank you Lieutenant Governor. It is indeed a deep honor to be back. It's overwhelming really. And to be in this body, and to see that you came to see me. When Senator Hunt, who sits over there, called me several months ago, and said that the Legislative Oral History Committee has voted for you to tell your story, I thought maybe he was kidding. You can't be that, that can't be true. And then, of course, you, knowing me, I started talking. He reassured me that it was true. So, I am here for that. And, as you, of course, read the story of my life and the work her in this august body, each time I come onto this campus and see what is happening, it is a humbling experience and I know that it is sort of a heavy load but I say everybody should do it once. They will know what it is all about. And so, I would say thank you so much for this honor and as Nancy Pelosi says, 'Yes, I'm praying for you,' because I know what your load is. Thank you so much and it is so great to see you."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Pastor Richmond Johnson, from Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Bremerton, who was seated at the rostrum.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Pastor Richmond Johnson to address the Senate and recite "I've Been to the Mountaintop," a speech given by the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s speech in Memphis, April 3, 1968.

REMARKS BY PASTOR RICHMOND JOHNSON

Pastor Richmond Johnson: "Good evening to each of you. Give honor to God, to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Thanking God for Lieutenant Governor Cyrus Habib, all the senators who are here. I'm really happy to have Senator Christine Rolfes as our representative in Kitsap County-Bremerton area along with Senator Emily Randall and our wise guru that's been around for quite a while, Senator Timothy Sheldon, who represents Kitsap County. Also, happy my wife is here with me today up in the balcony somewhere, my high school sweetheart Arnetter. I learned her name with the phrase I need her. And, I have my granddaughter, the lovely Jenea.

Go with me to Memphis, Tennessee where Dr Martin Luther King delivered his last message. It was on April the third 1968, at the Mason Temple. The next day Dr. King was assassinated. Dr. King realized that his message could be effective when he had an audience that was united with him in conversation. This is referred to as participatory proclamation. The message engages the people by inviting them to be a part of the message. And so, when you participate you invest in the experience you, you put your cell phones off, you Facebook, stop Facebooking and then you collapse sometimes, you shout, you laugh. Our feelings are released in voice.

Dr. King: 'I'm delighted to see each of you here today in spite of a storm warning. You reveal that you are determined to go on anyhow. Something is happening in Memphis. Something is happening in our world. If I was standing at the beginning of time, with the possibility of taking account of general panoramic view of the whole of human history up to now, and the Almighty said to me, 'Martin King, which age would you like to live in?'

I would take my mental flight by Egypt and I would watch God's children as they journeyed from the dark dungeons of slavery across the Red Sea through the wilderness on into the Promised Land. But I wouldn't stop there. I would move on by Greece and take my mind to Mount Olympus. And I would watch Plato and Aristotle, Socrates, Euripides and Aristophanes assembled around the Parthenon. And I would watch them gathered around the Parthenon as they discussed the great and moral issues of reality. But I wouldn't stop there.

I would even go by the way of the man for whom I am named had his habitat. And I would watch Martin Luther as he nailed his ninety-five theses on the church door at Wittenberg. But I wouldn't stop there.

I would even come on up to 1863, and I would watch a strategic thinking President by the name of Abraham Lincoln finally come to the conclusion that he had to sign the Emancipation Proclamation. But I wouldn't stop there.

I would even come up to the early thirties, and I would see a man grappling with the problems of bankruptcy of his nation. And come with the eloquent cry that 'we have nothing to fear but fear itself.' But I wouldn't stop there.

I would turn to the Almighty, and I would say, if you would allow me to live just a few years in the second half of the 20th century, I would be happy.

Now that's a strange statement to make, the world is all messed up. Things are going crazy. But I know that somehow, only when it is dark enough can you see the stars. And I see God working in a mighty way, even today. And I'm happy to live in this period because we've been forced to a point where we to the face the sickness in America, the sickness called racism. Racism is still that hound of hell which dogs the tracks of our civilization. And we got to deal with it.

Now, what does that mean in this great period of history? It means that we've got to stay together. We've got to stay together and maintain unity. You know, whenever Pharaoh wanted to prolong the period of slavery in Egypt, he had a familiar formula for doing it. What was that? He kept the slaves fighting among themselves. Because whenever slaves get together, that's the beginning of getting out of slavery. So, we've got to maintain unity. We don't want to just remember the Alamo; we want to remember slavery. In 1863, the Negro was granted freedom from physical slavery through the Emancipation Proclamation. But he was not given land to make that freedom meaningful. And, at the same time our government was giving away millions of acres of land in the Midwest and the West, which meant that the nation was willing to undercut the white people from Europe and refusing to do it for the black people from Africa who were held in slavery for nearly 244 years. And that is why Frederick Douglas would say, 'Emancipation for the black man was freedom to hunger, freedom without roofs to cover their head, it was freedom without bread to eat, without land to cultivate. It was freedom and famine at the same time. And it is a miracle that the black people have survived.' We've never made any gain in civil rights without constant, persistent, legal and non-violent pressure. Power is not conceded without demand.

While certain communities celebrate capitalism, others of us have no capital. And those that have don't seem to remember that capitalism was built on the back of black slaves. So, I always say to America, is, 'Be true to what you said on paper.' If I lived in China or Russia, or any totalitarian country, maybe I could understand some of these illegal injunctions. Maybe I could understand the denial of certain basic First Amendment privileges, because they haven't committed themselves to that over there. But somewhere I read of the freedom of assembly. Somewhere I read of the freedom of speech. Somewhere I read of the freedom of the press. Somewhere I read that the greatness in America is the right to protest for right. And so just as I say, we aren't going to let dogs or water hoses turn us around, we're not going to let any injunction or racism turn us around. We are going to need all of you.

We need to be concerned about our brother. It's called empathy. Empathy. Now, you do understand empathy. It happened in a third-grade class. A nine-year-old boy was sitting at his desk, when all of a sudden there was a puddle between his legs. He didn't know how it happened. The front of his pants was wet, water going down his legs, and he began to cry. This had never happened to him before. Once the boys found out about him, they would pick on him the rest of his life. Once the girls found out they would never speak to him again. Once the teacher told his mama, she wasn't going to believe it, dad was going to whoop him. The boy started crying. Put his head on his desk and began to pray. He said 'God, this is an emergency. I need help, now. A few minutes from now it will be too late.' He picked up his head, the teacher was walking toward him and he began to say in his mind she done saw the puddle. And as she was walking toward him, one of his classmates named Susie, came in front of the teacher, tripped and dumped a bowl of water from a fishbowl in his lap. And the students started trying to clean up the water and the boy acted like he was upset, but deep down in his heart he was so happy. He was saying, 'Thank you, Lord!' Now the opportunity for him to be embarrassed was changed it was sympathy from the students. The teacher took him downstairs, got him some gym shorts, they cleaned up the mess, saved the fish, but poor Susie. She was looked at with disdain. They didn't even want her to help. Clumsy Susie. And at the end of the day, when they got on the bus nobody would sit by Susie. The little boy went over and sat by Susie and whispered in her ear, 'You did that on purpose, didn't you?' And she whispered back in his ear, 'I wet my pants once too.' Empathy. We've got to come to that point in our lives where we realize that it could be us outside. It could be us, no home and no shelter. So, empathy is what we need. We need to develop a dangerous kind of empathy. Nothing would be more tragic than for us to stop at this point in history.

One day a man came to Jesus, and he wanted to raise some questions about some vital matters in life. At points, he wanted to trick Jesus and show Jesus he knew a little more than Jesus knew. And so, he asked the question, 'who is my neighbor?' Now, that question could have easily ended up in a theological debate, but Jesus immediately snatched that question out of mid-air and placed it on a dangerous curve between Jerusalem and Jericho and he talked about a certain man who fell among thieves. Some of you all remember a priest and a Levite who passed by, looked at him, didn't stop to help him but another man, from another race, came by, looked at the man, got down from his camel. Administered first aid to him. Put the man on his camel. Took him to an innkeeper. Gave him some money and said I've taken him as far as I can, here is some money, take him a little further, help him a little more and when I come back if I owe you something, I will pay you again. Jesus went on to say this was the good man. This was the great man because he had compassion for his brother. While many have used their imaginations to try to figure out why the priest and the Levite didn't stop. At times they said they were too busy, they had to hurry up and get to church, they didn't want to be late., But I am going to tell you what my imagination is telling me. It's possible that those men were afraid, because the Jericho road us a dangerous road. I remember when Mrs. King and I first visited Jerusalem. We were in a car and we drove down from Jerusalem to Jericho. And as soon as we got on that road I turned to my wife and said I can see why Jesus used this as a setting for his parable It's a winding meandering road and it's really conducive for ambushing. You start out in Jerusalem which is about twelve hundred feet above sea level and by the time you get to Jericho, fifteen or twenty minutes later, you are about twenty-two hundred feet below sea level. That's a dangerous road and the days of Jesus it became known as the bloody path. And so, it's possible that the priest and the Levite looked at that man on the side of the road and wondered were the robbers are still around. It's possible that they thought they were hiding in a dark spot so they could jump on them and rob them. And so the first question that the priest asked was if I stop to help this man what will happen to me? But then the good Samaritan came by and reversed the question 'if I do not stop to help this man, what will happen to him?' And that's the question before you tonight. Not 'if I stop to help the homeless what will happen to me?', but 'if I do not stop to help those in need what will happen to them?' That's the question so let us rise for the greater readiness. Let us stand with a greater determination. We have the opportunity to make America a better nation.

And I want to thank the Lord once more, for allowing me to be here with you. You know several years ago I was in New York City, autographing the first book that I had written. And while I sit there autographing books a black woman came up to me and all I heard was from her was, 'Are you Martin Luther King?' And as I kept my head down writing, I said, 'Yes.' The next thing I remember was a beating on my chest and before I realized that I had been stabbed by this demented woman. It was a dark Saturday afternoon. The blade had went through. I was rushed to the Harlem Hospital. X-rays revealed that the tip of the blade was on my aorta, the main artery, and once this is punctured you drown in your own blood. And that's the end of you. Well, it came out the next morning in the New York Times if I had merely sneezed, I would have died. Well about four days later, after the operation, after my chest had been opened up, after the blade had been taken out, I was allowed to move around in a wheelchair in the hospital. I was allowed to read letters that came in from all over the country, all over the world. Kind letters came in. I read a few. But one of them I will never forget. I received one for the President and the Vice President, but I have forgotten what those letters said. I received a letter and a visit from the Governor of New York, but I have forgotten what that letter said. But there was another letter, it came from a little girl, a young girl who was a student at the White Plains High School. I looked at that letter and I'll never forget it. It stated simply:

EIGHTH DAY, JANUARY 20, 2020

'Dear Dr. King, I am a ninth-grade student at the White Plains High School. And while it should not matter, I would like to mention that I'm a white girl. I read in the paper of your misfortune, and your suffering. And I read that if you had sneezed, you would have died. Well I'm writing you simply to say I'm so happy that you didn't sneeze.'

And I want to say to you today that I too am happy that I didn't sneeze. Because if I had sneezed, I wouldn't have been around here in 1960, when students all over the South started sitting-in at lunch counters. because I knew that while they were sitting in, they were really standing up and taking us back to understand the American Dream means all of us are created equally human. If I had sneezed, I wouldn't have been here in 1963, when the brothers, the black folk, the black people in Birmingham, Alabama, aroused the conscience of this nation, and brought into being the Civil Rights Bill. If I had sneezed, I wouldn't have been around here later on that year, to tell America about a dream I had. Yes, I'm so happy that I did not sneeze.

I don't know what's going to happen now. I left Atlanta this morning, and we arrived here in Memphis and the some began to talk about the threats that were out on my life. Well, I don't know what's going to happen now. We have some difficult days ahead. But I am not concerned about that now because I've been to the mountaintop. And I don't mind. Like anybody, I would like to live a long life. Longevity has its place. But I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will. And He's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over. And seen the Promised Land. I may not get there with you. But I know as a people we'll get to the promised land!

Mine eyes have seen the Glory of the coming of the Lord. Halleluiah.

Thank God for Dr. King. Thank God for our Champions of Justice, sister Rosa Franklin, thank God for each of you and God Bless America."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "I just don't know. I think I speak for all of us when I say I don't think that I have ever had an experience quite as special here in this Washington State Senate Chamber. Was that not unbelievable? It was unbelievable. It was unbelievable. We are so blessed, we are so blessed, I think we will always, all of us, remember that feeling. It gives me chills. Thank you, Pastor. Thank you to everyone who participated in this very special opening ceremony."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LIAS

Senator Liias: "Thank you Mr. President. I add to your thanks and I want to especially thank Senator Becker. She's the one that reminded us that we'd had the pastor before, before I served in the Senate. And, I want to thank my aide, Curt Kohlwes and the rostrum staff for the interim long search until we finally laid eyes on the Reverend and got him back here to be with us. So, thank you to Senator Becker and the whole team that got him here for us as well. What a great way to start the ceremony."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Saldaña moved adoption of the following resolution:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Becker, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5389 was returned to second reading for the purposes of amendment.

MOTION

Senator Becker moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 904 by Senator Becker be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The legislature recognizes that unaddressed mental illness is a growing problem in Washington state. Early identification, intervention, and prevention are critical to a student's success in school and life. Other states have demonstrated that students' grades increase and truancy decreases by addressing mental health among students in schools. Future mental health care and housing costs will be reduced by addressing mental health issues early.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 28B.20 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The University of Washington, in collaboration with project ECHO (extension for community healthcare outcomes), shall design a training curriculum and training delivery system to train middle, junior high, and high school staff to identify students who are at risk for substance abuse, violence, or youth suicide.

(2) The training curriculum in subsection (1) of this section must:

(a) Be developed in consultation with mental health providers;

(b) Align with national best practices; and

(c) Be designed to assist any school staff in identifying students who:

(i) May be struggling with mental health issues;

(ii) Have had thoughts of suicide or harming others; and

(iii) Have abused, are abusing, or are at risk of abusing alcohol or drugs, including opioids.

(3) The training delivery system in subsection (1) of this section must utilize live teleconference or store-and-forward technology to deliver the trainings to school staff.

(4) Project ECHO shall coordinate with medical schools, hospitals, clinics, and independent providers to develop a directory of psychiatrists licensed to practice in Washington state who have access to telemedicine technology and are able to provide psychiatric teleconsultations to students who are determined to be at risk for substance abuse or committing violence to themselves or others. Project ECHO must update the directory periodically and make the directory available to all middle, junior high, and high schools in the state.

(5) For purposes of this section, "project echo" means the University of Washington school of medicine extension for community healthcare outcomes program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 28B.20 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The University of Washington, in collaboration with project ECHO (extension for community healthcare outcomes), shall seek grants, gifts, and donations to support:

(a) The development of the training curriculum, training delivery system, and directory of psychiatrists required by section 2 of this act; and

(b) The reimbursement for health care services provided by psychiatrists for the provision of psychiatric teleconsultations to students who do not have health insurance coverage.

(2) The University of Washington shall develop:

(a) A system to receive reimbursement requests from, and to distribute reimbursements to, psychiatrists who provide health care services under this section; and

(b) Methodology for determining the amount of a reimbursement paid to a psychiatrist.

(3) For purposes of this section, "project ECHO" means the University of Washington school of medicine extension for community healthcare outcomes program.

TENTH DAY, JANUARY 22, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 28A.210 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a certificated or classified employee trained under section 7 of this act, or a school counselor, school psychologist, or school social worker, identifies a student who may be at risk for substance abuse, violence, or youth suicide, a school counselor, school psychologist, school social worker, or school nurse must screen the student to determine if the student is at risk for substance abuse, violence, or youth suicide.

(2) If a school counselor, school psychologist, school social worker, or school nurse determines that a student is at risk for substance abuse, violence, or youth suicide, the student's school district must, subject to receiving consent under subsection (4) of this section, schedule a psychiatry teleconsultation for the student within thirty days of the determination, in accordance with the following:

(a) The school district must utilize the directory developed by project ECHO under section 2 of this act to enlist a psychiatrist to provide the student with two psychiatry teleconsultations;

(b) The school district must provide an unoccupied room and the technology necessary for the student to connect with the remote psychiatrist for the teleconsultations; and

(c) The school district must allow the student to participate in the two teleconsultations during normal school hours.

(3) If, following the initial psychiatry teleconsultation as described in subsection (2) of this section, a psychiatrist recommends a second psychiatry teleconsultation then the student's school district must, subject to receiving consent under subsection (4) of this section, schedule a second psychiatry teleconsultation for the student within thirty days of the recommendation, in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The school district may not schedule a psychiatry teleconsultation for a student without first receiving authorization from the student, or if the student is a minor under the age of thirteen, written authorization from a parent or person who may consent on behalf of the minor under RCW 7.70.065.

(5) Following a second psychiatric teleconsultation, the school district must work with the psychiatrist to refer the student to any appropriate medical, mental health, or behavioral health services.

(6) Psychiatrists who provide teleconference services in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) of this section may seek reimbursement for the health care services provided from the health plan in which a student is enrolled, including apple health for kids. For students with no health coverage, a psychiatrist may seek reimbursement from the state for any uncompensated health care services provided to the students.

(7) For purposes of this section, "project ECHO" means the University of Washington school of medicine extension for community healthcare outcomes program.

Sec. 27. RCW 28A.410.226 and 2013 c 197 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As provided under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, individuals certified by the professional educator standards board as a school nurse, school social worker, school psychologist, or school counselor must complete a training program on identifying and referring students who are at risk for substance abuse, violence, and youth suicide ((screening and referral)), including utilizing teleconsultation, as a condition of certification. The training program must be at least three hours in length. The professional educator standards board must adopt standards for the minimum content of the training in consultation with the office of the superintendent of public instruction and the department of health. In developing the standards, the board must consider training programs listed on the best practices registry of the American foundation for suicide prevention and the suicide prevention resource center.

(2) This section applies to the following certificates if the certificate is first issued or is renewed on or after July 1, ~~((2015))~~ 2020:

(a) Continuing certificates for school nurses;

(b) Continuing certificates for school social workers;

(c) Continuing and professional certificates for school psychologists; and

(d) Continuing and professional certificates for school counselors.

(3) A school counselor who holds or submits a school counseling certificate from the national board for professional teaching standards or a school psychologist who holds or submits a school psychologist certificate from the national association of school psychologists in lieu of a professional certificate must complete the training program under subsection (1) of this section by July 1, ~~((2015))~~ 2020, or within the five-year period before the certificate is first submitted to the professional educator standards board, whichever is later, and at least once every five years thereafter in order to be considered certified by the professional educator standards board.

(4) The professional educator standards board shall ~~((consider the training program under subsection (1) of this section as approved continuing education under RCW 28A.415.020 and shall))~~ count the training program under subsection (1) of this section toward meeting continuing education requirements for certification as a school nurse, school social worker, school psychologist, or school counselor.

Sec. 28. RCW 28A.410.035 and 2013 c 197 s 3 and 2013 c 10 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) To receive initial certification as a teacher in this state after August 31, 1991, an applicant shall have successfully completed a course on issues of abuse. The content of the course shall discuss the identification of physical abuse, emotional abuse, sexual abuse, and substance abuse; commercial sexual abuse of a minor, as defined in RCW 9.68A.100; sexual exploitation of a minor, as defined in RCW 9.68A.040; information on the impact of abuse on the behavior and learning abilities of students; discussion of the responsibilities of a teacher to report abuse or provide assistance to students who are the victims of abuse; and methods for teaching students about abuse of all types and their prevention.

(2) The professional educator standards board shall incorporate into the content required for the course under this section, knowledge and skill standards pertaining to recognition, initial screening, and response to emotional or behavioral distress in students, including but not limited to indicators of possible substance abuse, violence, and youth suicide. The course must also include the training curriculum created under section 2 of this act. To receive initial certification after August 31, ~~((2014))~~ 2020, an applicant must have successfully completed a course that includes the content of this subsection. The board shall consult with the office of the superintendent of public instruction and the department of health in developing the standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. A new section is added to chapter 28A.400 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Beginning in the 2021-22 school year, school districts shall require all certificated and classified employees at each school to receive training based on the curriculum developed under section 2 of this act.

(2) The training required under this section may be incorporated within existing training programs and related resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. This act does not create any civil liability on the part of the state or any state agency, officer, employee, agent, political subdivision, or school district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

MOTION

Senator Hasegawa moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 915 by Senator Hasegawa be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 32. RCW 43.86A.060 and 2009 c 385 s 3 and 2009 c 384 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The state treasurer shall establish a linked deposit program for investment of deposits in qualified public depositories. As a condition of participating in the program, qualified public depositories must make qualifying loans as provided in this section. The state treasurer may purchase a certificate of deposit that is equal to the amount of the qualifying loan made by the qualified public depository or may purchase a certificate of deposit that is equal to the aggregate amount of two or more qualifying loans made by one or more qualified public depositories.

(2) Qualifying loans made under this section are those:

(a) Having terms that do not exceed ten years;

TENTH DAY, JANUARY 22, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(b) Where an individual loan does not exceed one million dollars;

(c)(i) That are made to a minority or women's business enterprise that has received state certification under chapter 39.19 RCW;

(ii) That are made to a veteran-owned business that has received state certification under RCW 43.60A.190; or

(iii) That are made to a community development financial institution that is: (A) Certified by the United States department of the treasury pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Sec. 4701 et seq.; and (B) using that loan to make qualifying loans under (c)(i) of this subsection;

(d) Where the interest rate on the loan to the minority or women's business enterprise or veteran-owned business does not exceed an interest rate that is two hundred basis points below the interest rate the qualified public depository would charge for a loan for a similar purpose and a similar term, except that, if the preference given by the state treasurer to the qualified public depository under subsection (3) of this section is less than two hundred basis points, the qualified public depository may reduce the preference given on the loan by an amount that corresponds to the reduction in preference below two hundred basis points given to the qualified public depository; and

(e) Where the points or fees charged at loan closing do not exceed one percent of the loan amount.

(3) In setting interest rates of time certificate of deposits, the state treasurer shall offer rates so that a two hundred basis point preference will be given to the qualified public depository, except that the treasurer may lower the amount of the preference to ensure that the effective interest rate on the deposit is not less than zero percent.

(4) Upon notification by the state treasurer that a minority or women's business enterprise is no longer certified under chapter 39.19 RCW or that a veteran-owned business is no longer certified under RCW 43.60A.190, the qualified public depository shall reduce the amount of qualifying loans by the outstanding balance of the loan made under this section to the minority or women's business enterprise or the veteran-owned business, as applicable.

(5) A line of credit issued under the linked deposit program that has a zero balance for twelve or more months must be removed from the program.

(6) The office of minority and women's business enterprises has the authority to adopt rules to prioritize loans that:

(a) Ensure that when making a qualified loan under the linked deposit program, businesses that have never received a loan under the linked deposit program are given first priority;

(b) Limit the total principal loan amount that any one business receives in qualified loans under the linked deposit program over the lifetime of the businesses;

(c) Limit the total principal loan amount that an owner of one or more businesses receives in qualified loans under the linked deposit program during the owner's lifetime;

(d) Limit the total amount of any one qualified loan made under the linked deposit program; ~~(and)~~

(e) Ensure that loans made by community development financial institutions are qualifying loans under subsection (2)(c)(i) of this section; and

(f) Ensure that when making a qualified loan under the linked deposit program priority is given to loans that:

(i) Create jobs in underserved communities that have inadequate access to capital; and

(ii) Are for applicants that do not currently have loans with other small business lending agencies."

MOTION

Senator Brown moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION

By Senator Brown

WHEREAS, The United Nations designated 2019 as the International Year of the Periodic Table of Chemical Elements on December 20, 2017; and in doing so recognized the development of the periodic table of elements as one of the most significant achievements in science and a uniting scientific concept, with broad applications and implications in astronomy, chemistry, physics, biology, and other natural sciences; and

WHEREAS, The International Year of the Periodic Table will coincide with the 150th anniversary of the development of the periodic table of elements by Dmitry Mendeleev in 1869; and

WHEREAS, The periodic table of elements is a unique tool enabling scientists to predict the appearance and properties of matter on Earth and in the Universe; and

WHEREAS, Washington acknowledges that the International Year of the Periodic Table of Chemical Elements will give an opportunity to show how these chemical elements are central to improving the human condition and addressing the world's great challenges related to water, food, health, security, and energy; and

WHEREAS, It is critical that the brightest young minds continue to be attracted to chemistry and other branches of science in order to ensure the next generation of scientists, engineers, and innovators; and

WHEREAS, The American Chemical Society is committed to improving people's lives through the transforming power of chemistry and advancing the broader chemistry enterprise and chemistry practitioners for the benefits of Earth and its people; and

WHEREAS, The American Chemical Society encourages its members in Washington to work with their colleagues to organize outreach activities to instill public appreciation of the periodic table of elements and its contributions to the betterment of life on this planet;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate celebrate the International Year of the Periodic Table of Chemical Elements and observe the 150th anniversary of its development.

Senators Brown and Saldaña spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President announced that the reading of speeches by senators is not allowed under the rules of the senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8662.

The motion by Senator Brown carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "I don't think that many of us know that, can name very many items on the periodic table, but I believe that probably ninety percent of those in the state who can live in Senator Brown's district where there are so many brilliant engineers and scientists and researchers. So, wonderful resolution and recognition."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Ladies and Gentlemen: If I can have your attention for just one moment. I want to bring, I want to mention something that I think many of you are aware of already but I just wanted to take a moment here on the floor to recognize a very sad moment for our Senate family, our greater Senate family. You may have heard that former Senator Ken Jacobsen's wife, Rachel Jacobsen, passed away recently. And you may know her in that regard, for those of who served with Jake, you would have known her in that regard but some of us also got to know her in her capacity as Consul for New Zealand and her participation and work in representation of New Zealand and her leadership of the Consular Association of Washington which she chaired and was a very active member of for a long time and did a superb job representing New Zealand where, for example, establishing a relationship between Christchurch and Seattle. And so I just want to ask us to have just a moment of silence in honor of the passing of Rachel Jacobsen and in honor of our condolences we send to Senator Ken Jacobsen, retired, of the Senate of the 46th Legislative District. Please join me in a moment of silence."

MOMENT OF SILENCE

The Senate rose in observance of a moment of silence in memory of Ms. Rachel Jacobsen, who passed away January 17, 2020.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5720, by Senate Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Dhingra, Wagoner and Kuderer)

Concerning the involuntary treatment act.

The bill was read on Third Reading.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Dhingra, the rules were suspended and Second Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5720 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

MOTION

Senator Dhingra moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 909 by Senator Dhingra be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 33. RCW 71.05.010 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 203 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of this chapter apply to persons who are eighteen years of age or older and are intended by the legislature:

(a) To protect the health and safety of persons suffering from ~~((mental disorders and substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders and to protect public safety through use of the parens patriae and police powers of the state;

(b) To prevent inappropriate, indefinite commitment of ~~((mentally disordered persons and persons with substance use disorders))~~ persons living with behavioral health disorders and to eliminate legal disabilities that arise from such commitment;

(c) To provide prompt evaluation and timely and appropriate treatment of persons with serious ~~((mental disorders and substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders;

(d) To safeguard individual rights;

(e) To provide continuity of care for persons with serious ~~((mental disorders and substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders;

(f) To encourage the full use of all existing agencies, professional personnel, and public funds to prevent duplication of services and unnecessary expenditures; and

(g) To encourage, whenever appropriate, that services be provided within the community.

(2) When construing the requirements of this chapter the court must focus on the merits of the petition, except where requirements have been totally disregarded, as provided in In re C.W., 147 Wn.2d 259, 281 (2002). A presumption in favor of deciding petitions on their merits furthers both public and private interests because the mental and physical well-being of individuals as well as public safety may be implicated by the decision to release an individual and discontinue his or her treatment.

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Sec. 34. RCW 71.05.012 and 1997 c 112 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to enhance continuity of care for persons with serious ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorders that can be controlled or stabilized in a less restrictive alternative commitment. Within the guidelines stated in In re LaBelle 107 Wn. 2d 196 (1986), the legislature intends to encourage appropriate interventions at a point when there is the best opportunity to restore the person to or maintain satisfactory functioning.

For persons with a prior history or pattern of repeated hospitalizations or law enforcement interventions due to decompensation, the consideration of prior ~~((mental))~~ history is particularly relevant in determining whether the person would receive, if released, such care as is essential for his or her health or safety.

Therefore, the legislature finds that for persons who are currently under a commitment order, a prior history of decompensation leading to repeated hospitalizations or law enforcement interventions should be given great weight in determining whether a new less restrictive alternative commitment should be ordered.

Sec. 35. RCW 71.05.020 and 2019 c 446 s 2, 2019 c 444 s 16, and 2019 c 325 s 3001 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Admission" or "admit" means a decision by a physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner that a person should be examined or treated as a patient in a hospital;

(2) "Alcoholism" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning;

(3) "Antipsychotic medications" means that class of drugs primarily used to treat serious manifestations of mental illness associated with thought disorders, which includes, but is not limited to atypical antipsychotic medications;

(4) "Approved substance use disorder treatment program" means a program for persons with a substance use disorder provided by a treatment program certified by the department as meeting standards adopted under chapter 71.24 RCW;

(5) "Attending staff" means any person on the staff of a public or private agency having responsibility for the care and treatment of a patient;

(6) "Authority" means the Washington state health care authority;

(7) "Co-occurring disorder specialist" means an individual possessing an enhancement granted by the department of health under chapter 18.205 RCW that certifies the individual to provide substance use disorder counseling subject to the practice limitations under RCW 18.205.105;

(8) "Commitment" means the determination by a court that a person should be detained for a period of either evaluation or treatment, or both, in an inpatient or a less restrictive setting;

(9) "Conditional release" means a revocable modification of a commitment, which may be revoked upon violation of any of its terms;

(10) "Crisis stabilization unit" means a short-term facility or a portion of a facility licensed or certified by the department, such as an evaluation and treatment facility or a hospital, which has been designed to assess, diagnose, and treat individuals experiencing an acute crisis without the use of long-term hospitalization;

(11) "Custody" means involuntary detention under the provisions of this chapter or chapter 10.77 RCW, uninterrupted by any period of unconditional release from commitment from a facility providing involuntary care and treatment;

(12) "Department" means the department of health;

(13) "Designated crisis responder" means a mental health professional appointed by the county or an entity appointed by the county, to perform the duties specified in this chapter;

(14) "Detention" or "detain" means the lawful confinement of a person, under the provisions of this chapter;

(15) "Developmental disabilities professional" means a person who has specialized training and three years of experience in directly treating or working with persons with developmental disabilities and is a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or social worker, and such other developmental disabilities professionals as may be defined by rules adopted by the secretary of the department of social and health services;

(16) "Developmental disability" means that condition defined in RCW 71A.10.020(5);

(17) "Director" means the director of the authority;

(18) "Discharge" means the termination of hospital medical authority. The commitment may remain in place, be terminated, or be amended by court order;

(19) "Drug addiction" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on psychoactive chemicals, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning;

(20) "Evaluation and treatment facility" means any facility which can provide directly, or by direct arrangement with other public or private agencies, emergency evaluation and treatment, outpatient care, and timely and appropriate inpatient care to persons suffering from a mental disorder, and which is licensed or certified as such by the department. The authority may certify single beds as temporary evaluation and treatment beds under RCW 71.05.745. A physically separate and separately operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility. A facility which is part of, or operated by, the department of social and health services or any federal agency will not require certification. No correctional institution or facility, or jail, shall be an evaluation and treatment facility within the meaning of this chapter;

(21) "Gravely disabled" means a condition in which a person, as a result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder ~~((or as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals))~~: (a) Is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his or her essential human needs of health or safety; or (b) manifests severe deterioration ~~((in routine functioning))~~ from safe behavior evidenced by repeated and escalating loss of cognitive or volitional control over his or her actions and is not receiving such care as is essential for his or her health or safety;

(22) "Habilitative services" means those services provided by program personnel to assist persons in acquiring and maintaining life skills and in raising their levels of physical, mental, social, and vocational functioning. Habilitative services include education, training for employment, and therapy. The habilitative process shall be undertaken with recognition of the risk to the public safety presented by the person being assisted as manifested by prior charged criminal conduct;

(23) "Hearing" means any proceeding conducted in open court ~~(For purposes of this chapter, at any hearing the petitioner, the respondent, the witnesses, and the presiding judicial officer may be present and participate either in person or by video, as determined by the court. The term "video" as used herein shall include any functional equivalent. At any hearing conducted by video, the technology used must permit the judicial officer, counsel, all parties, and the witnesses to be able to see, hear, and speak, when authorized, during the hearing; to allow attorneys to use exhibits or other materials during the hearing; and to allow respondent's counsel to be in the same location as the respondent unless otherwise requested by the respondent or the respondent's counsel. Witnesses in a proceeding may also appear in court through other means, including telephonically, pursuant to the requirements of superior court civil rule 43. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court, upon its own motion or upon a motion for good cause by any party, may require all parties and witnesses to participate in the hearing in person rather than by video. In ruling on any such motion, the court may allow in person or video testimony; and the court may consider, among other things, whether the respondent's alleged mental illness affects the respondent's ability to perceive or participate in the proceeding by video)~~ that conforms to the requirements of section 99 of this act;

(24) "History of one or more violent acts" refers to the period of time ten years prior to the filing of a petition under this chapter, excluding any time spent, but not any violent acts committed, in a ~~(mental) behavioral health facility~~ ~~(a long-term alcoholism or drug treatment facility)~~, or in confinement as a result of a criminal conviction;

(25) "Imminent" means the state or condition of being likely to occur at any moment or near at hand, rather than distant or remote;

(26) "In need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment" means that a person, as a result of a ~~(mental disorder or substance use)~~ behavioral health disorder: (a) Has been committed by a court to detention for involuntary behavioral health treatment during the preceding thirty-six months; (b) is unlikely to voluntarily participate in outpatient treatment without an order for less restrictive alternative treatment, based on a history of nonadherence with treatment or in view of the person's current behavior; (c) is likely to benefit from less restrictive alternative treatment; and (d) requires less restrictive alternative treatment to prevent a relapse, decompensation, or deterioration that is likely to result in the person presenting a likelihood of serious harm or the person becoming gravely disabled within a reasonably short period of time;

(27) "Individualized service plan" means a plan prepared by a developmental disabilities professional with other professionals as a team, for a person with developmental disabilities, which shall state:

(a) The nature of the person's specific problems, prior charged criminal behavior, and habilitation needs;

(b) The conditions and strategies necessary to achieve the purposes of habilitation;

(c) The intermediate and long-range goals of the habilitation program, with a projected timetable for the attainment;

(d) The rationale for using this plan of habilitation to achieve those intermediate and long-range goals;

(e) The staff responsible for carrying out the plan;

(f) Where relevant in light of past criminal behavior and due consideration for public safety, the criteria for proposed movement to less-restrictive settings, criteria for proposed eventual discharge or release, and a projected possible date for discharge or release; and

(g) The type of residence immediately anticipated for the person and possible future types of residences;

~~(28) ("Information related to mental health services" means all information and records compiled, obtained, or maintained in the course of providing services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services by a mental health service provider. This may include documents of legal proceedings under this chapter or chapter 71.34 or 10.77 RCW, or somatic health care information;~~

~~(29))~~ (29) "Intoxicated person" means a person whose mental or physical functioning is substantially impaired as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals;

~~((30))~~ (29) "Judicial commitment" means a commitment by a court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

~~((31))~~ (30) "Legal counsel" means attorneys and staff employed by county prosecutor offices or the state attorney general acting in their capacity as legal representatives of public ~~(mental) behavioral health~~ ~~(and substance use disorder)~~ service providers under RCW 71.05.130;

~~((32))~~ (31) "Less restrictive alternative treatment" means a program of individualized treatment in a less restrictive setting than inpatient treatment that includes the services described in RCW 71.05.585;

~~((33))~~ (32) "Licensed physician" means a person licensed to practice medicine or osteopathic medicine and surgery in the state of Washington;

~~((34))~~ (33) "Likelihood of serious harm" means:

(a) A substantial risk that: (i) Physical harm will be inflicted by a person upon his or her own person, as evidenced by threats or attempts to commit suicide or inflict physical harm on oneself; (ii) physical harm will be inflicted by a person upon another, as evidenced by behavior which has caused ~~(such)~~ harm, substantial pain, or which places another person or persons in reasonable fear of ~~(sustaining such)~~ harm to themselves or others; or (iii) physical harm will be inflicted by a person upon the property of others, as evidenced by behavior which has caused substantial loss or damage to the property of others; or

(b) The person has threatened the physical safety of another and has a history of one or more violent acts;

~~((35))~~ (34) "Medical clearance" means a physician or other health care provider has determined that a person is medically stable and ready for referral to the designated crisis responder;

~~((36))~~ (35) "Mental disorder" means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment which has substantial adverse effects on a person's cognitive or volitional functions;

~~((37))~~ (36) "Mental health professional" means a psychiatrist, psychologist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, psychiatric nurse, or social worker, and such other mental health professionals as may be defined by rules adopted by the secretary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

~~((38))~~ (37) ~~(Mental) Behavioral health service provider"~~ means a public or private agency that provides mental health, substance use disorder, or co-occurring disorder services to persons with ~~(mental disorders or substance use)~~ behavioral health disorders as defined under this section and receives funding from public sources. This includes, but is not limited to, hospitals licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, evaluation and treatment facilities as defined in this section, community mental health service delivery systems or community behavioral health programs as defined in RCW 71.24.025, facilities conducting competency evaluations and restoration under chapter 10.77 RCW, approved substance use disorder treatment programs as defined in this section, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facilities as defined in this section, and correctional facilities operated by state and local governments;

~~((39))~~ (38) "Peace officer" means a law enforcement official of a public agency or governmental unit, and includes persons

~~((53))~~ (51) "Substance use disorder" means a cluster of cognitive, behavioral, and physiological symptoms indicating that an individual continues using the substance despite significant substance-related problems. The diagnosis of a substance use disorder is based on a pathological pattern of behaviors related to the use of the substances;

~~((54))~~ (52) "Substance use disorder professional" means a person certified as a substance use disorder professional by the department of health under chapter 18.205 RCW;

~~((55))~~ (53) "Therapeutic court personnel" means the staff of a mental health court or other therapeutic court which has jurisdiction over defendants who are dually diagnosed with mental disorders, including court personnel, probation officers, a court monitor, prosecuting attorney, or defense counsel acting within the scope of therapeutic court duties;

~~((56))~~ (54) "Treatment records" include registration and all other records concerning persons who are receiving or who at any time have received services for ~~((mental illness))~~ behavioral health disorders, which are maintained by the department of social and health services, the department, the authority, behavioral health administrative services organizations and their staffs, managed care organizations and their staffs, and by treatment facilities. Treatment records include mental health information contained in a medical bill including but not limited to mental health drugs, a mental health diagnosis, provider name, and dates of service stemming from a medical service. Treatment records do not include notes or records maintained for personal use by a person providing treatment services for the department of social and health services, the department, the authority, behavioral health administrative services organizations, managed care organizations, or a treatment facility if the notes or records are not available to others;

~~((57))~~ (55) "Triage facility" means a short-term facility or a portion of a facility licensed or certified by the department, which is designed as a facility to assess and stabilize an individual or determine the need for involuntary commitment of an individual, and must meet department residential treatment facility standards. A triage facility may be structured as a voluntary or involuntary placement facility;

~~((58))~~ (56) "Violent act" means behavior that resulted in homicide, attempted suicide, ~~((nonfatal injuries))~~ injury, or substantial loss or damage to property;

(57) "Behavioral health disorder" means either a mental disorder as defined in this section, a substance use disorder as defined in this section, or a co-occurring mental disorder and substance use disorder;

(58) "Severe deterioration from safe behavior" means that a person will, if not treated, suffer or continue to suffer severe and abnormal mental, emotional, or physical distress, and this distress is associated with significant impairment of judgment, reason, or behavior;

(59) "Written order of apprehension" means an order of the court for a peace officer to deliver the named person in the order to a facility or emergency room as determined by the designated crisis responder. Such orders shall be entered into the Washington crime information center database;

(60) "Video" means the delivery of behavioral health services through the use of interactive audio and video technology, permitting real-time communication between a person and a designated crisis responder, for the purpose of evaluation. "Video" does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, email, or store and forward technology. "Store and forward technology" means use of an asynchronous transmission of a person's medical information from a mental health service provider to the designated crisis responder which results in medical diagnosis, consultation, or treatment.

Sec. 36. RCW 71.05.025 and 2019 c 325 s 3002 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature intends that the procedures and services authorized in this chapter be integrated with those in chapter 71.24 RCW to the maximum extent necessary to assure ~~((#))~~ an appropriate continuum of care ~~((#))~~ for persons with ~~((mental illness or who have mental disorders or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders, as defined in either or both this chapter and chapter 71.24 RCW. To this end, behavioral health administrative services organizations established in accordance with chapter 71.24 RCW shall institute procedures which require timely consultation with resource management services by designated crisis responders, managed care organizations, evaluation and treatment facilities, secure ~~((detoxification))~~ withdrawal management and stabilization facilities, and approved substance use disorder treatment programs to assure that determinations to admit, detain, commit, treat, discharge, or release persons with ~~((mental disorders or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders under this chapter are made only after appropriate information regarding such person's treatment history and current treatment plan has been sought from resource management services.

Sec. 37. RCW 71.05.026 and 2019 c 325 s 3003 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except for monetary damage claims which have been reduced to final judgment by a superior court, this section applies to all claims against the state, state agencies, state officials, or state employees that exist on or arise after March 29, 2006.

(2) Except as expressly provided in contracts entered into by the authority, the entities identified in subsection (3) of this section shall have no claim for declaratory relief, injunctive relief, judicial review under chapter 34.05 RCW, or civil liability against the state or state agencies for actions or inactions performed pursuant to the administration of this chapter with regard to the following: (a) The allocation or payment of federal or state funds; (b) the use or allocation of state hospital beds; or (c) financial responsibility for the provision of inpatient ~~((mental health care or inpatient substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder treatment and care.

(3) This section applies to counties, behavioral health administrative services organizations, managed care organizations, and entities which contract to provide behavioral health services and their subcontractors, agents, or employees.

Sec. 38. RCW 71.05.030 and 1998 c 297 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Persons suffering from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder may not be involuntarily committed for treatment of such disorder except pursuant to provisions of this chapter, chapter 10.77 RCW, chapter 71.06 RCW, chapter 71.34 RCW, transfer pursuant to RCW 72.68.031 through 72.68.037, or pursuant to court ordered evaluation and treatment not to exceed ninety days pending a criminal trial or sentencing.

Sec. 39. RCW 71.05.040 and 2018 c 201 s 3004 are each amended to read as follows:

Persons with developmental disabilities, impaired by substance use disorder, or suffering from dementia shall not be detained for evaluation and treatment or judicially committed solely by reason of that condition unless such condition causes a person to be gravely disabled or ~~((as a result of a mental disorder such condition exists that constitutes))~~ to present a likelihood of serious harm. However, persons with developmental disabilities, impaired by substance use disorder, or suffering from dementia and who otherwise meet the criteria for detention or judicial commitment are not ineligible for detention or commitment based on this condition alone.

Sec. 40. RCW 71.05.050 and 2019 c 446 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit the right of any person to apply voluntarily to any public or private agency or practitioner for treatment of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, either by direct application or by referral. Any person voluntarily admitted for inpatient treatment to any public or private agency shall be released immediately upon his or her request. Any person voluntarily admitted for inpatient treatment to any public or private agency shall orally be advised of the right to immediate discharge, and further advised of such rights in writing as are secured to them pursuant to this chapter and their rights of access to attorneys, courts, and other legal redress. Their condition and status shall be reviewed at least once each one hundred eighty days for evaluation as to the need for further treatment or possible discharge, at which time they shall again be advised of their right to discharge upon request.

(2) If the professional staff of any public or private agency or hospital regards a person voluntarily admitted who requests discharge as presenting, as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled, they may detain such person for sufficient time to notify the designated crisis responder of such person's condition to enable the designated crisis responder to authorize such person being further held in custody or transported to an evaluation and treatment center, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, which shall in ordinary circumstances be no later than the next judicial day.

(3) If a person is brought to the emergency room of a public or private agency or hospital for observation or treatment, the person refuses voluntary admission, and the professional staff of the public or private agency or hospital regard such person as presenting as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or as presenting an imminent danger because of grave disability, they may detain such person for sufficient time to notify the designated crisis responder of such person's condition to enable the designated crisis responder to authorize such person being further held in custody or transported to an evaluation treatment center, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program pursuant to the conditions in this chapter, but which time shall be no more than six hours from the time the professional staff notify the designated crisis responder of the need for evaluation, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance.

(4) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section based on the intent of this chapter under RCW 71.05.010 except in the few cases where the facility staff or designated crisis responder has totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

Sec. 41. RCW 71.05.100 and 2018 c 201 s 3005 are each amended to read as follows:

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

In addition to the responsibility provided for by RCW 43.20B.330, any person, or his or her estate, or his or her spouse, ~~((or the parents of a minor person))~~ who is involuntarily detained pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of treatment and evaluation outside of a facility maintained and operated by the department of social and health services shall be responsible for the cost of such care and treatment. In the event that an individual is unable to pay for such treatment or in the event payment would result in a substantial hardship upon the individual or his or her family, then the county of residence of such person shall be responsible for such costs. If it is not possible to determine the county of residence of the person, the cost shall be borne by the county where the person was originally detained. The department of social and health services, or the authority, as appropriate, shall, pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, adopt standards as to (1) inability to pay in whole or in part, (2) a definition of substantial hardship, and (3) appropriate payment schedules. Financial responsibility with respect to services and facilities of the department of social and health services shall continue to be as provided in RCW 43.20B.320 through 43.20B.360 and 43.20B.370.

Sec. 42. RCW 71.05.120 and 2019 c 446 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No officer of a public or private agency, nor the superintendent, professional person in charge, his or her professional designee, or attending staff of any such agency, nor any public official performing functions necessary to the administration of this chapter, nor peace officer responsible for detaining a person pursuant to this chapter, nor any designated crisis responder, nor the state, a unit of local government, an evaluation and treatment facility, a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program shall be civilly or criminally liable for performing duties pursuant to this chapter with regard to the decision of whether to admit, discharge, release, administer antipsychotic medications, or detain a person for evaluation and treatment: PROVIDED, That such duties were performed in good faith and without gross negligence.

(2) Peace officers and their employing agencies are not liable for the referral of a person, or the failure to refer a person, to a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health agency pursuant to a policy adopted pursuant to RCW 71.05.457 if such action or inaction is taken in good faith and without gross negligence.

(3) This section does not relieve a person from giving the required notices under RCW 71.05.330(2) or 71.05.340(1)(b), or the duty to warn or to take reasonable precautions to provide protection from violent behavior where the patient has communicated an actual threat of physical violence against a reasonably identifiable victim or victims. The duty to warn or to take reasonable precautions to provide protection from violent behavior is discharged if reasonable efforts are made to communicate the threat to the victim or victims and to law enforcement personnel.

Sec. 43. RCW 71.05.132 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 209 are each amended to read as follows:

When any court orders a person to receive treatment under this chapter, the order shall include a statement that if the person is, or becomes, subject to supervision by the department of corrections, the person must notify the treatment provider and the person's ~~((mental health))~~ treatment ~~((information and substance use disorder treatment information))~~ records must be shared with the department of corrections for the duration of the offender's incarceration and supervision, under RCW 71.05.445. Upon a petition by a person who does not have a history of one or more violent acts, the court may, for good cause, find that public safety would not be enhanced by the sharing of this person's information.

(1) When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, ~~((substance use disorder, or both))~~ presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, or that a person is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment; the designated crisis responder may, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of any person providing information to initiate detention or involuntary outpatient treatment, if satisfied that the allegations are true and that the person will not voluntarily seek appropriate treatment, file a petition for initial detention under this section or a petition for involuntary outpatient behavioral health treatment under RCW 71.05.148. Before filing the petition, the designated crisis responder must personally interview the person, unless the person refuses an interview, and determine whether the person will voluntarily receive appropriate evaluation and treatment at an evaluation and treatment facility, crisis stabilization unit, triage facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. The interview performed by the designated crisis responder may be conducted by video provided that a licensed health care professional or professional person who can adequately and accurately assist with obtaining any necessary information is available at the time of the interview.

(2)(a) ~~((An))~~ A written order of apprehension to detain a person with a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder to a designated evaluation and treatment facility, ~~((or to detain a person with a substance use disorder to))~~ a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program, for not more than a seventy-two-hour evaluation and treatment period may be issued by a judge of the superior court upon request of a designated crisis responder, subject to (d) of this subsection, whenever it appears to the satisfaction of a judge of the superior court:

- (i) That there is probable cause to support the petition; and
- (ii) That the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate treatment and treatment voluntarily.

(b) The petition for initial detention, signed under penalty of perjury, or sworn telephonic testimony may be considered by the court in determining whether there are sufficient grounds for issuing the order.

(c) The order shall designate retained counsel or, if counsel is appointed from a list provided by the court, the name, business address, and telephone number of the attorney appointed to represent the person.

(d) A court may not issue an order to detain a person to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program unless there is an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program that has adequate space for the person.

(3) The designated crisis responder shall then serve or cause to be served on such person, his or her guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the order together with a notice of rights, and a petition for initial detention. After service on such person the designated crisis responder shall file the return of service in court and provide copies of all papers in the court file to the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, and the designated attorney. The designated crisis responder shall notify the court and the prosecuting attorney that a probable cause hearing will be held within seventy-two hours of the date and time of outpatient evaluation or admission to the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. The person shall be permitted to be accompanied by one or more of his or her relatives, friends, an attorney, a personal physician, or other professional or religious advisor to the place of evaluation. An attorney accompanying the person to the place of evaluation shall be permitted to be present during the admission evaluation. Any other individual accompanying the person may be present during the admission evaluation. The facility may exclude the individual if his or her presence would present a safety risk, delay the proceedings, or otherwise interfere with the evaluation.

(4) The designated crisis responder may notify a peace officer to take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. At the time such person is taken into custody there shall commence to be served on such person, his or her guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the original order together with a notice of rights and a petition for initial detention.

Sec. 45. RCW 71.05.150 and 2019 c 446 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, ~~((substance use disorder, or both))~~ presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, or that a person is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment; the designated crisis responder may, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of any person providing information to initiate detention or involuntary outpatient treatment, if satisfied that the allegations are true and that the person will not voluntarily seek appropriate treatment, file a petition for initial detention under this section or a petition for involuntary outpatient behavioral health treatment under RCW 71.05.148. Before filing the petition, the designated crisis responder must personally interview the person, unless the person refuses an interview, and determine whether the person will voluntarily receive appropriate evaluation and treatment at an evaluation and treatment facility, crisis stabilization unit, triage facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. The interview performed by the designated crisis responder may be conducted by video provided that a licensed health care professional or professional person who can adequately and accurately assist with obtaining any necessary information is available at the time of the interview.

(2)(a) ~~((An))~~ A written order of apprehension to detain a person with a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder to a designated evaluation and treatment facility, ~~((or to detain a person with a substance use disorder to))~~ a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program, for a period of not more than ~~((a seventy-two-hour))~~ one hundred twenty hours for evaluation and treatment ~~((period))~~, may be issued by a judge of the superior court upon request of a designated crisis responder, subject to (d) of this subsection, whenever it appears to the satisfaction of a judge of the superior court:

- (i) That there is probable cause to support the petition; and
- (ii) That the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate evaluation and treatment voluntarily.

(b) The petition for initial detention, signed under penalty of perjury, or sworn telephonic testimony may be considered by the court in determining whether there are sufficient grounds for issuing the order.

(c) The order shall designate retained counsel or, if counsel is appointed from a list provided by the court, the name, business address, and telephone number of the attorney appointed to represent the person.

(d) A court may not issue an order to detain a person to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program unless there is an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program that has adequate space for the person.

(3) The designated crisis responder shall then serve or cause to be served on such person, his or her guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the order together with a notice of rights, and a petition for initial detention. After service on such person the designated crisis responder shall file the return of service in court and provide copies of all papers in the court file to the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, and the designated attorney. The designated crisis responder shall notify the court and the prosecuting attorney that a probable cause hearing will be held within ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours of the date and time of outpatient evaluation or admission to the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. The person shall be permitted to be accompanied by one or more of his or her relatives, friends, an attorney, a personal physician, or other professional or religious advisor to the place of evaluation. An attorney accompanying the person to the place of evaluation shall be permitted to be present during the admission evaluation. Any other individual accompanying the person may be present during the admission evaluation. The facility may exclude the individual if his or her presence would present a safety risk, delay the proceedings, or otherwise interfere with the evaluation.

(4) The designated crisis responder may notify a peace officer to take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. At the time such person is taken into custody there shall commence to be served on such person, his or her guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the original order together with a notice of rights and a petition for initial detention.

Sec. 46. RCW 71.05.150 and 2019 c 446 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, ~~((substance use disorder, or both))~~ presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, or that a person is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment; the designated crisis responder may, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of any person providing information to initiate detention or involuntary outpatient treatment, if satisfied that the allegations are true and that the person will not voluntarily seek appropriate treatment, file a petition for initial detention under this section or a petition for involuntary outpatient behavioral health treatment under RCW 71.05.148. The facility may exclude the individual if his or her presence would present a safety risk, delay the proceedings, or otherwise interfere with the evaluation.

(4) The designated crisis responder may notify a peace officer to take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program. At the time such person is taken into custody there shall commence to be served on such person, his or her guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the original order together with a notice of rights and a petition for initial detention.

Sec. 47. RCW 71.05.153 and 2019 c 446 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as the result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the designated crisis responder may take such person, or cause by oral or written order such person to be taken into emergency custody in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility if available with adequate space for the person, or approved substance use disorder treatment program if available with adequate space for the person, for not more than seventy-two hours as described in RCW 71.05.180.

~~((2))~~ ~~((When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as the result of substance use disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the designated crisis responder may take the person, or cause by oral or written order the person to be taken, into emergency custody in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program for not more than seventy-two hours as described in RCW 71.05.180, if a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program is available and has adequate space for the person.~~

~~((3))~~(a) Subject to (b) of this subsection, a peace officer may take or cause such person to be taken into custody and immediately delivered to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, approved substance use disorder treatment program, or the emergency department of a local hospital under the following circumstances:

- (i) Pursuant to subsection (1) ~~((or (2)))~~ of this section; or
- (ii) When he or she has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a ~~((or substance use disorder))~~ behavioral health disorder ~~((or substance use disorder))~~ and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled.

(b) A peace officer's delivery of a person, ~~((based on a substance use disorder,))~~ to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program is subject to the availability of a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the person.

~~((4))~~ (3) Persons delivered to a crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, emergency department of a local hospital, triage facility that has elected to operate as an involuntary facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program by peace officers pursuant to subsection ~~((3))~~ (2) of this section may be held by the facility for a period of up to twelve hours, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance.

~~((5))~~ (4) Within three hours after arrival, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, the person must be examined by a mental health professional or substance use disorder professional. Within twelve hours of notice of the need for evaluation, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, the designated crisis responder must determine whether the individual meets detention criteria. The interview performed by the designated crisis responder may be conducted by video provided that a licensed health care professional or professional person who can adequately and accurately assist with obtaining any necessary information is available at the time of the interview. If the individual is detained, the designated crisis responder shall file a petition for detention or a supplemental petition as appropriate and commence service on the designated attorney for the detained person. If the individual is released to the community, the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider shall inform the peace officer of the release within a reasonable period of time after the release if the peace officer has specifically requested notification and provided contact information to the provider.

~~((6))~~ (5) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section based on the intent of this chapter under RCW 71.05.010 except in the few cases where the facility staff or designated ~~((mental health professional))~~ crisis responder has totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

Sec. 48. RCW 71.05.153 and 2019 c 446 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as the result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the designated crisis responder may take such person, or cause by oral or written order such person to be taken into emergency custody in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility if available with adequate space for the person, or approved substance use disorder treatment program if available with adequate space for the person, for not more than ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours as described in RCW 71.05.180.

~~(3))~~(a) Subject to (b) of this subsection, a peace officer may take or cause such person to be taken into custody and immediately delivered to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, approved substance use disorder treatment program, or the emergency department of a local hospital under the following circumstances:

(i) Pursuant to subsection (1) ~~((or (2)))~~ of this section; or
 (ii) When he or she has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder ~~((or substance use disorder))~~ and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled.

(b) A peace officer's delivery of a person, ~~((based on a substance use disorder,))~~ to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program is subject to the availability of a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the person.

~~((4))~~ (3) Persons delivered to a crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, emergency department of a local hospital, triage facility that has elected to operate as an involuntary facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program by peace officers pursuant to subsection ~~((2))~~ (2) of this section may be held by the facility for a period of up to twelve hours, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance.

~~((5))~~ (4) Within three hours after arrival, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, the person must be examined by a mental health professional or substance use disorder professional. Within twelve hours of notice of the need for evaluation, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, the designated crisis responder must determine whether the individual meets detention criteria. If the individual is released to the community, the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider shall inform the peace officer of the release within a reasonable period of time after the release if the peace officer has specifically requested notification and provided contact information to the provider.

~~((6))~~ (5) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section based on the intent of this chapter under RCW 71.05.010 except in the few cases where the facility staff or designated ~~((mental health professional))~~ crisis responder has totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

(1) When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as the result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the designated crisis responder may take such person, or cause by oral or written order such person to be taken into emergency custody in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, for not more than ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours as described in RCW 71.05.180.

~~(2) ((When a designated crisis responder receives information alleging that a person, as the result of substance use disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the designated crisis responder may take the person, or cause by oral or written order the person to be taken, into emergency custody in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program for not more than seventy-two hours as described in RCW 71.05.180.~~

~~(3))~~ A peace officer may take or cause such person to be taken into custody and immediately delivered to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, approved substance use disorder treatment program, or the emergency department of a local hospital under the following circumstances:

(a) Pursuant to subsection (1) ~~((or (2)))~~ of this section; or
 (b) When he or she has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder ~~((or substance use disorder))~~ and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled.

~~((4))~~ (3) Persons delivered to a crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, emergency department of a local hospital, triage facility that has elected to operate as an involuntary facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program by peace officers pursuant to subsection ~~((3))~~ (2) of this section may be held by the facility for a period of up to twelve hours, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance.

~~((5))~~ (4) Within three hours after arrival, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, the person must be examined by a mental health professional or substance use disorder professional. Within twelve hours of notice of the need for evaluation, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, the designated crisis responder must determine whether the individual meets detention criteria. The interview performed by the designated crisis responder may be conducted by video provided that a licensed health care professional or professional person who can adequately and accurately assist with obtaining any necessary information is available at the time of the interview. If the individual is detained, the designated crisis responder shall file a petition for detention or a supplemental petition as appropriate and commence service on the designated attorney for the detained person. If the individual is released to the community, the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider shall inform the peace officer of the release within a reasonable period of time after the release if the peace officer has specifically requested notification and provided contact information to the provider.

~~((6))~~ (5) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section based on the intent of this chapter under RCW 71.05.010 except in the few cases where the facility staff or designated ~~((mental health professional))~~ crisis responder has totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

(1) Any facility receiving a person pursuant to RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 shall require the designated crisis responder to prepare a petition for initial detention stating the circumstances under which the person's condition was made known and stating that there is evidence, as a result of his or her personal observation or investigation, that the actions of the person for which application is made constitute a likelihood of serious harm, or that he or she is gravely disabled, and stating the specific facts known to him or her as a result of his or her personal observation or investigation, upon which he or she bases the belief that such person should be detained for the purposes and under the authority of this chapter.

(2)(a) If a person is involuntarily placed in an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program pursuant to RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153, on the next judicial day following the initial detention, the designated crisis responder shall file with the court and serve the designated attorney of the detained person the petition or supplemental petition for initial detention, proof of service of notice, and a copy of a notice of emergency detention.

(b) If the person is involuntarily detained at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program in a different county from where the person was initially detained, the facility or program may file with the court and serve the designated attorney of the detained person the petition or supplemental petition for initial detention, proof of service of notice, and a copy of a notice of emergency detention at the request of the designated crisis responder.

Sec. 51. RCW 71.05.170 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 218 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the designated crisis responder petitions for detention of a person whose actions constitute a likelihood of serious harm, or who is gravely disabled, the facility providing ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour evaluation and treatment must immediately accept on a provisional basis the petition and the person. The facility shall then evaluate the person's condition and admit, detain, transfer, or discharge such person in accordance with RCW 71.05.210. The facility shall notify in writing the court and the designated crisis responder of the date and time of the initial detention of each person involuntarily detained in order that a probable cause hearing shall be held no later than ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours after detention.

The duty of a state hospital to accept persons for evaluation and treatment under this section shall be limited by chapter 71.24 RCW.

Sec. 52. RCW 71.05.180 and 2019 c 446 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

If the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admits the person, it may detain him or her for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours from the time of acceptance as set forth in RCW 71.05.170. The computation of such ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour period shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Sec. 53. RCW 71.05.182 and 2019 c 247 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person who under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 has been detained at a facility for ~~((seventy-two hour))~~ a period of not more than one hundred twenty hours for evaluation and treatment on the grounds that the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, but who has not been subsequently committed for involuntary treatment under RCW 71.05.240, may not have in his or her possession or control any firearm for a period of six months after the date that the person is detained.

(2) Before the discharge of a person who has been initially detained under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 on the grounds that the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, but has not been subsequently committed for involuntary treatment under RCW 71.05.240, the designated crisis responder shall inform the person orally and in writing that:

(a) He or she is prohibited from possessing or controlling any firearm for a period of six months;

(b) He or she must immediately surrender, for the six-month period, any concealed pistol license and any firearms that the person possesses or controls to the sheriff of the county or the chief of police of the municipality in which the person is domiciled;

(c) After the six-month suspension, the person's right to control or possess any firearm or concealed pistol license shall be automatically restored, absent further restrictions imposed by other law; and

(d) Upon discharge, the person may petition the superior court to have his or her right to possess a firearm restored before the six-month suspension period has elapsed by following the procedures provided in RCW 9.41.047(3).

(3)(a) A law enforcement agency holding any firearm that has been surrendered pursuant to this section shall, upon the request of the person from whom it was obtained, return the firearm at the expiration of the six-month suspension period, or prior to the expiration of the six-month period if the person's right to possess firearms has been restored by the court under RCW 9.41.047. The law enforcement agency must comply with the provisions of RCW 9.41.345 when returning a firearm pursuant to this section.

(b) Any firearm surrendered pursuant to this section that remains unclaimed by the lawful owner shall be disposed of in accordance with the law enforcement agency's policies and procedures for the disposal of firearms in police custody.

Sec. 54. RCW 71.05.190 and 2019 c 446 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

If the person is not approved for admission by a facility providing ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour evaluation and treatment, and the individual has not been arrested, the facility shall furnish transportation, if not otherwise available, for the person to his or her place of residence or other appropriate place. If the individual has been arrested, the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program shall detain the individual for not more than eight hours at the request of the peace officer. The facility shall make reasonable attempts to contact the requesting peace officer during this time to inform the peace officer that the person is not approved for admission in order to enable a peace officer to return to the facility and take the individual back into custody.

Sec. 55. RCW 71.05.195 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 221 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A civil commitment may be initiated under the procedures described in RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 for a person who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity in a state other than Washington and who has fled from detention, commitment, or conditional release in that state, on the basis of a request by the state in which the person was found not guilty by reason of insanity for the person to be detained and transferred back to the custody or care of the requesting state. A finding of likelihood of serious harm or grave disability is not required for a commitment under this section. The detention may occur at either an evaluation and treatment facility or a state hospital. The petition for ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour detention filed by the designated crisis responder must be accompanied by the following documents:

(a) A copy of an order for detention, commitment, or conditional release of the person in a state other than Washington on the basis of a judgment of not guilty by reason of insanity;

(b) A warrant issued by a magistrate in the state in which the person was found not guilty by reason of insanity indicating that the person has fled from detention, commitment, or conditional release in that state and authorizing the detention of the person within the state in which the person was found not guilty by reason of insanity;

(c) A statement from the executive authority of the state in which the person was found not guilty by reason of insanity requesting that the person be returned to the requesting state and agreeing to facilitate the transfer of the person to the requesting state.

(2) The person shall be entitled to a probable cause hearing within the time limits applicable to other detentions under this chapter and shall be afforded the rights described in this chapter including the right to counsel. At the probable cause hearing, the court shall determine the identity of the person and whether the other requirements of this section are met. If the court so finds, the court may order continued detention in a treatment facility for up to thirty days for the purpose of the transfer of the person to the custody or care of the requesting state. The court may order a less restrictive alternative to detention only under conditions which ensure the person's safe transfer to the custody or care of the requesting state within thirty days without undue risk to the safety of the person or others.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "not guilty by reason of insanity" shall be construed to include any provision of law which is generally equivalent to a finding of criminal insanity within the state of Washington; and "state" shall be construed to mean any state, district, or territory of the United States.

Sec. 56. RCW 71.05.201 and 2018 c 291 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a designated crisis responder decides not to detain a person for evaluation and treatment under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or forty-eight hours have elapsed since a designated crisis responder received a request for investigation and the designated crisis responder has not taken action to have the person detained, an immediate family member or guardian or conservator of the person may petition the superior court for the person's initial detention.

(2) A petition under this section must be filed within ten calendar days following the designated crisis responder investigation or the request for a designated crisis responder investigation. If more than ten days have elapsed, the immediate family member, guardian, or conservator may request a new designated crisis responder investigation.

(3)(a) The petition must be filed in the county in which the designated crisis responder investigation occurred or was requested to occur and must be submitted on forms developed by the administrative office of the courts for this purpose. The petition must be accompanied by a sworn declaration from the petitioner, and other witnesses if desired, describing why the person should be detained for evaluation and treatment. The description of why the person should be detained may contain, but is not limited to, the information identified in RCW 71.05.212.

(b) The petition must contain:

(i) A description of the relationship between the petitioner and the person; and

(ii) The date on which an investigation was requested from the designated crisis responder.

(4) The court shall, within one judicial day, review the petition to determine whether the petition raises sufficient evidence to support the allegation. If the court so finds, it shall provide a copy of the petition to the designated crisis responder agency with an order for the agency to provide the court, within one judicial day, with a written sworn statement describing the basis for the decision not to seek initial detention and a copy of all information material to the designated crisis responder's current decision.

(5) Following the filing of the petition and before the court reaches a decision, any person, including a mental health professional, may submit a sworn declaration to the court in support of or in opposition to initial detention.

(6) The court shall dismiss the petition at any time if it finds that a designated crisis responder has filed a petition for the person's initial detention under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or that the person has voluntarily accepted appropriate treatment.

(7) The court must issue a final ruling on the petition within five judicial days after it is filed. After reviewing all of the information provided to the court, the court may enter an order for initial detention or an order instructing the designated crisis responder to file a petition for assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment if the court finds that: (a) There is probable cause to support a petition for detention or assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment; and (b) the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate evaluation and treatment voluntarily. The court shall transmit its final decision to the petitioner.

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(8) If the court enters an order for initial detention, it shall provide the order to the designated crisis responder agency and issue a written order for apprehension ~~((of the person by a peace officer for delivery of the person to a facility or emergency room determined by the designated crisis responder))~~. The designated crisis responder agency serving the jurisdiction of the court must collaborate and coordinate with law enforcement regarding apprehensions and detentions under this subsection, including sharing of information relating to risk and which would assist in locating the person. A person may not be detained to jail pursuant to a written order issued under this subsection. An order for detention under this section should contain the advisement of rights which the person would receive if the person were detained by a designated crisis responder. An order for initial detention under this section expires one hundred eighty days from issuance.

(9) Except as otherwise expressly stated in this chapter, all procedures must be followed as if the order had been entered under RCW 71.05.150. RCW 71.05.160 does not apply if detention was initiated under the process set forth in this section.

(10) For purposes of this section, "immediate family member" means a spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, or sibling.

Sec. 57. RCW 71.05.210 and 2019 c 446 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each person involuntarily detained and accepted or admitted at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program:

(a) Shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission or acceptance at the facility, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, be examined and evaluated by:

(i) One physician, physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(ii) One mental health professional. If the person is detained for substance use disorder evaluation and treatment, the person may be examined by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional; and

(b) Shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a trial or hearing pursuant to RCW 71.05.215, 71.05.240, 71.05.310, 71.05.320, 71.05.590, or 71.05.217, the individual may refuse psychiatric medications, but may not refuse: (i) Any other medication previously prescribed by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW; or (ii) emergency lifesaving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right of such refusal. The person shall be detained up to seventy-two hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for seventy-two hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the mental health professional or ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional and licensed physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner determine that the initial needs of the person, if detained to an evaluation and treatment facility, would be better served by placement in a substance use disorder treatment program, or, if detained to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, would be better served in an evaluation and treatment facility then the person shall be referred to the more appropriate placement; however, a person may only be referred to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if there is an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the person.

(3) An evaluation and treatment center, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admitting or accepting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for evaluation or admission for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated crisis responder and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

Sec. 58. RCW 71.05.210 and 2019 c 446 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each person involuntarily detained and accepted or admitted at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program:

(a) Shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission or acceptance at the facility, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, be examined and evaluated by:

(i) One physician, physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(ii) One mental health professional. If the person is detained for substance use disorder evaluation and treatment, the person may be examined by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional; and

(b) Shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a trial or hearing pursuant to RCW 71.05.215, 71.05.240, 71.05.310, 71.05.320, 71.05.590, or 71.05.217, the individual may refuse psychiatric medications, but may not refuse: (i) Any other medication previously prescribed by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW; or (ii) emergency lifesaving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right of such refusal. The person shall be detained up to ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the mental health professional or ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional and licensed physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner determine that the initial needs of the person, if detained to an evaluation and treatment facility, would be better served by placement in a substance use disorder treatment program, or, if detained to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, would be better served in an evaluation and treatment facility then the person shall be referred to the more appropriate placement; however, a person may only be referred to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if there is an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the person.

(3) An evaluation and treatment center, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admitting or accepting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for evaluation or admission for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated crisis responder and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

Sec. 59. RCW 71.05.210 and 2019 c 446 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each person involuntarily detained and accepted or admitted at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program:

(a) Shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission or acceptance at the facility, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, be examined and evaluated by:

(i) One physician, physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(ii) One mental health professional. If the person is detained for substance use disorder evaluation and treatment, the person may be examined by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional; and

(b) Shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a trial or hearing pursuant to RCW 71.05.215, 71.05.240, 71.05.310, 71.05.320, 71.05.590, or 71.05.217, the individual may refuse psychiatric medications, but may not refuse: (i) Any other medication previously prescribed by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW; or (ii) emergency lifesaving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right of such refusal. The person shall be detained up to ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the mental health professional or ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional and licensed physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner determine that the initial needs of the person, if detained to an evaluation and treatment facility, would be better served by placement in a substance use disorder treatment program, or, if detained to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, would be better served in an evaluation and treatment facility then the person shall be referred to the more appropriate placement.

(3) An evaluation and treatment center, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admitting or accepting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for evaluation or admission for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated crisis responder and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

Sec. 60. RCW 71.05.212 and 2018 c 291 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a designated crisis responder or professional person is conducting an evaluation under this chapter, consideration shall include all reasonably available information from credible witnesses and records regarding:

(a) Prior recommendations for evaluation of the need for civil commitments when the recommendation is made pursuant to an evaluation conducted under chapter 10.77 RCW;

(b) Historical behavior, including history of one or more violent acts;

(c) Prior determinations of incompetency or insanity under chapter 10.77 RCW; and

(d) Prior commitments under this chapter.

(2) Credible witnesses may include family members, landlords, neighbors, or others with significant contact and history of involvement with the person. If the designated crisis responder relies upon information from a credible witness in reaching his or her decision to detain the individual, then he or she must provide contact information for any such witness to the prosecutor. The designated crisis responder or prosecutor shall provide notice of the date, time, and location of the probable cause hearing to such a witness.

(3) Symptoms and behavior of the respondent which standing alone would not justify civil commitment may support a finding of grave disability or likelihood of serious harm, or a finding that the person is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment, when:

(a) Such symptoms or behavior are closely associated with symptoms or behavior which preceded and led to a past incident of involuntary hospitalization, severe deterioration from safe behavior, or one or more violent acts;

(b) These symptoms or behavior represent a marked and concerning change in the baseline behavior of the respondent; and

(c) Without treatment, the continued deterioration of the respondent is probable.

(4) When conducting an evaluation for offenders identified under RCW 72.09.370, the designated crisis responder or professional person shall consider an offender's history of judicially required or administratively ordered antipsychotic medication while in confinement.

Sec. 61. RCW 71.05.214 and 2018 c 201 s 3007 are each amended to read as follows:

The authority shall develop statewide protocols to be utilized by professional persons and designated crisis responders in administration of this chapter and chapters 10.77 and 71.34 RCW. The protocols shall be updated at least every three years. The protocols shall provide uniform development and application of criteria in evaluation and commitment recommendations, of persons who have, or are alleged to have, ~~((mental disorders or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders and are subject to this chapter.

The initial protocols shall be developed not later than September 1, 1999. The authority shall develop and update the protocols in consultation with representatives of designated crisis responders, the department of social and health services, local government, law enforcement, county and city prosecutors, public defenders, and groups concerned with ~~((mental illness and substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders. The protocols shall be submitted to the governor and legislature upon adoption by the authority.

Sec. 62. RCW 71.05.215 and 2018 c 201 s 3008 are each amended to read as follows:

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(1) A person found to be gravely disabled or ~~((presents))~~ to present a likelihood of serious harm as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder has a right to refuse antipsychotic medication unless it is determined that the failure to medicate may result in a likelihood of serious harm or substantial deterioration or substantially prolong the length of involuntary commitment and there is no less intrusive course of treatment than medication in the best interest of that person.

(2) The authority shall adopt rules to carry out the purposes of this chapter. These rules shall include:

(a) An attempt to obtain the informed consent of the person prior to administration of antipsychotic medication.

(b) For short-term treatment up to thirty days, the right to refuse antipsychotic medications unless there is an additional concurring medical opinion approving medication by a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or physician or physician assistant in consultation with a mental health professional with prescriptive authority.

(c) For continued treatment beyond thirty days through the hearing on any petition filed under RCW 71.05.217, the right to periodic review of the decision to medicate by the medical director or designee.

(d) Administration of antipsychotic medication in an emergency and review of this decision within twenty-four hours. An emergency exists if the person presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, and medically acceptable alternatives to administration of antipsychotic medications are not available or are unlikely to be successful; and in the opinion of the physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, the person's condition constitutes an emergency requiring the treatment be instituted prior to obtaining a second medical opinion.

(e) Documentation in the medical record of the attempt by the physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner to obtain informed consent and the reasons why antipsychotic medication is being administered over the person's objection or lack of consent.

Sec. 63. RCW 71.05.217 and 2016 c 155 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Insofar as danger to the individual or others is not created, each person involuntarily detained, treated in a less restrictive alternative course of treatment, or committed for treatment and evaluation pursuant to this chapter shall have, in addition to other rights not specifically withheld by law, the following rights, a list of which shall be prominently posted in all facilities, institutions, and hospitals providing such services:

~~((1))~~ (a) To wear his or her own clothes and to keep and use his or her own personal possessions, except when deprivation of same is essential to protect the safety of the resident or other persons;

~~((2))~~ (b) To keep and be allowed to spend a reasonable sum of his or her own money for canteen expenses and small purchases;

~~((3))~~ (c) To have access to individual storage space for his or her private use;

~~((4))~~ (d) To have visitors at reasonable times;

~~((5))~~ (e) To have reasonable access to a telephone, both to make and receive confidential calls;

~~((6))~~ (f) To have ready access to letter writing materials, including stamps, and to send and receive uncensored correspondence through the mails;

~~((7))~~ (g) To have the right to individualized care and adequate treatment;

(h) To discuss treatment plans and decisions with professional persons;

(i) To not be denied access to treatment by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a church or religious denomination in addition to the treatment otherwise proposed;

(j) Not to consent to the administration of antipsychotic medications beyond the hearing conducted pursuant to RCW 71.05.320(4) or the performance of electroconvulsant therapy or surgery, except emergency lifesaving surgery, unless ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the following standards and procedures:

~~((a))~~ (i) The administration of antipsychotic medication or electroconvulsant therapy shall not be ordered unless the petitioning party proves by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that there exists a compelling state interest that justifies overriding the patient's lack of consent to the administration of antipsychotic medications or electroconvulsant therapy, that the proposed treatment is necessary and effective, and that medically acceptable alternative forms of treatment are not available, have not been successful, or are not likely to be effective.

~~((b))~~ (ii) The court shall make specific findings of fact concerning: ~~((i))~~ (A) The existence of one or more compelling state interests; ~~((ii))~~ (B) the necessity and effectiveness of the treatment; and ~~((iii))~~ (C) the person's desires regarding the proposed treatment. If the patient is unable to make a rational and informed decision about consenting to or refusing the proposed treatment, the court shall make a substituted judgment for the patient as if he or she were competent to make such a determination.

~~((c))~~ (iii) The person shall be present at any hearing on a request to administer antipsychotic medication or electroconvulsant therapy filed pursuant to this subsection. The person has the right: ~~((i))~~ (A) To be represented by an attorney; ~~((ii))~~ (B) to present evidence; ~~((iii))~~ (C) to cross-examine witnesses; ~~((iv))~~ (D) to have the rules of evidence enforced; ~~((v))~~ (E) to remain silent; ~~((vi))~~ (F) to view and copy all petitions and reports in the court file; and ~~((vii))~~ (G) to be given reasonable notice and an opportunity to prepare for the hearing. The court may appoint a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, psychologist within their scope of practice, physician assistant, or physician to examine and testify on behalf of such person. The court shall appoint a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, psychologist within their scope of practice, physician assistant, or physician designated by such person or the person's counsel to testify on behalf of the person in cases where an order for electroconvulsant therapy is sought.

~~((d))~~ (iv) An order for the administration of antipsychotic medications entered following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be effective for the period of the current involuntary treatment order, and any interim period during which the person is awaiting trial or hearing on a new petition for involuntary treatment or involuntary medication.

~~((e))~~ (v) Any person detained pursuant to RCW 71.05.320(4), who subsequently refuses antipsychotic medication, shall be entitled to the procedures set forth in this subsection.

~~((f))~~ (vi) Antipsychotic medication may be administered to a nonconsenting person detained or committed pursuant to this chapter without a court order pursuant to RCW 71.05.215(2) or under the following circumstances:

~~((i))~~ (A) A person presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm;

~~((iii))~~ (B) Medically acceptable alternatives to administration of antipsychotic medications are not available, have not been successful, or are not likely to be effective; and

~~((iii))~~ (C) In the opinion of the physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner with responsibility for treatment of the person, or his or her designee, the person's condition constitutes an emergency requiring the treatment be instituted before a judicial hearing as authorized pursuant to this section can be held.

If antipsychotic medications are administered over a person's lack of consent pursuant to this subsection, a petition for an order authorizing the administration of antipsychotic medications shall be filed on the next judicial day. The hearing shall be held within two judicial days. If deemed necessary by the physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner with responsibility for the treatment of the person, administration of antipsychotic medications may continue until the hearing is held;

~~((8))~~ (k) To dispose of property and sign contracts unless such person has been adjudicated an incompetent in a court proceeding directed to that particular issue;

~~((9))~~ (l) Not to have psychosurgery performed on him or her under any circumstances.

(2) Every person involuntarily detained or committed under the provisions of this chapter is entitled to all the rights set forth in this chapter and retains all rights not denied him or her under this chapter except as limited by chapter 9.41 RCW.

(3) No person may be presumed incompetent as a consequence of receiving evaluation or treatment for a behavioral health disorder. Competency may not be determined or withdrawn except under the provisions of chapter 10.77 or 11.88 RCW.

(4) Subject to RCW 71.05.745 and related regulations, persons receiving evaluation or treatment under this chapter must be given a reasonable choice of an available physician, physician assistant, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or other professional person qualified to provide such services.

(5) Whenever any person is detained under this chapter, the person must be advised that unless the person is released or voluntarily admits himself or herself for treatment within seventy-two hours of the initial detention, a judicial hearing must be held in a superior court within seventy-two hours to determine whether there is probable cause to detain the person for up to an additional fourteen days based on an allegation that because of a behavioral health disorder the person presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, and that at the probable cause hearing the person has the following rights:

(a) To communicate immediately with an attorney; to have an attorney appointed if the person is indigent; and to be told the name and address of the attorney that has been designated;

(b) To remain silent, and to know that any statement the person makes may be used against him or her;

(c) To present evidence on the person's behalf;

(d) To cross-examine witnesses who testify against him or her;

(e) To be proceeded against by the rules of evidence;

(f) To have the court appoint a reasonably available independent professional person to examine the person and testify in the hearing, at public expense unless the person is able to bear the cost;

(g) To view and copy all petitions and reports in the court file; and

(h) To refuse psychiatric medications, including antipsychotic medication beginning twenty-four hours prior to the probable cause hearing.

(6) The judicial hearing described in subsection (5) of this section must be held according to the provisions of subsection (5) of this section and rules promulgated by the supreme court.

(7)(a) Privileges between patients and physicians, physician assistants, psychologists, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioners are deemed waived in proceedings under this chapter relating to the administration of antipsychotic medications. As to other proceedings under this chapter, the privileges are waived when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that such waiver is necessary to protect either the detained person or the public.

(b) The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

(c) The record maker may not be required to testify in order to introduce medical or psychological records of the detained person so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met except that portions of the record which contain opinions as to the detained person's mental state must be deleted from such records unless the person making such conclusions is available for cross-examination.

(8) Nothing contained in this chapter prohibits the patient from petitioning by writ of habeas corpus for release.

(9) Nothing in this section permits any person to knowingly violate a no-contact order or a condition of an active judgment and sentence or an active condition of supervision by the department of corrections.

(10) The rights set forth under this section apply equally to ninety-day or one hundred eighty-day hearings under RCW 71.05.310.

Sec. 64. RCW 71.05.217 and 2016 c 155 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Insofar as danger to the individual or others is not created, each person involuntarily detained, treated in a less restrictive alternative course of treatment, or committed for treatment and evaluation pursuant to this chapter shall have, in addition to other rights not specifically withheld by law, the following rights, a list of which shall be prominently posted in all facilities, institutions, and hospitals providing such services:

~~((+))~~ (a) To wear his or her own clothes and to keep and use his or her own personal possessions, except when deprivation of same is essential to protect the safety of the resident or other persons;

~~((2))~~ (b) To keep and be allowed to spend a reasonable sum of his or her own money for canteen expenses and small purchases;

~~((3))~~ (c) To have access to individual storage space for his or her private use;

~~((4))~~ (d) To have visitors at reasonable times;

~~((5))~~ (e) To have reasonable access to a telephone, both to make and receive confidential calls;

~~((6))~~ (f) To have ready access to letter writing materials, including stamps, and to send and receive uncensored correspondence through the mails;

~~((7))~~ (g) To have the right to individualized care and adequate treatment;

(h) To discuss treatment plans and decisions with professional persons;

(i) To not be denied access to treatment by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a church or religious denomination in addition to the treatment otherwise proposed;

(j) Not to consent to the administration of antipsychotic medications beyond the hearing conducted pursuant to RCW 71.05.320(4) or the performance of electroconvulsant therapy or surgery, except emergency lifesaving surgery, unless ordered by

Sec. 65. RCW 71.05.230 and 2018 c 291 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

A person detained for seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment may be committed for not more than fourteen additional days of involuntary intensive treatment or ninety additional days of a less restrictive alternative treatment. A petition may only be filed if the following conditions are met:

(1) The professional staff of the facility providing evaluation services has analyzed the person's condition and finds that the condition is caused by ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ a behavioral health disorder and results in: (a) A likelihood of serious harm~~((results in))~~; (b) the person being gravely disabled~~((;))~~; or ~~((results in))~~ (c) the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment~~((;))~~; and are prepared to testify those conditions are met; and

(2) The person has been advised of the need for voluntary treatment and the professional staff of the facility has evidence that he or she has not in good faith volunteered; and

(3) The facility providing intensive treatment is certified to provide such treatment by the department or under RCW 71.05.745; and

(4)(a)(i) The professional staff of the facility or the designated crisis responder has filed a petition with the court for a fourteen day involuntary detention or a ninety day less restrictive alternative. The petition must be signed by:

(A) One physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(B) One physician, physician assistant, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or mental health professional.

(ii) If the petition is for substance use disorder treatment, the petition may be signed by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional and by an advanced registered nurse practitioner instead of a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner. The persons signing the petition must have examined the person.

(b) If involuntary detention is sought the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled and that there are no less restrictive alternatives to detention in the best interest of such person or others. The petition shall state specifically that less restrictive alternative treatment was considered and specify why treatment less restrictive than detention is not appropriate. If an involuntary less restrictive alternative is sought, the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or as a result of a substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm, is gravely disabled, or is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment, and shall set forth any recommendations for less restrictive alternative treatment services; and

(5) A copy of the petition has been served on the detained person, his or her attorney and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, prior to the probable cause hearing; and

(6) The court at the time the petition was filed and before the probable cause hearing has appointed counsel to represent such person if no other counsel has appeared; and

(7) The petition reflects that the person was informed of the loss of firearm rights if involuntarily committed for mental health treatment; and

(8) At the conclusion of the initial commitment period, the professional staff of the agency or facility or the designated crisis responder may petition for an additional period of either ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment or ninety days of involuntary intensive treatment as provided in RCW 71.05.290; and

(9) If the hospital or facility designated to provide less restrictive alternative treatment is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated to provide less restrictive alternative treatment has agreed to assume such responsibility.

Sec. 66. RCW 71.05.230 and 2018 c 291 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

A person detained for ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour evaluation and treatment may be committed for not more than fourteen additional days of involuntary intensive treatment or ninety additional days of a less restrictive alternative treatment. A petition may only be filed if the following conditions are met:

(7) The petition reflects that the person was informed of the loss of firearm rights if involuntarily committed for mental health treatment; and

(8) At the conclusion of the initial commitment period, the professional staff of the agency or facility or the designated crisis responder may petition for an additional period of either ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment or ninety days of involuntary intensive treatment as provided in RCW 71.05.290; and

(9) If the hospital or facility designated to provide less restrictive alternative treatment is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated to provide less restrictive alternative treatment has agreed to assume such responsibility.

Sec. 67. RCW 71.05.235 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 231 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an individual is referred to a designated crisis responder under RCW 10.77.088~~((1)(e)(ii))~~ (2)(d)(i), the designated crisis responder shall examine the individual within forty-eight hours. If the designated crisis responder determines it is not appropriate to detain the individual or petition for a ninety-day less restrictive alternative under RCW 71.05.230(4), that decision shall be immediately presented to the superior court for hearing. The court shall hold a hearing to consider the decision of the designated crisis responder not later than the next judicial day. At the hearing the superior court shall review the determination of the designated crisis responder and determine whether an order should be entered requiring the person to be evaluated at an evaluation and treatment facility. No person referred to an evaluation and treatment facility may be held at the facility longer than seventy-two hours.

(2) If an individual is placed in an evaluation and treatment facility under RCW 10.77.088~~((1)(e)(ii))~~ (2)(d)(ii), a professional person shall evaluate the individual for purposes of determining whether to file a ninety-day inpatient or outpatient petition under this chapter. Before expiration of the seventy-two hour evaluation period authorized under RCW 10.77.088~~((1)(e)(ii))~~ (2)(d)(ii), the professional person shall file a petition or, if the recommendation of the professional person is to release the individual, present his or her recommendation to the superior court of the county in which the criminal charge was dismissed. The superior court shall review the recommendation not later than forty-eight hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, after the recommendation is presented. If the court rejects the recommendation to unconditionally release the individual, the court may order the individual detained at a designated evaluation and treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period ~~((and direct the individual to appear at a surety hearing before that court within seventy-two hours, or the court may release the individual but direct the individual to appear at a surety hearing set before that court within eleven days, at which time the prosecutor may file a petition under this chapter for ninety-day inpatient or outpatient treatment. If a petition is filed by the prosecutor, the court may order that the person named in the petition be detained at the evaluation and treatment facility that performed the evaluation under this subsection or order the respondent to be in outpatient treatment. If a petition is filed but the individual fails to appear in court for the surety hearing, the court shall order that a mental health professional or peace officer shall take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility to be brought before the court the next judicial day after detention)).~~ If the evaluation and treatment facility files a ninety-day petition within the seventy-two hour period, the clerk shall set a hearing after the day of filing consistent with RCW 71.05.300. Upon the individual's first appearance in court after a petition has been filed, proceedings under RCW 71.05.310 and 71.05.320 shall commence. For an individual subject to this subsection, the ~~((prosecutor or))~~ professional person may directly file a petition for ninety-day inpatient or outpatient treatment and no petition for initial detention or fourteen-day detention is required before such a petition may be filed.

~~((The court shall conduct the hearing on the petition filed under this subsection within five judicial days of the date the petition is filed. The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of the person named in the petition or the person's attorney, for good cause shown, which continuance shall not exceed five additional judicial days. If the person named in the petition requests a jury trial, the trial shall commence within ten judicial days of the date of the filing of the petition. The burden of proof shall be by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence and shall be upon the petitioner. The person shall be present at such proceeding, which shall in all respects accord with the constitutional guarantees of due process of law and the rules of evidence pursuant to RCW 71.05.360 (8) and (9).))~~

~~During the proceeding the person named in the petition shall continue to be detained and treated until released by order of the court. If no order has been made within thirty days after the filing of the petition, not including any extensions of time requested by the detained person or his or her attorney, the detained person shall be released.)~~

(3) If a designated crisis responder or the professional person and prosecuting attorney for the county in which the criminal charge was dismissed or attorney general, as appropriate, stipulate that the individual does not present a likelihood of serious harm or is not gravely disabled, the hearing under this section is not required and the individual, if in custody, shall be released.

~~((4) The individual shall have the rights specified in RCW 71.05.360 (8) and (9).))~~

Sec. 68. RCW 71.05.235 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 231 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an individual is referred to a designated crisis responder under RCW 10.77.088~~((1)(e)(ii))~~ (2)(d)(i), the designated crisis responder shall examine the individual within forty-eight hours. If the designated crisis responder determines it is not appropriate to detain the individual or petition for a ninety-day less restrictive alternative under RCW 71.05.230(4), that decision shall be immediately presented to the superior court for hearing. The court shall hold a hearing to consider the decision of the designated crisis responder not later than the next judicial day. ~~During the proceeding the person named in the petition shall continue to be detained and treated until released by order of the court. If no order has been made within thirty days after the filing of the petition, not including any extensions of time requested by the detained person or his or her attorney, the detained person shall be released.)~~

(3) If a designated crisis responder or the professional person and prosecuting attorney for the county in which the criminal charge was dismissed or attorney general, as appropriate, stipulate that the individual does not present a likelihood of serious harm or is not gravely disabled, the hearing under this section is not required and the individual, if in custody, shall be released.

~~((4) The individual shall have the rights specified in RCW 71.05.360 (8) and (9).))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. A new section is added to chapter 71.05 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding for involuntary commitment under this chapter, the court may continue or postpone such proceeding for a reasonable time on motion of the respondent for good cause, or on motion of the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general if:

(a) The respondent expressly consents to a continuance or delay and there is a showing of good cause; or

(b) Such continuance is required in the proper administration of justice and the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of the respondent's case.

(2) The court may on its own motion continue the case when required in due administration of justice and when the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of the respondent's case.

(3) The court shall state in any order of continuance or postponement the grounds for the continuance or postponement and whether detention will be extended.

Sec. 70. RCW 71.05.240 and 2019 c 446 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a petition is filed for fourteen day involuntary treatment or ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment, the court shall hold a probable cause hearing within seventy-two hours of the initial detention of such person as determined in RCW 71.05.180, or at a time determined under RCW 71.05.148. ~~((If requested by the person or his or her attorney, the hearing may be postponed for a period not to exceed forty eight hours. The hearing may also be continued subject to the conditions set forth in RCW 71.05.210 or subject to the petitioner's showing of good cause for a period not to exceed twenty four hours.))~~

(2) If the petition is for mental health treatment, the court or the prosecutor at the time of the probable cause hearing and before an order of commitment is entered shall inform the person both orally and in writing that the failure to make a good faith effort to seek voluntary treatment as provided in RCW 71.05.230 will result in the loss of his or her firearm rights if the person is subsequently detained for involuntary treatment under this section.

(3) If the person or his or her attorney alleges, prior to the commencement of the hearing, that the person has in good faith volunteered for treatment, the petitioner must show, by preponderance of the evidence, that the person has not in good faith volunteered for appropriate treatment. In order to qualify as a good faith volunteer, the person must abide by procedures and a treatment plan as prescribed by a treatment facility and professional staff.

(4)(a) Subject to (b) of this subsection, at the conclusion of the probable cause hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that such person, as the result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled, and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, finds that no such alternatives are in the best interests of such person or others, the court shall order that such person be detained for involuntary treatment not to exceed fourteen days in a facility licensed or certified to provide treatment by the department or under RCW 71.05.745.

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

~~(b) ((Commitment for up to fourteen days based on a substance use disorder must be to either a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or an approved substance use disorder treatment program.)) A court may only ((enter a commitment)) order ((based on a substance use disorder if there is an available)) commitment to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if there is an available facility with adequate space for the person.~~

(c) At the conclusion of the probable cause hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that such person, as the result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm~~((;))~~ or is gravely disabled, but that treatment in a less restrictive setting than detention is in the best interest of such person or others, the court shall order an appropriate less restrictive alternative course of treatment for ~~((not to exceed))~~ up to ninety days.

(d) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that such person, as the result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment, and that the person does not present a likelihood of serious harm ~~((or grave disability))~~ and is not gravely disabled, the court shall order an appropriate less restrictive alternative course of treatment ~~((not to exceed))~~ for up to ninety days.

~~((4))~~ (5) An order for less restrictive alternative treatment must name the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider responsible for identifying the services the person will receive in accordance with RCW 71.05.585, and must include a requirement that the person cooperate with the ~~((services planned by))~~ treatment recommendations of the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider.

~~((5))~~ (6) The court shall ~~((specifically state to such person and give such person notice))~~ notify the person orally and in writing that if involuntary treatment is sought beyond the fourteen-day ~~((period))~~ inpatient or ~~((beyond the))~~ ninety-day((s-of)) less restrictive treatment ~~((is to be sought))~~ period, ~~((such))~~ the person ~~((will have))~~ has the right to a full hearing or jury trial ~~((as required by))~~ under RCW 71.05.310. Sec. 73. RCW 71.05.280 and 2018 c 291 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

At the expiration of the fourteen-day period of intensive treatment, a person may be committed for further treatment pursuant to RCW 71.05.320 if:

(1) Such person after having been taken into custody for evaluation and treatment has threatened, attempted, or inflicted: (a) Physical harm upon the person of another or himself or herself, or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (b) as a result of ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ a behavioral health disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm; or

(2) Such person was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he or she attempted or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another or himself or herself, or substantial damage upon the property of others, and continues to present, as a result of ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ a behavioral health disorder, a likelihood of serious harm; or

(3) Such person has been determined to be incompetent and criminal charges have been dismissed pursuant to RCW 10.77.086(4), and has committed acts constituting a felony, and as a result of a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a substantial likelihood of repeating similar acts.

(a) In any proceeding pursuant to this subsection it shall not be necessary to show intent, willfulness, or state of mind as an element of the crime;

(b) For any person subject to commitment under this subsection where the charge underlying the finding of incompetence is for a felony classified as violent under RCW 9.94A.030, the court shall determine whether the acts the person committed constitute a violent offense under RCW 9.94A.030; or

(4) Such person is gravely disabled; or

(5) Such person is in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment.

Sec. 74. RCW 71.05.290 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 14 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At any time during a person's fourteen day intensive treatment period, the professional person in charge of a treatment facility or his or her professional designee or the designated crisis responder may petition the superior court for an order requiring such person to undergo an additional period of treatment. Such petition must be based on one or more of the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280.

(2)(a)(i) The petition shall summarize the facts which support the need for further commitment and shall be supported by affidavits based on an examination of the patient and signed by:

(A) One physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(B) One physician, physician assistant, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or mental health professional.

(ii) If the petition is for substance use disorder treatment, the petition may be signed by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional and by an advanced registered nurse practitioner instead of a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner.

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(b) The affidavits shall describe in detail the behavior of the detained person which supports the petition and shall explain what, if any, less restrictive treatments which are alternatives to detention are available to such person, and shall state the willingness of the affiant to testify to such facts in subsequent judicial proceedings under this chapter. If less restrictive alternative treatment is sought, the petition shall set forth any recommendations for less restrictive alternative treatment services.

(3) If a person has been determined to be incompetent pursuant to RCW 10.77.086(4), then the professional person in charge of the treatment facility or his or her professional designee or the designated crisis responder may directly file a petition for one hundred eighty-day treatment under RCW 71.05.280(3), or for ninety-day treatment under RCW 71.05.280 (1), (2), (4), or (5). No petition for initial detention or fourteen day detention is required before such a petition may be filed.

Sec. 75. RCW 71.05.300 and 2019 c 325 s 3007 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The petition for ninety day treatment shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court at least three days before expiration of the fourteen-day period of intensive treatment. ~~((At the time of filing such petition,))~~ The clerk shall set a ~~((time for the person to come before the court on the next judicial day after the day of filing unless such appearance is waived by the person's attorney, and the clerk shall))~~ trial setting date as provided in RCW 71.05.310 on the next judicial day after the date of filing the petition and notify the designated crisis responder. The designated crisis responder shall immediately notify the person detained, his or her attorney, if any, and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, the prosecuting attorney, and the behavioral health administrative services organization administrator, and provide a copy of the petition to such persons as soon as possible. The behavioral health administrative services organization administrator or designee may review the petition and may appear and testify at the full hearing on the petition.

(2) ~~((At the time set for appearance))~~ The attorney for the detained person ~~((shall be brought before the court, unless such appearance has been waived and the court))~~ shall advise him or her of his or her right to be represented by an attorney, his or her right to a jury trial, and, if the petition is for commitment for mental health treatment, his or her loss of firearm rights if involuntarily committed. If the detained person is not represented by an attorney, or is indigent or is unwilling to retain an attorney, the court shall immediately appoint an attorney to represent him or her. The court shall, if requested, appoint a reasonably available licensed physician, physician assistant, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist, or other professional person, designated by the detained person to examine and testify on behalf of the detained person.

(3) The court may, if requested, also appoint a professional person as defined in RCW 71.05.020 to seek less restrictive alternative courses of treatment and to testify on behalf of the detained person. In the case of a person with a developmental disability who has been determined to be incompetent pursuant to RCW 10.77.086(4), ~~((then))~~ the appointed professional person under this section shall be a developmental disabilities professional.

~~((4) The court shall also set a date for a full hearing on the petition as provided in RCW 71.05.310.)~~

Sec. 76. RCW 71.05.310 and 2012 c 256 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall ~~((conduct))~~ set a hearing on the petition for ninety-day or one hundred eighty-day treatment within five judicial days of the ~~((first court appearance after the probable~~ ~~cause hearing))~~ trial setting hearing, or within ten judicial days for a petition filed under RCW 71.05.280(3). The court may continue the hearing ~~((for good cause upon the written request of the person named in the petition or the person's attorney. The court may continue for good cause the hearing on a petition filed under RCW 71.05.280(3) upon written request by the person named in the petition, the person's attorney, or the petitioner))~~ in accordance with section 37 of this act. If the person named in the petition requests a jury trial, the trial ~~((shall commence))~~ must be set within ten judicial days of the ~~((first court appearance after the probable cause hearing))~~ next judicial day after the date of filing the petition. The burden of proof shall be by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence and shall be upon the petitioner. The person ~~((shall))~~ has the right to be present at such proceeding, which shall in all respects accord with the constitutional guarantees of due process of law and the rules of evidence ~~((pursuant to RCW 71.05.360 (8) and (9))~~ under RCW 71.05.217.

During the proceeding, the person named in the petition shall continue to be treated until released by order of the superior court or discharged by the medical provider. If ~~((no order has been made))~~ the hearing has not commenced within thirty days after the filing of the petition, not including extensions of time ~~((requested by the detained person or his or her attorney, or the petitioner in the case of a petition filed under RCW 71.05.280(3))~~ ordered under section 37 of this act, the detained person shall be released.

(1)(a) Subject to (b) of this subsection, if the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280 have been proven and that the best interests of the person or others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an alternative to detention, the court shall remand him or her to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department for a further period of intensive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment.

(b) If the order for inpatient treatment is based on a substance use disorder, ~~((treatment must take place at an approved substance use disorder treatment program.))~~ the court may only enter an order for commitment ~~((based on a substance use disorder))~~ if there is an available ~~((approved substance use disorder))~~ treatment program with adequate space for the person.

(c) If the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis of commitment, then the period of treatment may be up to but not exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for one hundred eighty-day treatment by the department or under RCW 71.05.745.

(2) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280 have been proven, but finds that treatment less restrictive than detention will be in the best interest of the person or others, then the court shall remand him or her to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department or to a less restrictive alternative for a further period of less restrictive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment. ~~((If the order for less restrictive treatment is based on a substance use disorder, treatment must be provided by an approved substance use disorder treatment program.))~~ If the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis of commitment, then the period of treatment may be up to but not exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment. If the court or jury finds that the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(5) have been proven, and provide the only basis for commitment, the court must enter an order for less restrictive alternative treatment for up to ninety days from the date of judgment and may not order inpatient treatment.

(3) An order for less restrictive alternative treatment entered under subsection (2) of this section must name the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider responsible for identifying the services the person will receive in accordance with RCW 71.05.585, and must include a requirement that the person cooperate with the services planned by the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider.

(4) The person shall be released from involuntary treatment at the expiration of the period of commitment imposed under subsection (1) or (2) of this section unless the superintendent or professional person in charge of the facility in which he or she is confined, or in the event of a less restrictive alternative, the designated crisis responder, files a new petition for involuntary treatment on the grounds that the committed person:

(a) During the current period of court ordered treatment: (i) Has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another, or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (ii) as a result of a ~~((mental disorder, substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder~~(?)~~ or developmental disability presents a likelihood of serious harm; or

(b) Was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he or she attempted or inflicted serious physical harm upon the person of another, and continues to present, as a result of ~~((mental disorder, substance use))~~ a behavioral health disorder~~(?)~~ or developmental disability, a likelihood of serious harm; or

(c)(i) Is in custody pursuant to RCW 71.05.280(3) and as a result of ~~((mental))~~ a behavioral health disorder or developmental disability continues to present a substantial likelihood of repeating acts similar to the charged criminal behavior, when considering the person's life history, progress in treatment, and the public safety.

(ii) In cases under this subsection where the court has made an affirmative special finding under RCW 71.05.280(3)(b), the commitment shall continue for up to an additional one hundred eighty-day period whenever the petition presents prima facie evidence that the person continues to suffer from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder or developmental disability that results in a substantial likelihood of committing acts similar to the charged criminal behavior, unless the person presents proof through an admissible expert opinion that the person's condition has so changed such that the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder or developmental disability no longer presents a substantial likelihood of the person committing acts similar to the charged criminal behavior. The initial or additional commitment period may include transfer to a specialized program of intensive support and treatment, which may be initiated prior to or after discharge from the state hospital; or

(d) Continues to be gravely disabled; or

(e) Is in need of assisted outpatient ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health treatment.

If the conduct required to be proven in (b) and (c) of this subsection was found by a judge or jury in a prior trial under this chapter, it shall not be necessary to prove such conduct again.

If less restrictive alternative treatment is sought, the petition shall set forth any recommendations for less restrictive alternative treatment services.

(5) A new petition for involuntary treatment filed under subsection (4) of this section shall be filed and heard in the superior court of the county of the facility which is filing the new petition for involuntary treatment unless good cause is shown for a change of venue. The cost of the proceedings shall be borne by the state.

(6)(a) The hearing shall be held as provided in RCW 71.05.310, and if the court or jury finds that the grounds for additional confinement as set forth in this section are present, subject to subsection (1)(b) of this section, the court may order the committed person returned for an additional period of treatment not to exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment, except as provided in subsection (7) of this section. If the court's order is based solely on the grounds identified in subsection (4)(e) of this section, the court may enter an order for less restrictive alternative treatment not to exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment, and may not enter an order for inpatient treatment. An order for less restrictive alternative treatment must name the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider responsible for identifying the services the person will receive in accordance with RCW 71.05.585, and must include a requirement that the person cooperate with the services planned by the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider.

(b) At the end of the one hundred eighty-day period of commitment, or one-year period of commitment if subsection (7) of this section applies, the committed person shall be released unless a petition for an additional one hundred eighty-day period of continued treatment is filed and heard in the same manner as provided in this section. Successive one hundred eighty-day commitments are permissible on the same grounds and pursuant to the same procedures as the original one hundred eighty-day commitment.

(7) An order for less restrictive treatment entered under subsection (6) of this section may be for up to one year when the person's previous commitment term was for intensive inpatient treatment in a state hospital.

(8) No person committed as provided in this section may be detained unless a valid order of commitment is in effect. No order of commitment can exceed one hundred eighty days in length except as provided in subsection (7) of this section.

Sec. 78. RCW 71.05.320 and 2018 c 201 s 3013 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280 have been proven and that the best interests of the person or others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an alternative to detention, the court shall remand him or her to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department for a further period of intensive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment.

If the ~~((order for inpatient treatment is based on a substance use disorder, treatment must take place at an approved substance use disorder treatment program. If the))~~ grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis of commitment, then the period of treatment may be up to but not exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for one hundred eighty-day treatment by the department or under RCW 71.05.745.

(2) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280 have been proven, but finds that treatment less restrictive than detention will be in the best interest of the person or others, then the court shall remand him or her to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department or to a less restrictive alternative for a further period of less restrictive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment. ~~((If the order for less restrictive treatment is based on a substance use disorder, treatment must be provided by an approved substance use disorder treatment program.))~~ If the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis of commitment, then the period of treatment may be up to but not exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment. If the court or jury finds that the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(5) have been proven, and provide the only basis for commitment, the court must enter an order for less restrictive alternative treatment for up to ninety days from the date of judgment and may not order inpatient treatment.

(3) An order for less restrictive alternative treatment entered under subsection (2) of this section must name the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider responsible for identifying the services the person will receive in accordance with RCW 71.05.585, and must include a requirement that the person cooperate with the services planned by the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider.

(4) The person shall be released from involuntary treatment at the expiration of the period of commitment imposed under subsection (1) or (2) of this section unless the superintendent or professional person in charge of the facility in which he or she is confined, or in the event of a less restrictive alternative, the designated crisis responder, files a new petition for involuntary treatment on the grounds that the committed person:

(a) During the current period of court ordered treatment: (i) Has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another, or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (ii) as a result of a ~~((mental disorder, substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder~~((s))~~ or developmental disability presents a likelihood of serious harm; or

(b) Was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he or she attempted or inflicted serious physical harm upon the person of another, and continues to present, as a result of ~~((mental disorder, substance use))~~ a behavioral health disorder~~((s))~~ or developmental disability, a likelihood of serious harm; or

(c)(i) Is in custody pursuant to RCW 71.05.280(3) and as a result of ~~((mental))~~ a behavioral health disorder or developmental disability continues to present a substantial likelihood of repeating acts similar to the charged criminal behavior, when considering the person's life history, progress in treatment, and the public safety.

(ii) In cases under this subsection where the court has made an affirmative special finding under RCW 71.05.280(3)(b), the commitment shall continue for up to an additional one hundred eighty-day period whenever the petition presents prima facie evidence that the person continues to suffer from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder or developmental disability that results in a substantial likelihood of committing acts similar to the charged criminal behavior, unless the person presents proof through an admissible expert opinion that the person's condition has so changed such that the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder or developmental disability no longer presents a substantial likelihood of the person committing acts similar to the charged criminal behavior. The initial or additional commitment period may include transfer to a specialized program of intensive support and treatment, which may be initiated prior to or after discharge from the state hospital; or

(d) Continues to be gravely disabled; or

(e) Is in need of assisted outpatient ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health treatment.

If the conduct required to be proven in (b) and (c) of this subsection was found by a judge or jury in a prior trial under this chapter, it shall not be necessary to prove such conduct again.

If less restrictive alternative treatment is sought, the petition shall set forth any recommendations for less restrictive alternative treatment services.

(5) A new petition for involuntary treatment filed under subsection (4) of this section shall be filed and heard in the superior court of the county of the facility which is filing the new petition for involuntary treatment unless good cause is shown for a change of venue. The cost of the proceedings shall be borne by the state.

(6)(a) The hearing shall be held as provided in RCW 71.05.310, and if the court or jury finds that the grounds for additional confinement as set forth in this section are present, the court may order the committed person returned for an additional period of treatment not to exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment, except as provided in subsection (7) of this section. If the court's order is based solely on the grounds identified in subsection (4)(e) of this section, the court may enter an order for less restrictive alternative treatment not to exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment, and may not enter an order for inpatient treatment. An order for less restrictive alternative treatment must name the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider responsible for identifying the services the person will receive in accordance with RCW 71.05.585, and must include a requirement that the person cooperate with the services planned by the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider.

(b) At the end of the one hundred eighty-day period of commitment, or one-year period of commitment if subsection (7) of this section applies, the committed person shall be released unless a petition for an additional one hundred eighty-day period of continued treatment is filed and heard in the same manner as provided in this section. Successive one hundred eighty-day commitments are permissible on the same grounds and pursuant to the same procedures as the original one hundred eighty-day commitment.

(7) An order for less restrictive treatment entered under subsection (6) of this section may be for up to one year when the person's previous commitment term was for intensive inpatient treatment in a state hospital.

(8) No person committed as provided in this section may be detained unless a valid order of commitment is in effect. No order of commitment can exceed one hundred eighty days in length except as provided in subsection (7) of this section.

Sec. 79. RCW 71.05.380 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 245 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons voluntarily entering or remaining in any facility, institution, or hospital providing evaluation and treatment for ~~((mental disorders or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders shall have no less than all rights secured to involuntarily detained persons by RCW ~~((71.05.360 and))~~ 71.05.217.

Sec. 80. RCW 71.05.445 and 2019 c 325 s 3009 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) When a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider conducts its initial assessment for a person receiving court-ordered treatment, the service provider shall inquire and shall be told by the offender whether he or she is subject to supervision by the department of corrections.

(b) When a person receiving court-ordered treatment or treatment ordered by the department of corrections discloses to his or her ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider that he or she is subject to supervision by the department of corrections, the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider shall notify the department of corrections that he or she is treating the offender and shall notify the offender that his or her community corrections officer will be notified of the treatment, provided that if the offender has received relief from disclosure pursuant to RCW 9.94A.562 or 71.05.132 and the offender has provided the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider with a copy of the order granting relief from disclosure pursuant to RCW 9.94A.562 or 71.05.132, the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider is not required to notify the department of corrections that the ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider is treating the offender. The notification may be written or oral and shall not require the consent of the offender. If an oral notification is made, it must be confirmed by a written notification. For purposes of this section, a written notification includes notification by email or facsimile, so long as the notifying ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider is clearly identified.

(2) The information to be released to the department of corrections shall include all relevant records and reports, as defined by rule, necessary for the department of corrections to carry out its duties.

(3) The authority and the department of corrections, in consultation with behavioral health administrative services organizations, managed care organizations, ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service providers as defined in RCW 71.05.020, ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health consumers, and advocates for persons with ~~((mental illness))~~ behavioral health disorders, shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section related to the type and scope of information to be released. These rules shall:

(a) Enhance and facilitate the ability of the department of corrections to carry out its responsibility of planning and ensuring community protection with respect to persons subject to sentencing under chapter 9.94A or 9.95 RCW, including accessing and releasing or disclosing information of persons who received ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services as a minor; and

(b) Establish requirements for the notification of persons under the supervision of the department of corrections regarding the provisions of this section.

(4) The information received by the department of corrections under this section shall remain confidential and subject to the limitations on disclosure outlined in this chapter, except as provided in RCW 72.09.585.

(5) No ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider or individual employed by a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service provider shall be held responsible for information released to or used by the department of corrections under the provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section.

(6) Whenever federal law or federal regulations restrict the release of information and records related to ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services for any patient who receives treatment for alcoholism or drug dependency, the release of the information may be restricted as necessary to comply with federal law and regulations.

(7) This section does not modify the terms and conditions of disclosure of information related to sexually transmitted diseases under chapter 70.24 RCW.

(8) The authority shall, subject to available resources, electronically, or by the most cost-effective means available, provide the department of corrections with the names, last dates of services, and addresses of specific behavioral health administrative services organizations, managed care organizations, and ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service providers that delivered ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services to a person subject to chapter 9.94A or 9.95 RCW pursuant to an agreement between the authority and the department of corrections.

Sec. 81. RCW 71.05.455 and 2016 c 158 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When funded, the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs, in consultation with the criminal justice training commission, must develop and adopt a model policy for use by law enforcement agencies relating to a law enforcement officer's referral of a person to a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health agency after receiving a report of threatened or attempted suicide. The model policy must complement the criminal justice training commission's crisis intervention training curriculum.

Sec. 82. RCW 71.05.457 and 2016 c 158 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

By July 1, 2017, all general authority Washington law enforcement agencies must adopt a policy establishing criteria and procedures for a law enforcement officer to refer a person to a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health agency after receiving a report of threatened or attempted suicide.

Sec. 83. RCW 71.05.525 and 2018 c 201 s 3024 are each amended to read as follows:

When, in the judgment of the department of social and health services, the welfare of any person committed to or confined in any state juvenile correctional institution or facility necessitates that such a person be transferred or moved for observation, diagnosis or treatment to any state institution or facility for the care of juveniles with ~~((mental illness))~~ behavioral health disorders the secretary of the department of social and health services, or his or her designee, is authorized to order and effect such move or transfer: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the secretary of the department of social and health services shall adopt and implement procedures to assure that persons so transferred shall, while detained or confined in such institution or facility for the care of juveniles with ~~((mental illness))~~ behavioral health disorders, be provided with substantially similar opportunities for parole or early release evaluation and determination as persons detained or confined in state juvenile correctional institutions or facilities: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the secretary of the department of social and health services shall notify the original committing court of such transfer.

Sec. 84. RCW 71.05.530 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 247 are each amended to read as follows:

Evaluation and treatment facilities and secure ~~((detoxification))~~ withdrawal management and stabilization facilities authorized pursuant to this chapter may be part of the comprehensive community ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services program conducted in counties pursuant to chapter 71.24 RCW, and may receive funding pursuant to the provisions thereof.

Sec. 85. RCW 71.05.585 and 2018 c 291 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Less restrictive alternative treatment, at a minimum, includes the following services:

- (a) Assignment of a care coordinator;
- (b) An intake evaluation with the provider of the less restrictive alternative treatment;
- (c) A psychiatric evaluation;
- (d) A schedule of regular contacts with the provider of the less restrictive alternative treatment services for the duration of the order;
- (e) A transition plan addressing access to continued services at the expiration of the order;
- (f) An individual crisis plan; and
- (g) Notification to the care coordinator assigned in (a) of this subsection if reasonable efforts to engage the client fail to produce substantial compliance with court-ordered treatment conditions.

(2) Less restrictive alternative treatment may additionally include requirements to participate in the following services:

- (a) Medication management;
- (b) Psychotherapy;
- (c) Nursing;
- (d) Substance abuse counseling;
- (e) Residential treatment; and
- (f) Support for housing, benefits, education, and employment.

(3) If the person was provided with involuntary medication under RCW 71.05.215 or pursuant to a judicial order during the involuntary commitment period, the less restrictive alternative treatment order may authorize the less restrictive alternative treatment provider or its designee to administer involuntary antipsychotic medication to the person if the provider has attempted and failed to obtain the informed consent of the person and there is a concurring medical opinion approving the medication by a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or physician or physician assistant in consultation with an independent mental health professional with prescribing authority.

(4) Less restrictive alternative treatment must be administered by a provider that is certified or licensed to provide or coordinate the full scope of services required under the less restrictive alternative order and that has agreed to assume this responsibility.

((4)) (5) The care coordinator assigned to a person ordered to less restrictive alternative treatment must submit an individualized plan for the person's treatment services to the court that entered the order. An initial plan must be submitted as soon as possible following the intake evaluation and a revised plan must be submitted upon any subsequent modification in which a type of service is removed from or added to the treatment plan.

((5)) (6) For the purpose of this section, "care coordinator" means a clinical practitioner who coordinates the activities of less restrictive alternative treatment. The care coordinator coordinates activities with the designated crisis responders that are necessary for enforcement and continuation of less restrictive alternative orders and is responsible for coordinating service activities with other agencies and establishing and maintaining a therapeutic relationship with the individual on a continuing basis.

Sec. 86. RCW 71.05.590 and 2019 c 446 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Either an agency or facility designated to monitor or provide services under a less restrictive alternative order or conditional release order, or a designated crisis responder, may take action to enforce, modify, or revoke a less restrictive alternative or conditional release order. The agency, facility, or designated crisis responder must determine that:

- (a) The person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of the court order;
- (b) Substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;
- (c) There is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further evaluation, intervention, or treatment; or
- (d) The person poses a likelihood of serious harm.

(2) Actions taken under this section must include a flexible range of responses of varying levels of intensity appropriate to the circumstances and consistent with the interests of the individual and the public in personal autonomy, safety, recovery, and compliance. Available actions may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

- (a) To counsel or advise the person as to their rights and responsibilities under the court order, and to offer appropriate incentives to motivate compliance;
- (b) To increase the intensity of outpatient services provided to the person by increasing the frequency of contacts with the provider, referring the person for an assessment for assertive community services, or by other means;
- (c) To request a court hearing for review and modification of the court order. The request must be made to or by the court with jurisdiction over the order and specify the circumstances that give rise to the request and what modification is being sought. The county prosecutor shall assist the agency or facility in requesting this hearing and issuing an appropriate summons to the person. This subsection does not limit the inherent authority of a treatment provider to alter conditions of treatment for clinical reasons, and is intended to be used only when court intervention is necessary or advisable to secure the person's compliance and prevent decompensation or deterioration;
- (d) To cause the person to be transported by a peace officer, designated crisis responder, or other means to the agency or facility monitoring or providing services under the court order, or to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, emergency department, ~~((or to an))~~ evaluation and treatment facility ~~((if the person is committed for mental health treatment)), ((or to a))~~ secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility with available space, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program with available space ~~((if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment))~~. The person may be detained at the facility for up to twelve hours for the purpose of an evaluation to determine whether modification, revocation, or commitment proceedings are necessary and appropriate to stabilize the person and prevent decompensation, deterioration, or physical harm. Temporary detention for evaluation under this subsection is intended to occur only following a pattern of noncompliance or the failure of reasonable attempts at outreach and engagement, and may occur only when in the clinical judgment of a designated crisis responder or the professional person in charge of an agency or facility designated to monitor less restrictive alternative services temporary detention is appropriate. This subsection does not limit the ability or obligation to pursue revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section in appropriate circumstances; and

(e) To initiate revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section or, if the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment as defined in RCW 71.05.020, initiate initial inpatient detention procedures under subsection (6) of this section.

(3) The facility or agency designated to provide outpatient treatment shall notify the secretary of the department of social and health services or designated crisis responder when a person fails to adhere to terms and conditions of court ordered treatment or experiences substantial deterioration in his or her condition and, as a result, presents an increased likelihood of serious harm.

(4)(a) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a designated crisis responder or the secretary of the department of social and health services may upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care order a person subject to a court order under this chapter to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention in an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment, in a)), an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility with adequate space, or an available approved substance use disorder treatment program ((if either is available)) with adequate space, in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment ~~((and has adequate space))~~. Proceedings under this subsection (4) may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.~~

(b) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a person detained under this subsection (4) must be held until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been released. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within five days of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary of the department of social and health services may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The designated crisis responder or secretary of the department of social and health services shall file a revocation petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court of the county where the person is currently located or being detained. The designated crisis responder shall serve the person and their attorney, guardian, and conservator, if any. The person has the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as in any involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section. There is no right to jury trial. The venue for proceedings is the county where the petition is filed. Notice of the filing must be provided to the court that originally ordered commitment, if different from the court where the petition for revocation is filed, within two judicial days of the person's detention.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the issues for the court to determine are whether: (i) The person adhered to the terms and conditions of the court order; (ii) substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred; (iii) there is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further inpatient treatment; or (iv) there is a likelihood of serious harm; and, if any of the above conditions apply, whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative or conditional release order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. The person may waive the court hearing and allow the court to enter a stipulated order upon the agreement of all parties. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment, the treatment period (~~(may be for no longer than the period)~~) must be for fourteen days from the revocation hearing if the outpatient order was based on a petition under RCW 71.05.160 or 71.05.230. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment and the outpatient order was based on a petition under RCW 71.05.290 or 71.05.320, the number of days remaining on the outpatient order must be converted to days of inpatient treatment authorized in the original court order. A court may not issue an order to detain a person for inpatient treatment in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program under this subsection unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and with adequate space for the person.

(5) In determining whether or not to take action under this section the designated crisis responder, agency, or facility must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.212 and the court must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.245 as they apply to the question of whether to enforce, modify, or revoke a court order for involuntary treatment.

(6)(a) If the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment as defined in RCW 71.05.020, a designated crisis responder may initiate inpatient detention procedures under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 when appropriate. A designated crisis responder or the secretary may, upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care to a person subject to a less restrictive alternative treatment order under RCW 71.05.320 subsequent to an order for assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment entered under RCW 71.05.148, order the person to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention for inpatient evaluation in an evaluation and treatment facility (~~(in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment, in a)~~)<sup>2</sup> secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility,<sup>2</sup> or in an approved substance use disorder treatment program (~~(if either is available)~~)<sup>2</sup>, in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment. Proceedings under this subsection may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) A person detained under this subsection may be held for evaluation for up to seventy-two hours, excluding weekends and holidays, pending a court hearing. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within seventy-two hours of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The issues for the court to determine are whether to continue the detention of the person for inpatient treatment or whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. To continue detention after the seventy-two hour period, the court must find that the person, as a result of a (~~mental disorder or substance use~~) behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, that no such alternatives are in the best interest of the person or others.

(d) A court may not issue an order to detain a person for inpatient treatment in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder program under this subsection unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and with adequate space for the person.

Sec. 87. RCW 71.05.590 and 2019 c 446 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Either an agency or facility designated to monitor or provide services under a less restrictive alternative order or conditional release order, or a designated crisis responder, may take action to enforce, modify, or revoke a less restrictive alternative or conditional release order. The agency, facility, or designated crisis responder must determine that:

(a) The person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of the court order;

(b) Substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;

(c) There is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further evaluation, intervention, or treatment; or

(d) The person poses a likelihood of serious harm.

(2) Actions taken under this section must include a flexible range of responses of varying levels of intensity appropriate to the circumstances and consistent with the interests of the individual and the public in personal autonomy, safety, recovery, and compliance. Available actions may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

(a) To counsel or advise the person as to their rights and responsibilities under the court order, and to offer appropriate incentives to motivate compliance;

(b) To increase the intensity of outpatient services provided to the person by increasing the frequency of contacts with the provider, referring the person for an assessment for assertive community services, or by other means;

(c) To request a court hearing for review and modification of the court order. The request must be made to or by the court with jurisdiction over the order and specify the circumstances that give rise to the request and what modification is being sought. The county prosecutor shall assist the agency or facility in requesting this hearing and issuing an appropriate summons to the person. This subsection does not limit the inherent authority of a treatment provider to alter conditions of treatment for clinical reasons, and is intended to be used only when court intervention is necessary or advisable to secure the person's compliance and prevent decompensation or deterioration;

(d) To cause the person to be transported by a peace officer, designated crisis responder, or other means to the agency or facility monitoring or providing services under the court order, or to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, emergency department, ~~((or to an))~~ evaluation and treatment facility ~~((if the person is committed for mental health treatment)), ((or to a))~~ secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility with available space, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program with available space ~~((if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment))~~. The person may be detained at the facility for up to twelve hours for the purpose of an evaluation to determine whether modification, revocation, or commitment proceedings are necessary and appropriate to stabilize the person and prevent decompensation, deterioration, or physical harm. Temporary detention for evaluation under this subsection is intended to occur only following a pattern of noncompliance or the failure of reasonable attempts at outreach and engagement, and may occur only when in the clinical judgment of a designated crisis responder or the professional person in charge of an agency or facility designated to monitor less restrictive alternative services temporary detention is appropriate. This subsection does not limit the ability or obligation to pursue revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section in appropriate circumstances; and

(e) To initiate revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section or, if the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment as defined in RCW 71.05.020, initiate initial inpatient detention procedures under subsection (6) of this section.

(3) The facility or agency designated to provide outpatient treatment shall notify the secretary of the department of social and health services or designated crisis responder when a person fails to adhere to terms and conditions of court ordered treatment or experiences substantial deterioration in his or her condition and, as a result, presents an increased likelihood of serious harm.

(4)(a) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a designated crisis responder or the secretary of the department of social and health services may upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care order a person subject to a court order under this chapter to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention in an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment, in a)), an available~~ secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility with adequate space, or an available approved substance use disorder treatment program ~~((if either is available))~~ with adequate space, in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment ~~((and has adequate space))~~. Proceedings under this subsection (4) may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a person detained under this subsection (4) must be held until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been released. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within five days of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary of the department of social and health services may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The designated crisis responder or secretary of the department of social and health services shall file a revocation petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court of the county where the person is currently located or being detained. The designated crisis responder shall serve the person and their attorney, guardian, and conservator, if any. The person has the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as in any involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section. There is no right to jury trial. The venue for proceedings is the county where the petition is filed. Notice of the filing must be provided to the court that originally ordered commitment, if different from the court where the petition for revocation is filed, within two judicial days of the person's detention.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the issues for the court to determine are whether: (i) The person adhered to the terms and conditions of the court order; (ii) substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred; (iii) there is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further inpatient treatment; or (iv) there is a likelihood of serious harm; and, if any of the above conditions apply, whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative or conditional release order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. The person may waive the court hearing and allow the court to enter a stipulated order upon the agreement of all parties. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment, the treatment period ~~((may be for no longer than the period))~~ must be for fourteen days from the revocation hearing if the outpatient order was based on a petition under RCW 71.05.160 or 71.05.230. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment and the outpatient order was based on a petition under RCW 71.05.290 or 71.05.320, the number of days remaining on the outpatient order must be converted to days of inpatient treatment authorized in the original court order. A court may not issue an order to detain a person for inpatient treatment in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program under this subsection unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and with adequate space for the person.

(5) In determining whether or not to take action under this section the designated crisis responder, agency, or facility must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.212 and the court must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.245 as they apply to the question of whether to enforce, modify, or revoke a court order for involuntary treatment.

(6)(a) If the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment as defined in RCW 71.05.020, a designated crisis responder may initiate inpatient detention procedures under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 when appropriate. A designated crisis responder or the secretary may, upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care to a person subject to a less restrictive alternative treatment order under RCW 71.05.320 subsequent to an order for assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment entered under RCW 71.05.148, order the person to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention for inpatient evaluation in an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment, in a)), secure~~ withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or in an approved substance use disorder treatment program ~~((if either is available))~~, in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment. Proceedings under this subsection may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) A person detained under this subsection may be held for evaluation for up to ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours, excluding weekends and holidays, pending a court hearing. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The issues for the court to determine are whether to continue the detention of the person for inpatient treatment or whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. To continue detention after the ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour period, the court must find that the person, as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, that no such alternatives are in the best interest of the person or others.

(d) A court may not issue an order to detain a person for inpatient treatment in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder program under this subsection unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and with adequate space for the person.

Sec. 88. RCW 71.05.590 and 2019 c 446 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Either an agency or facility designated to monitor or provide services under a less restrictive alternative order or conditional release order, or a designated crisis responder, may take action to enforce, modify, or revoke a less restrictive alternative or conditional release order. The agency, facility, or designated crisis responder must determine that:

(a) The person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of the court order;

(b) Substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;

(c) There is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further evaluation, intervention, or treatment; or

(d) The person poses a likelihood of serious harm.

(2) Actions taken under this section must include a flexible range of responses of varying levels of intensity appropriate to the circumstances and consistent with the interests of the individual and the public in personal autonomy, safety, recovery, and compliance. Available actions may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

(a) To counsel or advise the person as to their rights and responsibilities under the court order, and to offer appropriate incentives to motivate compliance;

(b) To increase the intensity of outpatient services provided to the person by increasing the frequency of contacts with the provider, referring the person for an assessment for assertive community services, or by other means;

(c) To request a court hearing for review and modification of the court order. The request must be made to or by the court with jurisdiction over the order and specify the circumstances that give rise to the request and what modification is being sought. The county prosecutor shall assist the agency or facility in requesting this hearing and issuing an appropriate summons to the person. This subsection does not limit the inherent authority of a treatment provider to alter conditions of treatment for clinical reasons, and is intended to be used only when court intervention is necessary or advisable to secure the person's compliance and prevent decompensation or deterioration;

(d) To cause the person to be transported by a peace officer, designated crisis responder, or other means to the agency or facility monitoring or providing services under the court order, or to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, emergency department, ~~((or to an))~~ evaluation and treatment facility ~~((if the person is committed for mental health treatment))~~, ~~((or to a))~~ secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program ~~((if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment))~~. The person may be detained at the facility for up to twelve hours for the purpose of an evaluation to determine whether modification, revocation, or commitment proceedings are necessary and appropriate to stabilize the person and prevent decompensation, deterioration, or physical harm. Temporary detention for evaluation under this subsection is intended to occur only following a pattern of noncompliance or the failure of reasonable attempts at outreach and engagement, and may occur only when in the clinical judgment of a designated crisis responder or the professional person in charge of an agency or facility designated to monitor less restrictive alternative services temporary detention is appropriate. This subsection does not limit the ability or obligation to pursue revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section in appropriate circumstances; and

(e) To initiate revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section or, if the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment as defined in RCW 71.05.020, initial inpatient detention procedures under subsection (6) of this section.

(3) The facility or agency designated to provide outpatient treatment shall notify the secretary of the department of social and health services or designated crisis responder when a person fails to adhere to terms and conditions of court ordered treatment or experiences substantial deterioration in his or her condition and, as a result, presents an increased likelihood of serious harm.

(4)(a) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a designated crisis responder or the secretary of the department of social and health services may upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care order a person subject to a court order under this chapter to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention in an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment))~~, in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or in an approved substance use disorder treatment program ~~((if either is available))~~, in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment. Proceedings under this subsection (4) may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a person detained under this subsection (4) must be held until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been released. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within five days of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary of the department of social and health services may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The designated crisis responder or secretary of the department of social and health services shall file a revocation petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court of the county where the person is currently located or being detained. The designated crisis responder shall serve the person and their attorney, guardian, and conservator, if any. The person has the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as in any involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section. There is no right to jury trial. The venue for proceedings is the county where the petition is filed. Notice of the filing must be provided to the court that originally ordered commitment, if different from the court where the petition for revocation is filed, within two judicial days of the person's detention.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the issues for the court to determine are whether: (i) The person adhered to the terms and conditions of the court order; (ii) substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred; (iii) there is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further inpatient treatment; or (iv) there is a likelihood of serious harm; and, if any of the above conditions apply, whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative or conditional release order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. The person may waive the court hearing and allow the court to enter a stipulated order upon the agreement of all parties. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment, the treatment period ~~((may be for no longer than the period))~~ must be for fourteen days from the revocation hearing if the outpatient order was based on a petition under RCW 71.05.160 or 71.05.230. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment and the outpatient order was based on a petition under RCW 71.05.290 or 71.05.320, the number of days remaining on the outpatient order must be converted to days of inpatient treatment authorized in the original court order.

(5) In determining whether or not to take action under this section the designated crisis responder, agency, or facility must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.212 and the court must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.245 as they apply to the question of whether to enforce, modify, or revoke a court order for involuntary treatment.

(6)(a) If the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment as defined in RCW 71.05.020, a designated crisis responder may initiate inpatient detention procedures under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 when appropriate. A designated crisis responder or the secretary may, upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care to a person subject to a less restrictive alternative treatment order under RCW 71.05.320 subsequent to an order for assisted outpatient behavioral health treatment entered under RCW 71.05.148, order the person to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention for inpatient evaluation in an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment)),~~ in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or in an approved substance use disorder treatment program ~~((if either is available)),~~ in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment. Proceedings under this subsection may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) A person detained under this subsection may be held for evaluation for up to ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours, excluding weekends and holidays, pending a court hearing. The designated crisis responder or the secretary may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The issues for the court to determine are whether to continue the detention of the person for inpatient treatment or whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. To continue detention after the ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour period, the court must find that the person, as a result of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, that no such alternatives are in the best interest of the person or others.

~~((d) A court may not issue an order to detain a person for inpatient treatment in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder program under this subsection unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and with adequate space for the person.))~~

Annually, all community mental health employees who work directly with clients shall be provided with training on safety and violence prevention topics described in RCW 49.19.030. The curriculum for the training shall be developed collaboratively among the authority, the department, contracted ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health service providers, and employee organizations that represent community mental health workers.

Sec. 90. RCW 71.05.740 and 2019 c 325 s 3012 are each amended to read as follows:

All behavioral health administrative services organizations in the state of Washington must forward historical ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health involuntary commitment information retained by the organization, including identifying information and dates of commitment to the authority. As soon as feasible, the behavioral health administrative services organizations must arrange to report new commitment data to the authority within twenty-four hours. Commitment information under this section does not need to be resent if it is already in the possession of the authority. Behavioral health administrative services organizations and the authority shall be immune from liability related to the sharing of commitment information under this section.

Sec. 91. RCW 71.05.745 and 2018 c 201 s 3032 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The authority may use a single bed certification process as outlined in rule to provide additional treatment capacity for a person suffering from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder for whom an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program bed is not available. The facility that is the proposed site of the single bed certification must be a facility that is willing and able to provide the person with timely and appropriate treatment either directly or by arrangement with other public or private agencies.

(2) A single bed certification must be specific to the patient receiving treatment.

(3) A designated crisis responder who submits an application for a single bed certification for treatment at a facility that is willing and able to provide timely and appropriate mental health treatment in good faith belief that the single bed certification is appropriate may presume that the single bed certification will be approved for the purpose of completing the detention process and responding to other emergency calls.

(4) The authority may adopt rules implementing this section and continue to enforce rules it has already adopted except where inconsistent with this section.

Sec. 92. RCW 71.05.750 and 2019 c 325 s 3013 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A designated crisis responder shall make a report to the authority when he or she determines a person meets detention criteria under RCW 71.05.150, 71.05.153, 71.34.700, or 71.34.710 and there are not any beds available at an evaluation and treatment facility, the person has not been provisionally accepted for admission by a facility, and the person cannot be served on a single bed certification or less restrictive alternative. Starting at the time when the designated crisis responder determines a person meets detention criteria and the investigation has been completed, the designated crisis responder has twenty-four hours to submit a completed report to the authority.

(2) The report required under subsection (1) of this section must contain at a minimum:

- (a) The date and time that the investigation was completed;
- (b) The identity of the responsible behavioral health administrative services organization and managed care organization, if applicable;
- (c) The county in which the person met detention criteria;
- (d) A list of facilities which refused to admit the person; and
- (e) Identifying information for the person, including age or date of birth.

(3) The authority shall develop a standardized reporting form or modify the current form used for single bed certifications for the report required under subsection (2) of this section and may require additional reporting elements as it determines are necessary or supportive. The authority shall also determine the method for the transmission of the completed report from the designated crisis responder to the authority.

(4) The authority shall create quarterly reports displayed on its web site that summarize the information reported under subsection (2) of this section. At a minimum, the reports must display data by county and by month. The reports must also include the number of single bed certifications granted by category. The categories must include all of the reasons that the authority recognizes for issuing a single bed certification, as identified in rule.

(5) The reports provided according to this section may not display "protected health information" as that term is used in the federal health insurance portability and accountability act of 1996, nor information contained in "mental health treatment records" or "behavioral health treatment records" as ~~((that term is))~~ these terms are used in chapter 70.02 RCW or elsewhere in state law, and must otherwise be compliant with state and federal privacy laws.

(6) For purposes of this section, the term "single bed certification" means a situation in which an adult on a seventy-two hour detention, fourteen-day commitment, ninety-day commitment, or one hundred eighty-day commitment is detained to a facility that is:

- (a) Not licensed or certified as an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility; or
- (b) A licensed or certified inpatient evaluation and treatment facility that is already at capacity.

Sec. 93. RCW 71.05.750 and 2019 c 325 s 3013 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A designated crisis responder shall make a report to the authority when he or she determines a person meets detention criteria under RCW 71.05.150, 71.05.153, 71.34.700, or 71.34.710 and there are not any beds available at an evaluation and treatment facility, the person has not been provisionally accepted for admission by a facility, and the person cannot be served on a single bed certification or less restrictive alternative. Starting at the time when the designated crisis responder determines a person meets detention criteria and the investigation has been completed, the designated crisis responder has twenty-four hours to submit a completed report to the authority.

(2) The report required under subsection (1) of this section must contain at a minimum:

- (a) The date and time that the investigation was completed;

(b) The identity of the responsible behavioral health administrative services organization and managed care organization, if applicable;

(c) The county in which the person met detention criteria;

(d) A list of facilities which refused to admit the person; and

(e) Identifying information for the person, including age or date of birth.

(3) The authority shall develop a standardized reporting form or modify the current form used for single bed certifications for the report required under subsection (2) of this section and may require additional reporting elements as it determines are necessary or supportive. The authority shall also determine the method for the transmission of the completed report from the designated crisis responder to the authority.

(4) The authority shall create quarterly reports displayed on its web site that summarize the information reported under subsection (2) of this section. At a minimum, the reports must display data by county and by month. The reports must also include the number of single bed certifications granted by category. The categories must include all of the reasons that the authority recognizes for issuing a single bed certification, as identified in rule.

(5) The reports provided according to this section may not display "protected health information" as that term is used in the federal health insurance portability and accountability act of 1996, nor information contained in "mental health treatment records" or "behavioral health treatment records" as ~~((that term is))~~ these terms are used in chapter 70.02 RCW or elsewhere in state law, and must otherwise be compliant with state and federal privacy laws.

(6) For purposes of this section, the term "single bed certification" means a situation in which an adult on a ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour detention, fourteen-day commitment, ninety-day commitment, or one hundred eighty-day commitment is detained to a facility that is:

(a) Not licensed or certified as an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility; or

(b) A licensed or certified inpatient evaluation and treatment facility that is already at capacity.

Sec. 94. RCW 71.34.010 and 2019 c 381 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the purpose of this chapter to assure that minors in need of ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health care and treatment receive an appropriate continuum of culturally relevant care and treatment, including prevention and early intervention, self-directed care, parent-directed care, and involuntary treatment. To facilitate the continuum of care and treatment to minors in out-of-home placements, all divisions of the authority and the department that provide ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services to minors shall jointly plan and deliver those services.

(2) It is also the purpose of this chapter to protect the rights of adolescents to confidentiality and to independently seek services for ~~((mental health and substance use))~~ behavioral health disorders. Mental health and ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professionals shall guard against needless hospitalization and deprivations of liberty, enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs in accordance with sound professional judgment, and encourage the use of voluntary services. Mental health and ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professionals shall, whenever clinically appropriate, offer less restrictive alternatives to inpatient treatment. Additionally, all ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health care and treatment providers shall assure that minors' parents are given an opportunity to participate in the treatment decisions for their minor children. The ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health care and treatment providers shall, to the extent possible, offer services that involve minors' parents or family.

(3)(a) It is the intent of the legislature to enhance continuity of care for minors with serious behavioral health disorders that can be controlled or stabilized in a less restrictive alternative commitment. Within the guidelines stated in In re LaBelle, 107 Wn.2d 196 (1986), the legislature intends to encourage appropriate interventions at a point when there is the best opportunity to restore the minor to or maintain satisfactory functioning.

(b) For minors with a prior history or pattern of repeated hospitalizations or law enforcement interventions due to decompensation, the consideration of prior behavioral health history is particularly relevant in determining whether the minor would receive, if released, such care as is essential for his or her health or safety.

(c) Therefore, the legislature finds that for minors who are currently under a commitment order, a prior history of decompensation leading to repeated hospitalizations or law enforcement interventions should be given great weight in determining whether a new less restrictive alternative commitment should be ordered.

(4) It is also the purpose of this chapter to protect the health and safety of minors suffering from behavioral health disorders and to protect public safety through use of the parens patriae and police powers of the state. Accordingly, when construing the requirements of this chapter the court must focus on the merits of the petition, except where requirements have been totally disregarded, as provided in In re C.W., 147 Wn.2d 259, 281 (2002). A presumption in favor of deciding petitions on their merits furthers both public and private interests because the mental and physical well-being of minors as well as public safety may be implicated by the decision to release a minor and discontinue his or her treatment.

(5) It is also the purpose of this chapter to assure the ability of parents to exercise reasonable, compassionate care and control of their minor children when there is a medical necessity for treatment and without the requirement of filing a petition under this chapter, including the ability to request and receive medically necessary treatment for their adolescent children without the consent of the adolescent.

Sec. 95. RCW 71.34.020 and 2019 c 446 s 24, 2019 c 444 s 17, 2019 c 381 s 2, and 2019 c 325 s 2001 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Adolescent" means a minor thirteen years of age or older.
- (2) "Alcoholism" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning.
- (3) "Approved substance use disorder treatment program" means a program for minors with substance use disorders provided by a treatment program licensed or certified by the department of health as meeting standards adopted under chapter 71.24 RCW.
- (4) "Authority" means the Washington state health care authority.
- (5) "Behavioral health administrative services organization" has the same meaning as provided in RCW 71.24.025.
- (6) "Child psychiatrist" means a person having a license as a physician and surgeon in this state, who has had graduate training in child psychiatry in a program approved by the American

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Medical Association or the American Osteopathic Association, and who is board eligible or board certified in child psychiatry.

- (7) "Children's mental health specialist" means:
  - (a) A mental health professional who has completed a minimum of one hundred actual hours, not quarter or semester hours, of specialized training devoted to the study of child development and the treatment of children; and
  - (b) A mental health professional who has the equivalent of one year of full-time experience in the treatment of children under the supervision of a children's mental health specialist.
- (8) "Commitment" means a determination by a judge or court commissioner, made after a commitment hearing, that the minor is in need of inpatient diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment or that the minor is in need of less restrictive alternative treatment.
- (9) "Co-occurring disorder specialist" means an individual possessing an enhancement granted by the department of health under chapter 18.205 RCW that certifies the individual to provide substance use disorder counseling subject to the practice limitations under RCW 18.205.105.
- (10) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- (11) "Designated crisis responder" has the same meaning as provided in RCW 71.05.020.
- (12) "Director" means the director of the authority.
- (13) "Evaluation and treatment facility" means a public or private facility or unit that is licensed or certified by the department of health to provide emergency, inpatient, residential, or outpatient mental health evaluation and treatment services for minors. A physically separate and separately operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility for minors. A facility which is part of or operated by the state or federal agency does not require licensure or certification. No correctional institution or facility, juvenile court detention facility, or jail may be an evaluation and treatment facility within the meaning of this chapter.
- (14) "Evaluation and treatment program" means the total system of services and facilities coordinated and approved by a county or combination of counties for the evaluation and treatment of minors under this chapter.
- (15) "Gravely disabled minor" means a minor who, as a result of a (~~mental~~) behavioral health disorder (~~(, or as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals)~~), (a) is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his or her essential human needs of health or safety, or (b) manifests severe deterioration (~~(in routine functioning)~~) from safe behavior evidenced by repeated and escalating loss of cognitive or volitional control over his or her actions and is not receiving such care as is essential for his or her health or safety.
- (16) "Inpatient treatment" means twenty-four-hour-per-day mental health care provided within a general hospital, psychiatric hospital, residential treatment facility licensed or certified by the department of health as an evaluation and treatment facility for minors, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility for minors, or approved substance use disorder treatment program for minors.
- (17) "Intoxicated minor" means a minor whose mental or physical functioning is substantially impaired as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals.
- (18) "Kinship caregiver" has the same meaning as in RCW 74.13.031(19)(a).
- (19) "Less restrictive alternative" or "less restrictive setting" means outpatient treatment provided to a minor who is not residing in a facility providing inpatient treatment as defined in this chapter.
- (20) "Likelihood of serious harm" means (~~(either)~~):

(a) A substantial risk that: ~~(i) Physical harm will be inflicted by ((an individual)) a minor upon his or her own person, as evidenced by threats or attempts to commit suicide or inflict physical harm on oneself; ((b) a substantial risk that)) (ii) physical harm will be inflicted by ((an individual)) a minor upon another individual, as evidenced by behavior which has caused ((such)) harm, substantial pain, or which places another person or persons in reasonable fear of ((sustaining such)) harm to themselves or others; or ((c) a substantial risk that)) (iii) physical harm will be inflicted by ((an individual)) a minor upon the property of others, as evidenced by behavior which has caused substantial loss or damage to the property of others; or~~

(b) The minor has threatened the physical safety of another and has a history of one or more violent acts.

(21) "Managed care organization" has the same meaning as provided in RCW 71.24.025.

(22) "Medical necessity" for inpatient care means a requested service which is reasonably calculated to: (a) Diagnose, correct, cure, or alleviate a mental disorder or substance use disorder; or (b) prevent the progression of a mental disorder or substance use disorder that endangers life or causes suffering and pain, or results in illness or infirmity or threatens to cause or aggravate a handicap, or causes physical deformity or malfunction, and there is no adequate less restrictive alternative available.

(23) "Mental disorder" means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment that has substantial adverse effects on an individual's cognitive or volitional functions. The presence of alcohol abuse, drug abuse, juvenile criminal history, antisocial behavior, or intellectual disabilities alone is insufficient to justify a finding of "mental disorder" within the meaning of this section.

(24) "Mental health professional" means a psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric nurse, social worker, and such other mental health professionals as defined by rules adopted by the secretary of the department of health under this chapter.

(25) "Minor" means any person under the age of eighteen years.

(26) "Outpatient treatment" means any of the nonresidential services mandated under chapter 71.24 RCW and provided by licensed or certified behavioral health agencies as identified by RCW 71.24.025.

(27)(a) "Parent" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 26.26A.010, including either parent if custody is shared under a joint custody agreement, or a person or agency judicially appointed as legal guardian or custodian of the child.

(b) For purposes of family-initiated treatment under RCW 71.34.600 through 71.34.670, "parent" also includes a person to whom a parent defined in (a) of this subsection has given a signed authorization to make health care decisions for the adolescent, a stepparent who is involved in caring for the adolescent, a kinship caregiver who is involved in caring for the adolescent, or another relative who is responsible for the health care of the adolescent, who may be required to provide a declaration under penalty of perjury stating that he or she is a relative responsible for the health care of the adolescent pursuant to ~~((RCW 9A.72.085))~~ chapter 5.50 RCW. If a dispute arises between individuals authorized to act as a parent for the purpose of RCW 71.34.600 through 71.34.670, the disagreement must be resolved according to the priority established under RCW 7.70.065(2)(a).

(28) "Physician assistant" means a person licensed as a physician assistant under chapter 18.57A or 18.71A RCW.

(29) "Private agency" means any person, partnership, corporation, or association that is not a public agency, whether or not financed in whole or in part by public funds, that constitutes an evaluation and treatment facility or private institution, or hospital, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, that is conducted for, or includes a distinct unit, floor, or ward conducted for, the care and treatment of persons with mental illness, substance use disorders, or both mental illness and substance use disorders.

(30) "Professional person in charge" or "professional person" means a physician, other mental health professional, or other person empowered by an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program with authority to make admission and discharge decisions on behalf of that facility.

(31) "Psychiatric nurse" means a registered nurse who has experience in the direct treatment of persons who have a mental illness or who are emotionally disturbed, such experience gained under the supervision of a mental health professional.

(32) "Psychiatrist" means a person having a license as a physician in this state who has completed residency training in psychiatry in a program approved by the American Medical Association or the American Osteopathic Association, and is board eligible or board certified in psychiatry.

(33) "Psychologist" means a person licensed as a psychologist under chapter 18.83 RCW.

(34) "Public agency" means any evaluation and treatment facility or institution, or hospital, or approved substance use disorder treatment program that is conducted for, or includes a distinct unit, floor, or ward conducted for, the care and treatment of persons with mental illness, substance use disorders, or both mental illness and substance use disorders if the agency is operated directly by federal, state, county, or municipal government, or a combination of such governments.

(35) "Responsible other" means the minor, the minor's parent or estate, or any other person legally responsible for support of the minor.

(36) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department or secretary's designee.

(37) "Secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility" means a facility operated by either a public or private agency or by the program of an agency which provides care to voluntary individuals and individuals involuntarily detained and committed under this chapter for whom there is a likelihood of serious harm or who are gravely disabled due to the presence of a substance use disorder. Secure withdrawal management and stabilization facilities must:

(a) Provide the following services:

(i) Assessment and treatment, provided by certified substance use disorder professionals or co-occurring disorder specialists;

(ii) Clinical stabilization services;

(iii) Acute or subacute detoxification services for intoxicated individuals; and

(iv) Discharge assistance provided by certified substance use disorder professionals or co-occurring disorder specialists, including facilitating transitions to appropriate voluntary or involuntary inpatient services or to less restrictive alternatives as appropriate for the individual;

(b) Include security measures sufficient to protect the patients, staff, and community; and

(c) Be licensed or certified as such by the department of health.

(38) "Social worker" means a person with a master's or further advanced degree from a social work educational program accredited and approved as provided in RCW 18.320.010.

(39) "Start of initial detention" means the time of arrival of the minor at the first evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program offering inpatient treatment if the minor is being involuntarily detained at the time. With regard to voluntary patients, "start of initial detention"

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

means the time at which the minor gives notice of intent to leave under the provisions of this chapter.

(40) "Substance use disorder" means a cluster of cognitive, behavioral, and physiological symptoms indicating that an individual continues using the substance despite significant substance-related problems. The diagnosis of a substance use disorder is based on a pathological pattern of behaviors related to the use of the substances.

(41) "Substance use disorder professional" means a person certified as a substance use disorder professional by the department of health under chapter 18.205 RCW ~~(or a person certified as a chemical dependency professional trainee under RCW 18.205.095 working under the direct supervision of a certified chemical dependency professional)~~.

(42) "Admission" or "admit" means a decision by a physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner that a minor should be examined or treated as a patient in a hospital.

(43) "Antipsychotic medications" means that class of drugs primarily used to treat serious manifestations of mental illness associated with thought disorders, which includes, but is not limited to, atypical antipsychotic medications.

(44) "Attending staff" means any person on the staff of a public or private agency having responsibility for the care and treatment of a minor patient.

(45) "Behavioral health disorder" means either a mental disorder as defined in this section, a substance use disorder as defined in this section, or a co-occurring mental disorder and substance use disorder.

(46) "Conditional release" means a revocable modification of a commitment, which may be revoked upon violation of any of its terms.

(47) "Crisis stabilization unit" means a short-term facility or a portion of a facility licensed or certified by the department of health under RCW 71.24.035, such as a residential treatment facility or a hospital, which has been designed to assess, diagnose, and treat individuals experiencing an acute crisis without the use of long-term hospitalization.

(48) "Custody" means involuntary detention under the provisions of this chapter or chapter 10.77 RCW, uninterrupted by any period of unconditional release from commitment from a facility providing involuntary care and treatment.

(49) "Detention" or "detain" means the lawful confinement of a person, under the provisions of this chapter.

(50) "Developmental disabilities professional" means a person who has specialized training and three years of experience in directly treating or working with persons with developmental disabilities and is a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or social worker, and such other developmental disabilities professionals as may be defined by rules adopted by the secretary of the department.

(51) "Developmental disability" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 71A.10.020.

(52) "Discharge" means the termination of hospital medical authority. The commitment may remain in place, be terminated, or be amended by court order.

(53) "Habilitative services" means those services provided by program personnel to assist minors in acquiring and maintaining life skills and in raising their levels of physical, behavioral, social, and vocational functioning. Habilitative services include education, training for employment, and therapy.

(54) "Hearing" means any proceeding conducted in open court that conforms to the requirements of section 98 of this act.

(55) "History of one or more violent acts" refers to the period of time five years prior to the filing of a petition under this chapter, excluding any time spent, but not any violent acts committed, in a mental health facility, a long-term alcoholism or drug treatment facility, or in confinement as a result of a criminal conviction.

(56) "Individualized service plan" means a plan prepared by a developmental disabilities professional with other professionals as a team, for a person with developmental disabilities, which states:

(a) The nature of the person's specific problems, prior charged criminal behavior, and habilitation needs;

(b) The conditions and strategies necessary to achieve the purposes of habilitation;

(c) The intermediate and long-range goals of the habilitation program, with a projected timetable for the attainment;

(d) The rationale for using this plan of habilitation to achieve those intermediate and long-range goals;

(e) The staff responsible for carrying out the plan;

(f) Where relevant in light of past criminal behavior and due consideration for public safety, the criteria for proposed movement to less-restrictive settings, criteria for proposed eventual discharge or release, and a projected possible date for discharge or release; and

(g) The type of residence immediately anticipated for the person and possible future types of residences.

(57) "Judicial commitment" means a commitment by a court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(58) "Legal counsel" means attorneys and staff employed by county prosecutor offices or the state attorney general acting in their capacity as legal representatives of public behavioral health service providers under RCW 71.05.130.

(59) "Licensed physician" means a person licensed to practice medicine or osteopathic medicine and surgery in the state of Washington.

(60) "Medical clearance" means a physician or other health care provider has determined that a person is medically stable and ready for referral to the designated crisis responder.

(61) "Peace officer" means a law enforcement official of a public agency or governmental unit, and includes persons specifically given peace officer powers by any state law, local ordinance, or judicial order of appointment.

(62) "Release" means legal termination of the commitment under the provisions of this chapter.

(63) "Resource management services" has the meaning given in chapter 71.24 RCW.

(64) "Severe deterioration from safe behavior" means that a person will, if not treated, suffer or continue to suffer severe and abnormal mental, emotional, or physical distress, and this distress is associated with significant impairment of judgment, reason, or behavior.

(65) "Therapeutic court personnel" means the staff of a mental health court or other therapeutic court which has jurisdiction over defendants who are dually diagnosed with mental disorders, including court personnel, probation officers, a court monitor, prosecuting attorney, or defense counsel acting within the scope of therapeutic court duties.

(66) "Treatment records" include registration and all other records concerning persons who are receiving or who at any time have received services for mental illness, which are maintained by the department, the department of health, the authority, behavioral health organizations and their staffs, and by treatment facilities. Treatment records include mental health information contained in a medical bill including but not limited to mental health drugs, a mental health diagnosis, provider name, and dates of service stemming from a medical service. Treatment records do not include notes or records maintained for personal use by a person providing treatment services for the department, the department of health, the authority, behavioral health organizations, or a treatment facility if the notes or records are not available to others.

(67) "Triage facility" means a short-term facility or a portion of a facility licensed or certified by the department of health under RCW 71.24.035, which is designed as a facility to assess and stabilize an individual or determine the need for involuntary commitment of an individual, and must meet department of health residential treatment facility standards. A triage facility may be structured as a voluntary or involuntary placement facility.

(68) "Violent act" means behavior that resulted in homicide, attempted suicide, injury, or substantial loss or damage to property.

(69) "Written order of apprehension" means an order of the court for a peace officer to deliver the named minor in the order to a facility or emergency room as determined by the designated crisis responder. Such orders must be entered into the Washington crime information center database.

Sec. 96. RCW 71.34.305 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 255 are each amended to read as follows:

School district personnel who contact a ~~((mental health or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder inpatient treatment program or provider for the purpose of referring a student to inpatient treatment shall provide the parents with notice of the contact within forty-eight hours.

Sec. 97. RCW 71.34.310 and 1985 c 354 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superior court has jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter.

(2) A record of all petitions and proceedings under this chapter shall be maintained by the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the petition or proceedings was initiated.

(3) Petitions for commitment shall be filed and venue for hearings under this chapter shall be in the county in which the minor is being detained. ~~((The court may, for good cause, transfer the proceeding to the county of the minor's residence, or to the county in which the alleged conduct evidencing need for commitment occurred. If the county of detention is changed, subsequent petitions may be filed in the county in which the minor is detained without the necessity of a change of venue.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 98. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

A peace officer may take or authorize a minor to be taken into custody and immediately delivered to an appropriate triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, approved substance use disorder treatment program, or the emergency department of a local hospital when he or she has reasonable cause to believe that such minor is suffering from a behavioral health disorder and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled. Until July 1, 2026, a peace officer's delivery of a minor to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program is subject to the availability of a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the minor.

Sec. 99. RCW 71.34.355 and 2016 c 155 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Absent a risk to self or others, minors treated under this chapter have the following rights, which shall be prominently posted in the evaluation and treatment facility:

~~((4))~~ (a) To wear their own clothes and to keep and use personal possessions;

~~((2))~~ (b) To keep and be allowed to spend a reasonable sum of their own money for canteen expenses and small purchases;

~~((3))~~ (c) To have individual storage space for private use;

~~((4))~~ (d) To have visitors at reasonable times;

~~((5))~~ (e) To have reasonable access to a telephone, both to make and receive confidential calls;

~~((6))~~ (f) To have ready access to letter-writing materials, including stamps, and to send and receive uncensored correspondence through the mails;

~~((7))~~ (g) To discuss treatment plans and decisions with mental health professionals;

~~((8))~~ (h) To have the right to adequate care and individualized treatment;

~~((9))~~ (i) To not be denied access to treatment by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a church or religious denomination in addition to the treatment otherwise proposed;

(j) Not to consent to the administration of antipsychotic medications beyond the hearing conducted pursuant to RCW 71.34.750 or the performance of electroconvulsive treatment or surgery, except emergency lifesaving surgery, upon him or her, ~~((and not to have electroconvulsive treatment or nonemergency surgery in such circumstance))~~ unless ordered by a court ~~((pursuant to a judicial hearing in which the minor is present and represented by counsel, and the court shall appoint a psychiatrist, physician assistant, psychologist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or physician designated by the minor or the minor's counsel to testify on behalf of the minor))~~ under procedures described in RCW 71.05.217(1)(j). The minor's parent may exercise this right on the minor's behalf, and must be informed of any impending treatment;

~~((10))~~ (k) Not to have psychosurgery performed on him or her under any circumstances.

(2)(a) Privileges between minors and physicians, physician assistants, psychologists, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioners are deemed waived in proceedings under this chapter relating to the administration of antipsychotic medications. As to other proceedings under this chapter, the privileges are waived when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that such waiver is necessary to protect either the detained minor or the public.

(b) The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained minor for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained minor or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

(c) The record maker may not be required to testify in order to introduce medical or psychological records of the detained minor so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met except that portions of the record which contain opinions as to the detained minor's mental state must be deleted from such records unless the person making such conclusions is available for cross-examination.

(3) No minor may be presumed incompetent as a consequence of receiving an evaluation or voluntary or involuntary treatment for a mental disorder or substance use disorder, under this chapter or any prior laws of this state dealing with mental illness or substance use disorders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 100. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

At the time a minor is involuntarily admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, the professional person in charge or his or her designee shall take reasonable precautions to inventory and safeguard the personal property of the detained minor. A copy of the inventory, signed by the staff member making it, must be given to the detained minor and must, in addition, be open to inspection to any responsible relative, subject to limitations, if any, specifically imposed by the detained minor. For purposes of this section, "responsible relative" includes the guardian, conservator, attorney, parent, or adult brother or sister of the minor. The facility shall not disclose the contents of the inventory to any other person without the consent of the minor or order of the court.

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(1) If a minor is not accepted for admission or is released by an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, the facility shall release the minor to the custody of the minor's parent or other responsible person. If not otherwise available, the facility shall furnish transportation for the minor to the minor's residence or other appropriate place. If the minor has been arrested, the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program shall detain the minor for not more than eight hours at the request of the peace officer. The program or facility shall make reasonable attempts to contact the requesting peace officer during this time to inform the peace officer that the minor is not approved for admission or is being released in order to enable a peace officer to return to the facility and take the minor back into custody.

(2) If the minor is released to someone other than the minor's parent, the facility shall make every effort to notify the minor's parent of the release as soon as possible.

(3) No indigent minor may be released to less restrictive alternative treatment or setting or discharged from inpatient treatment without suitable clothing, and the authority shall furnish this clothing. As funds are available, the director may provide necessary funds for the immediate welfare of indigent minors upon discharge or release to less restrictive alternative treatment.

Sec. 102. RCW 71.34.410 and 2019 c 446 s 27 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No public or private agency or governmental entity, nor officer of a public or private agency, nor the superintendent, or professional person in charge, his or her professional designee or attending staff of any such agency, nor any public official performing functions necessary to the administration of this chapter, nor peace officer responsible for detaining a ~~((person))~~ minor under this chapter, nor any designated crisis responder, nor professional person, nor evaluation and treatment facility, nor secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, nor approved substance use disorder treatment program shall be civilly or criminally liable for performing actions authorized in this chapter with regard to the decision of whether to admit, release, administer antipsychotic medications, or detain a ~~((person))~~ minor for evaluation and treatment: PROVIDED, That such duties were performed in good faith and without gross negligence.

(2) This section does not relieve a person from giving the required duty to warn or to take reasonable precautions to provide protection from violent behavior where the minor has communicated an actual threat of physical violence against a reasonably identifiable victim or victims. The duty to warn or to take reasonable precautions to provide protection from violent behavior is discharged if reasonable efforts are made to communicate the threat to the victim or victims and to law enforcement personnel.

(1) The authority may use a single bed certification process as outlined in rule to provide additional treatment capacity for a minor suffering from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder for whom an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program bed is not available. The facility that is the proposed site of the single bed certification must be a facility that is willing and able to provide the person with timely and appropriate treatment either directly or by arrangement with other public or private agencies.

(2) A single bed certification must be specific to the minor receiving treatment.

(3) A designated crisis responder who submits an application for a single bed certification for treatment at a facility that is willing and able to provide timely and appropriate ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health treatment in good faith belief that the single bed certification is appropriate may presume that the single bed certification will be approved for the purpose of completing the detention process and responding to other emergency calls.

(4) The authority may adopt rules implementing this section and continue to enforce rules it has already adopted except where inconsistent with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the professional person in charge of a treatment facility, or his or her professional designee, from permitting a minor detained for intensive treatment to leave the facility for prescribed periods during the term of the minor's detention, under such conditions as may be appropriate.

Sec. 105. RCW 71.34.500 and 2019 c 381 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An adolescent may admit himself or herself to an evaluation and treatment facility for inpatient mental health treatment or an approved substance use disorder treatment program for inpatient substance use disorder treatment without parental consent. The admission shall occur only if the professional person in charge of the facility concurs with the need for inpatient treatment. Parental authorization, or authorization from a person who may consent on behalf of the minor pursuant to RCW 7.70.065, is required for inpatient treatment of a minor under the age of thirteen.

(2) When, in the judgment of the professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, there is reason to believe that a minor is in need of inpatient treatment because of a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, and the facility provides the type of evaluation and treatment needed by the minor, and it is not feasible to treat the minor in any less restrictive setting or the minor's home, the minor may be admitted to the facility.

(3) Written renewal of voluntary consent must be obtained from the applicant no less than once every twelve months. The minor's need for continued inpatient treatments shall be reviewed and documented no less than every one hundred eighty days.

Sec. 106. RCW 71.34.600 and 2019 c 446 s 28 and 2019 c 381 s 7 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent may bring, or authorize the bringing of, his or her adolescent child to:

(a) An evaluation and treatment facility or an inpatient facility licensed under chapter 70.41, 71.12, or 72.23 RCW and request that the professional person examine the adolescent to determine whether the adolescent has a mental disorder and is in need of inpatient treatment; or

(b) A secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program and request that a substance use disorder assessment be conducted by a professional person to determine whether the adolescent has a substance use disorder and is in need of inpatient treatment.

(2) The consent of the adolescent is not required for admission, evaluation, and treatment if a parent provides consent.

(3) An appropriately trained professional person may evaluate whether the adolescent has a ~~((mental disorder or has a substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder. The evaluation shall be completed within twenty-four hours of the time the adolescent was brought to the facility, unless the professional person determines that the condition of the adolescent necessitates additional time for evaluation. In no event shall an adolescent be held longer than seventy-two hours for evaluation. If, in the judgment of the professional person, it is determined it is a medical necessity for the adolescent to receive inpatient treatment, the adolescent may be held for treatment. The facility shall limit treatment to that which the professional person determines is medically necessary to stabilize the adolescent's condition until the evaluation has been completed. Within twenty-four hours of completion of the evaluation, the professional person shall notify the authority if the adolescent is held solely for mental health and not substance use disorder treatment and of the date of admission. If the adolescent is held for substance use disorder treatment only, the professional person shall provide notice to the authority which redacts all patient identifying information about the adolescent unless: (a) The adolescent provides written consent to the disclosure of the fact of admission and such other substance use disorder treatment information in the notice; or (b) permitted by federal law.

(4) No provider is obligated to provide treatment to an adolescent under the provisions of this section except that no provider may refuse to treat an adolescent under the provisions of this section solely on the basis that the adolescent has not consented to the treatment. No provider may admit an adolescent to treatment under this section unless it is medically necessary.

(5) No adolescent receiving inpatient treatment under this section may be discharged from the facility based solely on his or her request.

(6) Prior to the review conducted under RCW 71.34.610, the professional person shall notify the adolescent of his or her right to petition superior court for release from the facility.

~~((7) For the purposes of this section "professional person" means "professional person" as defined in RCW 71.05.020.))~~

Sec. 107. RCW 71.34.600 and 2019 c 446 s 28 and 2019 c 381 s 7 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent may bring, or authorize the bringing of, his or her adolescent child to:

(a) An evaluation and treatment facility or an inpatient facility licensed under chapter 70.41, 71.12, or 72.23 RCW and request that the professional person examine the adolescent to determine whether the adolescent has a mental disorder and is in need of inpatient treatment; or

(b) A secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program and request that a substance use disorder assessment be conducted by a professional person to determine whether the adolescent has a substance use disorder and is in need of inpatient treatment.

(2) The consent of the adolescent is not required for admission, evaluation, and treatment if a parent provides consent.

(3) An appropriately trained professional person may evaluate whether the adolescent has a ~~((mental disorder or has a substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder. The evaluation shall be completed within twenty-four hours of the time the adolescent was brought to the facility, unless the professional person determines that the condition of the adolescent necessitates additional time for evaluation. In no event shall an adolescent be held longer than ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours for evaluation. If, in the judgment of the professional person, it is determined it is a medical necessity for the adolescent to receive inpatient treatment, the adolescent may be held for treatment. The facility shall limit treatment to that which the professional person determines is medically necessary to stabilize the adolescent's condition until the evaluation has been completed. Within twenty-four hours of completion of the evaluation, the professional person shall notify the authority if the adolescent is held solely for mental health and not substance use disorder treatment and of the date of admission. If the adolescent is held for substance use disorder treatment only, the professional person shall provide notice to the authority which redacts all patient identifying information about the adolescent unless: (a) The adolescent provides written consent to the disclosure of the fact of admission and such other substance use disorder treatment information in the notice; or (b) permitted by federal law.

(4) No provider is obligated to provide treatment to an adolescent under the provisions of this section except that no provider may refuse to treat an adolescent under the provisions of this section solely on the basis that the adolescent has not consented to the treatment. No provider may admit an adolescent to treatment under this section unless it is medically necessary.

(5) No adolescent receiving inpatient treatment under this section may be discharged from the facility based solely on his or her request.

(6) Prior to the review conducted under RCW 71.34.610, the professional person shall notify the adolescent of his or her right to petition superior court for release from the facility.

~~((7) For the purposes of this section "professional person" means "professional person" as defined in RCW 71.05.020.))~~

Sec. 108. RCW 71.34.650 and 2019 c 381 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent may bring, or authorize the bringing of, his or her adolescent child to:

~~((a))~~ a provider of outpatient ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health treatment and request that an appropriately trained professional person examine the adolescent to determine whether the adolescent has a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder and is in need of outpatient treatment ~~((or~~

~~((b) A provider of outpatient substance use disorder treatment and request that an appropriately trained professional person examine the adolescent to determine whether the adolescent has a substance use disorder and is in need of outpatient treatment)).~~

(2) The consent of the adolescent is not required for evaluation if a parent provides consent.

(3) The professional person may evaluate whether the adolescent has a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder and is in need of outpatient treatment.

(4) If a determination is made by a professional person under this section that an adolescent is in need of outpatient ~~((mental health or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder treatment, a parent of an adolescent may request and receive such outpatient treatment for his or her adolescent without the consent of the adolescent for up to twelve outpatient sessions occurring within a three-month period.

(5) Following the treatment periods under subsection (4) of this section, an adolescent must provide his or her consent for further treatment with that specific professional person.

(6) If a determination is made by a professional person under this section that an adolescent is in need of treatment in a less restrictive setting, including partial hospitalization or intensive outpatient treatment, a parent of an adolescent may request and receive such treatment for his or her adolescent without the consent of the adolescent.

(a) A professional person providing solely mental health treatment to an adolescent under this subsection (6) must convene a treatment review at least every thirty days after treatment begins that includes the adolescent, parent, and other treatment team members as appropriate to determine whether continued care under this subsection is medically necessary.

(b) A professional person providing solely mental health treatment to an adolescent under this subsection (6) shall provide notification of the adolescent's treatment to an independent reviewer at the authority within twenty-four hours of the adolescent's first receipt of treatment under this subsection. At least every forty-five days after the adolescent's first receipt of treatment under this subsection, the authority shall conduct a review to determine whether the current level of treatment is medically necessary.

(c) A professional person providing substance use disorder treatment under this subsection (6) shall convene a treatment review under (a) of this subsection and provide the notification of the adolescent's receipt of treatment to an independent reviewer at the authority as described in (b) of this subsection only if: (i) The adolescent provides written consent to the disclosure of substance use disorder treatment information including the fact of his or her receipt of such treatment; or (ii) permitted by federal law.

(7) Any adolescent admitted to inpatient treatment under RCW 71.34.500 or 71.34.600 shall be discharged immediately from inpatient treatment upon written request of the parent.

Sec. 109. RCW 71.34.700 and 2019 c 446 s 30 and 2019 c 381 s 14 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) If an adolescent is brought to an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility with available space, approved substance use disorder treatment program with available space, or hospital emergency room for immediate ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the adolescent's ~~((mental))~~ condition, determine whether the adolescent suffers from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, and whether the adolescent is in need of immediate inpatient treatment.

~~(2) ((If an adolescent is brought to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility with available space, or a hospital emergency room for immediate substance use disorder treatment, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the adolescent's condition, determine whether the adolescent suffers from a substance use disorder, and whether the adolescent is in need of immediate inpatient treatment.~~

~~(3)) If it is determined under subsection (1) ((or (2))) of this section that the adolescent suffers from a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, inpatient treatment is required, the adolescent is unwilling to consent to voluntary admission, and the professional person believes that the adolescent meets the criteria for initial detention ~~((set forth herein))~~, the facility may detain or arrange for the detention of the adolescent for up to twelve hours, not including time periods prior to medical clearance, in order to enable a designated crisis responder to evaluate the adolescent and commence initial detention proceedings under the provisions of this chapter.~~

(3) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section, based on the purpose of this chapter under RCW 71.34.010, except in the few cases where the facility staff or the designated crisis responder have totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

Sec. 110. RCW 71.34.700 and 2019 c 446 s 31 and 2019 c 381 s 15 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) If an adolescent is brought to an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, approved substance use disorder treatment program, or hospital emergency room for immediate ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health services, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the adolescent's ~~((mental))~~ condition, determine whether the adolescent suffers from a ~~((mental))~~ behavioral health disorder, and whether the adolescent is in need of immediate inpatient treatment.

~~(2) ((If an adolescent is brought to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or a hospital emergency room for immediate substance use disorder treatment, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the adolescent's condition, determine whether the adolescent suffers from a substance use disorder, and whether the adolescent is in need of immediate inpatient treatment.~~

~~(3)) If it is determined under subsection (1) ((or (2))) of this section that the adolescent suffers from a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder, inpatient treatment is required, the adolescent is unwilling to consent to voluntary admission, and the professional person believes that the adolescent meets the criteria for initial detention ~~((set forth herein))~~, the facility may detain or arrange for the detention of the adolescent for up to twelve hours, not including time periods prior to medical clearance, in order to enable a designated crisis responder to evaluate the adolescent and commence initial detention proceedings under the provisions of this chapter.~~

(3) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section, based on the purpose of this chapter under RCW 71.34.010, except in the few cases where the facility staff or the designated crisis responder have totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 111. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a designated crisis responder or professional person is conducting an evaluation under this chapter, the designated crisis responder or professional person must consider all reasonably available information from credible witnesses and records regarding:

(a) Historical behavior, including history of one or more violent acts; and

(b) Prior commitments under this chapter.

(2) Credible witnesses may include family members, landlords, neighbors, or others with significant contact and history of involvement with the minor. If the designated crisis responder relies upon information from a credible witness in reaching his or her decision to detain the minor, then he or she must provide contact information for any such witness to the prosecutor. The designated crisis responder or prosecutor shall provide notice of the date, time, and location of the probable cause hearing to such a witness.

(3) Symptoms and behavior of the minor which standing alone would not justify civil commitment may support a finding of grave disability or likelihood of serious harm, when:

(a) Such symptoms or behavior are closely associated with symptoms or behavior which preceded and led to a past incident of involuntary hospitalization, severe deterioration from safe behavior, or one or more violent acts;

(b) These symptoms or behavior represent a marked and concerning change in the baseline behavior of the minor; and

(c) Without treatment, the continued deterioration of the minor is probable.

Sec. 112. RCW 71.34.710 and 2019 c 446 s 32 and 2019 c 381 s 16 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1)(a)((~~+~~)) When a designated crisis responder receives information that an adolescent as a result of a (~~(mental)~~) behavioral health disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, has investigated the specific facts alleged and of the credibility of the person or persons providing the information, and has determined that voluntary admission for inpatient treatment is not possible, the designated crisis responder may take the adolescent, or cause the adolescent to be taken, into custody and transported to an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program providing inpatient treatment.

~~((ii) When a designated crisis responder receives information that an adolescent as a result of a substance use disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, has investigated the specific facts alleged and of the credibility of the person or persons providing the information, and has determined that voluntary admission for inpatient treatment is not possible, the designated crisis responder may take the adolescent, or cause the adolescent to be taken, into custody and transported to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, if) A secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program ((is)) must be available and (~~has~~) have adequate space for the adolescent.~~

(b) If ~~((the adolescent is not taken into custody for evaluation and treatment, the parent who has custody of the adolescent may seek review of that decision made by the designated crisis responder in court. The parent shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the designated crisis responder's report or notes))~~ a designated crisis responder decides not to detain an adolescent for evaluation and treatment under RCW 71.34.700(2), or forty-eight hours have elapsed since a designated crisis responder received a request for investigation and the designated crisis responder has not taken action to have the adolescent detained, an immediate family member or guardian or conservator of the adolescent may petition the superior court for the adolescent's detention using the procedures under RCW 71.05.201 and 71.05.203; however, when the court enters an order of initial detention, except as otherwise expressly stated in this chapter, all procedures must be followed as if the order has been entered under (a) of this subsection.

(2)(a) Within twelve hours of the adolescent's arrival at the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, the designated crisis responder shall serve on the adolescent a copy of the petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights. The designated crisis responder shall file with the court on the next judicial day following the initial detention the original petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights along with an affidavit of service. The designated crisis responder shall commence service of the petition for initial detention and notice of the initial detention on the adolescent's parent and the adolescent's attorney as soon as possible following the initial detention.

(b) If the adolescent is involuntarily detained at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program in a different county from where the adolescent was initially detained, the facility or program may serve the adolescent, notify the adolescent's parents and the adolescent's attorney, and file with the court on the next judicial day following the initial detention the original petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights along with an affidavit of service when filing with the court at the request of the designated crisis responder.

(3)(a) At the time of initial detention, the designated crisis responder shall advise the adolescent both orally and in writing that if admitted to the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program for inpatient treatment, a commitment hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the adolescent's provisional acceptance to determine whether probable cause exists to commit the adolescent for further treatment.

(b) The adolescent shall be advised that he or she has a right to communicate immediately with an attorney and that he or she has a right to have an attorney appointed to represent him or her before and at the hearing if the adolescent is indigent.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, whenever the designated crisis responder petitions for detention of an adolescent under this chapter, an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment must immediately accept on a provisional basis the petition and the person. Within twenty-four hours of the adolescent's arrival, the facility must evaluate the adolescent's condition and either admit or release the adolescent in accordance with this chapter.

(5) A designated crisis responder may not petition for detention of an adolescent to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and that has adequate space for the adolescent.

(6) If an adolescent is not approved for admission by the inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program, the facility shall make such recommendations and referrals for further care and treatment of the adolescent as necessary.

(7) Dismissal of a commitment petition is not the appropriate remedy for a violation of the timeliness requirements of this section, based on the purpose of this chapter under RCW 71.34.010, except in the few cases where the facility staff or the designated crisis responder have totally disregarded the requirements of this section.

Sec. 113. RCW 71.34.710 and 2019 c 446 s 32 and 2019 c 381 s 16 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Sec. 115. RCW 71.34.720 and 2019 c 446 s 34 and 2019 c 444 s 18 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Each minor approved by the facility for inpatient admission shall be examined and evaluated by a children's mental health specialist, for minors admitted as a result of a mental disorder, or by a substance use disorder professional or co-occurring disorder specialist, for minors admitted as a result of a substance use disorder, as to the child's mental condition and by a physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner as to the child's physical condition within twenty-four hours of admission. Reasonable measures shall be taken to ensure medical treatment is provided for any condition requiring immediate medical attention.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the children's mental health specialist or substance use disorder specialist and the physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner determine that the initial needs of the minor, if detained to an evaluation and treatment facility, would be better served by placement in a substance use disorder treatment program or, if detained to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, would be better served in an evaluation and treatment facility, then the minor shall be referred to the more appropriate placement; however a minor may only be referred to a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and that has adequate space for the minor.

(3) The admitting facility shall take reasonable steps to notify immediately the minor's parent of the admission.

(4) During the initial seventy-two hour treatment period, the minor has a right to associate or receive communications from parents or others unless the professional person in charge determines that such communication would be seriously detrimental to the minor's condition or treatment and so indicates in the minor's clinical record, and notifies the minor's parents of this determination. ~~((In no event may the minor))~~ A minor must not be denied the opportunity to consult an attorney unless there is an immediate risk of harm to the minor or others.

(5) If the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admits the minor, it may detain the minor for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours from the time of provisional acceptance. The computation of such seventy-two hour period shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. This initial treatment period shall not exceed seventy-two hours except when an application for voluntary inpatient treatment is received or a petition for fourteen-day commitment is filed.

(6) Within twelve hours of the admission, the facility shall advise the minor of his or her rights as set forth in this chapter.

(6) Within twelve hours of the admission, the facility shall advise the minor of his or her rights as set forth in this chapter.

Sec. 118. RCW 71.34.730 and 2019 c 446 s 36 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program where a minor has been admitted involuntarily for the initial seventy-two hour treatment period under this chapter may petition to have a minor committed to an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((or, in the case of a minor with a substance use disorder, to))~~ a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program for fourteen-day diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment.

If the professional person in charge of the facility does not petition to have the minor committed, the parent who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision in court. The parent shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the treatment and evaluation facility's report.

(2) A petition for commitment of a minor under this section shall be filed with the superior court in the county where the minor is ~~((residing or))~~ being detained.

(a) A petition for a fourteen-day commitment shall be signed by:

(i) One physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(ii) One physician, physician assistant, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or mental health professional.

(b) If the petition is for substance use disorder treatment, the petition may be signed by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional and by an advanced registered nurse practitioner instead of a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner. The person signing the petition must have examined the minor, and the petition must contain the following:

(i) The name and address of the petitioner;

(ii) The name of the minor alleged to meet the criteria for fourteen-day commitment;

(iii) The name, telephone number, and address if known of every person believed by the petitioner to be legally responsible for the minor;

(iv) A statement that the petitioner has examined the minor and finds that the minor's condition meets required criteria for fourteen-day commitment and the supporting facts therefor;

(v) A statement that the minor has been advised of the need for voluntary treatment but has been unwilling or unable to consent to necessary treatment;

(vi) If the petition is for mental health treatment, a statement that the minor has been advised of the loss of firearm rights if involuntarily committed;

(vii) A statement recommending the appropriate facility or facilities to provide the necessary treatment; and

(viii) A statement concerning whether a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment is in the best interests of the minor.

(c) A copy of the petition shall be personally ~~((delivered to))~~ served on the minor by the petitioner or petitioner's designee. A copy of the petition shall be ~~((sent))~~ provided to the minor's attorney and the minor's parent.

Sec. 119. RCW 71.34.730 and 2019 c 446 s 36 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program where a minor has been admitted involuntarily for the initial ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hour treatment period under this chapter may petition to have a minor committed to an evaluation and treatment facility ~~((or, in the case of a minor with a substance use disorder, to))~~, a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program for fourteen-day diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment.

If the professional person in charge of the facility does not petition to have the minor committed, the parent who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision in court. The parent shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the treatment and evaluation facility's report.

(2) A petition for commitment of a minor under this section shall be filed with the superior court in the county where the minor is ~~((residing or))~~ being detained.

(a) A petition for a fourteen-day commitment shall be signed by:

(i) One physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(ii) One physician, physician assistant, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or mental health professional.

(b) If the petition is for substance use disorder treatment, the petition may be signed by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional and by an advanced registered nurse practitioner instead of a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner. The person signing the petition must have examined the minor, and the petition must contain the following:

(vi) If the petition is for mental health treatment, a statement that the minor has been advised of the loss of firearm rights if involuntarily committed;

(vii) A statement recommending the appropriate facility or facilities to provide the necessary treatment; and

(viii) A statement concerning whether a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment is in the best interests of the minor.

(c) A copy of the petition shall be personally ~~((delivered to))~~ served on the minor by the petitioner or petitioner's designee. A copy of the petition shall be ~~((sent))~~ provided to the minor's attorney and the minor's parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 120. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding for involuntary commitment under this chapter, the court may continue or postpone such proceeding for a reasonable time on motion of the respondent for good cause, or on motion of the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general if:

(a) The respondent expressly consents to a continuance or delay and there is a showing of good cause; or

(b) Such continuance is required in the proper administration of justice and the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of the respondent's case.

(2) The court may on its own motion continue the case when required in due administration of justice and when the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of the respondent's case.

(3) The court shall state in any order of continuance or postponement the grounds for the continuance or postponement and whether detention will be extended.

Sec. 121. RCW 71.34.740 and 2019 c 446 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A commitment hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the minor's admission, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, unless a continuance is ~~((requested by the minor or the minor's attorney))~~ ordered under section 88 of this act.

(2) The commitment hearing shall be conducted at the superior court or an appropriate place at the facility in which the minor is being detained.

(3) At the commitment hearing, the evidence in support of the petition shall be presented by the county prosecutor.

(4) The minor shall be present at the commitment hearing unless the minor, with the assistance of the minor's attorney, waives the right to be present at the hearing.

(5) If the parents are opposed to the petition, they may be represented at the hearing and shall be entitled to court-appointed counsel if they are indigent.

(6) At the commitment hearing, the minor shall have the following rights:

(a) To be represented by an attorney;

(b) To present evidence on his or her own behalf;

(c) To question persons testifying in support of the petition.

(7) If the hearing is for commitment for mental health treatment, the court at the time of the commitment hearing and before an order of commitment is entered shall inform the minor both orally and in writing that the failure to make a good faith effort to seek voluntary treatment as provided in RCW 71.34.730 will result in the loss of his or her firearm rights if the minor is subsequently detained for involuntary treatment under this section.

(8) If the minor has received medication within twenty-four hours of the hearing, the court shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication.

~~((Rules of evidence shall not apply in fourteen day commitment hearings.~~

~~((10)))~~ For a fourteen-day commitment, the court must find by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The minor has a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled;

(b) The minor is in need of evaluation and treatment of the type provided by the inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program to which continued inpatient care is sought or is in need of less restrictive alternative treatment found to be in the best interests of the minor or others;

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(c) The minor is unwilling or unable in good faith to consent to voluntary treatment; and

(d) If commitment is for a substance use disorder, there is an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the minor.

~~((41))~~ (10) If the court finds that the minor meets the criteria for a fourteen-day commitment, the court shall either authorize commitment of the minor for inpatient treatment or for less restrictive alternative treatment upon such conditions as are necessary. If the court determines that the minor does not meet the criteria for a fourteen-day commitment, the minor shall be released.

~~((42))~~ (11)(a) Nothing in this section prohibits the professional person in charge of the facility from releasing the minor at any time, when, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, further inpatient treatment is no longer necessary. The release may be subject to reasonable conditions if appropriate.

(b) Whenever a minor is released under this section, the professional person in charge shall within three days, notify the court in writing of the release.

~~((43))~~ (12) A minor who has been committed for fourteen days shall be released at the end of that period unless a petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment is pending before the court.

Sec. 122. RCW 71.34.740 and 2019 c 446 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A commitment hearing shall be held within ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours of the minor's admission, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, unless a continuance is ~~((requested by the minor or the minor's attorney))~~ ordered under section 88 of this act.

(2) The commitment hearing shall be conducted at the superior court or an appropriate place at the facility in which the minor is being detained.

(3) At the commitment hearing, the evidence in support of the petition shall be presented by the county prosecutor.

(4) The minor shall be present at the commitment hearing unless the minor, with the assistance of the minor's attorney, waives the right to be present at the hearing.

(5) If the parents are opposed to the petition, they may be represented at the hearing and shall be entitled to court-appointed counsel if they are indigent.

(6) At the commitment hearing, the minor shall have the following rights:

- (a) To be represented by an attorney;
- (b) To present evidence on his or her own behalf;
- (c) To question persons testifying in support of the petition.

(7) If the hearing is for commitment for mental health treatment, the court at the time of the commitment hearing and before an order of commitment is entered shall inform the minor both orally and in writing that the failure to make a good faith effort to seek voluntary treatment as provided in RCW 71.34.730 will result in the loss of his or her firearm rights if the minor is subsequently detained for involuntary treatment under this section.

(8) If the minor has received medication within twenty-four hours of the hearing, the court shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication.

~~((Rules of evidence shall not apply in fourteen day commitment hearings.~~

(40)) For a fourteen-day commitment, the court must find by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The minor has a ~~((mental disorder or substance use))~~ behavioral health disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled;

(b) The minor is in need of evaluation and treatment of the type provided by the inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program to which continued inpatient care is sought or is in need of less restrictive alternative treatment found to be in the best interests of the minor or others;

(c) The minor is unwilling or unable in good faith to consent to voluntary treatment; and

(d) If commitment is for a substance use disorder, there is an available secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the minor.

~~((44))~~ (10) If the court finds that the minor meets the criteria for a fourteen-day commitment, the court shall either authorize commitment of the minor for inpatient treatment or for less restrictive alternative treatment upon such conditions as are necessary. If the court determines that the minor does not meet the criteria for a fourteen-day commitment, the minor shall be released.

~~((45))~~ (11)(a) Nothing in this section prohibits the professional person in charge of the facility from releasing the minor at any time, when, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, further inpatient treatment is no longer necessary. The release may be subject to reasonable conditions if appropriate.

(b) Whenever a minor is released under this section, the professional person in charge shall within three days, notify the court in writing of the release.

~~((46))~~ (12) A minor who has been committed for fourteen days shall be released at the end of that period unless a petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment is pending before the court.

Sec. 123. RCW 71.34.740 and 2019 c 446 s 38 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A commitment hearing shall be held within ~~((seventy-two))~~ one hundred twenty hours of the minor's admission, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, unless a continuance is ~~((requested by the minor or the minor's attorney))~~ ordered under section 88 of this act.

(2) The commitment hearing shall be conducted at the superior court or an appropriate place at the facility in which the minor is being detained.

(3) At the commitment hearing, the evidence in support of the petition shall be presented by the county prosecutor.

(4) The minor shall be present at the commitment hearing unless the minor, with the assistance of the minor's attorney, waives the right to be present at the hearing.

~~((12))~~ (11)(a) Nothing in this section prohibits the professional person in charge of the facility from releasing the minor at any time, when, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, further inpatient treatment is no longer necessary. The release may be subject to reasonable conditions if appropriate.

(b) Whenever a minor is released under this section, the professional person in charge shall within three days, notify the court in writing of the release.

~~((13))~~ (12) A minor who has been committed for fourteen days shall be released at the end of that period unless a petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment is pending before the court.

Sec. 124. RCW 71.34.750 and 2019 c 446 s 39 and 2019 c 325 s 2008 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) At any time during the minor's period of fourteen-day commitment, the professional person in charge may petition the court for an order requiring the minor to undergo an additional one hundred eighty-day period of treatment. The evidence in support of the petition shall be presented by the county prosecutor unless the petition is filed by the professional person in charge of a state-operated facility in which case the evidence shall be presented by the attorney general.

(2) The petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment shall contain the following:

- (a) The name and address of the petitioner or petitioners;
- (b) The name of the minor alleged to meet the criteria for one hundred eighty-day commitment;
- (c) A statement that the petitioner is the professional person in charge of the evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program responsible for the treatment of the minor;
- (d) The date of the fourteen-day commitment order; and
- (e) A summary of the facts supporting the petition.

(3) The petition shall be supported by accompanying affidavits signed by: (a) Two examining physicians, one of whom shall be a child psychiatrist, or two psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioners, one of whom shall be a child and adolescent or family psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner. If the petition is for substance use disorder treatment, the petition may be signed by a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder professional instead of a mental health professional and by an advanced registered nurse practitioner instead of a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or two physician assistants, one of whom must be supervised by a child psychiatrist; (b) one children's mental health specialist and either an examining physician, physician assistant, or a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner; or (c) two among an examining physician, physician assistant, and a psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, one of which needs to be a child psychiatrist, a physician assistant supervised by a child psychiatrist, or a child and adolescent psychiatric nurse practitioner. The affidavits shall describe in detail the behavior of the detained minor which supports the petition and shall state whether a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment is in the best interests of the minor.

(4) The petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment shall be filed with the clerk of the court at least three days before the expiration of the fourteen-day commitment period. The petitioner or the petitioner's designee shall within twenty-four hours of filing serve a copy of the petition on the minor and notify the minor's attorney and the minor's parent. A copy of the petition shall be provided to such persons at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing.

(5) At the time of filing, the court shall set a date within seven days for the hearing on the petition. ~~((The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of the minor or the minor's attorney for not more than ten days.))~~ If the hearing is not commenced within thirty days after the filing of the petition, including extensions of time requested by the detained person or his or her attorney or the court in the administration of justice under section 88 of this act, the minor must be released. The minor or the parents shall be afforded the same rights as in a fourteen-day commitment hearing. Treatment of the minor shall continue pending the proceeding.

(6) For one hundred eighty-day commitment:

- (a) The court must find by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that the minor:
  - (i) Is suffering from a mental disorder or substance use disorder;
  - (ii) Presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled; and
  - (iii) Is in need of further treatment that only can be provided in a one hundred eighty-day commitment.

(b) If commitment is for a substance use disorder, the court must find that there is an available approved substance use disorder treatment program that has adequate space for the minor.

(7) In determining whether an inpatient or less restrictive alternative commitment is appropriate, great weight must be given to evidence of a prior history or pattern of decompensation and discontinuation of treatment resulting in: (a) Repeated hospitalizations; or (b) repeated peace officer interventions resulting in juvenile charges. Such evidence may be used to provide a factual basis for concluding that the minor would not receive, if released, such care as is essential for his or her health or safety.

(8)(a) If the court finds that the criteria for commitment are met and that less restrictive treatment in a community setting is not appropriate or available, the court shall order the minor committed to the custody of the director for further inpatient mental health treatment, to an approved substance use disorder treatment program for further substance use disorder treatment, or to a private treatment and evaluation facility for inpatient mental health or substance use disorder treatment if the minor's parents have assumed responsibility for payment for the treatment. If the court finds that a less restrictive alternative is in the best interest of the minor, the court shall order less restrictive alternative treatment upon such conditions as necessary.

(b) If the court determines that the minor does not meet the criteria for one hundred eighty-day commitment, the minor shall be released.

~~((8))~~ (9) Successive one hundred eighty-day commitments are permissible on the same grounds and under the same procedures as the original one hundred eighty-day commitment. Such petitions shall be filed at least ~~((five))~~ three days prior to the expiration of the previous one hundred eighty-day commitment order.

Sec. 125. RCW 71.34.750 and 2019 c 446 s 40 and 2019 c 325 s 2009 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Less restrictive alternative treatment, at a minimum, must include the following services:

- (a) Assignment of a care coordinator;
- (b) An intake evaluation with the provider of the less restrictive alternative treatment;
- (c) A psychiatric evaluation;
- (d) A schedule of regular contacts with the provider of the less restrictive alternative treatment services for the duration of the order;
- (e) A transition plan addressing access to continued services at the expiration of the order;
- (f) An individual crisis plan; and

(g) Notification to the care coordinator assigned in (a) of this subsection if reasonable efforts to engage the client fail to produce substantial compliance with court-ordered treatment conditions.

(2) Less restrictive alternative treatment may include the following additional services:

- (a) Medication management;
- (b) Psychotherapy;
- (c) Nursing;
- (d) Substance abuse counseling;
- (e) Residential treatment; and
- (f) Support for housing, benefits, education, and employment.

(3) If the minor was provided with involuntary medication during the involuntary commitment period, the less restrictive alternative treatment order may authorize the less restrictive alternative treatment provider or its designee to administer involuntary antipsychotic medication to the person if the provider has attempted and failed to obtain the informed consent of the person and there is a concurring medical opinion approving the medication by a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or physician or physician assistant in consultation with an independent mental health professional with prescribing authority.

(4) Less restrictive alternative treatment must be administered by a provider that is certified or licensed to provide or coordinate the full scope of services required under the less restrictive alternative order and that has agreed to assume this responsibility.

(5) The care coordinator assigned to a minor ordered to less restrictive alternative treatment must submit an individualized plan for the minor's treatment services to the court that entered the order. An initial plan must be submitted as soon as possible following the intake evaluation and a revised plan must be submitted upon any subsequent modification in which a type of service is removed from or added to the treatment plan.

(6) For the purpose of this section, "care coordinator" means a clinical practitioner who coordinates the activities of less restrictive alternative treatment. The care coordinator coordinates activities with the designated crisis responders that are necessary for enforcement and continuation of less restrictive alternative treatment orders and is responsible for coordinating service activities with other agencies and establishing and maintaining a therapeutic relationship with the individual on a continuing basis.

Sec. 127. RCW 71.34.780 and 2019 c 446 s 41 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the professional person in charge of an outpatient treatment program, a designated crisis responder, or the director or secretary, as appropriate, determines that a minor is failing to adhere to the conditions of the court order for less restrictive alternative treatment or the conditions for the conditional release, or that substantial deterioration in the minor's functioning has occurred, the designated crisis responder, or the director or secretary, as appropriate, may order that the minor ~~((if committed for mental health treatment,))~~ be taken into custody and transported to an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility ~~((or, if committed for substance use disorder treatment, be taken into custody and transported to))~~, a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program ~~((if there is an available))~~. A secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program that has adequate space for the minor must be available.

(2)(a) The designated crisis responder ~~((or the))~~, director, or secretary, as appropriate, shall file the order of apprehension and detention and serve it upon the minor and notify the minor's parent and the minor's attorney, if any, of the detention within two days of return. At the time of service the minor shall be informed of the right to a hearing and to representation by an attorney. The designated crisis responder or the director or secretary, as appropriate, may modify or rescind the order of apprehension and detention at any time prior to the hearing.

(b) If the minor is involuntarily detained for revocation at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program in a different county from where the minor was initially detained, the facility or program may file the order of apprehension, serve it on the minor and notify the minor's parents and the minor's attorney at the request of the designated crisis responder.

(3) A petition for revocation of less restrictive alternative treatment shall be filed by the designated crisis responder or the director ~~((or))~~, secretary, or facility, as appropriate, with the court in the county ~~((ordering the less restrictive alternative treatment))~~ where the minor is detained. The court shall conduct the hearing in that county. A petition for revocation of conditional release ~~((may be filed with the court in the county ordering inpatient treatment or the county where the minor on conditional release is residing))~~ must be filed in the county where the minor is detained. A petition shall describe the behavior of the minor indicating violation of the conditions or deterioration of routine functioning and a dispositional recommendation. ~~((Upon motion for good cause, the hearing may be transferred to the county of the minor's residence or to the county in which the alleged violations occurred.))~~ The hearing shall be held within seven days of the minor's return. The issues to be determined are whether the minor did or did not adhere to the conditions of the less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release, or whether the minor's routine functioning has substantially deteriorated, and, if so, whether the conditions of less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release should be modified or, subject to subsection (4) of this section, whether the minor should be returned to inpatient treatment. Pursuant to the determination of the court, the minor shall be returned to less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release on the same or modified conditions or shall be returned to inpatient treatment. If the minor is returned to inpatient treatment, RCW 71.34.760 regarding the director's placement responsibility shall apply. The hearing may be waived by the minor and the minor returned to inpatient treatment or to less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

(4) A court may not order the return of a minor to inpatient treatment in a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program unless there is a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available with adequate space for the minor.

Sec. 128. RCW 71.34.780 and 2019 c 446 s 42 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the professional person in charge of an outpatient treatment program, a designated crisis responder, or the director or secretary, as appropriate, determines that a minor is failing to adhere to the conditions of the court order for less restrictive alternative treatment or the conditions for the conditional release, or that substantial deterioration in the minor's functioning has occurred, the designated crisis responder, or the director or secretary, as appropriate, may order that the minor ~~((if committed for mental health treatment,))~~ be taken into custody and transported to an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility ~~((or, if committed for substance use disorder treatment, be taken into custody and transported to))~~, a secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or an approved substance use disorder treatment program.

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

(2)(a) The designated crisis responder (~~(or the)~~) director, or secretary, as appropriate, shall file the order of apprehension and detention and serve it upon the minor and notify the minor's parent and the minor's attorney, if any, of the detention within two days of return. At the time of service the minor shall be informed of the right to a hearing and to representation by an attorney. The designated crisis responder or the director or secretary, as appropriate, may modify or rescind the order of apprehension and detention at any time prior to the hearing.

(b) If the minor is involuntarily detained for revocation at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure withdrawal management and stabilization facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program in a different county from where the minor was initially detained, the facility or program may file the order of apprehension, serve it on the minor and notify the minor's parents and the minor's attorney at the request of the designated crisis responder.

(3) A petition for revocation of less restrictive alternative treatment shall be filed by the designated crisis responder or the director (~~(or)~~) secretary, or facility, as appropriate, with the court in the county (~~(ordering the less restrictive alternative treatment)~~) where the minor is detained. The court shall conduct the hearing in that county. A petition for revocation of conditional release (~~(may be filed with the court in the county ordering inpatient treatment or the county where the minor on conditional release is residing)~~) must be filed in the county where the minor is detained. A petition shall describe the behavior of the minor indicating violation of the conditions or deterioration of routine functioning and a dispositional recommendation. (~~Upon motion for good cause, the hearing may be transferred to the county of the minor's residence or to the county in which the alleged violations occurred.~~) The hearing shall be held within seven days of the minor's return. The issues to be determined are whether the minor did or did not adhere to the conditions of the less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release, or whether the minor's routine functioning has substantially deteriorated, and, if so, whether the conditions of less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release should be modified or whether the minor should be returned to inpatient treatment. Pursuant to the determination of the court, the minor shall be returned to less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release on the same or modified conditions or shall be returned to inpatient treatment. If the minor is returned to inpatient treatment, RCW 71.34.760 regarding the director's placement responsibility shall apply. The hearing may be waived by the minor and the minor returned to inpatient treatment or to less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes the inherent authority of the judiciary under Article IV, section 1 of the state Constitution to establish rules regarding access to court records, and respectfully requests the Washington state supreme court to adopt rules regarding potential access for the following entities to the files and records of court proceedings under this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW:

- (1) The department;
- (2) The department of health;
- (3) The authority;
- (4) The state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010;
- (5) Any person who is the subject of a petition;
- (6) The attorney or guardian of the person;
- (7) Resource management services for that person; and
- (8) Service providers authorized to receive such information by resource management services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 130. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, at any hearing the petitioner, the respondent, the witnesses, the interpreters, and the presiding judicial officer may be present and participate either in person or by video, as determined by the court. The term "video" as used in this section includes any functional equivalent. At any hearing conducted by video, the technology used must permit the judicial officer, counsel, all parties, and the witnesses to be able to see, hear, and speak, when authorized, during the hearing; to allow attorneys to use exhibits or other materials during the hearing; and to allow the respondent's counsel to be in the same location as the respondent unless otherwise requested by the respondent or the respondent's counsel. Witnesses in a proceeding may also appear in court through other means, including telephonically, pursuant to the requirements of superior court civil rule 43. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court, upon its own motion or upon a motion for good cause by any party, may require all parties and witnesses to participate in the hearing in person rather than by video. In ruling on any such motion, the court may allow in-person or video testimony; and the court may consider, among other things, whether the respondent's alleged behavioral health disorder affects the respondent's ability to perceive or participate in the proceeding by video.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 131. A new section is added to chapter 71.05 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, at any hearing the petitioner, the respondent, the witnesses, the interpreters, and the presiding judicial officer may be present and participate either in person or by video, as determined by the court. The term "video" as used in this section includes any functional equivalent. At any hearing conducted by video, the technology used must permit the judicial officer, counsel, all parties, and the witnesses to be able to see, hear, and speak, when authorized, during the hearing; to allow attorneys to use exhibits or other materials during the hearing; and to allow the respondent's counsel to be in the same location as the respondent unless otherwise requested by the respondent or the respondent's counsel. NEW SECTION. Sec. 132. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the responsibility provided for by RCW 43.20B.330, the parents of a minor person who is involuntarily detained pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of treatment and evaluation outside of a facility maintained and operated by the department shall be responsible for the cost of such care and treatment. In the event that an individual is unable to pay for such treatment or in the event payment would result in a substantial hardship upon the individual or his or her family, then the county of residence of such person shall be responsible for such costs. If it is not possible to determine the county of residence of the person, the cost shall be borne by the county where the person was originally detained. The department, or the authority, as appropriate, shall, pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, adopt standards as to (1) inability to pay in whole or in part, (2) a definition of substantial hardship, and (3) appropriate payment schedules. Financial responsibility with respect to services and facilities of the department shall continue to be as provided in RCW 43.20B.320 through 43.20B.360 and 43.20B.370.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 133. A new section is added to chapter 71.05 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An involuntary treatment act work group is established to evaluate the effect of changes to this chapter and chapter 71.34 RCW and to evaluate vulnerabilities in the crisis system.

(2) The work group shall:

(a) Commencing September 1, 2020, meet at least three times to: (i) Identify and evaluate systems and procedures that may be required to implement one hundred twenty hour initial detention; (ii) develop recommendations to implement one hundred twenty hour initial detention statewide; and (iii) disseminate the recommendations to stakeholders and report them to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 1, 2021.

(b) Commencing January 1, 2021, meet at least six times to evaluate: (i) The implementation of one hundred twenty hour initial detention, and the effects, if any, on involuntary behavioral health treatment capacity statewide, including the frequency of detentions, commitments, revocations of less restrictive alternative treatment, conditional release orders, single bed certifications, and no-bed reports under RCW 71.05.750; (ii) other issues related to implementation of this act; and (iii) other vulnerabilities in the involuntary treatment system.

(c)(i) Develop recommendations for operating the crisis system based on the evaluations in (b) of this subsection; and (ii) disseminate those recommendations to stakeholders and report them to the appropriate committees of the legislature no later than June 30, 2022.

(3) The work group shall be convened by the authority and shall receive technical and data gathering support from the authority, the department, and the department of social and health services as needed. The membership must consist of not more than eighteen members appointed by the governor, reflecting statewide representation, diverse viewpoints, and experience with involuntary treatment cases. Appointed members must include but not be limited to:

(a) Representatives of the authority, the department, and the department of social and health services;

(b) Certified short-term civil commitment providers and providers who accept single bed certification under RCW 71.05.745;

(c) Certified long-term inpatient care providers for involuntary patients or providers with experience providing community long-term inpatient care for involuntary patients;

(d) Prosecuting attorneys;

(e) Defense attorneys;

(f) Family members and persons with lived experience of behavioral health disorders;

(g) Advocates for persons with behavioral health disorders;

(h) Designated crisis responders;

(i) Behavioral health administrative services organizations;

(j) Managed care organizations;

(k) Law enforcement; and

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5457, by Senators Keiser, Saldaña, Conway, Hasegawa, Hunt and Nguyen

Naming of subcontractors by prime contract bidders on public works contracts.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Keiser moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 917 by Senators Keiser and Hunt be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 140. RCW 39.30.060 and 2003 c 301 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every invitation to bid on a prime contract that is expected to cost one million dollars or more for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building or public work of the state or a state agency or municipality as defined under RCW 39.04.010 or an institution of higher education as defined under RCW 28B.10.016 shall require each prime contract bidder to submit ~~((as part of the bid, or within))~~:

(a) Within one hour after the published bid submittal time, the names of the subcontractors with whom the bidder, if awarded the contract, will subcontract for performance of the work of: HVAC (heating, ventilation, and air conditioning); plumbing as described in chapter 18.106 RCW; and electrical as described in chapter 19.28 RCW, or to name itself for the work; or

(b) Within forty-eight hours after the published bid submittal time, the names of the subcontractors with whom the bidder, if awarded the contract, will subcontract for performance of the work of structural steel installation and rebar installation.

(2) The prime contract bidder shall not list more than one subcontractor for each category of work identified, unless subcontractors vary with bid alternates, in which case the prime contract bidder must indicate which subcontractor will be used for which alternate. Failure of the prime contract bidder to submit as part of the bid the names of such subcontractors or to name itself to perform such work or the naming of two or more subcontractors to perform the same work shall render the prime contract bidder's bid nonresponsive and, therefore, void.

~~((2))~~ (3) Substitution of a listed subcontractor in furtherance of bid shopping or bid peddling before or after the award of the prime contract is prohibited and the originally listed subcontractor is entitled to recover monetary damages from the prime contract bidder who executed a contract with the public entity and the substituted subcontractor but not from the public entity inviting the bid. It is the original subcontractor's burden to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that bid shopping or bid peddling occurred. Substitution of a listed subcontractor may be made by the prime contractor for the following reasons:

(a) Refusal of the listed subcontractor to sign a contract with the prime contractor;

(b) Bankruptcy or insolvency of the listed subcontractor;

(c) Inability of the listed subcontractor to perform the requirements of the proposed contract or the project;

(d) Inability of the listed subcontractor to obtain the necessary license, bonding, insurance, or other statutory requirements to perform the work detailed in the contract; ~~((e))~~

(e) Refusal or inability to provide a letter of bondability from a surety company; or

(f) The listed subcontractor is barred from participating in the project as a result of a court order or summary judgment.

~~((3))~~ (4) The requirement of this section to name the prime contract bidder's proposed ~~((HVAC, plumbing, and electrical))~~ subcontractors HVAC, plumbing, ~~((and))~~ electrical, structural steel installation, and rebar installation subcontractors who will contract directly with the prime contract bidder submitting the bid to the public entity.

~~((4))~~ (5) This section does not apply to job order contract requests for proposals under RCW ~~((39.10.130))~~ 39.10.420.

(6) The legislature finds that there are hundreds of capital construction projects completed each year which include complex contracting and bidding requirements. It is the intent of the legislature to review current subcontractor listing requirements to allow fair, transparent, and competitive bidding while prohibiting bid shopping. The capital projects advisory review board must submit a report to the governor and the appropriate committees of the legislature by November 1, 2020. The report must:

(a) Evaluate current subcontractor listing policies and practices;

(b) Recommend appropriate expansion of the number of subcontractors that may be listed in order to improve transparency and fairness without reducing competitive bidding and access to public works by minority and women-owned businesses; and

(c) Recommend possible project threshold and time frames for purposes of subcontractor listings for all scopes of work that are not required to list under law, including: The timing of subcontractor listing, bond requirements for subcontractors, general contractors standard contract request, and general contractor/construction manager and design-build applications."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "contracts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 39.30.060."

Requiring informed consent for pelvic exams.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Liias moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 918 by Senator Liias be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 142. A new section is added to chapter 18.130 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A health care provider licensed under this title may not knowingly perform or authorize a student practicing under their authority to perform a pelvic examination on a patient who is anesthetized or unconscious unless:

(a) The patient or a person authorized to make health care decisions for the patient gave specific informed consent to the examination; or

(b) The examination is necessary for diagnostic or treatment purposes.

(2) A licensed health care provider who violates subsection (1) of this section is subject to discipline pursuant to this chapter, the uniform disciplinary act.

Sec. 143. RCW 18.130.180 and 2019 c 427 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any license holder under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

(3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(4) Incompetence, negligence, or malpractice which results in injury to a patient or which creates an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed. The use of a nontraditional treatment by itself shall not constitute unprofessional conduct, provided that it does not result in injury to a patient or create an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed;

(5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice any health care profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the order, stipulation, or agreement being conclusive evidence of the revocation, suspension, or restriction;

(6) Except when authorized by RCW 18.130.345, the possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or therapeutic purposes, diversion of controlled substances or legend drugs, the violation of any drug law, or prescribing controlled substances for oneself;

(7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional conduct or practice;

(8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:

(a) Not furnishing any papers, documents, records, or other items;

(b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the disciplining authority;

(c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused in the proceeding; or

(d) Not providing reasonable and timely access for authorized representatives of the disciplining authority seeking to perform practice reviews at facilities utilized by the license holder;

(9) Failure to comply with an order issued by the disciplining authority or a stipulation for informal disposition entered into with the disciplining authority;

(10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required;

(11) Violations of rules established by any health agency;

TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law or rule;

(13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;

(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;

(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health;

(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service;

(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the person's profession. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(18) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, a criminal abortion;

(19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the disciplining authority;

(20) The willful betrayal of a practitioner-patient privilege as recognized by law;

(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW or a pattern of violations of RCW 48.49.020 or 48.49.030;

(22) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by willful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any patient or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action, or by the use of financial inducements to any patient or witness to prevent or attempt to prevent him or her from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding;

(23) Current misuse of:

(a) Alcohol;

(b) Controlled substances; or

Senator Frockt moved adoption of the following resolution:

FIFTEENTH DAY, JANUARY 27, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

8663

By Senators Frockt, Hunt, Cleveland, Das, Keiser, Salomon, Van De Wege, Stanford, Lovelett, Braun, Sheldon, Schoesler, Hawkins, Wellman, Takko, Wilson, C., Zeiger, Saldaña, Dhingra, Liias, Honeyford, Carlyle, Billig, Rolfes, Kuderer, Wilson, L., Conway, Brown, Walsh, Holy, and Wagoner

WHEREAS, January 27, 2020, marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau, the largest Nazi concentration and death camp; and

WHEREAS, January 27th was designated as International Holocaust Remembrance Day by United Nations General Assembly Resolution 60/7 in 2005; and

WHEREAS, The Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators; and

WHEREAS, Six million Jews were murdered between 1933 and 1945; Roma, people with disabilities, and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons; and millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah's witnesses, soviet prisoners of war, and political dissidents also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and

WHEREAS, The history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and

WHEREAS, A 2018 study by the Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany revealed a disturbing lack of knowledge about the Holocaust among Americans; and

WHEREAS, There has been a dramatic rise in hate crimes and bias incidents in the last several years, including deadly attacks on the Jewish community; and

WHEREAS, The people of the State of Washington should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny to ensure that the tragedies of the past are never repeated; and

WHEREAS, Washington State recognizes the events of the Holocaust not only as the product of unimpeded prejudice and violence, but as a direct attack on our country's most sacred values; and

WHEREAS, It is our moral obligation to the victims and survivors of the Holocaust to spread awareness of these tragic events and to reaffirm our united stance against hate; and

WHEREAS, Deprivation of human rights based on religion does not just threaten the individual freedoms of those who are targeted, it threatens the foundations of a just society;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate pause in its deliberations to commemorate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz and observe International Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Senators Frockt, Sheldon, Carlyle, Wellman and Short spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8663.

The motion by Senator Frockt carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUEST

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. Arnold Zweig, an Olympia resident and survivor of the Auschwitz concentration camp, who was seated in the gallery. Mr. Zweig was a guest of Senator Sheldon.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Mr. Zweig is a survivor of the Holocaust. He was imprisoned from 1937-1945 and lost his mother at Auschwitz. He has been a long-time resident here in Olympia and owned a successful business in Shelton. A fixture in the community. But, what I want to highlight above all today on this very important day of remembrance is that he has borne witness for 75 years today. He has, through his life and through the stories he has shared, he has allowed us to have this understanding, this depth of understanding that we have. On behalf of the Senate I want to express our gratitude to him for having done that tremendous service to our state, to our country, and our world for 75 years and pledge that we in part, in our part, do everything we can to carry that legacy on. To make sure that the next 75 years, and indeed, for as long as we pledge allegiance to our flag here in the state of Washington, and we are a free people, we will continue in this state senate to recognize and remember Auschwitz. To recognize and remember the deeds of the Holocaust. Those who lost their lives. Those who survived and told the tale. So would the Senate please join me in thanking Mr. Zweig for his many years of service and sacrifice to our state."

The Senate rose in recognition of Mr. Arnold Zweig.

Addressing workforce education investment funding through business and occupation tax reform.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pedersen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6492 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 6492 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Pedersen moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 919 by Senator Pedersen be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 144. RCW 28C.18.200 and 2019 c 406 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The workforce education investment accountability and oversight board is established. The board consists of seventeen members, as provided in this subsection:

(a) Four members of the legislature consisting of the chairs and ranking minority members of the respective higher education and workforce development committees of the senate and house of representatives, ex officio; and

(b) The following members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate:

(i) Five members representing the businesses described in RCW 82.04.299 or subject to the tax rate under RCW 82.04.290(2)(a)(i);

(ii) Two members representing labor organizations, one of which must have expertise in registered apprenticeships and training a high-demand workforce and one of which must represent faculty at the four-year institutions of higher education;

(iii) Two members representing the institutions of higher education, as defined in RCW 28B.10.016, one of which must be from the four-year sector and one of which must be from the community and technical college sector;

(iv) Two members representing students, one of which must be a community and technical college student;

(v) One member representing the independent, not-for-profit higher education institutions; and

(vi) One member representing the student achievement council, established under chapter 28B.77 RCW.

SEVENTEENTH DAY, JANUARY 29, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(2) Except for ex officio and student members, board members shall hold their offices for a term of three years until their successors are appointed. Student board members shall hold one-year terms.

(3) The board shall have two cochair. One cochair shall be one of the chairs of the respective higher education and workforce development committees of the legislature and the other cochair shall be one of the board members representing the businesses described in RCW 82.04.299 or subject to the tax rate under RCW 82.04.290(2)(a)(i). The cochair shall hold the position for a one-year term. The board members shall elect the cochair annually.

(4) Nine voting members of the board constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board shall meet four times a year.

(5) Staff support for the board shall be provided by the workforce training and education coordinating board established in this chapter (~~28C.18 RCW~~).

(6) The purposes of the board are to:

(a) Provide guidance and recommendations to the legislature on what workforce education priorities should be funded with the workforce education investment account; and

(b) Ensure accountability that the workforce education investments funded with the workforce education investment account are producing the intended results and are effectively increasing student success and career readiness, such as by increasing retention, completion, and job placement rates.

(7) The board shall consult data from the education data center established under RCW 43.41.400 and the workforce training and education coordinating board established under this chapter (~~28C.18 RCW~~) when reviewing and determining whether workforce education investments funded from the workforce education investment account are effectively increasing student success and career readiness.

(8) The board shall report its recommendations to the appropriate committees of the legislature by August 1st of each year.

(9) For the purposes of this section, "board" means the workforce education investment accountability and oversight board established in this section.

Sec. 145. RCW 43.79.195 and 2019 c 406 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The workforce education investment account is created in the state treasury. All revenues from the workforce investment surcharge(§) created in RCW 82.04.299 and those revenues as specified under RCW 82.04.290(2)(c) must be deposited directly into the account. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may be used only for higher education programs, higher education operations, higher education compensation, and state-funded student aid programs. For the 2019-2021 biennium, expenditures from the account may be used for kindergarten through twelfth grade if used for career connected learning as provided for in chapter 406, Laws of 2019.

(2) Expenditures from the workforce education investment account must be used to supplement, not supplant, other federal, state, and local funding for higher education.

Sec. 146. RCW 82.04.290 and 2019 c 426 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of providing qualifying international investment management services, as to such persons, the amount of tax with respect to such business is equal to the gross income or gross proceeds of sales of the business multiplied by a rate of 0.275 percent.

(2)(a) Upon every person engaging within this state in any business activity other than or in addition to an activity taxed explicitly under another section in this chapter or subsection (1) or (3) of this section; as to such persons the amount of tax on account of such activities is equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of:

(i) 1.75 percent; or

(ii) 1.5 percent for:

(A) Any person subject to the surcharge imposed under RCW 82.04.299;

(B) Any person whose gross income of the business subject to the tax imposed under this subsection (2), for the immediately preceding calendar year, was less than one million dollars, unless (I) the person is affiliated with one or more other persons, and (II) the aggregate gross income of the business subject to the tax imposed under this subsection (2) for all affiliated persons was greater than or equal to one million dollars for the immediately preceding calendar year; and

(C) Hospitals as defined in RCW 70.41.020, including any hospital that comes within the scope of chapter 71.12 RCW if the hospital is also licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW. This subsection (2)(a)(ii)(C) must not be construed as modifying RCW 82.04.260(10).

(b) This subsection (2) includes, among others, and without limiting the scope hereof (whether or not title to materials used in the performance of such business passes to another by accession, confusion or other than by outright sale), persons engaged in the business of rendering any type of service which does not constitute a "sale at retail" or a "sale at wholesale." The value of advertising, demonstration, and promotional supplies and materials furnished to an agent by his or her principal or supplier to be used for informational, educational, and promotional purposes is not considered a part of the agent's remuneration or commission and is not subject to taxation under this section.

(c) 14.3 percent of the revenues collected under (a)(i) of this subsection (2) must be deposited into the workforce education investment account created in RCW 43.79.195.

(d)(i) To aid in the effective administration of this subsection (2), the department may require a person claiming to be subject to the 1.5 percent tax rate under (a)(ii)(B) of this subsection (2) to identify all of the person's affiliates, including their department tax registration number or unified business identifier number, as may be applicable, or to certify that the person is not affiliated with any other person. Requests under this subsection (2)(d)(i) must be in writing and may be made electronically.

(ii) If the department establishes, by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, that a person, with intent to evade the additional taxes due under the 1.75 percent tax rate in (a)(i) of this subsection (2), failed to provide the department with complete and accurate information in response to a written request under (d)(i) of this subsection (2) within thirty days of such request, the person is ineligible for the 1.5 percent tax rate in (a)(ii) of this subsection (2) for the entire current calendar year and the following four calendar years. However, the department must waive the provisions of this subsection (2)(d)(ii) for any tax reporting period that the person is otherwise eligible for the 1.5 percent tax rate in (a)(ii) of this subsection (2) if (A) the department has not previously determined that the person failed to fully comply with (d)(i) of this subsection (2), and (B) within thirty days of the notice of additional tax due as a result of the person's failure to fully comply with (d)(i) of this subsection (2) the department determines that the person has come into full compliance with (d)(i) of this subsection (2). This subsection (2)(d) applies only with respect to persons claiming entitlement to the 1.5 percent tax rate solely by reason of (a)(ii)(B) of this subsection (2).

(c) For the purposes of (a)(ii)(B) of this subsection (2), if a taxpayer is subject to the reconciliation provisions of RCW 82.04.462(4), and calculates gross income of the business subject to the tax imposed under this subsection (2) for the immediately preceding calendar year, or aggregate gross income of the business subject to the tax imposed under this subsection (2) for the immediately preceding calendar year for all affiliated persons, based on incomplete information, the taxpayer must correct the reporting for the current calendar year when complete information for the immediately preceding calendar year is available.

(f) For purposes of this subsection (2), the definitions in this subsection (2)(f) apply:

(i) "Affiliate" means a person that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person; and

(ii) "Control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of more than eighty percent of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract, or otherwise.

(3)(a) Until July 1, 2040, upon every person engaging within this state in the business of performing aerospace product development for others, as to such persons, the amount of tax with respect to such business is equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by a rate of 0.9 percent.

(b) A person reporting under the tax rate provided in this subsection (3) must file a complete annual report with the department under RCW 82.32.534.

(c) "Aerospace product development" has the meaning as provided in RCW 82.04.4461.

Sec. 147. RCW 82.04.299 and 2019 c 406 s 74 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(The legislature intends to secure additional revenue via surcharges targeted towards certain industries including select advanced computing businesses.~~

The legislature intends the provisions of chapter 406, Laws of 2019 to be applied broadly in favor of application of the surcharges. To achieve this intent, any provision within chapter 406, Laws of 2019 that is deemed to be ambiguous by a court of competent jurisdiction, the board of tax appeals, or any other judicial or administrative body, should be construed in favor of application of the surcharges. The rule of statutory construction in favor of the application of the surcharge under this paragraph does not apply on or after January 1, 2022.

~~(1)(a) Beginning with business activities occurring on or after January 1, 2020, in addition to the taxes imposed under RCW 82.04.290(2), a workforce education investment surcharge is imposed on specified persons. The surcharge is equal to the total amount of tax payable by the person on business activities taxed under RCW 82.04.290(2), before application of any tax credits, multiplied by the rate of twenty percent.~~

~~(b) For specified persons who report under one or more tax classifications, this surcharge applies only to business activities taxed under RCW 82.04.290(2).~~

~~(c) The surcharge imposed under this subsection (1) must be reported and paid in a manner and frequency as required by the department.~~

~~(2) For the purposes of this section, "specified person" means a person who is not subject to the surcharge under subsection (4) of this section and who is primarily engaged within this state in any combination of the following activities:~~

~~(a) Computer software publishing or publishing and reproduction. Establishments in this industry carry out operations~~

~~necessary for producing and distributing computer software, such as designing, providing documentation, assisting in installation, and providing support services to software purchasers. These establishments may design, develop, and publish, or publish only. These establishments may publish and distribute software remotely through subscriptions and downloads;~~

~~(b) Conducting original investigation undertaken on a systematic basis to gain new knowledge or the application of research findings or other scientific knowledge for the creation of new or significantly improved products or processes. Techniques may include modeling and simulation. The industries within this industry group are defined on the basis of the domain of research and on scientific expertise of the establishment;~~

~~(c) Putting capital at risk in the process of underwriting securities issues or in making markets for securities and commodities and those acting as agents or brokers between buyers and sellers of securities and commodities, usually charging a commission;~~

~~(d) Providing expertise in the field of information technologies through one or more of the following activities: (i) Writing, modifying, testing, and supporting computer software to meet the needs of a particular customer; (ii) planning and designing computer systems that integrate computer hardware, computer software, and communication technologies; (iii) on-site management and operation of clients' computer systems and data processing facilities; or (iv) other professional and technical computer-related advice and services;~~

~~(e) Performing central banking functions, such as issuing currency, managing the nation's money supply and international reserves, holding deposits that represent the reserves of other banks and other central banks, and acting as a fiscal agent for the central government;~~

~~(f)(i) Purchasing access and network capacity from owners and operators of telecommunications networks and reselling wired and wireless telecommunications services, except satellite, to businesses and households; (ii) providing specialized telecommunications services, such as satellite tracking, communications telemetry, and radar station operation; (iii) providing satellite terminal stations and associated facilities connected with one or more terrestrial systems and capable of transmitting telecommunications to, and receiving telecommunications from, satellite systems; or (iv) providing internet access services or voice over internet protocol services via client-supplied telecommunications connections. Establishments in this industry do not operate as telecommunications carriers. Mobile virtual network operators are included in this industry;~~

~~(g)(i) Acting as principals in buying or selling financial contracts, except investment bankers, securities dealers, and commodity contracts dealers; (ii) acting as agents or brokers, except securities brokerages and commodity contracts brokerages, in buying or selling financial contracts; or (iii) providing other investment services except securities and commodity exchanges, such as portfolio management, investment advice, and trust, fiduciary, and custody services;~~

~~(h) Supplying information, such as news reports, articles, pictures, and features, to the news media. This industry comprises establishments primarily engaged in providing library or archive services. These establishments are engaged in maintaining collections of documents and facilitating the use of these documents as required to meet the informational, research, educational, or recreational needs of their user. These establishments may also acquire, research, store, preserve, and generally make accessible to the public historical documents, photographs, maps, audio material, audiovisual material, and~~ other archival material of historical interest. All or portions of these collections may be accessible electronically. This industry comprises establishments engaged in: (i) Publishing and broadcasting content on the internet exclusively; or (ii) operating web sites that use a search engine to generate and maintain extensive databases of internet addresses and content in an easily searchable format, known as web search portals. The publishing and broadcasting establishments in this industry do not provide traditional versions of the content they publish or broadcast. They provide textual, audio, or video content of general or specific interest on the internet exclusively. Establishments known as web search portals often provide additional internet services, such as email, connections to other web sites, auctions, news, and other limited content, and serve as a home base for internet users. This industry comprises establishments primarily engaged in providing other information services, except news syndicates, libraries, archives, internet publishing and broadcasting, and web search portals;

(i) Architectural, engineering, and related services, such as drafting services, building inspection services, geophysical surveying and mapping services, surveying and mapping, except geophysical services and testing services;

(j) Retailing all types of merchandise using nonstore means, such as catalogs, toll free telephone numbers, electronic media, such as interactive television or the internet, or selling directly to consumers in a nonretail, physical environment. Included in this industry are establishments primarily engaged in retailing from catalog showrooms of mail order houses;

(k) Providing advice and assistance to businesses and other organizations on management, environmental, scientific, and technical issues;

(l) Providing infrastructure for hosting or data processing services. These establishments may provide specialized hosting activities, such as web hosting, streaming services, or application hosting, or they may provide general time share mainframe facilities to clients. Data processing establishments provide complete processing and specialized reports from data supplied by clients or provide automated data processing and data entry services;

(m) Facilitating credit intermediation by performing activities, such as arranging loans by bringing borrowers and lenders together and clearing checks and credit card transactions;

(n) Offering legal services, such as those offered by offices of lawyers, offices of notaries, and title abstract and settlement offices, and paralegal services;

(o) Operating or providing access to transmission facilities and infrastructure that they own or lease for the transmission of voice, data, text, sound, and video using wired telecommunications networks. Transmission facilities may be based on a single technology or a combination of technologies. Establishments in this industry use the wired telecommunications network facilities that they operate to provide a variety of services, such as wired telephony services, including voice over internet protocol services, wired audio and video programming distribution, and wired broadband internet services. By exception, establishments providing satellite television distribution services using facilities and infrastructure that they operate are included in this industry;

(p) Providing telecommunications services to other establishments in the telecommunications and broadcasting industries by forwarding and receiving communications signals via a system of satellites or reselling satellite telecommunications;

(q) Operating and maintaining switching and transmission facilities to provide communications via the airwaves. Establishments in this industry have spectrum licenses and provide services using that spectrum, such as cellular phone services, paging services, wireless internet access, and wireless video services;

(r) Extending credit or lending funds raised by credit market borrowing, such as issuing commercial paper or other debt instruments or by borrowing from other financial intermediaries;

(s) Underwriting annuities and insurance policies and investing premiums to build up a portfolio of financial assets to be used against future claims. Direct insurance carriers are establishments that are primarily engaged in initially underwriting and assuming the risk of annuities and insurance policies. Reinsurance carriers are establishments that are primarily engaged in assuming all or part of the risk associated with an existing insurance policy originally underwritten by another insurance carrier. Industries are defined in terms of the type of risk being insured against, such as death, loss of employment because of age or disability, or property damage. Contributions and premiums are set on the basis of actuarial calculations of probable payouts based on risk factors from experience tables and expected investment returns on reserves;

(t) Merchant wholesale distribution of photographic equipment and supplies and office, computer, and computer peripheral equipment and medical, dental, hospital, ophthalmic, and other commercial and professional equipment and supplies;

(u) Operating studios and facilities for the broadcasting of programs on a subscription or fee basis. The broadcast programming is typically narrowcast in nature. These establishments produce programming in their own facilities or acquire programming from external sources. The programming material is usually delivered to a third party, such as cable systems or direct to home satellite systems, for transmission to viewers;

(v) Publishing newspapers, magazines, other periodicals, books, directories and mailing lists, and other works, such as calendars, greeting cards, and maps. These works are characterized by the intellectual creativity required in their development and are usually protected by copyright. Publishers distribute or arrange for the distribution of these works. Publishing establishments may create the works in house, or contract for, purchase, or compile works that were originally created by others. These works may be published in one or more formats, such as print or electronic form, including proprietary electronic networks. Establishments in this industry may print, reproduce, or offer direct access to the works themselves or may arrange with others to carry out such functions. Establishments that both print and publish may fill excess capacity with commercial or job printing. However, the publishing activity is still considered to be the primary activity of these establishments;

(w) Generating, transmitting, or distributing electric power. Establishments in this industry group may perform one or more of the following activities: (i) Operate generation facilities that produce electric energy; (ii) operate transmission systems that convey the electricity from the generation facility to the distribution system; or (iii) operate distribution systems that convey electric power received from the generation facility or the transmission system to the final consumer;

(x) Providing specialized design services including interior design, industrial design, graphic design, and others, but not including architectural, engineering, and computer systems design;

(y) Assigning rights to assets, such as patents, trademarks, brand names, or franchise agreements, for which a royalty payment or licensing fee is paid to the asset holder;

(z) Acting as agents in selling annuities and insurance policies or providing other employee benefits and insurance related services, such as claims adjustment and third party administration;

(ff) The independent practice of general or specialized medicine or surgery by businesses comprised of one or more health practitioners having the degree of doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy. These practitioners operate private or group practices in their own offices or in the facilities of others, such as hospitals or health maintenance organization medical centers;

(gg) Providing a range of outpatient services, such as family planning, diagnosis and treatment of mental health disorders and alcohol and other substance abuse, and other general or specialized outpatient care by businesses with medical staff;

(hh) Pooling securities or other assets, except insurance and employee benefit funds, on behalf of shareholders, unit holders, or beneficiaries, by legal entities such as investment pools or funds;

(ii) Promoting the interests of an organization's members, except religious organizations, social advocacy organizations, and civic and social organizations. Examples of establishments in this industry are business associations, professional organizations, labor unions, and political organizations;

(jj) Holding the securities of or other equity interests in companies and enterprises for the purpose of owning a controlling interest or influencing management decisions or businesses that administer, oversee, and manage other establishments of the company or enterprise and that normally undertake the strategic or organizational planning and decision making role of the company or enterprise. Establishments that administer, oversee, and manage may hold the securities of the company or enterprise;

(kk) For medical and diagnostic laboratories, providing analytic or diagnostic services, including body fluid analysis and diagnostic imaging, generally to the medical profession or to the patient on referral from a health practitioner;

(ll) Serving as offices of chief executives and their advisory committees and commissions. This industry includes offices of the president, governors, and mayors, in addition to executive advisory commissions. This industry comprises government establishments serving as legislative bodies and their advisory committees and commissions. Included in this industry are legislative bodies, such as congress, state legislatures, and advisory and study legislative commissions. This industry comprises government establishments primarily engaged in public finance, taxation, and monetary policy. Included are financial administration activities, such as monetary policy, tax administration and collection, custody and disbursement of funds, debt and investment administration, auditing activities, and government employee retirement trust fund administration. This industry comprises government establishments serving as councils and boards of commissioners or supervisors and such bodies where the chief executive is a member of the legislative body itself. This industry comprises American Indian and Alaska Native governing bodies. Establishments in this industry perform legislative, judicial, and administrative functions for their American Indian and Alaska Native lands. Included in this industry are American Indian and Alaska Native councils, courts, and law enforcement bodies. This industry comprises government establishments primarily engaged in providing general support for government. Such support services include personnel services, election boards, and other general government support establishments that are not classified elsewhere in public administration;

(mm) Providing a range of office administrative services, such as financial planning, billing and recordkeeping, personnel, and physical distribution and logistics, for others on a contract or fee basis. These establishments do not provide operating staff to carry out the complete operations of a business;

(nn) Providing professional, scientific, or technical services including marketing research, public opinion polling, photographic services, translation and interpretation services, and veterinary services. This category does not include legal services, accounting, tax preparation, bookkeeping, architectural, engineering, and related services, specialized design services, computer systems design, management, scientific and technical consulting services, scientific research and development services, or advertising services;

(oo) The independent practice of general or specialized dentistry or dental surgery by businesses comprised of one or more health practitioners having the degree of doctor of dental medicine, doctor of dental surgery, or doctor of dental science. These practitioners operate private or group practices in their own offices or in the facilities of others, such as hospitals or health maintenance organization medical centers. They may provide either comprehensive preventive, cosmetic, or emergency care, or specialize in a single field of dentistry;

(pp) The independent practice of general or specialized medicine or surgery, or general or specialized dentistry or dental surgery, by businesses comprised of one or more independent health practitioners, other than physicians and dentists;

(qq) Providing ambulatory health care services.

(3)(a)(i) For the purposes of this section, a person is primarily engaged within this state in any combination of the activities described in subsection (2) of this section if more than fifty percent of the person's cumulative gross amount reportable under this chapter during the entire current or immediately preceding calendar year was generated from engaging in any one or more of the activities described in subsection (2) of this section. For purposes of this subsection, "gross amount reportable" means the total value of products, gross proceeds of sales, and gross income of the business, reportable to the department before application of any tax deductions.

(ii) If a person was not primarily engaged within this state in any combination of the activities described in subsection (2) of this section during the immediately preceding year, and the person is unsure whether the person will be subject to the workforce investment surcharge for the current calendar year until the close of the current calendar year, the person must, if necessary, file corrected returns with the department of revenue to pay any additional tax due under this section for the current calendar year. Payment of additional tax, along with corrected returns, is due and payable when the person's last return for the calendar year during which the tax liability accrued is due and payable. Additional tax due under this section is subject to penalties and interest as provided under chapter 82.32 RCW only if the tax is not paid in full by the date due as provided in this subsection (3)(a)(ii).

(b) The entire amount of gross income of the business received by a person pursuant to a contract under which the person is obligated to perform any activity described under subsection (2) of this section is deemed to be generated from engaging in any one or more of the activities described in subsection (2) of this section.

(4)) (1)(a) Beginning with business activities occurring on or after ~~(January)~~ April 1, 2020, in addition to the taxes imposed under RCW 82.04.290(2), a workforce education investment surcharge is imposed on select advanced computing businesses (as follows:

(i) For an affiliated group that has worldwide gross revenue of more than twenty-five billion dollars, but not more than one hundred billion dollars, during the entire current or immediately preceding calendar year, the surcharge is equal to the total amount of tax payable by each member of the affiliated group on all business activities taxed under RCW 82.04.290(2), before application of any tax credits, multiplied by the rate of thirty-three and one-third percent.

(ii) For an affiliated group that has worldwide gross revenue of more than one hundred billion dollars during the entire current or immediately preceding calendar year, the surcharge is equal to the total amount of tax payable by each member of the affiliated group on all business activities taxed under RCW 82.04.290(2), before application of any tax credits, multiplied by the rate of sixty-six and two-thirds percent). The surcharge is equal to the gross income of the business subject to the tax under RCW 82.04.290(2), multiplied by the rate of 1.22 percent.

(b) ~~((H))~~ Except as provided in (c) of this subsection (1), in no case will the combined surcharge imposed under this subsection ~~((4)) (1)~~ paid by all members of an affiliated group be ~~((less than four million dollars or))~~ more than ~~((seven))~~ nine million dollars annually.

(c) For persons subject to the surcharge imposed under this subsection ~~((4)) (1)~~ that report under one or more tax classifications, the surcharge applies only to business activities taxed under RCW 82.04.290(2).

(d) The surcharge imposed under this subsection ~~((4)) (1)~~ must be reported and paid on a quarterly basis in a manner ~~((and frequency))~~ as required by the department. Returns and amounts payable under this subsection (1) are due by the last day of the month immediately following the end of the reporting period covered by the return. All other taxes must be reported and paid as required under RCW 82.32.045.

(e)(i) To aid in the effective administration of the surcharge in this subsection ~~((4)) (1)~~, the department may require persons believed to be engaging in advanced computing or affiliated with a person believed to be engaging in advanced computing to disclose whether they are a member of an affiliated group and, if so, to identify all other members of the affiliated group subject to the surcharge.

(ii) If the department ~~((determines))~~ establishes, by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, that ~~((a person))~~ one or more members of an affiliated group, with intent to evade the surcharge under this subsection ~~((4)) (1)~~, failed to fully comply with this subsection ~~((4)) (1)(e)~~, the ~~((seven million dollar limitation in (b) of this subsection (4) does not apply to the person's affiliated group))~~ department must assess against that person, or those persons collectively, a penalty equal to fifty percent of the amount of the total surcharge payable by all members of that affiliated group for the calendar year during which the person or persons failed to fully comply with this subsection (1)(e). The penalty under this subsection (1)(e) is in lieu of and not in addition to the evasion penalty under RCW 82.32.090(7).

(f) For the purposes of this subsection ~~((4)) (1)~~ the following definitions apply:

(i) "Advanced computing" means designing or developing computer software or computer hardware, whether directly or contracting with another person, including modifications to computer software or computer hardware, cloud computing services, or operating an online marketplace, an online search engine, or online social networking platform;

(ii) "Affiliate" and "affiliated" means a person that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person;

(iii) "Affiliated group" means a group of two or more persons that are affiliated with each other;

(iv) "Cloud computing services" means on-demand delivery of computing resources, such as networks, servers, storage, applications, and services, over the internet;

(v) "Control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of more than fifty percent of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract, or otherwise; and

(vi) "Select advanced computing business" means a person who is a member of an affiliated group with at least one member of the affiliated group engaging in the business of advanced computing, and the affiliated group has worldwide gross revenue of more than twenty-five billion dollars during the ~~((entire current or))~~ immediately preceding calendar year. A person who is primarily engaged within this state in the provision of commercial mobile service, as that term is defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 332(d)(1), shall not be considered a select advanced computing business. A person who is primarily engaged in this state in the operation and provision of access to transmission facilities and infrastructure that the person owns or leases for the transmission of voice, data, text, sound, and video using wired telecommunications networks shall not be considered a select advanced computing business. A person that is a "bank," "bank holding company," or "financial holding company," as those terms are defined in RCW 30A.04.010, shall not be considered a select advanced computing business.

~~((5)) (2)~~ The workforce education investment surcharge~~((s))~~ under this section ~~((do))~~ does not apply to any hospital as defined in RCW 70.41.020, including any hospital that comes within the scope of chapter 71.12 RCW if the hospital is also licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW.

~~((6)) (3)~~ Revenues from the surcharge~~((s))~~ under this section must be deposited directly into the workforce education investment account established in RCW 43.79.195.

~~((7)) (4)~~ The department has the authority to determine through an audit or other investigation whether a person is subject to the surcharge~~((s))~~ imposed in this section. ~~((The department's determination that a person is subject to the surcharge is presumed~~

~~to be correct unless the person shows by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that the department's determination was incorrect. The increased evidentiary standard under this subsection (7) does not apply after January 1, 2022.)~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 148. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 149. The provisions of RCW 82.32.805 and 82.32.808 do not apply to this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 150. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect April 1, 2020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 151. Section 3 of this act applies beginning with gross income of the business, as defined in RCW 82.04.080, received or accrued by taxpayers, on or after April 1, 2020."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "reform;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28C.18.200, 43.79.195, 82.04.290, and 82.04.299; creating new sections; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

Senator Braun moved that the following floor amendment no. 922 by Senator Braun be adopted:

On page 3, line 25, after "(i)" insert "Except as provided in (g) of this subsection (2)."

On page 5, after line 23, insert the following:

"(g) Beginning July 1, 2021, the rate under (a)(i) of this subsection (2) must be reduced by an amount necessary to offset the estimated increase in general fund revenues for the 2019-2021 biennium but such reduction may not exceed 0.25 percent. For the purpose of this subsection, "estimated increase in general fund revenues" means the difference between general fund revenues reflected in the November 2020 revenue forecast and in the November 2019 revenue forecast for the 2019-2021 fiscal biennium. Beginning in the 2021-2023 biennium and each biennium thereafter, the state treasurer shall transfer from the general fund to the workforce education investment account an amount equal to the revenue reduction in the 2021-2023 biennium from the rate reduction under this subsection (2)(g), increased by the fiscal growth factor."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President would ask that members remember the question that is before this Senate at any given time. In this instance, these are amendments to a floor striking amendment to the underlying bill and so, if members could do their best to reserve, I know that there is always a desire to put things in context, that's fine, but in some cases entire floor speeches are spent on the underlying policy choice not the specifics of the amendment. So, if members could do their best to reserve their remarks to the amendment it would be appreciated."

(1) The legislature must adopt a four-year balanced budget as follows:

(a) Beginning in the 2013-2015 fiscal biennium, the legislature shall enact a balanced omnibus operating appropriations bill that leaves, in total, a positive ending fund balance in the general fund and related funds.

(b) Beginning in the 2013-2015 fiscal biennium, the projected maintenance level of the omnibus appropriations bill enacted by the legislature shall not exceed the available fiscal resources for the next ensuing fiscal biennium.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Available fiscal resources" means the beginning general fund and related fund balances and any fiscal resources estimated for the general fund and related funds, adjusted for enacted legislation, and with forecasted revenues adjusted to the greater of (i) the official general fund and related funds revenue forecast for the ensuing biennium, or (ii) the official general fund and related funds forecast for the second fiscal year of the current fiscal biennium, increased by 4.5 percent for each fiscal year of the ensuing biennium;

(b) "Projected maintenance level" means estimated appropriations necessary to maintain the continuing costs of program and service levels either funded in that appropriations bill or mandated by other state or federal law, and the amount of any general fund moneys projected to be transferred to the budget stabilization account pursuant to Article VII, section 12 of the state Constitution ~~(, but does not include in the 2013-2015 and 2015-2017 fiscal biennia the costs related to the enhanced funding under the new definition of basic education as established in chapter 548, Laws of 2009, and affirmed by the decision in Mathew McCleary et al., v. The State of Washington, 173 Wn.2d 477, 269 P.3d 227, (2012), from which the short term exclusion of these obligations is solely for the purposes of calculating this estimate and does not in any way indicate an intent to avoid full funding of these obligations));~~

(c) "Related funds," as used in this section, means the Washington opportunity pathways account, the workforce education investment account, and the education legacy trust account.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section does not apply to an appropriations bill that makes net reductions in general fund and related funds appropriations and is enacted between July 1st and February 15th of any fiscal year.

(4) Subsection (1)(b) of this section does not apply in a fiscal biennium in which money is appropriated from the budget stabilization account."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hobbs: "Yes, Mr. President. I am sure many of you are already aware of this, but I think just to mention that our good friend Ron Main passed away last weekend. Ron, was a, was the type of person, the type of lobbyist, that I think all of us in this chamber, including you Mr. President having dealt with him as well, that we can all respect. It is very rare to find someone whose word is always golden, whose advice is always appreciated, and Ron was that person. And even though he was never a member of this chamber, he might as well have been because he was a strong advocate, definitely for his clients for this institution. One thing that I know about Ron, that some of you don't know, is that there is another part of his life that he didn't tell a lot of people, but I certainly do respect. See Ron, in his generation, didn't have a choice to serve his country. I enlisted because I volunteered to do so but Ron during a time of war, his generation didn't have that choice. But that didn't stop him because he decided to take a step further and take a leadership role, so he volunteered to go to Officer Candidate School. Second Lieutenant Ron Main branched Military Police after receiving his training was sent off to Vietnam. So, Mr. President if you could, if you could do a moment of silence for Ron. A dedicated professional, a friend to this institution, and a soldier and veteran who served our county in a time of war."

MOMENT OF SILENCE

The Senate rose and observed a moment of silence in memory of Mr. Ronald Main, a long-time member of the Third House, who passed away January 25, 2020.

On motion of Senator Liias, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated.

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Hunt moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
8669

By Senators Hunt, Sheldon, and Wagoner

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Washington State Senate to recognize excellence in all fields of endeavor; and

WHEREAS, Mr. David Boyer began working for the State of Washington's Department of General Administration as an electrician on November 3, 1980, and began his retirement on July 1, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Boyer, through his diligence and hard work, was promoted to Construction Maintenance Supervisor, Division of Capital Facilities, and then to, most recently, Quality Assurance Manager, Buildings and Grounds, Facilities Operation Team, overseeing all work on the capitol campus; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Boyer, over the course of his career, came to know the Legislative Building perhaps better than any other person, having sat in on design and renovation meetings and having been into every corner and crevice, every nook and cranny, in the performance of his duties; and

WHEREAS, "Dave," as he came to be known to the occupants of the Legislative Building, could be found helping fix and maintain the buildings on campus, working on everything from leaky faucets to broken windows to dead outlets, as well as, facilitating the needs of the variety of events large, and small, held on the capitol campus; and

WHEREAS, Dave's efforts, including staging the Washington Centennial Commission's celebration of the state's centennial, covering up murals in legislative galleries, and creating workable office spaces for legislators and staff after the Nisqually Earthquake, garnered him numerous awards and recognitions at the Department of Enterprise Services; and

WHEREAS, Dave would credit his team at the Department of Enterprise Services for any successes and shoulder the blame when things went wrong; and

WHEREAS, Dave's devotion to the Legislative Building and its occupants was perhaps best demonstrated by the moments when the Legislative Building was performing at its worst, working to resolve problems at any hour, day or night, including weekends; and

WHEREAS, Dave ably and critically assisted the efforts of the Legislative Building Renovation Oversight Committee, which directed the Legislative Building's renovation after the 2001 Nisqually Earthquake; and

WHEREAS, One of Dave's favorite duties included coordinating the delivery and installation of the annual Holiday Tree each year, which added a festive note to the Building in which he spent so much time;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate acknowledge Mr. David Boyer for his service to the Department of Enterprise Services and the people of the State of Washington and offer its heartfelt gratitude to him and his family for the years of support to the Legislative Building, the capitol campus, and all of its tenants; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That David Boyer be congratulated on the occasion of his retirement from four decades of public service and wished the very best in pursuing future endeavors; and

----

The Senate was called to order at 11:23 a.m. by President Pro Tempore.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate reverted to the sixth order of business.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Padden: "Thank you Madam President. I just wanted to point out to the body here, that tomorrow will be what would have been the 109th birthday of former President Ronald Reagan. And, I will have a resolution but it's a pro forma session tomorrow so I wanted to just notify the members it's up there and thank you. It's a bi-partisan resolution, those that have haven't signed they still have an opportunity. And just briefly, indicate that Ronald Reagan came from humble beginnings, Madam President. Born in Tampico, Illinois. Family did not have much money. Later became a lifeguard and saved a whole number of people from drowning as a lifeguard and, of course, the thing that I remember the most, my earliest recollection, was his speech he gave in 1964, televised speech, in support of candidate Barry Goldwater. And although Barry was, got a lot of very intense support, the election results weren't all that great but it set the stage for Reagan's later being elected, two years later, Governor of California, and then ran for president in '76 unsuccessfully, but ran in '80 and was reelected in '84. In any event, a great president, one of the people I've admired most and just wanted to notify the body that there is an opportunity to sign on the resolution and we will be talking about it tomorrow at noon if you can join us. Thank you."

Senator Padden moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 8673

By Senators Padden, Becker, Braun, Rolfes, O'Ban, Hobbs, King, Sheldon, Zeiger, Fortunato, and Wagoner

WHEREAS, On February 6, 1911, Ronald Wilson Reagan was born in Tampico, Illinois to parents John Edward and Nellie Wilson Reagan; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan modeled the American dream, from growing up in a struggling family to obtaining a higher education, acting in movies, and working in public office; and

WHEREAS, After making unsuccessful bids for the Republican nomination twice, he ran in the 1980 presidential election; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan was elected to be the 40th President of the United States and served two terms from 1981 to 1989; and

TWENTY FIFTH DAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, He won 525 of the 538 electoral college votes in his bid for reelection, the most ever won by a presidential candidate; and

At 12:12 p.m., on motion of Senator Liias, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 o'clock p.m. Friday, February 7, 2020.

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan was nicknamed "the great communicator" because of his honesty and connection with the people of the United States; and

KAREN KEISER, President Pro Tempore of the Senate

WHEREAS, He was dedicated to improving the lives of everyone around the world, emphasizing that "America is a shining city upon a hill whose beacon light guides freedom-loving people everywhere"; and

BRAD HENDRICKSON, Secretary of the Senate

WHEREAS, In 1987, Ronald Reagan stood firmly on the side of freedom and denounced the Soviet Union, demanding Mikhail Gorbachev "tear down this wall" at the Brandenburg Gate in Berlin; and

WHEREAS, His understanding that "peace is not the absence of conflict but the ability to cope with conflict by peaceful means" brought an end to the Cold War; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan stressed the importance of preserving individual freedoms by asking "what kind of people do we think we are"? and answering it with "free people, worthy of freedom and determined not only to remain so but to help others gain their freedom as well"; and

WHEREAS, While taking inspiration from the past, Ronald Reagan envisioned a bright future for the nation; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan was the embodiment of a leader, stating, "there are no great limits to growth because there are no limits of human intelligence, imagination, and wonder"; and

WHEREAS, By decreasing unemployment, federal interest rates, and inflation, Ronald Reagan became a symbol of hope for the American people and made our country "prouder, and stronger, and better"; and

WHEREAS, On June 5, 2004, Ronald Reagan passed away after a decade long battle with Alzheimer's Disease; and

WHEREAS, His tombstone is inscribed with the inspirational words he once spoke to the people, "I know in my heart that man is good, that what is right will always eventually triumph and that there is purpose and worth to each and every life";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on this day, the Senate honor the 40th president of the United States, Ronald Wilson Reagan, a patriot who restored America's spirit and improved the quality of life for individuals at home and around the world.

Senator Padden spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8673.

The motion by Senator Padden carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LIAS

Senator Liias: "Thank you Madam President. I always appreciate Senator Padden reminding us of the February 6 anniversary. I also like to share other February 6th notable dates, 94 years ago the first donut making machine appeared on February 6th. So, whether you like President Reagan or you like donuts, February 6th is a big day in the United States of America."

MOTION

Senator Schoesler moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
8672

By Senators Schoesler and Liias

WHEREAS, Since its founding on February 18, 1950, representing over eight thousand members in fourteen local associations across the state, the Building Industry Association of Washington (BIAW) has provided safe, decent, and attainable housing for our population; and

WHEREAS, BIAW represents not only the nation's oldest and largest local home building association, it is the third largest statewide association in the country; and

WHEREAS, In 2018 alone, the building industry provided economic growth to our state through the creation of 103,315 jobs, generating 8.4 billion dollars in family wages; and

WHEREAS, Home builders pay more than 2.2 billion dollars in state and local taxes annually through the direct and indirect impact of new home construction; and

WHEREAS, Home builders strive to beautify the community and conserve our environment by developing parks, green space, and wooded landscapes;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate honor the seventieth anniversary of the Building Industry Association of Washington and its members; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the leadership team of the Building Industry Association of Washington.

Senators Schoesler and Liias spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8672.

The motion by Senator Schoesler carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The Vice President Pro Tempore welcomed and introduced representatives of the Building Industry Association of Washington, consisting of President Sherry Schwab, First Vice President Tracey Doriot, Executive Vice President Greg Lane and Treasurer Joseph Irons who were seated in the gallery.

SIGNED BY THE VICE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 32 of the State Constitution and Senate Rule 1(5), the Vice President Pro Tempore announced the signing of and thereupon did sign in open session:

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6492

REMARKS BY SENATOR LIIAS

Senator Liias: "I do just want to note that today is an important milestone, it is Charles Dickens anniversary of his birthday and as Charles Dickens said 'It was the best of times, it was the worst of times.' I think that also applies to Bob Cantore who is celebrating his 72nd birthday today and it has become a popular Senate tradition. We celebrate Bob Cantore Day here at the Senate."

Vice President Pro Tempore Conway: "I join also in wishing Happy Birthday to Bob Cantore."

MOTION

At 12:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Liias, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President for the purposes of reading in committee reports later in the day.

----

The Senate was called to order at 3:50 p.m. by the acting President Pro Tempore, Senator Hunt presiding.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate reverted to the first order of business.

SENATE RESOLUTION
 8675

By Senator Hobbs

WHEREAS, Keith Cotton first began his long and valued service to the state in 2001 as an intern in the Washington State Department of Transportation in the planning office where he helped launch the first editions of the Gray Notebook, the national standard for performance reporting by a state agency; and

WHEREAS, Keith met his wife Megan while working in the Environmental Services Office in 2003, where he collaborated with others to assist in mitigating the environmental impacts associated with improving and preserving the state highway system; and

WHEREAS, Keith brought his talents (and his houseplants) to the Public Transportation Division in 2005, which would become his WSDOT home for the next fourteen years, the Public Transportation Division; and

WHEREAS, Keith's vision, diligence, and sense of innovation helped WSDOT develop and implement several projects while managing the state Commute Trip Reduction Program, a program that kept over 34,500 cars off of Puget Sound area streets and highways to help reduce congestion between 2017 and 2018 and saves more than four million gallons of fuel each year; and

WHEREAS, Keith's consistency of character, sense of humor, humility, and empathy for others made him an employee that his bosses, coworkers, and direct reports would run through walls for if asked to; and

WHEREAS, Keith established a sense of community through organizing events and outings within the public transportation division at WSDOT and beyond through his athleticism and leadership in putting together some of the most dominant softball and dodge ball teams the department has ever fielded; and

WHEREAS, Keith learned that he had a brain tumor the size of a lemon in January of 2013 and responded by fighting his cancer with determination and great ferocity to realize dreams and goals he had made with Megan; and

WHEREAS, Keith and Megan had a beautiful daughter named Grace in 2015 and a handsome son named William in 2018; and

WHEREAS, Keith was a lifelong fan of his beloved Chicago Cubs and was able to attend the 2016 World Series in person and was able to fly his "W" flag with pride after the Cubs won their first World Series since 1908; and

WHEREAS, Keith raised thousands of dollars for brain cancer research and clinical trials through his participation in the Seattle Brain Cancer Walk with friends, family, and fellow employees; and

WHEREAS, Keith Carroll Cotton passed away on November 9, 2019, and left behind a legacy as a fighter, a devoted father and husband, an amazing friend, and a standout employee for the Washington State Department of Transportation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington recognize and laud the important contributions of former WSDOT employee Keith Cotton, and offer our most heartfelt condolences to Keith's family and many friends.

Senators Hobbs, Liias and Short spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8675.

The motion by Senator Hobbs carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President would like to thank Senator Hobbs for bringing this resolution and give the entire Senate's condolences to the family and friends and co-workers of Mr. Keith Cotton, whom we mourn with you. MOTION

Senator Short moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
8674

By Senators Short, Schoesler, Holy, Warnick, Walsh, Honeyford, Billig, and Brown

WHEREAS, George R. Nethercutt, Jr. was born and raised in Spokane where he attended North Central High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in English from Washington State University and his Law Degree from Gonzaga University; and

WHEREAS, George and his wife, Mary Beth, welcomed two children, Meredith and Elliott, into their family; and

WHEREAS, Faith, family, community, education, leadership, and mentorship continue to be at the forefront of his life and legacy; and

WHEREAS, During George's eighteen years as a lawyer, he provided legal support for over two thousand adoptions, helping to transform individuals into loving parents to bring joy and security to adoptive children and families; and

WHEREAS, Soon after his daughter was diagnosed with diabetes, he became President of the Spokane Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, an organization tasked with helping to fund research, expanding access to treatment, and bringing awareness to juvenile diabetes; and

WHEREAS, Witnessing the significant need that existed in Spokane for a respite care facility to protect children from abuse and provide support to families, George became a founding member of the Vanessa Behan Crisis Nursery; since its inception in 1987, the nursery has impacted the lives of 103,000 children and their families; and

WHEREAS, In 1994, George entered a three-way primary to become the Republican candidate for the 5th Congressional District. He became only the second person in United States history to defeat a sitting Speaker of the United States House of Representatives. George went on to serve the 5th Congressional District from 1995-2004; and

WHEREAS, During his tenure in Congress, George was named by the Speaker of the House of Representatives as first cochairman of the Congressional Diabetes Caucus; and

WHEREAS, Further, he served on the prestigious Appropriations committee, Science Committee, and Energy and Space & Aeronautics subcommittees. He increased open trade with foreign countries, appropriations to bring high-technology capability to the United States Defense Department, worked side-by-side with farmers to bring independence and freedom back into farming, and developed cutting edge collaborative pilot projects between the timber industry and the Forest Service that improved forest health, wildlife habitat, and the local economy; and

WHEREAS, In 1996, George formed a foundation whose mission was to foster understanding of government and public policies in young adults; offering unprecedented opportunities to engage with elected officials, issue advocates, government leaders, and the national press; and

WHEREAS, After his career in Congress, he continued his mission of educating younger generations on civics, active citizenship and service, the importance of understanding how government works, and why our country's history is so important to its future; and

WHEREAS, George also authored the book entitled "In Tune with America – Our History in Song" that detailed significant events, trials and attributions, outstanding leaders, and heroic acts;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate recognize George R. Nethercutt, Jr. for his service to the 5th Congressional District in Congress, his dedication to community, to educating young adults on the importance of service and civic engagement, and his mentorship to so many who learned the value of humility, patience, listening, compassion, and service.

Senator Short spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8674.

The motion by Senator Short carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

SENATE RESOLUTION
 8677

By Senators Wilson, C., Kuderer, Wellman, Wagoner, Brown, Hasegawa, and Conway

WHEREAS, This month marks the 150th anniversary of the ratification of the 15th Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, The 15th Amendment granted Black men the right to vote by decreeing that "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."; and

WHEREAS, Even though additional laws and enforcement were needed over the next century to more effectively implement and enforce the 15th Amendment, this fundamental principle set the stage for all voting rights that followed; and

WHEREAS, The 15th Amendment's landmark language introduced the absolute and unwavering principle that voting is an inalienable right of citizenship and not a benefit limited to the privileged; and

WHEREAS, This bedrock document not only addressed the existential injustice of the day but laid the foundation for our understanding and expansion of voting rights from that day forward; and

WHEREAS, The 15th Amendment's core concept paved the way for the 19th Amendment, establishing the rights of women to vote, and the Snyder Act, establishing the rights of all Native Americans to vote, and continues to influence and inform our expansion of voting rights; and

WHEREAS, The 15th Amendment has transformed and enriched countless lives and generations, and its foundational principle continues to empower and assert the rights of new generations today and into the future; and

WHEREAS, We benefit today and tomorrow by making sure to remember and honor the historic accomplishments of our predecessors;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate acknowledge and reaffirm its respect and support for the 15th Amendment and the precious rights it established, for now and forever.

WHEREAS, March 22, 2020, marks the one hundredth anniversary of the Washington State Legislature ratifying the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution, legalizing the right to vote for most women in the United States; and

Senator Becker: "WHEREAS, Washington women and men fought with great perseverance in the face of often stern resistance for women's right to vote nationally and in our state for more than sixty-five years, both during Territorial days and after statehood before the 19th Amendment authorizing women's suffrage was approved by our state Legislature; and"

Senator Darneille: "WHEREAS, In 1853, eighteen-year old Catharine Paine Blaine, the youngest signer of the Declaration of Sentiments at the 1848 Women's Rights Convention in Seneca Falls, New York, brought the message of women's rights to the new Washington Territory and later became one of only two women who signed this historic Declaration to actually vote in their lifetime; and"

Senator Das: "WHEREAS, In 1854 early Washington Territorial legislator Arthur Denny proposed a women's suffrage bill that failed by only one vote; and

WHEREAS, In 1867 Washington Territorial legislator Edward Eldridge successfully prime sponsored an act that struck the word "male" from the voting laws, thus technically opening up voting to "all white American citizens above the age of twenty-one," most notably including women; however, this interpretation of the law was not widely embraced and women were routinely turned away at the polls; and"

Senator Brown: "WHEREAS, In 1870 sisters Mary Olney Brown and Charlotte Olney French launched several attempts to cast votes in Thurston County and, eventually succeeding, became the first women to successfully cast ballots in Washington Territory and thus to encourage others; and"

Senator Dhingra: "WHEREAS, In 1871 Pacific Northwest women's rights leader Abigail Scott Duniway organized a speaking tour with national suffrage movement leader Susan B. Anthony through Washington Territory to promote women's suffrage; and

WHEREAS, In 1871 Susan B. Anthony became the first woman to address the Washington Territorial Legislature and cofounded the Washington Women's Suffrage Association; and"

Senator Keiser: "WHEREAS, In 1871, Washington Territorial Legislature passed an anti-suffrage law declaring that women could not vote until Congress made it the law of the land; and

WHEREAS, On November 23, 1883, women living in Washington Territory gained the right to vote by action of the Territorial Legislature; and"

Senator Rivers: "WHEREAS In 1883, when the Territorial Legislature enacted women's suffrage, African American women in Washington Territory became some of the first to have voting rights in the country; and

WHEREAS, On November 26, 1886, the Washington Territorial Legislature amended the 1883 act to state clearly that "all American citizens male and female" could vote; and"

Senator Kuderer: "WHEREAS, In 1887 the voting rights that were extended to women in Washington Territory in 1883 were revoked by the Washington Territory Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, In 1888, the Territorial Legislature again enacted voting rights for women, but again it was overturned by the Territorial Supreme Court that same year; and"

Senator Lovelett: "WHEREAS, Washington women leaders such as Emma Smith DeVoe and May Arkwright Hutton and many others resurrected the local women's suffrage movement in the early 20th century and led Washington women to voting victory using the strategy of a calm and direct approach using campaigning posters, penny postcards and cookbooks in their campaigns; and"

Senator Short: "WHEREAS, On November 8, 1910, men voted in favor of women's suffrage 52,299 to 29,676, a nearly two-to-one margin, making Washington the first state in the 20th century and the fifth state in the Union to enfranchise women; and"

Senator Randall: "WHEREAS, This new Washington state constitutional provision, however, did not in itself authorize all women to vote, because two other factors blocked this right; (1) It authorized voting only for those who could read and speak English; and (2) many women, including immigrant Asians and Native Americans, were subject to other restrictive citizenship laws which denied the right to vote; and"

Senator Walsh: "WHEREAS, After women's suffrage was achieved in Washington in 1910, Washington women worked tirelessly to extend the woman's right to vote nationwide through astute political organizing, private persuasion, and mass action; and"

Senator Kuderer: "WHEREAS, Carrie Chapman Catt, who lived in Seattle and founded the Woman's Century Club there, was a leader in the national movement and met with President Woodrow Wilson to secure his support for suffrage in light of women's contributions during World War I; and"

Senator Saldaña: "WHEREAS, Washington's Emma Smith DeVoe founded the first national organization of voting women, the National Council of Women Voters, headquartered in Tacoma, which was the forerunner of the League of Women Voters; and"

THIRTY SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Warnick: "WHEREAS, In June 1919 Congress passed the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution and sent it to the state Legislatures for ratification, requiring thirty-six states to ratify it; and

WHEREAS, On March 22, 1920, the Washington State Legislature unanimously ratified the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution; and"

Senator Wilson, C.: "WHEREAS, On August 26, 1920, the last of the necessary thirty-six states ratified the 19th Amendment, thus enfranchising nearly half of the United States adult population; and

WHEREAS, The passionate, extended fight for women's suffrage, from the first women's rights convention in 1848 to national enfranchisement in 1920, lasted 72 years, with women from all walks of life, political views, and demographic backgrounds asking for the right to voice their opinions at the polls; and"

Senator Wilson, L.: "WHEREAS, Washington women by the thousands advocated for the right to vote—in parades, picketing, in newspapers, and in the state and federal capitols; and"

Senator Cleveland: "WHEREAS, Daughters, granddaughters, and great-granddaughters of the women who fought so hard to vote have been making their voices heard at the polls for over one hundred years in Washington state and nearly one hundred years nationwide; and

WHEREAS, Most of the women who worked for the right to vote did not live to see the success of enfranchisement of women; and"

Senator Wellman: "WHEREAS, In contemporary times, women are running for office in unprecedented numbers, with many current politicians, both male and female, keeping in mind that they follow in the footsteps of these great suffragists; and

WHEREAS, Many of the women and men who worked for Woman Suffrage in Washington Territory and then Washington state from 1854 to 1920 deserve recognition for their efforts and triumph;"

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate celebrate February 13, 2020, as the 100th Anniversary of the Washington State Legislature ratifying the 19th Amendment, and encourage accompanying celebrations throughout the state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate reaffirm its commitment to empowering and uplifting the voices of women across our great state.

Senator Becker spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8670.

The motion by Senator Becker carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President would like to, first of all, thank the senators, the women senators, who organized in so many ways to make this and other celebrations today possible. Including, thank you for the tie Senator Das. But, thank you for organizing the very special reading of the resolution."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Secretary of State Kim Wyman, former State Senator Karen Fraser, and Jenifer Kilmer, Director, Washington State Historical Society and her spouse, U.S. Congressman, and former State Senator, Derek Kilmer, who were seated in the gallery.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Darneille: "Thank you Mr. President. Standing before you today, actually accompanied by two of our other members holding the Suffragist flag [Senators Lovelett and Randall in the rear of the chamber], this is the United States version of the flag. The colors are symbolic and if I can read Mr. President from a journal called The Suffragist from 1913?"

President Habib: "Senator, please proceed."

Senator Darneille: "Thank you. In that article they describe the symbolism of these colors: 'Purple is the color of loyalty, constancy to purpose, unswerving steadfastness to a cause. White, the emblem of purity, symbolizes the quality of our purpose; and gold, the color of light and life, is as the torch that guides our purpose, pure and unswerving. Simplified, the tri-colors signified loyalty, purity, and life.' And, I have the flag here today. This is part of a little plan to commemorate forever this event today and that is that the women of the Legislature both in the Senate and the House will be signing this flag today and it will become the possession of the Washington State History Museum. Along with that, I wanted to have everyone involved in this event today. So all of you should have a business card with you. Your staff has probably provided one. And you're thinking, 'Why do I need a business card on the floor of the Senate?' We're asking you to write the name, on your business card, of the first woman in your family who would have been eligible to vote. So it might be, like me, it might be my grandmother. Henrietta Taylor Phillips from 410 Pioneer Avenue in Cashmere, Washington would be the first woman in my family that I'm going to put her name on my card. So, if all of you with think about it. Could be your mother, it could be, you know, if you are new to this country, it could be you that were the first woman in your family to vote. And so, if you would put that on there, we will collect all those cards again from all the members of the Legislature and we will, those will be with the flag in the purse and the permanent collection of the Washington State History Museum. So today we will start the signing. It will be down in the Rules Room, in the Lieutenant Governor's office until 10:30 for the women of this body and then it will move to Secretary of State Kim Wyman's office for the rest of the day. And so, the House members will go down to Secretary Wyman's office, and we will sign it down downstairs as soon as possible. Thank you so much for your indulgence Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Walsh: "I think we would be remiss in not noticing and acknowledging the fact that we've got very strong women up on the rostrum with you today Mr President. And, I must tell you, there was just a little flutter of warmth in my heart when I saw Victoria standing there with her little belly, holding that beautiful baby and me thinking, you know, talk about the wonderment of being a woman. There it is! And the other thing is, I'm so proud that you're both attorneys and you're in such high positions representing the Senate. And I just think that's wonderful. And you, yesterday, mentioned, Mr President, that we have a birthday on stage. And I was wondering if I could get my fellow folks here on the floor to help me in celebrating Jeannie Gorrell's birthday by singing Happy Birthday?"

The Senate rose and, led by Senator Walsh, performed a rendition of "Happy Birthday" in recognition of the anniversary of the birth of Ms. Jeannie Gorrell, Senate Counsel.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Well you all know the best gift that we could give Jeannie Gorrell today would be to end our, our business in a timely manner so that she could spend some time with her family because I know over the years there have been many occasions in which she has spent this birthday even working past midnight. So thank you for that Senator Walsh."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Das: "When Senator Wellman asked me to help secure the sashes for the women in the Senate I took I very seriously and my staff and I did a lot of research on the proper sashes and the appropriate colors and to make sure that every woman in the Senate and many of our staff would be wearing these beautiful sashes today and then I realized that I wanted the men who wanted to participate to also feel included and so we had this great idea to buy the men ties and I want to just thank Senator Liias for choosing the tie for all of you wonderful gentleman and I just want to say that sitting here standing here I guess today in the Senate chamber as a woman this is not meant to be here not only to vote but to vote on behalf of the state people of the state of Washington is such an honor. And such a true joy to do this work every day and I want to thank my colleagues Mr. President for their grace and their hard work and dedication and passion this job is so unusual people ask me what it's like on a daily basis and I just let them know that it's like no other job that I have the honor to be a part of this body and I just want you all to know and when Senator Darneille just asked a question about the right to vote I'll just share my story my family came here from India as you know when I was eight months old was six dollars and my father was the first to get his right to vote to become a citizen and when I was thirteen years old my mother went through the rigmarole of the testing and the studying and took that test and as a child back then I don't know if the rules have changed the laws are changed I was able to become a citizen at that moment when she did at age thirteen so to answer Senator Darneille's question if I may Mr. President I am the first woman in my family to vote along with my mother in the United States of America and today looking up at the gallery and seeing all the women and I see that Secretary Kim Wyman also has hers now um her sash I'm just really honored and I just want everyone to know how grateful I am to stand here and what a privilege and honor it is to serve and seeing everyone in their ties and sashes today has been just a true joy and I just thank everyone thank you Mr. President thank you."

Senator Wellman: “Yes, those of you who might be concerned with the case of the mysterious moving flag or would like to know perhaps that it is in the Secretary of State's office and will be there all day. So, should we get a chance to take a lunch break, it would be nice to have everybody sign it. Also to tell you that Senator Conway has put some exhibits of original memorabilia from the women's suffrage movement and you might want to take a look at it at the dais. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Conway: “Thank you for the reference. That was exactly what I was going to say. You know there's a quite a deal of memorabilia down there from the suffragette campaign to achieve the vote, including one of the very famous postcards called The Suffragette Madonna. You might want to look at that. That's a very interesting postcard. Suffragettes used postcards a

THIRTY SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

"Sec. 7. RCW 48.43.735 and 2017 c 219 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) For health plans issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2017, a health carrier shall reimburse a provider for a health care service provided to a covered person through telemedicine or store and forward technology if:

((a)) (i) The plan provides coverage of the health care service when provided in person by the provider;

((b)) (ii) The health care service is medically necessary;

((c)) (iii) The health care service is a service recognized as an essential health benefit under section 1302(b) of the federal patient protection and affordable care act in effect on January 1, 2015; and

((d)) (iv) The health care service is determined to be safely and effectively provided through telemedicine or store and forward technology according to generally accepted health care practices and standards, and the technology used to provide the health care service meets the standards required by state and federal laws governing the privacy and security of protected health information.

(b)(i) Except as provided in (b)(ii) of this subsection, for health plans issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2021, a health carrier shall reimburse a provider for a health care service provided to a covered person through telemedicine at the same rate as if the health care service was provided in person by the provider.

(ii) Hospitals, hospital systems, telemedicine companies, and provider groups consisting of eleven or more providers may elect to negotiate a reimbursement rate for telemedicine services that differs from the reimbursement rate for in-person services.

(iii) For purposes of this subsection (1)(b), the number of providers in a provider group refers to all providers within the group, regardless of a provider's location.

~~(2)((a) If the service is provided through store and forward technology there must be an associated office visit between the covered person and the referring health care provider. Nothing in this section prohibits the use of telemedicine for the associated office visit.~~

((b)) For purposes of this section, reimbursement of store and forward technology is available only for those covered services specified in the negotiated agreement between the health carrier and the health care provider.

(3) An originating site for a telemedicine health care service subject to subsection (1) of this section includes a:

- (a) Hospital;
- (b) Rural health clinic;
- (c) Federally qualified health center;
- (d) Physician's or other health care provider's office;
- (e) Community mental health center;
- (f) Skilled nursing facility;
- (g) Home or any location determined by the individual receiving the service; or
- (h) Renal dialysis center, except an independent renal dialysis center.

(4) Except for subsection (3)(g) of this section, any originating site under subsection (3) of this section may charge a facility fee for infrastructure and preparation of the patient. Reimbursement for a facility fee must be subject to a negotiated agreement between the originating site and the health carrier. A distant site or any other site not identified in subsection (3) of this section may not charge a facility fee.

(5) A health carrier may not distinguish between originating sites that are rural and urban in providing the coverage required in subsection (1) of this section.

(6) A health carrier may subject coverage of a telemedicine or store and forward technology health service under subsection (1) of this section to all terms and conditions of the plan in which the covered person is enrolled including, but not limited to, utilization review, prior authorization, deductible, copayment, or coinsurance requirements that are applicable to coverage of a comparable health care service provided in person.

(7) This section does not require a health carrier to reimburse:

(a) An originating site for professional fees;

(b) A provider for a health care service that is not a covered benefit under the plan; or

(c) An originating site or health care provider when the site or provider is not a contracted provider under the plan.

(8) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Distant site" means the site at which a physician or other licensed provider, delivering a professional service, is physically located at the time the service is provided through telemedicine;

(b) "Health care service" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005;

(c) "Hospital" means a facility licensed under chapter 70.41, 71.12, or 72.23 RCW;

(d) "Originating site" means the physical location of a patient receiving health care services through telemedicine;

(e) "Provider" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005;

(f) "Store and forward technology" means use of an asynchronous transmission of a covered person's medical information from an originating site to the health care provider at a distant site which results in medical diagnosis and management of the covered person, and does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, or email; and

(g) "Telemedicine" means the delivery of health care services through the use of interactive audio and video technology, permitting real-time communication between the patient at the originating site and the provider, for the purpose of diagnosis, consultation, or treatment. For purposes of this section only, "telemedicine" does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, or email.

Sec. 8. RCW 41.05.700 and 2018 c 260 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) A health plan offered to employees, school employees, and their covered dependents under this chapter issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2017, shall reimburse a provider for a health care service provided to a covered person through telemedicine or store and forward technology if:

((a)) (i) The plan provides coverage of the health care service when provided in person by the provider;

((b)) (ii) The health care service is medically necessary;

((c)) (iii) The health care service is a service recognized as an essential health benefit under section 1302(b) of the federal patient protection and affordable care act in effect on January 1, 2015; and

((d)) (iv) The health care service is determined to be safely and effectively provided through telemedicine or store and forward technology according to generally accepted health care practices and standards, and the technology used to provide the health care service meets the standards required by state and federal laws governing the privacy and security of protected health information.

(b)(i) Except as provided in (b)(ii) of this subsection, a health plan offered to employees, school employees, and their covered dependents under this chapter issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2021, shall reimburse a provider for a health care service provided to a covered person through telemedicine at the same rate as if the health care service was provided in person by the provider.

(ii) Hospitals, hospital systems, telemedicine companies, and provider groups consisting of eleven or more providers may elect to negotiate a reimbursement rate for telemedicine services that differs from the reimbursement rate for in-person services.

(iii) For purposes of this subsection (1)(b), the number of providers in a provider group refers to all providers within the group, regardless of a provider's location.

~~(2)((a) If the service is provided through store and forward technology there must be an associated office visit between the covered person and the referring health care provider. Nothing in this section prohibits the use of telemedicine for the associated office visit.~~

~~(b)) For purposes of this section, reimbursement of store and forward technology is available only for those covered services specified in the negotiated agreement between the health plan and health care provider.~~

(3) An originating site for a telemedicine health care service subject to subsection (1) of this section includes a:

- (a) Hospital;
- (b) Rural health clinic;
- (c) Federally qualified health center;
- (d) Physician's or other health care provider's office;
- (e) Community mental health center;
- (f) Skilled nursing facility;
- (g) Home or any location determined by the individual receiving the service; or
- (h) Renal dialysis center, except an independent renal dialysis center.

(4) Except for subsection (3)(g) of this section, any originating site under subsection (3) of this section may charge a facility fee for infrastructure and preparation of the patient. Reimbursement for a facility fee must be subject to a negotiated agreement between the originating site and the health plan. A distant site or any other site not identified in subsection (3) of this section may not charge a facility fee.

(5) The plan may not distinguish between originating sites that are rural and urban in providing the coverage required in subsection (1) of this section.

(6) The plan may subject coverage of a telemedicine or store and forward technology health service under subsection (1) of this section to all terms and conditions of the plan including, but not limited to, utilization review, prior authorization, deductible, copayment, or coinsurance requirements that are applicable to coverage of a comparable health care service provided in person.

(7) This section does not require the plan to reimburse:

- (a) An originating site for professional fees;
- (b) A provider for a health care service that is not a covered benefit under the plan; or
- (c) An originating site or health care provider when the site or provider is not a contracted provider under the plan.

(8) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Distant site" means the site at which a physician or other licensed provider, delivering a professional service, is physically located at the time the service is provided through telemedicine;

(b) "Health care service" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005;

(c) "Hospital" means a facility licensed under chapter 70.41, 71.12, or 72.23 RCW;

(d) "Originating site" means the physical location of a patient receiving health care services through telemedicine;

(e) "Provider" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005;

(f) "Store and forward technology" means use of an asynchronous transmission of a covered person's medical information from an originating site to the health care provider at a distant site which results in medical diagnosis and management of the covered person, and does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, or email; and

(g) "Telemedicine" means the delivery of health care services through the use of interactive audio and video technology, permitting real-time communication between the patient at the originating site and the provider, for the purpose of diagnosis, consultation, or treatment. For purposes of this section only, "telemedicine" does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, or email.

Sec. 9. RCW 74.09.325 and 2017 c 219 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) Upon initiation or renewal of a contract with the Washington state health care authority to administer a medicaid managed care plan, a managed health care system shall reimburse a provider for a health care service provided to a covered person through telemedicine or store and forward technology if:

~~((a))~~ (i) The medicaid managed care plan in which the covered person is enrolled provides coverage of the health care service when provided in person by the provider;

~~((b))~~ (ii) The health care service is medically necessary;

~~((c))~~ (iii) The health care service is a service recognized as an essential health benefit under section 1302(b) of the federal patient protection and affordable care act in effect on January 1, 2015; and

THIRTY SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

(4) Except for subsection (3)(g) of this section, any originating site under subsection (3) of this section may charge a facility fee for infrastructure and preparation of the patient. Reimbursement for a facility fee must be subject to a negotiated agreement between the originating site and the managed health care system. A distant site or any other site not identified in subsection (3) of this section may not charge a facility fee.

(5) A managed health care system may not distinguish between originating sites that are rural and urban in providing the coverage required in subsection (1) of this section.

(6) A managed health care system may subject coverage of a telemedicine or store and forward technology health service under subsection (1) of this section to all terms and conditions of the plan in which the covered person is enrolled including, but not limited to, utilization review, prior authorization, deductible, copayment, or coinsurance requirements that are applicable to coverage of a comparable health care service provided in person.

(7) This section does not require a managed health care system to reimburse:

- (a) An originating site for professional fees;
- (b) A provider for a health care service that is not a covered benefit under the plan; or
- (c) An originating site or health care provider when the site or provider is not a contracted provider under the plan.

(8) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Distant site" means the site at which a physician or other licensed provider, delivering a professional service, is physically located at the time the service is provided through telemedicine;

(b) "Health care service" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005;

(c) "Hospital" means a facility licensed under chapter 70.41, 71.12, or 72.23 RCW;

(d) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under this chapter and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis and that meets the requirements of section 1903(m)(1)(A) of Title XIX of the federal social security act or federal demonstration waivers granted under section 1115(a) of Title XI of the federal social security act;

(e) "Originating site" means the physical location of a patient receiving health care services through telemedicine;

(f) "Provider" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005;

(g) "Store and forward technology" means use of an asynchronous transmission of a covered person's medical information from an originating site to the health care provider at a distant site which results in medical diagnosis and management of the covered person, and does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, or email; and

(h) "Telemedicine" means the delivery of health care services through the use of interactive audio and video technology, permitting real-time communication between the patient at the originating site and the provider, for the purpose of diagnosis, consultation, or treatment. For purposes of this section only, "telemedicine" does not include the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile, or email.

(9) To measure the impact on access to care for underserved communities and costs to the state and the medicaid managed health care system for reimbursement of telemedicine services, the Washington state health care authority, using existing data and resources, shall provide a report to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature no later than December 31, 2018.

Sec. 10. RCW 28B.20.830 and 2018 c 256 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The collaborative for the advancement of telemedicine is created to enhance the understanding and use of health services provided through telemedicine and other similar models in Washington state. The collaborative shall be hosted by the University of Washington telehealth services and shall be comprised of one member from each of the two largest caucuses of the senate and the house of representatives, and representatives from the academic community, hospitals, clinics, and health care providers in primary care and specialty practices, carriers, and other interested parties.

(2) By July 1, 2016, the collaborative shall be convened. The collaborative shall develop recommendations on improving reimbursement and access to services, including originating site restrictions, provider to provider consultative models, and technologies and models of care not currently reimbursed; identify the existence of telemedicine best practices, guidelines, billing requirements, and fraud prevention developed by recognized medical and telemedicine organizations; and explore other priorities identified by members of the collaborative. After review of existing resources, the collaborative shall explore and make recommendations on whether to create a technical assistance center to support providers in implementing or expanding services delivered through telemedicine technologies.

(3) The collaborative must submit an initial progress report by December 1, 2016, with follow-up policy reports including recommendations by December 1, 2017, December 1, 2018, and December 1, 2021. The reports shall be shared with the relevant professional associations, governing boards or commissions, and the health care committees of the legislature.

(4) The collaborative shall study store and forward technology, with a focus on:

(a) Utilization;

(b) Whether store and forward technology should be paid for at parity with in-person services;

(c) The potential for store and forward technology to improve rural health outcomes in Washington state; and

(d) Ocular services.

(5) The meetings of the board shall be open public meetings, with meeting summaries available on a web page.

~~((5))~~ (6) The future of the collaborative shall be reviewed by the legislature with consideration of ongoing technical assistance needs and opportunities. The collaborative terminates December 31, 2021.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "I do want to point out, I do want to point out an irony, actually, and I feel it is appropriate to do this. Which is that the irony is that, right now, those who would be watching our deliberations, of this body, would not be able to receive closed captioning for the deliberations, of the deliberations of this body because of well-insufficient funding or TVW not providing closed captioning and that accommodation. So I do think it is appropriate for senators to be aware of that. That there's not real-time closed captioning available, and has not been for many years, of legislative gavel-to-gavel coverage. And I do feel that that is problematic and some legislators are working on it this year."

PART I

ACT NAME AND LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This act may be known and cited as the voting opportunities through education act or the VOTE act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that robust participation by young voters in Washington state elections is critical to ensuring lifelong civic engagement. Research has shown that voting is a habitual behavior and that people who vote in the first three elections when they are eligible will likely vote for life. However, this is also the period of time when they are likely to face unique barriers to participate in the democratic process, including regularly changing their address, becoming eligible shortly after an election, and exclusion from certain voter registration policies.

The legislature also finds that the period prior to election day is the most critical time to ensure ballot access for young voters. States with early voting have higher participation rates than states that do not and the use of early voting sites on college campuses helped produce record levels of participation for young voters in 2016 and 2018.

The legislature finds that students that have more opportunities to be registered and vote are more likely to participate. Limiting statutory voter registration opportunities on college campuses to days well in advance of election day is inconsistent with implementation of same-day voter registration. Making automatic voter registration unavailable to those registering for the first time denies young voters the same benefits as every other voter.

PART II

PERSONS ALLOWED TO VOTE IN PRIMARIES

Sec. 3. RCW 29A.08.210 and 2018 c 109 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

An applicant for voter registration shall complete an application providing the following information concerning his or her qualifications as a voter in this state:

- (1) The former address of the applicant if previously registered to vote;
- (2) The applicant's full name;
- (3) The applicant's date of birth;
- (4) The address of the applicant's residence for voting purposes;
- (5) The mailing address of the applicant if that address is not the same as the address in subsection (4) of this section;
- (6) The sex of the applicant;
- (7) The applicant's Washington state driver's license number, Washington state identification card number, or the last four digits of the applicant's social security number if he or she does not have a Washington state driver's license or Washington state identification card;
- (8) A check box allowing the applicant to indicate that he or she is a member of the armed forces, national guard, or reserves, or that he or she is an overseas voter;
- (9) A check box allowing the applicant to acknowledge that he or she is at least ~~((eighteen))~~ sixteen years old ~~((or is at least sixteen years old and will vote only after he or she reaches the age of eighteen))~~;
- (10) Clear and conspicuous language, designed to draw the applicant's attention, stating that ~~((the))~~;
- (a) The applicant must be a United States citizen in order to register to vote; and
- (b) The applicant may register to vote if the applicant is at least sixteen years old and may vote if the applicant will be at least eighteen years old by the next general election, or is at least eighteen years old for special elections;
- (11) A check box and declaration confirming that the applicant is a citizen of the United States;
- (12) The following warning:

"If you knowingly provide false information on this voter registration form or knowingly make a false declaration about your qualifications for voter registration you will have committed a class C felony that is punishable by imprisonment for up to five years, a fine of up to ten thousand dollars, or both."
- (13) The oath required by RCW 29A.08.230 and a space for the applicant's signature; and
- (14) Any other information that the secretary of state determines is necessary to establish the identity of the applicant and prevent duplicate or fraudulent voter registrations.

This information shall be recorded on a single registration form to be prescribed by the secretary of state.

THIRTY SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Sec. 4. RCW 29A.08.230 and 2013 c 11 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

For all voter registrations, the registrant shall sign the following oath:

"I declare that the facts on this voter registration form are true. I am a citizen of the United States, I will have lived at this address in Washington for at least thirty days immediately before the next election at which I vote, I ~~((will be))~~ am at least ~~((eighteen))~~ sixteen years old ~~((when I vote))~~, I am not disqualified from voting due to a court order, and I am not under department of corrections supervision for a Washington felony conviction."

Sec. 5. RCW 29A.08.330 and 2019 c 391 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of state shall prescribe the method of voter registration for each designated agency. The agency shall use either the state voter registration by mail form with a separate declaration form for the applicant to indicate that he or she declines to register at this time, or the agency may use a separate form approved for use by the secretary of state.

(2) The person providing service at the agency shall offer voter registration services to every client whenever he or she applies for service or assistance and with each renewal, recertification, or change of address. The person providing service shall give the applicant the same level of assistance with the voter registration application as is offered to fill out the agency's forms and documents, including information about age and citizenship requirements for voter registration.

(3) The person providing service at the agency shall determine if the prospective applicant wants to register to vote or update his or her voter registration by asking the following question:

"Do you want to register or sign up to vote or update your voter registration?"

If the applicant chooses to register, sign up, or update a registration, the service agent shall ask the following:

(a) "Are you a United States citizen?"

(b) "Are you at least ~~((eighteen))~~ sixteen years old ~~((or are you at least sixteen years old and will you vote only after you turn eighteen))~~?"

If the applicant answers in the affirmative to both questions, the agent shall then provide the applicant with a voter registration form and instructions and shall record that the applicant has requested to sign up to vote, register to vote, or update a voter registration. If the applicant answers in the negative to either question, the agent shall not provide the applicant with a voter registration application.

(4) If an agency uses a computerized application process, it may, in consultation with the secretary of state, develop methods to capture simultaneously the information required for voter registration during a person's computerized application process.

(5) Each designated agency shall transmit the applications to the secretary of state or appropriate county auditor within three business days and must be received by the election official by the required voter registration deadline.

(6) Information that is otherwise disclosable under this chapter cannot be disclosed on the future voter until the person reaches eighteen years of age, except for the purpose of processing and delivering ballots.

Sec. 6. RCW 29A.08.810 and 2011 c 10 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Registration of a person as a voter is presumptive evidence of his or her right to vote. A challenge to the person's right to vote must be based on personal knowledge of one of the following:

(a) The challenged voter has been convicted of a felony and the voter's civil rights have not been restored;

(b) The challenged voter has been judicially declared ineligible to vote due to mental incompetency;

(c) The challenged voter does not live at the residential address provided, in which case the challenger must either:

(i) Provide the challenged voter's actual residence on the challenge form; or

(ii) Submit evidence that he or she exercised due diligence to verify that the challenged voter does not reside at the address provided and to attempt to contact the challenged voter to learn the challenged voter's actual residence, including that the challenger personally:

(A) Sent a letter with return service requested to the challenged voter's residential address provided, and to the challenged voter's mailing address, if provided;

(B) Visited the residential address provided and contacted persons at the address to determine whether the voter resides at the address and, if not, obtained and submitted with the challenge form a signed affidavit subject to the penalties of perjury from a person who owns or manages property, resides, or is employed at the address provided, that to his or her personal knowledge the challenged voter does not reside at the address as provided on the voter registration;

(C) Searched local telephone directories, including online directories, to determine whether the voter maintains a telephone listing at any address in the county;

(D) Searched county auditor property records to determine whether the challenged voter owns any property in the county; and

(E) Searched the statewide voter registration database to determine if the voter is registered at any other address in the state;

(d) The challenged voter will not be eighteen years of age by the next general election; or

(e) The challenged voter is not a citizen of the United States.

(2) A person's right to vote may be challenged by another registered voter or the county prosecuting attorney.

(3) The challenger must file a signed affidavit subject to the penalties of perjury swearing that, to his or her personal knowledge and belief, having exercised due diligence to personally verify the evidence presented, the challenged voter either is not qualified to vote or does not reside at the address given on his or her voter registration record based on one of the reasons allowed in subsection (1) of this section. The challenger must provide the factual basis for the challenge, including any information required by subsection (1)(c) of this section, in the signed affidavit. The challenge may not be based on unsupported allegations or allegations by anonymous third parties. All documents pertaining to the challenge are public records.

(4) Challenges based on a felony conviction under RCW 29A.08.520 must be heard according to RCW 29A.08.520 and rules adopted by the secretary of state.

PART III

AUTOMATIC VOTER SIGN-UP TO REGISTER

Sec. 7. RCW 29A.08.355 and 2018 c 110 s 102 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of licensing ~~((shall implement an automatic voter registration system so that))~~ must allow a person age eighteen years or older ~~((who))~~ to be registered to vote or update voter registration information by automated process at the time of registration, renewal, or change of address if:

(a) The person meets requirements for voter registration ~~((and));~~

(b) The person has received or is renewing an enhanced driver's license or identocard issued under RCW 46.20.202 or is changing the address for an existing enhanced driver's license or identocard pursuant to RCW 46.20.205 (~~may be registered to vote or update voter registration information at the time of registration, renewal, or change of address, by automated process if the~~); and

(c) The department of licensing record associated with the applicant contains ((the));

(i) The data required to determine whether the applicant meets requirements for voter registration under RCW 29A.08.010(~~;~~ other));

(ii) Other information as required by the secretary of state(~~and includes a~~); and

(iii) A signature image.

(2) The department of licensing must allow a person sixteen or seventeen years of age to be signed up to register to vote by automated process at the time of registration, renewal, or change of address if:

(a) The person meets requirements to sign up to register to vote;

(b) The person has received or is renewing an enhanced driver's license or identicard issued under RCW 46.20.202 or is changing the address for an existing enhanced driver's license or identicard pursuant to RCW 46.20.205; and

(c) The department of licensing record associated with the applicant contains:

(i) The data required to determine whether the applicant meets the requirements for voter registration under RCW 29A.08.210, other than age;

(ii) Other information as required by the secretary of state; and

(iii) A signature image.

(3) The person must be informed that his or her record will be used for voter registration and offered an opportunity to decline to register.

Sec. 8. RCW 46.20.155 and 2018 c 109 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before issuing an original license or identicard or renewing a license or identicard under this chapter, the licensing agent shall determine if the applicant wants to register to vote or update his or her voter registration by asking the following question:

"Do you want to register or sign up to vote or update your voter registration?"

If the applicant chooses to register, sign up, or update a registration, the agent shall ask the following:

(1) "Are you a United States citizen?"

(2) "Are you at least (~~eighteen~~) sixteen years old (~~or are you at least sixteen years old and will you vote only after you turn eighteen~~)?"

If the applicant answers in the affirmative to both questions, the agent shall then submit the registration, sign up form, or update. If the applicant answers in the negative to either question, the agent shall not submit an application. Information that is otherwise disclosable under chapter 29A.08 RCW cannot be disclosed on the future voter until the person reaches eighteen years of age, except for the purpose of processing and delivering ballots.

(2) The department shall establish a procedure that substantially meets the requirements of subsection (1) of this section when permitting an applicant to renew a license or identicard by mail or by electronic commerce.

Sec. 9. RCW 28A.230.094 and 2018 c 127 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) Beginning with or before the 2020-21 school year, each school district that operates a high school must provide a mandatory one-half credit stand-alone course in civics for each high school student. Except as provided by (c) of this subsection, civics content and instruction embedded in other social studies courses do not satisfy the requirements of this subsection.

(b) Credit awarded to students who complete the civics course must be applied to course credit requirements in social studies that are required for high school graduation.

(c) Civics content and instruction required by this section may be embedded in social studies courses that offer students the opportunity to earn both high school and postsecondary credit.

(2) The content of the civics course must include, but is not limited to:

(a) Federal, state, tribal, and local government organization and procedures;

(b) Rights and responsibilities of citizens addressed in the Washington state and United States Constitutions;

(c) Current issues addressed at each level of government;

(d) Electoral issues, including elections, ballot measures, initiatives, and referenda;

(e) The study and completion of the civics component of the federally administered naturalization test required of persons seeking to become naturalized United States citizens; and

(f) The importance in a free society of living the basic values and character traits specified in RCW 28A.150.211.

(3) By September 1, 2020, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, in collaboration with the Washington state association of county auditors and a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization engaged in voter outreach and increasing voter participation, shall identify and make available civics materials and resources for use in courses under this section. The materials and resources must be posted on the office of the superintendent of public instruction's web site.

PART IV

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT HUBS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 29A.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each state university, regional university, and The Evergreen State College as defined in RCW 28B.10.016 and each higher education campus as defined in RCW 28B.45.012 shall open a student engagement hub on its campus. The statement must be placed in a prominent position, such as on the cover or on the first two pages of the voters' pamphlet. The secretary of state may substitute such language as is necessary for accuracy and clarity and consistent with the intent of this section;

(5) Contact information for major political parties;

(6) A brief statement explaining the deletion and addition of language for proposed measures under RCW 29A.32.080; ~~((and))~~

(7) A list of all student engagement hubs as designated under section 10 of this act; and

(8) Any additional information pertaining to elections as may be required by law or in the judgment of the secretary of state is deemed informative to the voters.

Sec. 12. RCW 29A.32.241 and 2016 c 83 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The local voters' pamphlet shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) Appearing on the cover, the words "official local voters' pamphlet," the name of the jurisdiction producing the pamphlet, and the date of the election or primary;

(b) A list of jurisdictions that have measures or candidates in the pamphlet;

(c) Information on how a person may register to vote and obtain a ballot;

(d) The text of each measure accompanied by an explanatory statement prepared by the prosecuting attorney for any county measure or by the attorney for the jurisdiction submitting the measure if other than a county measure. All explanatory statements for city, town, or district measures not approved by the attorney for the jurisdiction submitting the measure shall be reviewed and approved by the county prosecuting attorney or city attorney, when applicable, before inclusion in the pamphlet;

(e) The arguments for and against each measure submitted by committees selected pursuant to RCW 29A.32.280; ~~((and))~~

(f) A list of all student engagement hubs in the county as designated under section 10 of this act; and

(g) For partisan primary elections, information on how to vote the applicable ballot format and an explanation that minor political party candidates and independent candidates will appear only on the general election ballot.

(2) The county auditor's name may not appear in the local voters' pamphlet in his or her official capacity if the county auditor is a candidate for office during the same year. His or her name may only be included as part of the information normally included for candidates.

PART VI
HARMONIZING PROVISIONS

Sec. 13. RCW 29A.04.061 and 2003 c 111 s 111 are each amended to read as follows:

"Elector" means any person who possesses all of the qualifications to vote under Article VI of the state Constitution, including persons who are seventeen years of age at the primary election or presidential primary election but who will be eighteen years of age by the general election.

Sec. 14. RCW 29A.08.110 and 2019 c 391 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For persons registering under RCW 29A.08.120, 29A.08.123, 29A.08.170, 29A.08.330, 29A.08.340, 29A.08.362, and 29A.08.365, an application is considered complete only if it contains the information required by RCW 29A.08.010. The applicant is considered to be registered to vote as of ~~((the))~~;

(a) The original date of receipt~~((or when))~~;

(b) When the person will be at least eighteen years old by the next election; or

(c) When the person will be at least seventeen years old by the next primary election or presidential primary election and eighteen years old by the general election, whichever is applicable.

(2) As soon as practicable, the auditor shall record the appropriate precinct identification, taxing district identification, and date of registration on the voter's record in the state voter registration list. The secretary of state shall, pursuant to RCW 29A.04.611, establish procedures to enable new or updated voter registrations to be recorded on an expedited basis. Any mailing address provided shall be used only for mail delivery purposes, and not for precinct assignment or residency purposes. Within sixty days after the receipt of an application or transfer, the auditor shall send to the applicant, by first-class nonforwardable mail, an acknowledgment notice identifying the registrant's precinct and containing such other information as may be required by the secretary of state. The postal service shall be instructed not to forward a voter registration card to any other address and to return to the auditor any card which is not deliverable.

~~((2))~~ (3) If an application is not complete, the auditor shall promptly mail a verification notice to the applicant. The verification notice shall require the applicant to provide the missing information. If the applicant provides the required information within forty-five days, the applicant shall be registered to vote as of the original date of application. The applicant shall not be placed on the official list of registered voters until the application is complete.

~~((3))~~ (4) Once a future voter is no longer in pending status, as described in RCW 29A.08.615, his or her application to sign up to register to vote is no longer pending and is subject to this section.

Sec. 15. RCW 29A.08.170 and 2018 c 109 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person may sign up to register to vote if he or she is sixteen or seventeen years of age, as part of the future voter program.

(2) A person who signs up to register to vote may not vote until reaching eighteen years of age ~~((and his or her name))~~ unless the person is seventeen years of age at the primary election or presidential primary election and will be eighteen years of age by the general election. A person who signs up to register to vote may not be added to the statewide voter registration database list of voters until such time as he or she will be ~~((eighteen years of age by))~~ eligible to vote in the next election.

Sec. 16. RCW 29A.08.172 and 2018 c 109 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person who has attained sixteen years of age may sign up to register to vote, as part of the future voter program, by submitting a voter registration application by mail.

(2) The applicant must attest to the truth of the information provided on the application by affirmatively accepting the information as true.

(3) If signing up to register by mail, the person must provide a signature for voter registration purposes.

(4) The applicant must affirmatively acknowledge that he or she will not vote in a special or general election until his or her eighteenth birthday.

Sec. 17. RCW 29A.08.174 and 2018 c 109 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person who has attained sixteen years of age and has a valid Washington state driver's license or identicard may sign up to register to vote as part of the future voter program, by submitting a voter registration application electronically on the secretary of state's web site.

(2) The applicant must attest to the truth of the information provided on the application by affirmatively accepting the information as true.

(3) If signing up to register electronically, the applicant must affirmatively assent to the use of his or her driver's license or identicard signature for voter registration purposes.

(4) The applicant must affirmatively acknowledge that he or she will not vote in a special or general election until his or her eighteenth birthday, and will only vote in a primary election or presidential primary election if he or she will be eighteen years of age by the general election.

(5) For each electronic registration application, the secretary of state must obtain a digital copy of the applicant's driver's license or identicard signature from the department of licensing.

(6) The secretary of state may employ additional security measures to ensure the accuracy and integrity of voter preregistration applications submitted electronically.

Sec. 18. RCW 29A.08.359 and 2019 c 391 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) For persons age eighteen years and older registering under RCW 29A.08.355(1), an application is considered complete only if it contains the information required by RCW 29A.08.010 and other information as required by the secretary of state. The applicant is considered to be registered to vote as of the original date of issuance or renewal or date of change of address of an enhanced driver's license or identicard issued under RCW 46.20.202 or change of address for an existing enhanced driver's license or identicard pursuant to RCW 46.20.205.

(b) For persons sixteen or seventeen years of age registering under RCW 29A.08.355(2), an application is considered complete only if it contains the information required by RCW 29A.08.010 and other information as required by the secretary of state. The applicant is considered to be registered to vote as of the date set forth in RCW 29A.08.110(1).

(c) The information must be transmitted in an expedited manner and must be received by an election official by the required voter registration deadline. The auditor shall record the appropriate precinct identification, taxing district identification, and date of registration on the voter's record in the state voter registration list. Any mailing address provided shall be used only for mail delivery purposes, and not for precinct assignment or residency purposes. Within sixty days after the receipt of an application or transfer, the auditor shall send to the applicant, by first-class nonforwardable mail, an acknowledgment notice identifying the registrant's precinct and containing such other information as may be required by the secretary of state. The United States postal service shall be instructed not to forward a voter registration card to any other address and to return to the auditor any card which is not deliverable.

~~((b))~~ (d) An auditor may use other means to communicate with potential and registered voters such as, but not limited to, email, phone, or text messaging. The alternate form of communication must not be in lieu of the first-class mail requirements. The auditor shall act in compliance with all voter notification processes established in federal law.

(2) If an application is not complete, the auditor shall promptly mail a verification notice to the applicant. The verification notice must require the applicant to provide the missing information. If the applicant provides the required information within forty-five days, the applicant must be registered to vote. The applicant must not be placed on the official list of registered voters until the application is complete.

(3) If the prospective registration applicant declines to register to vote or the information provided by the department of licensing does not indicate citizenship, the information must not be included on the list of registered voters.

(4) The department of licensing is prohibited from sharing data files used by the secretary of state to certify voters registered through the automated process outlined in RCW 29A.08.355 with any federal agency, or state agency other than the secretary of state. Personal information supplied for the purposes of obtaining a driver's license or identicard is exempt from public inspection pursuant to RCW 42.56.230.

Sec. 19. RCW 29A.80.041 and 2009 c 106 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member of a major political party who is a registered voter in the precinct and who will be at least eighteen years old by the date of the precinct committee officer election may file his or her declaration of candidacy as prescribed under RCW 29A.24.031 with the county auditor for the office of precinct committee officer of his or her party in that precinct. When elected at the primary, the precinct committee officer shall serve so long as the committee officer remains an eligible voter in that precinct.

Sec. 20. RCW 29A.84.140 and 2018 c 109 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who knows that he or she does not possess the legal qualifications of a voter and who registers to vote is guilty of a class C felony. This section does not apply to persons age sixteen or seventeen signing up to register to vote as authorized under RCW 29A.08.170 or 29A.08.355(2).

Sec. 21. RCW 46.20.156 and 2018 c 110 s 105 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons eighteen years of age or older who meet requirements for voter registration and persons sixteen or seventeen years of age who meet requirements to sign up to register to vote, who have been issued or are renewing an enhanced driver's license or identicard under RCW 46.20.202 or applying for a change of address for an existing enhanced driver's license or identicard pursuant to RCW 46.20.205, and have not declined to register to vote, the department shall produce and transmit to the secretary of state the following information from the records of each individual: The name, address, date of birth, gender of the applicant, the driver's license number, signature image, and the date on which the application was submitted. The department and the secretary of state shall process information as an automated application on a daily basis.

PART VII OTHER PROVISIONS

Sec. 22. RCW 29A.08.140 and 2019 c 391 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
